

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2578 - 2580

Chapter 2578

cry!

This guy is crying!

This is simply a wonder of the world, and it is strange to everyone!

Since George Han got to know this guy, he has upheld the basic professional ethics of shamelessness and no lower limit. Asking him to curse George Han thinks it's just a simple matter of eating, but if you want him to cry, it's simply nothing. It's harder than going to the sky.

But now, this guy was crying... At this point, not only was George Han completely stunned, even Qin Shuang, who was on the side, looked at George Han with unknownness at this time.

"Ah... the sky is innocent, the sky has no eyes, this is so tragic, so ruining life, no, ginseng is born."

"Oh, my god."

"Ah..."

seems to feel like crying. It didn't resonate, or the thought of the sadness couldn't help but become more heartbroken. At this time, the ginseng baby cried louder, and the hoarse voice even looked like a real dead father.

"I'm gone, I'm gone, I was wiped out by a bastard!"

"My mother, too, I am suffering, I am painful, I am unhappy."

"If it's a woman, it's fine, but he Damn it is a man, ah, my chastity, my integrity..."

Hearing this guy's various crying and tiger-wolf words, George Han was very angry and funny.

Just listen to what he said, people who don't know think that someone has tainted his innocence, and what happened to him!

Ningyue couldn't help but sneered, but as soon as she uttered, the ginseng baby over there stopped crying, and asked doubtfully: "Can you be a little sympathetic?"

Ningyue smiled even harder, and Qin Shuang also Turning your head to one side is both funny and helpless.

“I rely on, you... are too much. I am a victim. You not only don't sympathize with me, but you also laugh at me? Is your conscience gone? Is your morals lost?” Ren Shenwa said.

“Okay, I won't laugh anymore, just say, what the hell is the leader of you!” Ningyue forced her smile and pretended to be serious.

“Say well, what else has you eaten and cleaned up? I don't know if George Han is a man, I only know, he will definitely not be interested in you.” Qin Shuang said.

“Even you are here, right?” George Han couldn't hear what Qin Shuang said, but he pretended not to understand and followed the words. “This was originally eaten and wiped clean, I am not wrong.” Ginseng baby hurriedly said: “Originally, my ginseng baby is the spiritual thing of heaven and earth, the essence of heaven and earth, and sink The pure yin of the earth, I dare not say how awesome I am, but at least I am considered a fine product in the world.”

“Mana is extremely powerful! In one word, it is invincible!”

“Good, good, invincible brother, What then?” George Han said helplessly.

“Then, then, what a fart, it was all taken away by your fucking bitch. Although Lao Tzu is still handsome and handsome, the problem is...”

“I only have my own self-protection ability in the future, and I don't have any Offensive ability.” Speaking of this, Ginseng Baby is very depressed.

George Han frowned: “Why? Also, what did I take from you?”

“Why, what else did I take from me? Didn't you see that there is no fire now? Hmm?! Lao Tzu's baby You stole it all, what will Lao Tzu use to attack from now on?”

“Baby?” George Han was taken aback.

“Nonsense! That is one of Lao Tzu's destiny, and it is precisely because of it that Lao Tzu can release the invincible flame. Then what is Ye Gucheng being beaten by me, can't you see it?”

“But I haven't taken it?” George Han asked in confusion.

He hadn't even contacted Ginseng Baby, but the next second, he suddenly remembered something.

“Isn't it?” George Han was stunned, and while looking at Ningyue and Qin Shuang next to him, he took out the Five Elements Divine Stone in his other hand.

Ningyue and Qin Shuang obviously had almost the same expressions as George Han, and they seemed to have guessed it too.

When George Han revealed the Five Elements God Stone, his brows suddenly frowned.

Above the sacred stone, it was originally two colors, but now, I don't know when, an extra fiery red mark was added.

The three of them looked at each other immediately!

“How could this be?” George Han frowned and looked at the seedlings of the ginseng baby incredulously.

“Vulcan Stone! You took Lao Tzu's precious Vulcan Stone!” Ginseng Baby roared angrily.

“Vulcan Stone?” George Han was taken aback, what is this? !

Chapter 2579

talking about this, the ginseng baby cried again.

“That's Lao Tzu's baby. Ah, your mother's, it's fine if you take it, and you have to pretend to be an innocent dog. You are so fucking not a human being.”

George Han was embarrassed. He never thought that this would happen.

But if you think about it carefully, the only possible problem is that George Han uses the five-element sacred stone to send water to extinguish the fire, but in this process, the five-element sacred stone and the fire-shen stone come into contact with each other, and then...

like Huazhongyu and Shenyan Like beads, they were slowly swallowed by the Five Elements God Stone!

“Leader, how could this be? Is it possible that the fire god stone of the ginseng baby is... also part of the five elements god stone?” Ningyue frowned.

George Han also nodded: “Yes, it was absorbed, and it also left color.”

Only Qin Shuang stared at both of them blankly.

“What's the mess, what you say is as if my things are his, but part of it? Damn, this fire god stone is my ancestral thing.” Renshenwa shouted dissatisfied.

However, no one paid any attention to the words of Ginseng Baby.

Obviously, the sudden red color has confirmed George Han and Ningyue's previous guesses.

But what I am afraid they will never think of is that the ginseng baby will be related to the third imprint. How can this not be shocking? !

As the two of them were like this, Qin Shuang was naturally concerned and confused about what had happened, and naturally did not listen to his dissatisfaction with Ginseng Baby.

"What the hell is going on with this Vulcan stone?" In surprise, George Han looked at the ginseng baby.

