

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2608 - 2610

Chapter 2608

“Baguio Palace, 472 disciples, all here!”

“Tenji Palace, forty-six disciples, all here.”

“84 disciples of the Mysterious League , here Qi.”

“Xu Wuzong, Qin Shuang represents all the disciples!”

“Wang Simin, on behalf of the Wang family, Qi!”

” Leading Zuo, help the mang all the way!”

As the number of people reached the number, Ningyue shouted loudly, everyone They also responded in unison, with great prestige and full momentum, but they shocked Lu Yuan and the others.

But everyone also understands that there are countless sadnesses hidden in this monstrous sound.

Only Qin Shuang is left in the Void Sect!

The only thing left in the Wang family is Wang Simin!

Even Fu Mang is just a “person” who hasn’t arrived yet, so he shouted out from Fu Lidai.

hugged Han Nian and came steadily, his face was like sea water, calm and cold at the same time.

“These are more than six hundred people.” George Han glanced at everyone and smiled softly: “They are all my brothers and sisters, I have nothing to say, but just ask, I hope to take all of you home. “

Go!”

“Woo!!!”

At this time, as George Han sipped softly, the island suddenly remembered the sound of the cape.

Looking back, the old woman dressed in white is standing on a lonely mountain in the island, holding a conch and blowing it into the sky!

The solitary song plays music to sacrifice the military might!

Everyone looked back, not only fighting spirit!

“Kill” six hundred shouts, shaking the sky in unison!

“Miss, there are already warships near the sea. It seems that this time, George Han has already come out!”

At this time, on a certain road, dozens of brightly dressed proud husbands carried a jade sedan chair. Several beautiful female waitresses in front of and behind them followed like a horse and a horse, holding flowers and jade fans.

As a black-clothed woman quickly fell from the sky, and then fell slightly in front of the sedan chair, the whole team stopped slightly, and she knelt down at the right time, in a very low posture.

The two maids hurriedly opened the car curtain, and what was greeted were the most luxurious interiors and the unparalleled beauty.

“It took a full seven days of rest before leaving. Guess, what is George Han doing?” The beauty smiled softly, and she was overshadowed by the flowers around her. And who can be so stunning, besides Lu Ruoxin, who else can it be? !

However, at the back of Lu Ruoxin’s sedan chair, there are still a few guards who look like the top masters, escorting a cart full of boutique bins, where the anti-Buddha is going to give gifts.

The black-clothed woman didn’t change her face, she lowered her head slightly: “The slave girl dare not guess.”

Lu Ruoxin seemed to be in a good mood, and smiled softly: “Chi Meng, you have followed me for so long. I asked you to say it, so just say it.

” Yes!” Chi Meng nodded, and after a moment of contemplation, he said: “The slave-maid guessed that in seven days, George Han should have cultivated and rejuvenated.”

“Why?”

“In the border town, the group of monks had caused George Han to do so The most important thing is that the zombies in the whole city are left with the disgusting George Han. The young master of the Fang family has not been able to make a move before, so that George Han spends a lot of energy on the zombies, even if he is George Han. It’s made of iron, but it’s so consumed, and it’s impossible to be completely unaffected.”

“The next city of Burning Bone will not be easy. I think George Han must also understand this, so...” Chi Meng said. At this point, he raised his eyes slightly and looked at Lu Ruoxin.

Lu Ruoxin smiled softly: “Is it just that?”

“The slave and maid are stupid, please also ask the lady for advice.”

“I can’t talk about pointing, but you are too stubborn about George Han’s prejudice to ignore the details of this person.”

“Prejudice?” Chi Meng frowned: “Although George Han is a man from the earth, his slaves and maids did have prejudice and arrogance when they first came into contact with him, but that was before. Nowadays, slaves and maids are no longer like others. Anything to look down on.”

If you really look down on it, in Chi Meng’s style, George Han’s body has already been broken to alleviate the hatred in his heart. How could it be that he still hasn’t done it yet? !

“I believe that you respect George Han quite a bit, and even treat him as a master far better than yourself, but that doesn’t mean you have no prejudice. It’s just that your prejudice does not come from arrogance, but from hatred.” Lu Ruoxin smiled lightly.

