

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2521 - 2523

Chapter 2521

group of people stared at each other as they watched Du Yisheng walk towards George Han.

Fu Mang is already dead, even if the King of Medicine comes slowly, he can come back to life, but there are prerequisites for this.

If a person wants to meet this condition, one thing that must be possessed very much is that the person cannot die for too long.

But Fu Mang's current situation was that although his death was not long, it was definitely not short.

Adding up before and after, there are as many as a few hours, and the more terrifying death of Fu Mang is different from the ordinary death. He died completely because of the loss of his body and excessive blood loss.

In other words, this kind of death is basically irreversible death.

Even if there is a fairy named Da Luo, what about it?!

Unless he can have the super golden body of George Han and all kinds of strange places.

But the problem is that even George Han himself saves himself at the moment of death every time, or is saved by others. It is by no means as serious as Fu Mang for such a long time.

"This...this is all bones, there are few pieces of meat, what else can I save?" Some people suddenly said helplessly. For them, since the deceased is already dead, then he should be allowed to get it. Rest in peace, all other actions nowadays are nothing more than tossing about the dead.

What's more, this person is still the old man Du Yisheng.

Although this old man looks like a fairy-like character and is quite righteous, his perverse behavior just now makes people deeply aware of the kind of bastard that the old man hides under his skin.

Let this kind of people go to save Fu Mang, it is not clear that this is an opportunity to mess up, or even public revenge!

"It's clear to retaliate against us intentionally."

“Although the leader is capable and smart, he has feelings for Fu Mang’s leadership, so for a while, he was used by people with ulterior motives.”

“Yeah, yeah.”

Many disciples whispered privately, but it is not just that. They, even Fu Mang and Dao Twelve were extremely puzzled and puzzled by George Han’s decision.

It’s a fact that Fu Mang is dead, not to mention Du’s life, even if Wang Shuzhi came, it would be a fool.

But they also knew that the death of Fu Mang had caused great sorrow to everyone, and George Han was naturally unhappy in his heart. The act of treating a dead horse as a living horse doctor was somewhat understandable.

In addition, George Han already has something to say, who would dare to violate it again?!

On the other end, Du Shengzheng had come to Fu Mang’s side very seriously and quickly at this time. After taking his pulse in his hand, he frowned and frowned. After that, he quickly inspected Fu Mang’s corpse.

Even people who lived two thousand years old, even if they ate more salt than most people ate rice, still couldn’t help but inhaled a few breaths of air-conditioning when they saw the miserable scene of Fu Mang at this time.

It’s too heavy.

It is said that it was eaten by wolves in the wild for several days and no one would object to it.

Thinking of this, he turned around slightly, looked at George Han next to him, and shook his head apologetically: “He was hurt so badly. Almost all of his body was scared and there was no flesh, except for the white bones.”

“Lack of flesh means severance, and it also means that other body structures are completely out of supply and protection. Even the god of Daluo is powerless.” Hearing Du Shengsheng’s words, George Han’s eyes flashed with anger, but Soon, his anger disappeared in an instant, and he looked sadly and affectionately at Fu Mang who had returned to the west, but he couldn’t let go of it for a long time. “You fucking bitch, are you playing with us?”

“I said long ago that you avenged your personal revenge, blatantly, insulting our commander, I fought with you.”

“Brothers beat him.” “

Almost at this time, many people in the Mysterious Alliance stood up angrily, one by one, they were about to rush towards Du Yisheng.

Du Yisheng saw a group of menacing people. If it had been before, he would have been rude to them, but after knowing the identity of George Han, he did not dare to resist, but subconsciously covered his head with his hands.

“Enough!”

Just when a group of people surrounded Du Shengzheng to vent the anger in his heart, George Han suddenly yelled.

All the people present were shocked and froze stupidly.

“Can you save people? It’s all about saving people. What are you doing? When I died?” George Han angered coldly.

A group of disciples stared at each other for a while, and all of them lowered their heads and did not dare to speak. Sword Twelve endured for a long time, and said, “We just don’t want to be humiliated by others.”

