

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2461 - 2463

Chapter 2461

Boom! ! !

The huge electric column burst out with amazing energy.

The valley, the heaven and the earth, fell into whiteness in an instant!

The small five-element god stone hovered in the air, in sharp contrast with the huge electric pillar!

boom!

Like a galloping ocean current, the huge beam of light rushed straight into the Five Elements God Stone.

The little stone was suddenly lit by the white electric light, tight and like a greedy child, madly sucking the huge electric pillar into his body!

Nourish! ! Nourish! ! !

Around the electric pillar, the strange electricity is still like a snake, spreading towards the surroundings, flashing out, and the scene is extremely cruel and extremely magnificent in an instant!

“What happened?” The middle-aged monk stared blankly, and he took a step back with a little panic.

But, who can answer his questions? !

They are as confused as Buzi, a middle-aged monk!

brush!

Suddenly, as the last ray of electric pillar was sucked into the stone, everything began to be extremely peaceful again between heaven and earth.

Everything is a normal rainy night.

“The stone just now...” the middle-aged monk said blankly, still looking at the sky above the dark valley.

“Yeah, why did that stone suddenly...”

“What kind of stone is that stone, it’s a small one, but...”

“What’s the matter with all those electricity? Shouldn’t it be us? The thunder and lightning caused by the soul curse, right?”

A group of people guessed that they were unintentional, but the listeners were intentional, especially when they heard the last sentence, Mingyu and the old monk stared wide-eyed!

what! ?

From the thunder and lightning in the soul curse?

The thunder and lightning in the soul curse is used to hit George’s body to extract the key thing of his soul. How could it be used by others? !

In other words, if the thunder and lightning were not used to hit George, but absorbed by this stone, then...then George underneath! !

“Master, there won’t be any problems, right?” Mingyu’s heart was tense and couldn’t help but quickly ask.

The old monk did not speak. In theory, a thunder could not strike, but the problem was not particularly serious.

After all, it takes a few days for soul refining, and the amount of thunder and lightning caused by it is tens of thousands, and one natural problem is not big.

But after all, it was George, and this sudden stone was so incredible that it had to make people worry about whether there would be any problems in the end.

But after thinking about it, the old monk decided to calm people’s hearts, but he was just about to speak.

Suddenly, the electric light of the stone hanging in the air shook greatly, and it burst open in an instant, and an invisible wind suddenly spurted in all directions.

The surrounding air was like being hit by a big mountain, immediately swaying away, countless vegetation crooked, countless monks were forced to retreat, even the entire valley around, can not help but suddenly prevent the Buddha from being hugged and shaken by the giant!

“Da*n, what the hell?!” With luck, the middle-aged monk stabilized his figure and looked at the silver-bright stone that had been wrapped by electricity because it was re-lit.

“boom!”

At this moment, the entire rock suddenly emitted a huge water column crashing into the valley.

“Roar!”

Facing the huge water column with a diameter of several meters, the Buddha Wei Tianlong who stepped on George in the valley gave a long roar. With a tight and energy move, the huge dragon body suddenly rose into the air, directly. Avoid the attack of the water column.

As it flashed, George’s almost indescribable remnant was lying straight on the ground, almost maintaining the same position as the water column rushing down from above. Boom!

The huge water column instantly hit George on the ground without any suspense!

The difference between the small body and the water column a few meters in diameter is too small. When the water column goes down, no one can see any body, but all of them are submerged in the raging water.

“It’s miserable.” Seeing this scene, the middle-aged monk couldn’t help but pretend to cover his face with a hand.

“The soul is drawn by the thunder and lightning whip, but also by the huge water that does not know where. Do you know what this is?” Another monk also laughed.

Several monks shook their heads.

“Isn’t that the sticks that our back kitchen uses to burn fire? If it’s charred, you can’t use it up. Put it in the water!”

“Hahahaha!”

“You mean, George is the hapless burning.” Chai sticks.”

A bunch of monks roared with laughter.

“Shut up!” On the side, Ming Yu couldn’t listen anymore. Whether it was good or bad is now completely inconclusive, and these monks look like dogs with brilliance.

“How do you know that this water is for George instead of helping him?” Ming Yu scolded coldly.

This remark came out, and several monks were taken aback, but in the next second, many people began to refuse.

“Anyone with a discerning eye can see the tremendous power of this water column, even the Buddha-Wei Tianlong has avoided it, do we need to say more?! If you can be a conscientious benefactor if you are too careful, then I think... this position It's not too surprising!"

"Isn't it? Those who say good things are here to help us, and those who say bad things, I am afraid they are here to pick the bones."

"You don't understand it. If something happens, people act cautiously, and the responsibility is not on others. If you don't listen to me, you can perfectly throw the pot away. Otherwise, people who participate in the war and commanders, You can also get a lot of credit. What is this called, this is called the way of promotion." There is no such thing as a monk's resignation to a group of monks, whether they are not strong or not, facing the rain, there is only endless ridicule and disdain.

Ming Yu's face was green. If it weren't for the old monk to stare at his disciples coldly at this time, Ming Yu would have to throw all these ba5tards under the cliff with a few circles of water on the spot.