Shenyanzhu does not have any history, and Huazhongyu came from Futian. The only clue to the Five Elements God Stone that can be found now is the Vulcan Stone in front of him.

If there are any clues about the Vulcan Stone, chances are they can peel off the cocoon and discover something "It's about your ass, it's messy, and I have to ask me for miscellaneous use after taking my things? Shameless?" Ginsengwa said in an angry voice.

"Don't you think it's weird? Your ancestral object, I didn't even touch it, but it was automatically absorbed by my stone?" George Han asked calmly.

"Damn, who knows if you used some demon method." Ginseng Baby murmured.

"As you said, you are not an absolute master, but you are definitely not a mortal thing. But now I have lost the pants. If you don't solve the reasons, don't you feel embarrassed?" George Han continued.

Hearing this, Ginseng Baby fell into deep thought. In fact, the reason why she kept stumbling was because she felt that she had nothing to do with George Han. It was ashamed to say it, but it was really uncomfortable not to say it.

"In fact, Vulcan Stone has been almost in the same body with me since I was born."

"It can even be counted as another me."

"The other you?" George Han frowned.

"Yes, if you still remember the scene when the Void Sect me and Ye Gucheng fought, then you will know the difference between the two individual me."

But at the time of the battle, George Han was too far away and didn't know at all. What happened specifically.

Only Qin Shuang was the only experienced person at that time.

George Han set his gaze on Qin Shuang's body, and Qin Shuang frowned at this time, apparently thinking of something!

"He has two forms, or two colors." After Qin Shuang confirmed those memories, he looked at George Han nervously.

"Two colors?" George Han frowned.

"Yes, one red and one green!"

"Wait a minute!" George Han frowned and looked at the ginseng baby incredulously: "How is this possible? You are some kind of plant, is it a stone?"

Chapter 2580

, Han walked three thousand steps in front of the ginseng baby. Amidst the screams and protests of the ginseng baby, he abruptly looked at its seedlings to the left and right.

Complete plant without any special ingredients.

"Why? You are still a human being. There is a dragon living in your body. Why can't my ginseng baby live with a stone?" Ginseng baby protested.

This is true, but the existence of the magic dragon is just an ideology, only a soul consciousness staying in one's own consciousness. This is different from the situation of the ginseng baby. The basic concept of the two is different.

"When I am angry, the fire of the Vulcan Stone will grow with my anger! But I can also release only the energy in my own body."

"However, the energy in my body is healing... .." Ginseng Baby said.

"But the flames released by the Vulcan Stone can hurt people, but the price is that your body will be disintegrated due to overheating." Qin Shuang frowned.

Ginseng Baby nodded heavily. On that day, he too consumed himself to torture Ye Gucheng, so that he was basically transformed into his original form.

"Really interesting." George Han couldn't help but wonder.

Fire and wood are the existence of mutual restraint, but in such an environment, while maintaining symbiosis, let wood control the fire the other way around. Doesn't it feel incredible? !

"So, after rebirth, there are two fruits on the ginseng baby, one is actually the body, and the other is actually just the Vulcan stone!" Ningyue said softly.

George Han nodded. He was preconceived, so he mistakenly regarded the Vulcan stone as part of the ginseng baby.

Now it seems that everything is a misunderstanding.

However, there is one detail that caught George Han's attention. Even though it is a ginseng baby body, this stone is still growing in a certain part of the ginseng baby's body. The connection between the two is indeed more like symbiosis and coexistence. It is by no means a simple piece together, so this makes George Han feel that this fact is too interesting.

"It seems that the origin of the ginseng baby should not be simple." George Han sighed involuntarily.

Ningyue nodded, such an ingenious combination of grass and stone, and attribute restraint, is indeed incredible, and naturally it is extraordinary"Can you tell me about your origin?" Ningyue agreed, and asked softly at this time.

"I have no background." Ginseng Wa vetoed.

George Han frowned and didn't say a word. He actually had doubts about the ginseng baby for a long time.

How could it inexplicably appear near the sacred mound, and know the situation inside the sacred mound very well, and now, it is a strange grass-rock community.

This guy was like an extremely huge question, but he didn't want to talk about it, and George Han didn't want to force it.

"Ginseng baby, just talk about your origins. This may be helpful to 3000. Besides, you are a good friend of 3000. There shouldn't be any concealment between good friends, right?" Qin Shuang Persuade.

"I'm afraid I told him, even my friends didn't have to do it." Ginseng Baby said.

"Why?" He didn't say that. George Han was still unwilling to ask more, but the more so, the more he was curious.

"I come from the city of burning bones, the land of the demon race, would you make friends with such a person?" Ginseng Wa said.

"The City of Burning Bone?" George Han frowned, and it was the City of Burning Bone. Why was everything around him, everyone, invisibly pointing himself to that place?

"Then why did you run near the sacred mound?"

"Someone asked me to go."

“Who?” George Han frowned suddenly.

Someone told him to go to the sacred mound? Who is the one?

This person, naturally, should have some knowledge of the sacred tomb, otherwise, how could he know the situation inside the sacred tomb?

Could it be that Grandpa’s former enemy? Which Demon God of the Demon Race? !

But if this is the case, Ginseng Baby was ordered by the demon god to come to the tomb. His purpose could only be to steal the contents of the tomb, or to prevent others from getting things.

Therefore, the ginseng baby shouldn’t be able to help himself to win the things of the gods.

The demons who are not demons, then...who would it be?

Huge doubts kept hitting George Han’s brain cells.

“I don’t know, I don’t know him, and he didn’t tell me his name.”

Sure enough, as George Han expected.

“But...” The words have turned, and the ginseng baby seems to think of something...