“People come to save people. This attitude? I think if Fu Mang is not dead, your face will be completely lost, right?” George Han cursed, and then, calmed down, looked at Du Shengsheng: “Okay, I will bother you.

” Bai Xiaosheng, see off the guests.” After George Han finished speaking, he suddenly remembered something: “If anyone dares to trouble Diane Palace privately, please follow the rules of the gang.”

“Yes!”

Jianghu Baixiaosheng said a little bit. Head, politely came to Du Yisheng’s side and made a gesture of asking.

George Han turned his head and looked at Fu Mang sadly.

Fu Mang’s situation can be judged by a normal person, and George Han is naturally clearer.

If there is a rescue, George Han will always sit here gloomy, even if all his energy is exhausted, he will never hesitate to save people.

But the problem is that Fu Mang, who is as white as a bone, with only the flesh and head left, has no chance to give him. He is dead, completely dead!

Du Shengsheng and George Han knew from the mouths of Zhong Beihai and Chen Shimin what so-called Tianji Palace they came from, so dead horses were treated as living horse doctors.

It is a good thing if there is a secret method, even if it doesn't work, George Han will never have any dissatisfaction.

“Why are you in such a hurry to see off the guests? I'm afraid that after eating your meal, you still drank your wine.” Du Shengsheng glanced at the Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng who was posing for the invitation and suddenly laughed.

The disciples suddenly became even angrier, but George Han frowned and glared at everyone. After that, he set his sights on Du Shengsheng: “Dao Master, what do you mean by this?”

“Has Shaoxia

Han ever heard of Shuangtian Supreme?” George Han frowned and shook his head.

“Saving the souls of the dead one day, suppressing the evil, and rebelling against the bones one day, and attracting the remnants!” Speaking of this, the old white beard's face regained his previous self-confidence: “So, it is also called Shuangtian Supreme!”

“I” ...I rely on!” Suddenly, almost at the same time, Bai Xiaosheng, who was on the side, opened his mouth in horror, as if suddenly remembering something.

Seeing the two look like this, George Han's brow furrowed deeper...

Chapter 2522

seeing Jianghu Baixiaosheng so surprised, at this time, the joy and confidence on the face of the old white beard became more obvious.

“Shuangtian supreme, one day is Tianyin Temple, Buddha's sound is Pudu, ten thousand souls are peaceful, one day is Tianji Palace, resurrected from the dead, and the bones are transformed into jade. Therefore, standing in two heavens, the supreme among the people.” He slapped his head and raised it to George Han at this time.

“It's just that Tianyin Temple is a monk who is very low-key and pays attention to everything. It is very low-key. It is not known to the world. The Tianji Palace is even more incognito, living in the mountains for a long time. Gradually disappeared in the fall of the years. Therefore, in the past few hundred years, the matter of Shuangtian Supreme has almost been forgotten.”

“Are you from the Tianji Palace?” The restaurant and Chen Shimin and others At the time of the conflict, the Jianghu Baixiaosheng, and others hadn't come yet, and they didn't know what happened. Naturally, they didn't know that these people were from the Tianji Palace.

Although many people at the scene had seen the original events in the restaurant, they only knew that they were members of the Tianji Palace, but they did not know the old things of the Tianji Palace hundreds of years ago.

I just know that this sect is very arrogant in the surrounding area recently, and there are many masters...

Now when the Jianghu Baixiaosheng said these causes and consequences, a group of people was suddenly dumbfounded. ,

Only George Han flashed a faint light in his eyes at this time: "Resurrected from the dead, the bones turned into jade, so to speak..."

"George Han, Fu Mang may be really saved!" Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng nodded, with a look on his face Slightly happy, he hurriedly replied.

Hearing this, George Han was overjoyed, and hurriedly looked at the somewhat proud Du Shengsheng, and said: "Dao Master, can you really save my brother? If you can, just ask what you want, George Han will never Say half a word."