However, even so, several monks were still very dissatisfied, taking advantage of the old monk's turning around, breaking his mouth, staring at Mingyu disdainfully, apparently still whispering.

Ming Yu took care of them lazily, and stared at the valley with the old monk.

Obviously, Mingyu does understand George, and her caution is by no means excessive, even at a certain level, she guessed it correctly.

Although it seemed from the periphery, George was attacked by a huge water column at this time, it was extremely miserable!

But only George, who is in the center of the water column, knows where he is miserable?

It's moisturizing!

Almost the same as the last time facing the water god halberd and being flooded by thousands of water, when the water column covered George, several kinds of water circles began to wrap him, nourish him, and repair him!

At this time, George, like a beached giant whale, was brought back to the sea again by the wind and waves. With the help of this water energy, he greedily supplemented his dying body.

"Guru..."

"Guru..." In the turbulent water column, someone curled up there like a baby...

Chapter 2462

Water is as if you have found your own child, and they don't hesitate to replenish the guy's nutrition!

Even though the outside is raging like a tiger, the water inside is a warm mother!

"Papa!"

George suddenly moved his hands in the water circle.

"Patter!" The

foot moved too!

Immediately afterwards, this guy moved his hands and feet, and his body stretched out slightly!

The dust, mud, and even the scars formed by the wounds were slowly falling off.

Only a moment later, the skin of George's body was as smooth as a baby, and the clothes on his body were as clean as they were washed.

Slowly, George opened his eyes, and at the same time there was a wicked smile hanging from the corner of his mouth.

He succeeded!

Use the Five Elements God Stone to forcibly absorb all the shocking electricity in the sky, and then use the Five Elements Conversion of the Five Elements God Stone to transform these electric energy to treat George.

The only difficulty here is to let the Five Elements God Stone come out.

George chose to use the spirit of the dragon to resist the shocking shock when Qianjun's first shot. Later, while his soul was brought out by other electricity, George summoned the Five Elements God Stone with his mind.

The five-element sacred stone itself has its own energy, and it also automatically comes out to protect the lord at many critical moments. And George's call out of this thought, it came out with great expectations.

In this small bet, if you lose, the two souls will be beaten at the same time, and if you win, you can provide George with a chance to breathe.

Obviously, George made a right bet.

At an important juncture of life and death, I found a glimmer of light!

However, George did not dare to neglect.

Physical damage can be remedied, but internal injuries need to be healed by himself. At the same time, soul and spiritual wounds also need him to rely on himself.

Slightly lifted his own chaotic energy, although the healing effect of the stone absorbed by the Five Elements Divine Stone was a drop in the bucket for today's George, it was enough to support George to move.

With the movement of the Qi of Chaos, the injuries in George's body began to recover quickly under the repair of the Qi of Chaos.

"It really is the ancestor of ten thousand qi, it is really awesome." Feeling the powerful effect of the chaotic qi in the body, even the calm George couldn't help but yell excitedly at this time.

The wounds of those internal organs that were very badly damaged are like the potion of the gods when they encounter the Qi of Chaos and the anti-buddha. As soon as the breath is swept away, the injuries are completely restored, and even renewed.

Even his damaged spirit, with the improvement of his injuries and the flood of Chaos Qi in his body, it slightly improved.

"The ancestor of ten thousand qi can break ten thousand qi, and can also transform ten thousand qi, so no matter offensive and defensive, chaotic qi is the strongest existence, it is necessary to make such a fuss!"

Almost at this time, a familiar voice sounded in George's mind.

"Devil dragon, are you okay?"

"Of course people can't bear the giant electric thunder twice, but how can I say that I used to be the devil dragon dominating one side! Do you really think I am a joke?"

"Don't worry, I can't die if your chaotic air nourishes Lao Tzu." The Soul of the Devil Dragon smiled softly.

George cracked his mouth and chuckled, raised his right hand, and said with a smile: "I have forgotten my brothers." As soon as the voice fell, George suddenly hit the energy directly into his arm!

Almost at the same time, the red-eyed green pythons on the left and right arms and Xiao Bai's marks were instantly re-lit.

"This thing is really easy to use." George smiled lightly.

“What’s the point?” George asked a little bit confused by his words, so he didn’t know why.

“I said your two wonderful pets!” The Soul of the Devil Dragon smiled.

“Oh?” The

magic dragon smiled and stopped talking, which made George’s curiosity more intense. However, he didn’t say, George didn’t have the time to ask carefully at this time. Gu continued to heal his injuries.

“I have a stronger one, called Linlong, from the same clan as you. However, the Night Demon asked him to help my brothers before he came, and he didn’t bring it.”

“I know it naturally.” The soul of the dragon should One sentence: “However, compared with these two...”

Half of the words, the Soul of the Devil Dragon found that George left that sentence and closed his eyes and settled and recovered his body. He smiled bitterly and shook his head without disturbing him , I also closed my eyes slightly, and entered into concentration.

At this time, the repaired George, how did he know that he accidentally missed an extremely important message!

