

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2331 - 2334

Chapter 2331

whirlpool moved, and the world of darkness also whirled along with it.

Countless black air radiated from the mountain and river Sheji map and spread to the side, but it still kept the direction of the whirlpool moving slowly.

Georgedao, who had been repelled, also moved invisibly at this time, attracted by the vortex, slowly flying towards the mountain and river Sheji map bit by bit.

Devour!

The vortex of the Shanhe Sheji Tu was obviously devouring and absorbing George. Obviously, George should try his best to break free at this time. Otherwise, once the Shanhe Sheji Tu was absorbed, the consequences would be disastrous.

However, George, who should be like this, did not move at all. Instead, he did the opposite. Not only did he not resist, he closed his eyes simultaneously and entered a state of meditation.

The golden light and evil spirits on his body are also rapidly weakening...

“Damn, is this kid crazy? What is he doing?”

“Shanheshajitu is indeed a treasure of innateness, what a peculiar style, really special. That’s so strong. George can’t stand it after just a few face-to-face encounters. However, George is really crazy. It doesn’t matter if he can’t beat him or not, so he can put down all his precautions?”

“What if this is the case? Being sucked in, isn’t life and death under the control of Lu Wushen?”

“Hehe, you idiots, just because Shanhe Sheji’s pictures are awesome, and Lu Wushen is also awesome, so George gave up resisting. Isn’t it possible? , When you guys meet such a perverted opponent, you think you can run?”

“Rather than running away and wasting energy, it is better to be obedient and catch it. Although the result is death, at least one death is more comfortable. Besides, if this is the case, At least there is a point of dignity.”

With George being so trapped by Shanhe Sheji Tu, at this time, the wind reviews on the ground are also undergoing rapid changes.

Winners and losers are so realistic. When you are brilliant, everyone is complimenting you and complimenting you, but once you are lonely, most people will not pity you and sympathize with you, but will fall into trouble, taking the opportunity to trample on you crazily and trample you.

This is how things are in the world, ruthless but treated equally.

Ye Gucheng clenched his fists and fled in a panic. He was disheveled at this moment, very embarrassed, but those eyes that looked at George in the air were full of heat.

Just like him, Wang Wanzhi frowned and looked nervous, silently cheering for Lu Wushen in his heart.

“Bah!” On the other side of the ground, Ao Shane got up from the ground in pain, spit out the blood from his mouth, looked into the air, but was angry and anxious.

It is natural that he was overturned by George in the ditch. Although he was thrown off by George from mid-air, obviously, this pain is nothing but pediatrics for True God, although it hurts. But not serious.

Anxiously, Lu Wushen had already controlled George at this time.

If Lu Wushen defeated George, and he was thrown into the sky by George, the reputation of the Blue Mountain would inevitably be shaken in the future, and the immortal sea area would naturally lose its reputation.

“fcuk, Lu Wushen, wouldn't you let this kid cooperate with you in a scene?” Ao Shane almost gritted his teeth and drank coldly.

But with anger and anger, there is no other way but to pray that the kid George will suddenly perform and break away from Lu Wushen's mountain and river shrine.

After all, it is impossible for him to help George in front of so many people, right? Even if he shamelessly went to help, that George broke free of the mountains and rivers and Jitu still could not let people deny the power of Lu Wushen.

But this prayer is really just a prayer. As George completely put down his precautions, and when he got closer and closer to the picture of Shanhe Sheji, Ao Shane knew better than anyone that George's loss was a foregone conclusion.

Both are true gods, and no one knows the power of the mountain and river shrine map in Lu Wushen's hands better than Ao Shane. Although this old guy is not particularly proficient in the mountain and river shrine map, but because the mountain and river shrine map is powerful, it is enough.

“Brother George, after concentrating, please gather all your energy on your chest.”

“Chest? Shouldn't it be Dantian?” George asked strangely.

The energy concentration is generally concentrated in the pubic area, and the words in the chest are unheard of and unseen.