Chi Meng was taken aback, and after thinking about it carefully, she suddenly understood something and looked at Lu Ruoxin: “Could it be...”

Chapter 2609

“Tell it out.” Lu Ruoxin smiled.

“George Han is still training soldiers?” Chi Meng said.

Lu Ruoxin was very satisfied, and nodded slightly: “It’s not stupid, it’s clear.”

“But it’s only seven days, is it meaningful to train soldiers?” Chi Meng didn’t quite believe it. If he were replaced by someone else, he would have already despised: “George Han.” Most of the people they received were skirmishers, not to mention their aptitudes. Even if they were all heroes, there would never be any growth in seven days.”

“What is he doing with this god?”

Chi The dream is very puzzled.

“I can’t guess at this point.” Lu Ruoxin frowned slightly, as if thinking about something, murmured no longer, but fell into thought.

“Miss, I think, don’t guess. In just seven days, even if George Han is godly, that is his own person. Wouldn’t it be a foolish dream to turn a group of mobs into a master of the king?”

“Don’t forget, Han The place where Three Thousand is located is Fairy Island, the place with the most treasures in the world.” At this point, Lu Ruoxin smiled softly, “But, I’m not bad.”

“Miss, the chains of the gods have been tempered .” Transformation?” Chi Meng asked with surprise.

Lu Ruoxin smiled softly: “Although it is not full, it can be used. The most important thing is the thirteen chapters!” The thirteen chapters were won by the duel between Lu Ruoxin and George Han. Even though that victory is still a mystery in Lu Ruoxin’s eyes, but at least he has something in hand.

In fact, based on the circumstances at the time, Lu Ruoxin knew that he had lost, but he turned things around at a critical moment. First, Lu Ruoxin knew that someone was secretly helping her, and this person was the only one on the scene.

The second is that when the result of the game was announced by the sweeping old man, it was obvious that he favored himself in words.

This makes Lu Ruoxin actually very strange. After all, the old man who sweeps the floor is not his own person, but George Han’s, but this old guy abducted his elbow, which had to make Lu Ruoxin feel that this might be a conspiracy!

Therefore, Lu Ruoxin had obtained the first 13 chapters of the ancient Qi book early, but he kept it and did not use it.

It wasn’t until recently that the chains of the gods were completed, and after Lu Ruoxin’s cultivation base rose sharply, when she was fine, she took the time to take out the first 13 chapters for inspection. But there are some things, I don’t know, I was surprised at first glance.

The first thirteen chapters not only did not have any conspiracy in my imagination, on the contrary, they were full of fascinating mysteries. As the old man said, this included two ancient faculties, three unique tricks, and the eight-door extremely east. Quite legendary exercises in the land!

Lu Ruoxin seemed to have opened Pandora, from doubt to excitement, from excitement to nervousness, to absorbing the nutrients in the book like crazy.

Although there is only one chapter in Chapter 13 now, Lu Ruoxin has benefited a lot from a good start. She also believes that over time, if all Chapter 13 is won, she will surely usher in incredible changes.

“Congratulations, miss!” Chi Meng hurriedly congratulated.

Dan Xiao Lu slightly if the core:.. “Congratulations, now you do not have, and so when the future has become a great cause, again congratulations too late”

? “Delayed the full seven days, for fear that Fang Kun, already can not wait for it”

“has been passed by The sound has urged the slaves many times, and I have a deep hatred for George Han when I want to come, and I hope to quickly marry Amelia Su to relieve the hatred in my heart.” Chi Meng said softly.

“Really?” Lu Ruoxin smiled lightly, thoughtfully.

“Miss, don’t you want to marry Fang Kun and Amelia Su? But didn’t you arrange it yourself?” Chi Meng was puzzled. According to reason, Lu Ruoxin should be happy about the marriage of Fang Kun and Amelia Su. Happy, but there is still a faint cloud of doubt on his face?

This is really strange!

How is this different from shooting yourself in the foot?

“Huh!” Lu Ruoxin let out a sigh, Liu eyebrows still frowned, and he didn’t speak for a long time.

“Miss?” Chi Meng whispered.