"Yes, if you can save us and help the leader, we will definitely not be stingy at any price." The other disciples also hurriedly said at this time.

Seeing this situation, the faces of the disciples of the Tianji Palace were the same as Du Yisheng's, with proud smiles raised.

After all, it was their martial art that gave them a long face.

Du Yisheng smiled with satisfaction and shook his head: "If saving people is to return, then it is not a disciple of our Tianji Palace."

"I heard that there is a god in Tianji Palace called Phoenix Golden Feather! Just save this gold. Feather covers a person's body, even if it is just a bone, it can re-grow the jade-like tender flesh and bring it back to life." Jianghu Baixiaosheng laughed.

"Phoenix Golden Feather?" George Han asked suspiciously.

"The so-called phoenix golden feather refers to the golden feathers that a special phoenix grows. The phoenix can live in nirvana, and the golden feather is the essence of the phoenix. It can naturally bring people back to life." At this time, Zhong Beihai As he walked over, he explained with a soft smile. Among the phoenixes, the male is a phoenix. The king of the phoenix can produce a golden feather, and the female is a phoenix. Naturally, the king of the phoenix can also produce a golden feather.

The two golden feathers of the phoenix are combined into one, one calls the soul and the two complexes. Therefore, under the two feathers, the bones can be like jade, and the dead can be resurrected.

"There are still such strange things in the world?" Mo Yang shook his head straight and couldn't help but sigh.

George Han frowned slightly and stood up at this moment, then his knees sank slightly, and he was about to kneel on one knee: "George Han asks the chief for help, and Darren will naturally remember it forever today." These words, George Han is extremely pious. The golden hair of Wanfeng and the King of Wanhuang is naturally unique and can be called the best thing. If you want people to save your brother with this kind of thing, George Han also understands how much it is difficult.

However, just as soon as he was about to kneel, Du Shengsheng directly took George Han's arm, making him unable to kneel: "Why should Han Shaoxia be like this? It is my Tianji Palace's responsibility to save people and the world, not to mention Han Shaoxia's. Brother, even if it is the life of an ordinary person, if we meet by chance, we will never die without saving, but..." At this point, Du Yisheng sighed helplessly and turned his head away.

"Just what?" George Han felt a cold heart and suddenly said nervously.

"Phoenix Jinyu...not in my hands." After thinking about it, Du Yisheng shook his head sadly.

As soon as these words came out, the disciples of the Tianji Palace also collectively lowered their heads, one by one feeling sad.

"Not in your hands, you are the head of Tianji Palace..." George Han frowned.

"This is also the root cause of my Tianji Palace's re-emergence in the past several hundred years." Du Shengsheng smiled bitterly: "It is precise because the Phoenix Golden Feather was lost that we went down the mountain to find it, and we met you here."

"Lost?" George Han's newly ignited hope instantly seemed to be poured into a basin of water, but his confidence was not overwhelmed: "Is it found back, and Fu Mang will be saved?"

Du Yisheng nodded: "There is Phoenix Golden Feather, it is naturally fine."

"Then have you found anything?" George Han hurriedly looked at everyone.

"I found it, but..." Zhong Beihai nodded, but as soon as his voice fell, he looked at George Han and stopped talking...

Chapter 2523

"If you have something to say, let's just say it." George Han said in a soft voice.

“I can’t get it back.” Du Yishang sighed and motioned to Zhong Beihai to stop talking.

As soon as Du Yisheng’s words came out, Zhong Beihai could only shut up!

But this horrified George Han, staring at Du Yisheng with a pair of eyes!

“Is there any difficulty you are saying, aren’t we here? We can’t, don’t we still have George Han?” Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng said anxiously.

“Brother, they are right. Phoenix Jinyu will not only be used to save people, but also my secret treasure, which will be brought back anyway. Now that there is Daxia Han here, what are you worried about?” Zhong Beihai couldn’t help but Persuade.

Du Yisheng was silent for a moment: “It’s too dangerous, Beihai, how can you be so selfish?”

