

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2575 - 2577

Chapter 2575

“Let’s laugh, laugh, laugh to death you bastard, your grandma’s, Lao Tzu is also your good buddy, but you laugh at me like that, George Han, stay away from Lao Tzu when thundering , I’m so afraid that I will hurt Lao Tzu when I hack you to death.” Ginseng Baby scolded very depressed in the fire.

If it had a body, I was afraid that it would be able to roll out of the sky at this time.

“George Han, what is going on?” Qin Shuang looked at George Han.

Ningyue also looked at George Han dumbfounded.

George Han closed his voice slightly: “Do you know why he didn’t make a noise just now?”

“Why?”

“Because this product can’t turn off the fire.” As soon as George Han’s words came out, the whole scene suddenly fell into death. Silent, only the sound of blazing fire...

After a while, the two girls suddenly laughed, and at this time, in the fire, if possible, the ginseng baby could not find a place to get in.

Just now, he was so big, but in the end he couldn’t even control his own fire, his face hurt and was extremely insulting.

“Well, three thousand, don’t laugh at him.” Qin Shuang withdrew his smile and asked sternly, “Can you think of a way? The ginseng baby has just regained consciousness, extremely weak, and needs a lot of things to supplement his body.”

“Yes. Ah, lord, play, go to play, go to chaos, but we still have to do business. If we don’t put out the fire, we can’t grow too many plants.” Ningyue said with a serious face.

This point is naturally within George Han’s consideration.

“After I brought the weak water over, you two are all kinds of things, this fire, I will find a way.” The two women nodded, and the three moved separately.

After a while, Qin Shuang pulled out the withered plants around, and Ning Yueye brought a few more varieties from the pill pharmacy. Before they were finished, they didn't need to water the weak water for the time being. George Han came to the fireball and began to study the raging fire in front of him.

Very fierce, even if it is as strong as George Han, you must admit that these fires are not large, but they are extremely pure. It is not difficult to understand why Ye Gucheng has suffered so much in the hands of Ginseng Baby.

As soon as the energy in his hand moved, a strong chaotic air immediately struck towards the source of the fire.

But soon, George Han frowned.

Because he wanted to put out the fire as soon as possible, George Han did not actually have much limitation on the energy output. It is basically not an exaggeration to describe it as full firepower.

But that was the case, the fire source in front of him was only relatively weakened, and there was no sign of being extinguished at all. Even during the confrontation, George Han found that the energy of the fire source was extremely huge.

"You guy, where did you get the fire? It's not easy?" George Han frowned and said softly.

"Nonsense, can my young master's fire be simple? If it is simple, my young master still needs you?" Ginseng Baby seized the opportunity and said with disdain.

George Han ignored him, but turned over in his hand. He sacrificed the Five Elements God Stone, and then a chaotic force penetrated into the Five Elements God Stone, causing the Five Elements God Stone to fly on the fire and release water energy in the air.

Since it cannot be destroyed, George Han does not intend to destroy it. The weak water and the special nature of the corpse land, the plants grow very fast, and the Burning Bone City needs to preserve its strength behind, so the best way for him is to only It is necessary to occasionally put some energy into the Five Elements Divine Stone, and suppress these fires for a period of time.

But what George Han never expected was that something went wrong...

Chapter 2576

when the five-element sacred stone, an almost semi-automatic fire extinguishing "artifact" exists, it means that George Han can free up other things.

After sending Nian'er back.

It happened that when Qin Shuang and the others finished hoeing the weeds, and after sowing the seeds, they needed George Han's help to water, and only George Han could complete the watering task.

But while George Han was helping to water the water, an accident happened.

"Did it suddenly feel as if it was getting a lot cooler?" Ning Yue could not help but ask at this moment, lowering her head and busy working in the fields.

Qin Shuang was also helping. It was about Ginseng Baby. She did it very carefully, without even raising her head, and said, "Yes, and it seems to be much quieter."

Don't say it or not, even George Han. I also feel that not only the surroundings suddenly become extremely quiet, but also the human body feels much cooler.

After looking back, George Han was stunned.

In the distance where the ginseng baby is, there is no raging fire, only the five-element sacred stone is still vaguely pouring water down.

The falling water is like a waterfall. The most amazing thing is that there are faint rainbows of seven colors around the water droplets.

On the ground, a ray of red luan light came up from the bottom up, improperly approaching the five-element sacred stone, and was slowly absorbed by the five-element sacred stone, intertwined with the colorful rainbow, forming an extremely beautiful streamer.

The rainbow is outside, and there is the light of rising red rain inside, which is almost like a waterfall in the fairy world...

"This..." Seeing this strange and wonderful scene, even George Han was stunned at this moment.

Hearing George Han's surprised voice, the two women also looked up at this time, but they were almost the same as George Han, collectively stunned.

So beautiful!

It's fantastic!

This cannot be done by any man.

"Where is the fire?" Qin Shuang suddenly asked in doubt.

There is no more fire on the ground, only the light of the red luan and the seedlings of the ginseng baby in the center.

The three looked at each other and hurried over.

“Will the ginseng baby be okay?” As soon as the person arrived, Qin Shuang looked at the seedlings in it worriedly.

Although the scenery is beautiful, the important thing is the safety of the ginseng baby.

With a move of George Han’s hand, he retracted the five-element sacred stone, but it is strange that even if the five-element sacred stone no longer releases water, the rainbow around the water disappears, but the light of the red luan on the ground seems to be able to find a direction. The distorted one was still attracted by the five-element sacred stone in George Han’s hands. George Han frowned, stretched out his hand, and put it slightly into the red light.

It’s warm, like a warm wind blowing.

“What is this?” George Han asked in confusion.