“Please do as I said.”

Nodding, George’s consciousness moved, gathering all the energy in his chest.

“Now, take back the Pangu axe, and then use your heart to feel its position in your body.”

George did the same, retracting the Pangu axe, and as soon as he took back the Pangu axe, the sound of pity underground could not help but rang out. , Ao Shane hit the ground with a punch, and was depressed home.

“Have you sensed it?”

“He is at the center of my eyebrows in my mind.” George replied honestly.

“Try to move it to your chest, in the same position as your energy. Then, there is a formula, you need to recite it with me.”

George nodded, and as Xiaotao said, he slowly lowered the position of Pan Gu Axe. The strange thing is that Pan Gu Axe seems to be moving from the center of the eyebrows to George’s body continuously with his own energy.

And as George followed Xiaotao to reciting strange spells, at this time, George’s chest suddenly lit up with a faint blue light!

Chapter 2332

“Dao evolves, airs the eight wastes, with my blood, breaks the universe, with my ambition, awakens you. The order of the gods to fight, thousands of things will become one.” In Xiaotao’s voice, George uttered the last paragraph after reciting an extremely weird spell.

And following this passage, the extremely faint light on George’s chest, at this time, slowly burst out a stronger light.

It was a cloud of blue light, and after it became brighter, the blue light became more vigorous.

It’s just that this group of blue light doesn’t taste any breath of life, but you can feel an ancient breath emanating from it.

It was as if an ancient thing had awakened...

“That’s...” On the ground, someone noticed the strangeness on George's chest at this time, and couldn't help shouting in surprise.

"Have you seen the blue light on that guy's chest? Although the blue light is not big, but... but I can feel the huge power that is faintly exploding in the blue light." Someone exclaimed.

But there are also many people who disdain this group of blue light, in their eyes, it is nothing more than a pile of garbage. Even if they reluctantly think that it is a bit strong, they at best think that those are just George's primordial spirits and the like.

After all, they already thought that George was now a turtle in the urn, and everything he did was just a dying struggle.

Seeing this blue light, Ao Shane saw hope from the despair of defending the Buddha, and struggling to get up from the ground, his eyes fixed on George, and his brows frowned: "This breath... so ancient. , It's so weird, it seems...it doesn't seem to be George's. Then...so, what else is there in that guy?"

"Such a weird breath, it's almost unheard of, unseen, this..."

Ao Shane Shane could not help but took a few steps forward subconsciously, muttering to the blue light and fascinated.

Ao Shane is like this, the nearest Lu Wushen is not so, even though George is only releasing a blue light and there is no other substantive resistance or attack, the smell of the blue light makes him dumbfounded. Very confused.

ancient!

Unusually ancient atmosphere.

He can be sure that he has never seen this kind of breath, but he is very familiar with it, and feels like deja vu.

"What the hell is this?" Lu Wushen murmured and shook his head, puzzled for a moment.

At this time, on George, Xiao Tao's voice sounded again.

"Do you feel anything?"

George nodded in consciousness, and said: "I feel there seems to be a strange force on my chest. It is huge. Although it is small in size, there are countless amounts of energy contained in it. About to move, it seems... as if it is about to explode at any time."

"That's the power of Pan Gu Axe, Brother Three Thousand." Xiao Tao laughed softly.

“The power of the Pangu Axe? But, didn’t you say that the sleeping Pangu Axe must be awakened by the power of Pangu? I don’t have any Pangu power at all, how can it...” George was surprised Frowned, really feeling incredible.

“Brother Three Thousand, after the Great God Pangu opened the sky and smashed the earth, his true essence was exhausted. At the end of his life, he did something unknown. He knew that the Pangu axe was so powerful that once it fell into the wrong hands. , That would be a disaster for this world. Therefore, before he left, he put Pangu axe on his chest to protect it.”

“After the great god Pangu went, his body turned into the mountains and rivers of the world, and Pangu axe naturally After the Pangu clan was born, in accordance with Pangu’s will, he assumed the responsibility of guarding the Pangu axe and also guarded the secret of Pangu axe.”