“It’s not false to save people, but it is the responsibility of my generation to get back the Phoenix Golden Feather, but you want another person to pay, which may be life. The price, Beihai, Beihai, you are confused!” Du Yisheng said in pain.

“If it can save my brother’s life, even if it is the price of life, what’s the harm?” George Han said coldly at this time, with a firm attitude that people would not allow the slightest rebuttal.

Du Yisheng even had the illusion of hesitation that if he refused him again, he would probably beat himself to death here without mercy.

“Well, since Han Shaoxia has said everything here, then I’m not welcome. We traced the whereabouts of Phoenix Jinyu all the way to this neighborhood. After that, we chased the person we were looking for, and we also knew that Phoenix Jinyu The place Yu may be currently located. But... there may be death or life in that place!” At this point, Du Shengzheng looked at George Han very seriously.

“What is this place?”

“Forbidden for the dead, the city of burning bones!”

“Bone Burning City?” Hearing this name, George Han’s brows were suddenly locked, and the whole person fell into contemplation for a while.

Seeing George Han’s reaction in this way, Du Shengsheng and others were not surprised at all. On the contrary, for them, it was too normal.

Because when they first inquired about this place, they were similar to George Han’s reaction and even more worried.

The forbidden area of the undead is full of soldiers of the demon, and the city of burning bones is the old lair of the demon. No one knows what vicious masters or fierce demon kings are hidden in it because humans have reached the forbidden area of the undead, It is impossible to have the opportunity to walk into the core city of burning bones.

Just a bunch of small soldiers from various tribes and sect halls can already make anyone intimidated and pay the price of their lives! Therefore, George Han's reaction was reflected in Du Yisheng's expectation, but they were not qualified to laugh at George Han, because even themselves, they heard that Phoenix Jinyu fell in the city of burning bones. At that time, he also directly gave up the opportunity to retrieve the holy relic of the door.

"The Bone Burning City is the central city of the demons. The water is extremely deep, so I just stopped Beihai from speaking out." Du Yisheng said softly.

"No!" Suddenly, at this time, George Han shook his head slightly: "I didn't say no, but why do you think it was it again?"

Speaking of this, George Han even showed a sneer at the corners of his mouth.

Xiaotao would appear there inexplicably, and Master Guiyuanzi also let herself go there. From what he said at the beginning, it seemed rather anxious, because he had better go before saving Amelia Su.

After that, the demon monk who appeared inexplicably and the mysterious man in the lead was still the city of burning bones.

What is the secret of this place? It's an enemy, it's a friend, and they all mentioned this place.

Today, even Phoenix Golden Feather is the city of burning bones.

"It seems that I really have to go to this place." George Han suddenly loosened his eyebrows, showing a soft sneer, and glanced at Mo Yang and others.

Mo Yang and Dao Twelve naturally understood the words Gui Yuanzi said in the void and nodded one by one.

But Jianghu Baisheng hurriedly walked to George Han's side at this time: "George Han, you must never go to that place. Although the demons have been oppressed, they have existed for many years and will not be destroyed. Naturally, there is his reason. And the city of Burning Bone is the core of this reason. I don't doubt your strength, but in fact, even if you are a true god, you would never have the courage to go in and out there."

"Yes, if the city of Burning Bone is really few If you put the brush, the true God has long led people to annihilate it, why after the battle between gods and demons, the two conveniences are just as simple as opposition." Other people are also persuaded.

George Han smiled softly: “Even if it’s the Dragon Lake and Tiger Den, so what? The demons can survive, but I can’t?” George Han finished speaking and looked at Du Yisheng on the opposite side: “Don’t worry, the city of burning bones, It’s time to go.”

Listening to George Han’s words and looking at the smile on his face, Du Shengzheng was a little doubtful whether his ears were misheard.

Yes... Someone is going to the Bone Burning City?

If he hadn’t seen it with his own eyes and heard with his own ears, he would never believe that anyone would say such a thing to his death.

This is no different from looking for death.

Suddenly, at this moment, a strange noise came from outside the restaurant...
