Chapter 2602

, dust and smoke billowed on the ground, making it hard to see what fell.

But there was the existence of the “green qi monster” before, and everyone was afraid that the monster inside would fall, and they wanted to come forward and watch, but they didn’t dare to get too close.

Soon, the crowd gathered more and more, almost three floors inside and three floors outside.

At this time, the dust and smoke began to dissipate, and the things on the central ground began to appear more and more.

“Oh, you fucking, I fell to death.” At the same time, the thing also let out a depressed cry of pain.

“Fuck you uncle, George Han, know that I am not showing mercy, your mother’s, oops, my ass!”

As the verbal abuse continued to sound, the dust was scattered, and a man with a gray-headed face was about the size of a gourd. While rubbing his ass, he stood up from the ground with great depression.

When they saw this thing, some people were frightened and panicked, while others frowned. Obviously, their minds are going through a storm.

It seems that I also noticed that the crowd was watching, the gadget was immediately dissatisfied, and said: “Damn, what do you look at, haven’t you seen a handsome guy landing?”

“So what, except you two, hehe...” When the gadget kept his eyes on When Ningyue and Shiyu were on the body, the dissatisfaction on that face suddenly disappeared, and in exchange for a smirk.

“You are...” Seeing this gadget, Ning Yue couldn’t help but frown slightly.

It is always familiar, but not quite.

“Me? Damn, don’t you? You don’t recognize me?” The gadget was taken aback for a moment, and then patted his head: “Damn, forget this, I am a bit different now. Ah.”

“Although it doesn’t affect my handsomeness!”

“I, ginseng baby.” As he said, this little thing pointed to his chest.

“Ginseng baby?”

“Are you a ginseng baby?” The two women were taken aback almost at the same time.

Although this gadget is indeed somewhat similar to Ginseng Baby, it is actually somewhat different.

The ginseng baby in the past was really like a personal ginseng, but now, it looks like a circle in the upper circle and a circle in the lower circle... gourd!

“Hey, replace it like a fake.” Ginseng Baby smiled confidently. “But, what are you... now...” The poetry is also young, and naturally there is no obstruction in his mouth, and he doubts: “How come you look like a gourd baby? Look at your face... how round now Ah!” As soon as the words came out, Ginseng Baby’s confident smile solidified on her face, thinking she touched her face while everyone was not paying attention.

Yeah, what’s so handsome to talk about? Now let’s not say that the face is round like a pie, but the head is also perfectly round like a ball!

handsome? Where did he come from? !

At that moment, the ginseng baby felt that her world was still...

“Shen Yun, the most important thing is Shen Yun, yes, that’s right!” The ginseng baby suddenly found an excuse to paralyze herself: “Is my chic charm still there? As for my face, it’s growing, growing, and developing. It’s normal to be a little fat baby.”

“Right, were you confronting the leader just now?” Ningyue suddenly remembered, if the monster in the green aura is a ginseng baby So naturally, the person who had just attacked George Han just now was not this little guy?

“Hey, how about it, it’s Xiaoye, isn’t it awesome?” When it comes to this, Ginseng Baby is excited.

That look, quite a kind of self-confidence that I am not blowing, I can beat the world’s invincible hand.

“What? This little thing is the monster in the green gas in the sky just now? This...this...” Ginseng baby was forced, obviously someone bought it.

At least Du Shengsheng and Lu Yuan and other people who had never seen him before were all shocked.

After all, with such a powerful monster, and even able to face George Han in the air for so long, how can I really have anything to do with this little gourd-like thing in front of me?

“Yes, it’s me.” Ginseng Baby was very proud of hearing the shock of others.

At that moment, Fang Buddhism stood at the center of the world...

“How could it be you? You weren’t...no...” Ningyue couldn’t reflect a little bit, or that the reality was a bit unacceptable.

“Hey!” Ginseng Baby smiled mysteriously: “Want to know what’s going on?”

At almost the same time, George Han had already fallen...

Chapter 2603

the joy and smile on this guy’s face suddenly disappeared, and he turned his head off, without the tip of his nose, but he could still snort coldly with his nose.

“Leader!”

“Three thousand!”

As George Han landed, a group of people called out respectfully, completely admiring George Han’s bravery.

George Han nodded slightly. At this time, the ginseng baby snorted again, and the hum became extremely high.

“Hum, my nose is almost gone.” George Han smiled softly. When confronted in the air, this guy opened his mouth, and George Han had already recognized his voice.

However, seeing this kid wanted to play, so he simply played with him.

Although the ending was not unexpected for George Han, the powerful power that this kid showed just now surprised George Han quite a bit.

“Don’t pretend to be a good person in front of me, die slut, if it weren’t for my Vulcan stone was taken by your slut, do you think it is possible for you to blow in front of me?” Ginseng baby turned her head to one side, Cried dissatisfied.

George Han smiled helplessly: “If you don’t eat so many of my precious treasures, can you still have the power you are now?”

“Damn, it’s okay if you don’t say it, I’m still angry when you say it! You said it’s not good for your bastard to grow four weird gourds next to Lao Tzu. It is because Lao Tzu has sucked up the aura of those broken gourds that he is now like a fucking gourd.” Suddenly, Ginseng Baby The anger came, and he cried very depressed.

“Puff!” When he heard the cry of Ginseng Baby, and then contacted his current appearance, Poetry couldn’t help but laughed out.

Not only her, but even Ningyue and the others on the side could not help but secretly cover up and laugh.