After listening to Xiaotao’s explanation, George suddenly Seems to understand something: “You mean...”

“Pangu axe will always be inherited by others, but not everyone can become a Pangu god. Therefore, the secret of Pangu axe is how to unlock Pangu axe.”

“Huh?”

“Brother George, don’t worry, this half of the secret, I don’t know whether it is God’s will or your luck, it just happens to be the way to unlock the seal of Pan Gu Axe. The other half, maybe, is the usage of Pan Gu axe.” Xiao Tao said softly.

usage?

George was taken aback for a moment, just an axe, what else could he use?

Could it be that Pangu’s great god left behind some of the techniques of Pangu axe?

However, a great god like him shouldn’t be practicing any exercises, right? Just a big wave of the hand, simple and rude.

After all, in the face of absolute strength, aren’t all cultivation techniques and mental techniques all gimmicky and useless?

“If you don’t have the next half, won’t it affect anything? I mean, for example, it’s crazy or something?” George couldn’t help but wonder.

“The usage of Pangu axe should be a deeper mystery. I don’t know this. Don’t talk about it. Now that you feel the existence of Pangu axe, then try to make your heart and Pangu axe merge into one. , As long as you can blend together, you can become one, and it can truly display its strength.”

“Also, Brother George, come on! You have to take good care of your body, you know? If you used to be unhappy, just forget it.” As soon as the voice fell, George frowned, Xiaotao seemed to say goodbye very ordinary, but George always felt that her tone was full of sadness, as if it was As if saying goodbye to myself.

“Are you still angry about me and your cousin?” George frowned.

“Brother George, things are over, haven’t they?”

“Don’t say it, I said it, before, it doesn’t matter anyhow, because we won’t live in the past, we live in the present and The future. So, cherish the present and embrace the future, okay?” Xiaotao interrupted George and smiled softly.

“Xiaotao, what’s the matter with you?” George asked coldly.

“Brother George, Xiaotao is fine.”

“Do you think I am a fool?” George said coldly, and then he let out a sigh and said, “No matter how you hate me, I will always treat you As a good friend, if you have something, how can I calm down and merge with Pangu Axe body?” “Brother Three Thousand, don’t mess up my mind, I...” Before she finished, Xiao Tao was sobbing slightly at this moment. Despite her efforts to suppress it, for a person like George, how could these small voices be inaudible.

“Xiaotao, where are you now? Are you... dead, right?”

Chapter 2333

George was heartbroken and asked this seemingly incredible question.

Immediately afterwards, George waited very hard for her answer.

Even though this question is very strange and abrupt, to be honest, it is the most likely existence in George’s mind.

Xiao Tao’s words may not be a big deal to others, but for George, he really knows Xiao Tao too much.

Although she looks gentle and gentle on the surface, she has a stubborn and strong side in her temperament.

There was silence for a long time, and Xiao Tao's voice never rang again.

"Brother George, be careful!"

Suddenly, at this moment, Xiao Tao's voice suddenly became anxious, and when George took a look, he suddenly felt bad.

fcuk, because of the distraction, George didn't notice at all. At this time, his body had been firmly sucked by the black vortex that was transformed by the mountain and river Sheji map.

But at this time, it was already close at hand, and it was obviously too late to struggle.

"Boom!"

With a muffled sound, all of Han's three thousand and eighty figures were sucked into the vortex, and there was no time to even face each other, and everything returned to calm.

"What!" On the ground, there are still some people who support George, and besides them, even those who have fallen to the ground again can't help but exclaim.

After all, George had been fighting for so long, and he was still alive and powerful, and he could still fight Ao Shane's ruthless character. Even if he didn't resist, he was sucked in, which inevitably made people sigh and shocked for a while.

"Lu Wushen is so powerful. George, who is equal to Ao Shidou, can't even hold a single face under Lu Wushen. Oh my god, is the gap between the true gods so big??"
Someone asked incredulously.