“Let’s set off.” Lu Ruoxin thought for a while, then retracted his gaze, then slightly lowered the car curtain, and the bearer quickly got up the sedan and headed away.

At this time, George Han on the other side also came ashore from the sea, marching toward the distance in a mighty manner.

If someone looks down from the sky at this time, you must see George Han and Lu Ruoxin, although they are far away, they are in surprisingly the same direction...

Chapter 2610

“Three thousand, I have been on the road for almost a day, the weather is not early, or, let’s find a place to rest?”

This walk is a whole day, even from the seaside. Passing dozens of mountains and countless swamps and forests, at this time, the setting sun is about to set, and a group of people are exhausted.

George Han glanced at the people behind him, although his morale was still there, his fatigue was also evident.

Although everyone has a spirit beast, no one is willing to waste its combat power on their feet. After all, this is no longer just a journey back to Xianling Island.

“But where to rest is a problem.” Ningyue said softly.

Wearing light clothes, he had already been messed up by the mud and water of the forests and swamps.

“When we headed to the Bone Burning City, we were basically moving to the north border. It was fine in the morning, at least there were occasional cities, but in the afternoon, we were getting out more and more. We were all surrounded by wilderness and mountains. Not to mention the city, that’s I haven’t seen a household before.” Mo Yang said softly.

Jianghu Baixiaosheng glanced at the map: “The city in the morning is the last city. Walking forward is always barren mountains and jungles, no one is inhabited.”

“But the question is, how do you rest in this place?” The legs are still stuck in the mud, and the road is extremely depressed.

George Han looked around and felt helpless. This place was completely rainforest. Not to mention the trees, the air was extremely humid, and the ground was even more moist.

There is not even a place to stay, so naturally there is no rest. ,

“Four Dragons!”

Linlong sipped softly, and immediately fell into a dead silence around him!

But in the next second, I only heard the sudden wind and shadow movement around me.

“Four dragons are here!”

With the four shouts, the top of the vast forest, at this time, the four dragon shadows suddenly appeared.

“From the Void Sect, the four of you have been following, but it is useless. It really loses the face of my dragon clan.” Lin Long said coldly.

The four dragons hovered in the air, all bowing their heads.

Xianling Island’s opponent to Datianlupaixiu was their last battle. The four dragons were all seriously injured, and eventually they continued to cultivate nearby.

Although he had pursued George Han several times, the opponents that George Han encountered were all too powerful. Even if the four dragons were not injured, they were completely injured, let alone injured. “Don’t blame them.” George Han waved his hand.

The treasures of the Four Dragons were already a tremendous contribution. In terms of their cultivation, they really couldn't let them do more.

"Is there a place with a better environment around these surroundings?" Lin Long asked indifferently without pursuing it.

"There are still swamps and rainforests in the surrounding three miles, but..." After that, the four of them looked at each other, and no one dared to make a sound.

"But what?" George Han frowned.

From the look in Silong's eyes, George Han clearly felt that the situation seemed bad.

"In the first seventy miles, there is a village where you can rest, but..."

"But there is already a drought ahead. You have to be prepared."

"The most important thing is that village..."

Speaking of this, Silong hesitated to speak and stop.

"Somewhat weird." In Linlong's angry eyes, Silong finally spoke out.

"Somewhat strange?" George Han looked at Silong suspiciously, and then at everyone.

"This... we can't say it well, just look at the appearance." Silong said.

Linlong nodded: "You go down first."

After saying that, Linlong looked at George Han.

"The soldiers are here to block the water and the earth, so we can't rest overnight in this swamp, right?! Besides, we still have to move forward." George Han said sternly.

"Yes, spend a night in the swamp, and tomorrow we are afraid we will have to soak until it swells." Mo Yang nodded, "Anyway, there is still some time for the sun to completely set, and the sky is not dark. In a village with so many people, the problem should be. Not big."

George Han nodded, waved his big hand, and continued to march forward.

When a group of people speeded up their pace and hurried forward, half an hour later, the rainforest and swamp disappeared, and the dry land seemed to be spliced there, suddenly appearing in front of everyone.

And almost at the same time, everyone also faintly heard the suona in front of them, high-pitched and sharp music one after another.

But as Silong said, weird!

Very weird!

Even this suona sound...