It’s shameful enough to be laughed at by so many people, and to be laughed at by beautiful women, the ginseng baby can’t stand it even more: “What are you special about, look at you...”

“The ginseng baby, the lord he brought out a lot of seeds, But what was planted in the ground was... but Qin Shuang and I planted it.” Ningyue smirked and raised her hand to express her mistake.”So, Qin Shuang and I are the culprit who caused you to become what you are now. I apologize like you, but...puff, hahahahaha!” Ningyue did not finish her words, the whole person Already laughed and couldn’t stand up straight.

There is no big problem with his appearance alone, but if you associate it with the grievances on his face and the fact that he has eaten too much gourd, it will become quite funny.

So not only did Ningyue lose her stability and her stomach hurts when she laughed, but even the other disciples of Baguio Palace and everyone who knew him before could not help but laugh.

This made people feel embarrassed and couldn’t wait to find a place to sew in.

“I don’t care, anyway, it’s George Han, grandma’s, George Han, I’m at odds with you, hum.” After this guy finished, he deliberately found such an excuse to go out. NS.

However, after not taking a few steps, Ginseng Baby suddenly turned her head: ” Where’s my wife?” “I was blown out by you, do you mean to ask me where I was?” George Han laughed softly.

“I was blown out by me?” Ginseng Baby was taken aback, obviously not expecting this: “No?”

“If you don’t believe it, you can ask any of them, everyone has seen it with their own eyes.” George Han road.

Ginseng baby looked back and saw that everyone nodded, and for a while, her face was a little guilty: “She... is she okay? Where is she? I want to see her!”

“She is fine , just fainted, I’m already Someone has been arranged to take care of her. Now, should you explain to us what happened at that time?” George Han said that although the smile on his face was still there, his eyes were obviously extremely stern.

There was some guilt in the eyes of Ginseng Baby, and she calmed down and began to describe the situation at that time.

“then.....”

Chapter 2604

When the three thousand and three Han people replanted the corpse grounds with all kinds of exotic treasures, the entire corpse ground was simply a gathering place for ginseng babies.

In addition, the corpse breeding ground itself possesses extraordinary abilities under the effect of weak water. Therefore, for ginseng babies, the growth cycle that would have taken at least many years, or even more than ten years, was suddenly shortened.

In the final analysis, ginseng baby is also made of a special kind of plant, so it is also affected by the corpse land, and grows rapidly along with the strange treasures.

But the core of the problem lies in the explosion!

The reason for the explosion is obviously the excess energy.

“Originally, I could digest all of your energy, but the problem is that I lost the Vulcan Stone, so the energy demand has also been reduced a lot.”

Then combined with the greed and eating more of the ginseng baby, the rare and precious treasure The degree and energy are far beyond his imagination. He thinks that more is better, so the natural corpse is not rejected.

Just like drinking high-purity wine, it is really fragrant and strong when it is drunk, and even if it is not drunk in the world, I get drunk, but when the wine is up, this special thing will come up.

The same goes for ginseng babies to eat those rare and exotic treasures!

He feels comfortable when he eats the powerful rare treasures, but when those things are transformed into aura, this guy can’t hold it anymore.

exploded!

After that, it was the picture that everyone saw.

After he rushed to the sky, he saw George Han, who had always remembered the matter of the Vulcan Stone. For a while, he couldn't help but grow up to the courage. He absolutely must educate George Han well.

At the same time, try your own ability after rebirth.

After listening to these explanations, George Han was speechless.

There is something special to eat so that you can explode yourself...

that is, the corpse breeding ground is not big enough, if it needs to be multiple times, this special guy can't blow up the entire island?

George Han was like this, let alone other people, after froze, they couldn't help but feel amused, but at the same time they felt extremely shocked.

Because of the experience of the ginseng baby, it also revealed a huge fact.

That is how cherished and miraculous George Han's rare treasures are. George Han also saw everyone's reaction, and smiled slightly: "What are you still doing? Are you very idle? Anyway, for the next five days, there will be a large number of rare treasures every day. I will take out the pill made of Bao."

"Say it first, the survival of the fittest." As soon as the voice fell, I heard that I was coming from the crowd, and the next second, the crowd blasted away, all honest and impatient. Start practicing.

Gently pour months helpless smile: "It seems always the best way to reward people are excited."

Han three thousand smiled and nodded, looked at the baby ginseng: "Qinshuang in my house, you used it," said After that, George Han planned to go to the corpse to clean up.

"Wait a minute." Suddenly, Ginseng Baby stopped George Han, her expression extremely solemn.

"Something?" George Han was taken aback.

"Well... where is your daughter?" Although his face was hard, George Han saw full of fear in the eyes of Ginseng Baby.

George Han smiled lightly, taking Ningyue and Mo Yang, got up and walked towards the corpse.

In the next few days, George Han also began to enter the orderly rush. Even, every moment is a person who plays “disappearing”.

In five days, for others, even with all kinds of medicinal aids, the time is obviously not enough.

This is where most disciples are more worried.

Obviously, this kind of common sense is very troublesome, but in George Han's case, these common senses simply don't exist. As far as George Han is concerned, these things have already been within his consideration...

so Lu Yuan and others discovered an unusually weird thing in the next period of time.

The members of the Mysterious Alliance suddenly disappeared...

as if they disappeared overnight, leaving no traces!

Even George Han could only see him on the corpse ground in the morning, busying himself.

Lu Yuan was in a hurry and thought he was dreaming. He also tried to search the whole island, but he still couldn't see any figures. At that moment, he even started to wonder about life...

where the hell did people go. Ah?