"Nonsense, Ao Zhenshen is obviously careless, and George is not as weak as you think. The reason why he does not resist is not how strong Lu Wushen is, but because Ao Zhenshen has consumed him in advance. , This allows some people to reap the benefits of the fisherman." Someone who was close to the immortal sea immediately retorted with a guilty conscience.

"Hehe, I'm afraid that you don't even believe you when you say this? Facts speak louder than words. One was thrown out by George, and the other George had no way of resisting it. Everything has been decided. a. " " but, to be honest, though, and it was three thousand Korean rein, but it must be admitted, Han three thousand or some skill, and we regard him as a worthy role model scattered people, we can repair him to that extent, It's also a feat in life."

After shocking many people, they talked about the Blue Mountain Peak and Lu Wushen.

Those who succeed are all kings, and those who fail, even if they don't become bandits, it's best to become a chatter for others.

This is the case for George, and he does not know whether he is happy or sad!

“True God Lu, the strongest in the world!”

“True God Lu, always arrogant and invincible!” At this moment, the Lu family's children, under Lu Yongsheng's signal, seized this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and led them to shout loudly.

The power of the Blue Mountains, don't let go at this time, when will you wait? !

In comparison, the two brothers of the Ao family looked at each other and embarrassed each other.

The morale of the immortal seas also languished at the same time.

It was the Medicine God Pavilion that was supposed to be the same, but many people grew a mouthful of air, and smiles on their faces as if the sky had cleared after rain.

“Damn it!” Ao Shane threw a fist, extremely depressed.

I thought that cyan light would have any miracle, but the facts only proved that I was thinking too much.

Above the air, Lu Wushen also let out a sigh of relief. With a movement of his hand, a magical energy directly took back the black energy scattered outside.

If that azure light is Ao Shane's last expectation, then for Lu Wushen, it is the last worry.

Fortunately, everything is unpredictable.

At this time, George, who had been sucked into the mountain and river by the vortex, was in a chaotic darkness.

With his body suspended in the air, with a slight momentum flowing, George felt that he was turning to the center in the same trajectory as the vortex.

“Xiao Tao?”

George tried to yell out with his thoughts, but obviously, no one would respond to him in the picture of the mountains and rivers.

“This damn place.” George glanced around, the endless darkness.

“I'm going out!” George opened his eyes and looked straight around.

“This kind of ghost place, I believe it’s impossible to rely on ordinary power alone, brother, it’s up to you.” George finished speaking and patted his chest.

In the world of the innate treasure, once you enter, it is absolutely impossible to get out by ordinary force.

Pan Gu Axe, a more domineering innate treasure, is his only possibility.

“Dao evolves and walks, aerodynamics and eight wastes, with my blood, breaks the universe, with my ambition, awakens you. The battle of the gods, thousands of units!” As George said lightly, his chest was blue. The light reappeared, followed by concentration, induction, and let the heart meet that power!

Chapter 2334

Throw away all distractions!

Feel quietly, blend quietly!

Hum!

Suddenly, George felt an incomparably powerful energy suddenly centered on the heart, instantly hitting his body.

From outside of George’s body, a ray of glaucoma rushing through his body was also visible to the naked eye. After that, glaucoma entered his body, and nothing seemed to happen again.

However, only George, who was the person involved, understood.

After this blue light, it was different, everything was different.

He just felt that his body suddenly became extremely powerful, and his hands were itchy and unbearable.

“Pangu Axe, is that you?” George asked himself.

Immediately afterwards, he slowly clenched his left fist, and suddenly let it go!

Green light suddenly blasted from his fist, passed through the dark void, and went straight down until finally disappeared!

On the other hand, Lu Wushen, who was outside, was just taking away the black energy in the outermost periphery of the mountain and river Sheji map, planning to collect the mountain and river Sheji map as big as a waterfall for hours.