Qin Shuang has already hurried to inspect the ginseng baby, only Ningyue on the side, frowning slightly, obviously she can’t answer George Han’s question.

“George Han, one seed is missing!” Qin Shuang turned around anxiously and shouted at George Han.

Hearing the shouts, George Han glanced at the seedling plant, and he couldn’t help but feel even more strange.

The small grape-like fruit is still there, but the relatively large red fruit has completely disappeared at this time.

“There won’t be any problems, right?” Ningyue suddenly asked nervously.

It is a good thing for the ginseng baby to live, but at this time, half of the stuff is suddenly missing. How can it not cause people to worry? !

“Could it be too much rain that drowned it?” Qin Shuang’s anxious tears rolled in his eyes.

No, no!

George Han shook his head desperately. If he was drowned in water, then the situation should not be the same.

Moreover, although the Five Elements Divine Stone separates a lot of water, most of it was resisted by the fire in the early stage, and it is impossible to cause drowning due to excessive water.

“Ginseng baby, are you still alive? Say something if you are not dead.” George Han looked at Miao Zhu and said with a serious face.

There is no sound!

“Three thousand, ginseng baby...” Qin Shuang was even more anxious, tears even came out of his eyes.

George Han’s face became cold, and he bent over, reaching out to pull out the seedling.

But just when George Han was about to stretch out his hand in front of it, the ginseng baby’s voice appeared: “What are you doing?!”

“Are you not dead?” George Han retracted his hand and said.

“Dead!” Ginseng baby replied dissatisfied, but after the answer, she seemed to know that it was unreasonable, and mumbled: “I don’t want to talk, no, you dog thief.”

Hearing that he could curse, George Han knew he was okay, but listening to his tone seemed wrong: “What’s wrong?”

Chapter 2577

“Damn, George Han, you are so cheap, you are so cheap, you seem to have strengthened me, but you still have to ask me if I feel comfortable.” Ginseng Baby scolded depressedly. Then he said: “I refuse to talk to you dog thief, please stay ten meters away from me, thank you.”

George Han couldn’t help but shook his head, this guy, sometimes he really can’t help him: “Then I How about ten meters away from you?”

“What can you do?”

“I...” Ginseng baby wanted to curse, if you don’t go, let me go!

“What are you? Why do you show me a seedling and walk?” In a word, the ginseng baby was helpless. The corpse breeding ground is not an ordinary place, and it is no more than a single seedling. How to walk? !

But even so, you can still see the seedlings on the ground at this time. There is no wind, but they are still trying to move far away.

But no matter how hard he struggled, he didn’t move at all. Only Miao Tip kept swaying his head over there, which was so funny that people couldn’t help but laugh.

“Okay, okay, don’t be so cute,” Qin Shuang said to George Han.

George Han smiled and did not speak.

“How are you, Ginseng baby, are you okay?” Qin Shuang said.

“My wife still cares about me, don’t worry, I’m fine.” Ginsengwa said happily.

“Since it’s okay, you just... have been silent and scared us to death. Also, George Han, for you, even risked being discovered by Xianling Island, you can’t quarrel with him. You are partners. , I want to love each other, you know?” Qin Shuang said softly.

“Of course I will love you, my wife, but I refuse to work with robbers, scumbag, hum!” Ginseng Baby said in a warm voice.

Ningyue gave a wry smile, looked at George Han, and shook her head helplessly.

“Three thousand kindly rescue you, kindly help you, if you say he is a robber, I will ignore you.” Qin Shuang pretended to be angry.

“Hey, you humans are all animals with good looks. Even your wife helps him. It’s not because he is a little capable and looks good...” Upon hearing Qin Shuang’s words, the ginseng baby sighed in a discouraged tone. It’s like just dead father.

“Bitch, you are a bitch, you get cheap, and you sell well. His grandmother, George Han, my ginseng baby and you are not at odds with you. In this life, there is you without me.” “Since you want to say this, it’s better to be without you than without me. I’ll give you a ride.” George Han smiled, and was about to pull out his seedlings after he finished.

“Fuck, you robber not only robs money, but also kills, I rely on, and then occupy my wife, right?” Ren Shenwa cursed.

If this guy is still normal, George Han will not even doubt that this guy must have jumped on his head at this time and yelled at him.

With the character of a ginseng baby, I can do it!

“I’m a robber? I don’t know which robber has stolen all the precious and exotic treasures in one place. Just sell these things, not to mention the rich world, but it is not a problem to sit on a local tyrant.” George Han smiled softly.

“Fuck, there is a price and a market as a fart, is the priceless treasure the real treasure? You slut.” Ginsengwa cursed.

“Ginseng baby, San Qian is right, but you always say San Qian is a robber, but San Qian has taken you something.” Qin Shuang said in a puzzled way.

Ningyue also nodded at this time, and said: “Yes, the lord has always stayed with us. Besides, you are like this...there is nothing to take you, right?” After speaking, Ningyue glanced at it. The ginseng baby from the seedling plants...

it is nothing, but for the ginseng baby, the look in her eyes like Ningyue is not very harmful, but it is extremely insulting!

Just talk about it directly, there is no root hair on the body.

“Don’t you think that the leader has stolen you?” After speaking, Ningyue moved her eyes to Qin Shuang’s body again.

The meaning couldn’t be more obvious!

“Damn, my ginseng baby sits upright. The thing about love depends on personal charm. How can there be any steal or not?” ginseng baby immediately retorted.

“What did the leader take you?”

“This dog thief...”

“Say?” Ningyue urged.

The ginseng baby hesitated for a moment, and finally, finally mumbled: “I didn’t want to say it because it was so fucking embarrassing, but...” Suddenly, the ginseng baby cried when he said this...