“Da*n, Master, what is this stone made of? It has been several minutes, and the bursting water will not stop.” On the top of the cliff, the middle-aged monk looked at the stone silently.

The old monk is obviously also dumbfounded, you ask Lao Tzu, who will Lao Tzu ask? !

Seeing that the old monk did not speak, the middle-aged monk said again: “Will the soul curse continue?” The old monk frowned and said, “Naturally continue, not to mention a water column, even if the entire sea is moved over and refined. You must not listen to George’s affairs.”

“Yes, Master, I will inform everyone, wait a minute, and give George a fierce!” The middle-aged monk said with a smile.

But just when he turned around to give orders, the water stopped.

Chapter 2463

As the water stopped, the darkness of night resumed in the valley.

Ding!

In no time, the sound of the stone falling to the ground can be heard from the bottom of the valley, faintly echoing!

“The water...the water stopped, fast, fast, set up, set up!” With the middle-aged monk roared.

In the next second, the monks chanted the curse, and the clouds rolled in the sky again, and the lightning rushed into the sky!

Above the ground, because of the shocking electricity, there was finally light, although it was also bright and dark with electricity.

but!

In the light below this moment, all the monks discovered a terrifying scene.

In the faint valley, there was no lying corpse of George, but an incomparable figure, sitting there slowly, with his legs crossed and his hands slightly placed, like a Taoist statue.

Unfortunately, the brightness was fleeting, and before everyone could see clearly, the darkness returned to the valley.

Boom! ! !

There was another muffled thunder, and the sky and the earth lit up again.

“What’s that?!”

“That’s!!!”

“That’s!!!”

This time, everyone’s eyes widened, and all of them could see clearly!

There was a person sitting there peacefully.

Besides George, who else is in the valley? !

“But... but that guy shouldn’t have been beaten by the shock and Fowei Tianlong long ago, just like a dead dog? How could he...”

Everyone’s eyes were almost astonished and fell to the ground, and some people were even pale in shock, like white-faced ghosts in the dark night.

He should be dead. Why, why is this happening? !

“Get out of the way!” Ming Yu pushed the middle-aged monk away in front of him, and came to the edge of the cliff in a hurry, and the whole person looked down the valley.

George, that guy is indeed George!

“This...” The old monk was also full of horror, and the whole person was completely shocked and speechless.

“What are you doing here and that? Trash, I’ve told you a long time ago, Georgejue is very human, don’t take it lightly!” Ming Yu scolded angrily.

“What are you still doing in a daze? Let him recover, and then wait for death together?” Ming Yu continued angrily.

With her scolding, a group of people suddenly recovered. Under the panicked command of the old monk, everyone returned to their positions, chanting a strange curse, and the soul curse was reopened again.

It’s just that these monks are now far from the pride or calmness they had just now, all of them have cold sweats on their faces and foreheads. Many people are even more tolerant of the panic in their hearts, opening their mouths with difficulty!

Even though I was reading, the voice was like a mosquito, trembling constantly, obviously it was the extreme guilty conscience.

As these monks speed up their chanting, the roar of thunder in the sky becomes more turbulent, and those shocking lightning are like tigers trapped in prison, ready to break the shackles at any time!

“Master, all right.” Seeing the thunder and lightning gathered, the middle-aged monk finally felt somewhat calm in panic.

“Okay, don’t wait for others, and attack immediately.” As soon as the voice fell, the old monk’s chess pieces in his hands, waved and dropped.

One hundred and seven chess pieces from the surrounding area followed suit.

boom! ! !

With a muffled sound, the shocking electricity drew down! ! !

The entire sky was instantly white in the shock!

The group of old monks breathed a sigh of relief, and they found out in time. Now the soul curse has been activated again and can suppress this guy in the shortest possible time.

The other monks also looked at each other and smiled helplessly!

It will always be sunny after rain, and this guy really makes a cold sweat!

But sometimes, what happened is what happened, and fear also brings more fear, just like now, when everyone is amazed that the thunderbolt can bring hope again, it brings even more despair. !

The world suddenly became clear, and the bottom of the valley was naturally clearly visible.

But at this moment, under this valley, where is the figure of George sitting?

It's just a piece of poor land, very empty!

“What?!”

Where is George?” “I was sitting there just now.”

“Where did he go?”

The electricity did not arrive, but the people were no longer seen, and a huge anxiety instantly imbedded in everyone's hearts.

All of this illustrates an extremely serious problem!

That guy George didn't die, even... he even had the ability to act!

“Papa!”

At the same time, thunder fell to the ground, and the ground of the entire valley was turbulent, mixed with water, and stared like a huge power grid.

But so what?

What if George is not there, no matter how strong he is? !

Everyone looked pale under the white light!

As the final energy of the electric light is exhausted, everything is restored to tranquility.

The heavy rain is still majestic, and the night is still shrouded!

It's just that there is one thing, but it obviously changes at this moment!

George!

Everyone looked dumbfounded, looking for him in the dark in a panic!

Maybe he was hiding somewhere in the dark, maybe, he would suddenly appear in some bushes around him!

Thinking of this, everyone is in danger.

“Don’t look for it, I’m here!”

Suddenly, a soft drink came!