At this moment, there was a sudden explosion in the picture!

Then I fixed my eyes and saw that a certain corner of the mountain and river Sheji map was abruptly blasted by something like a crack of eighteen petals. Between the cracks, there were faint bursts of blue.

Lu Wushen frowned suddenly, not knowing what was going on in the mountain and river shrine.

Above the ground, those who were chattering, depressed, or shouting cheering, or downcast, at this time all were attracted by the explosion in the mountains and rivers in the sky, and they all raised their heads. hope.

Ao Shane also suddenly raised his head nervously, staring at the sky closely.

“What happened?”

“Shanhe Sheji Tuli exploded. Could it be that George resisted inside?”

When everyone thought of this, they looked into the sky with scorching eyes.

Seeing everyone looking at this place, Lu Wushen couldn't make it through, regardless of his face or whatever. He pressed his hands together, and suddenly a god could directly take pictures of the mountains and rivers, and shouted coldly: “George, you give I'll be honest, otherwise, I will want you to be stunned at any time.”

As Lu Wushen's palm was able to enter, George in the picture of Shanhe Sheji suddenly felt the pressure from the sky and rushed directly from the top to the bottom.

He subconsciously stretched out his right hand to block!

Hum!

Above his right hand, an axe suddenly appeared in his hand. As soon as the coercion touched the axe, it suddenly turned into a few wisps of smoke, and after a while, it disappeared into nothing!

“Pangu Axe!”

George looked at the Pan Gu axe in his hand with great surprise.

Even if he owns this guy, he doesn't know how old he is, and he doesn't know how many battles he has fought while carrying this guy, but until this moment, George can be regarded as seeing the real face of this guy.

The axe forged by black and red iron is wrapped in patterns like auspicious clouds, like fire and phoenix, like a blue dragon, like a beast. It not only has a hint of auspicious breath, but also exudes a kind of thick dominance. On top of the axe handle, the golden axe inlaid is no longer the previous golden axe. On the contrary, it has a black surface and a white blade, and there are several large and small gaps on the blade.

But it was these gaps that made the entire axe seem not only showing no signs of being broken, but also revealing all kinds of overbearing and ferocity. These gaps are all telling how many dead souls were under the axe.

As if sensing the surprise shout of George, the blue light flashed on the Pangu axe like a streamer, and then disappeared.

“You are in me, and you are in me. From now on, you will be me and I will be you.” Seeing its response, George was also overjoyed.

Immediately afterwards, he suddenly released the energy in his body, and his body was also swirling in the vortex, slowly standing up.

“Pangu God once opened the world with you and shocked the world. Today, you and I are combined. Although I am not as mighty as Pangu God, I will not let your glorious past be ashamed!”

George’s eyes were torch, and then he shouted loudly: “Today, with an axe, set him in the world!”

Break! !

George held an axe in both hands, raised the axe, and led the world!

boom!

As the giant axe slowly slashed down, the entire dark space was constantly shaking!

And the same is the picture of the mountains and rivers in front of Lu Wushen that resembles a waterfall, shaking crazily at this time, with the emptiness in mid-air, and the ground below the mid-air, trembling all together.

“This...what’s wrong with this?” On the ground, facing the sudden shaking of the mountain, a group of people panicked, but each of them never left the mountain and river shrine map, because everyone knew it. Everything nowadays is the movement made by Shanhe Sheji Tu.

“This is...” Ao Shane, who was completely disappointed and depressed to the extreme, looked at him quickly and felt the huge pressure in the air. He even closed his breath.

“What’s this?” Lu Wushen naturally felt the huge energy coming from the mountain and river shrine map. After a short pause, he hurriedly tried to inject another divine energy into it.

boom! ! !

But at this moment, a huge light suddenly rushed out of the mountain and river Sheji map.

The heaven and the earth suddenly lost all their colors, and the body of the true god Lu Wushen was directly swept away for hundreds of meters. The heaven and the earth were peaceful and completely shrouded in blue light!
