

Jiang Fu's words were like a war declaration and it struck fear into the crowd around.

As the man said that, he showed his determination that he would not let Su Yimo go.

If they would compare the two sides, Su Yimo had almost 0 chance to win.

The Su family was merely a second tier company, but the Jiang company was directly below the Tian family. That was not inclusive of the rest of the extraordinary men in his group. If they were to gather up together, no one aside from the Tian family could go against them.

In the lot of people's opinion, the Su company was destined to fall. How could it have survived under the attack of Jiang Fu and his group?

A lot of people felt that Su Yimo had made a wrong decision. It was nothing but foolishness to give up on the entire company because of a trash.

That was especially true for the Su relatives. They boiled in anger. It was their livelihood instead but because of Su Yimo's irrational decision, she put the company in another crisis again. They would have to face a risk of getting unemployed again.

Regrettably, Su Yimo had the final say in the company and they were merely employees. They could do nothing against her decision.

"How lively, did I miss the show?" There was a familiar voice from the crowd and Su Ruijin walked out.

"Su Ruijin, what are you doing here?" Su Yimo leered at Su Ruijin coldly. If it wasn't for the man kidnapping her, how could Han Jingru lose the competition?

Su Ruijin had a cheerful smile on his face. His merry was right from his heart. After getting the money from Shen Wong, he could start his own company and he could go back to his identity as the Su young master.

"I am here to see how you are bringing the company down. Is there a problem?" Su Ruijin said with a grin.

"Of course not. Make sure you watch it clearly and see how the company prosper and rise in Yun city." Su Yimo said.

When Su Ruijin heard that, it was as if he heard the biggest joke and he broke into a loud laughter. Relying on an ousted man? How could she have such confidence at all? She was nothing but an ignorant and fool.

"Su Yimo, you are quite the confident one! I hope that you can still say something like this after the company goes bankrupt." Su Ruijin said.

"This is none of your business. Nothing that happens in the company has anything to do with you. Hurry and scram." Su Yimo said coldly.

Su Ruijin's face turned grim. Asking him to scram? Since when did Su Yimo has the right? With the cash flow he had on hand, he could build up a company on par with the Su family anytime at all. How could Su Yimo speak with such attitude to him?

"Su Yimo, you don't care about our family but I can't let them suffer together with you. Therefore, I came to give them a good news." After Su Ruijin said that, he turned towards the other relatives and continued, "I am setting up a company and I have already gathered ten billion for the fund. If you guys are willing to follow me, I'll give you the same position in my new company."

When the Su family heard that, they were roused.

Su Ruijin got himself ten billion and he was starting up a new company! That was just a great news for them. Because the Su company was obviously destined to fall. If they could follow after Su Ruijin now, all of their problems would be solved!

"Ruijin, are you serious? Are you really starting up your own company?"

"Why would you have ten billion so suddenly? You shouldn't joke about things like this."

"If you are really setting up a new company, we will definitely support you."

The Su family relatives betrayed Su Yimo in just a heartbeat. All of them gathered around Su Ruijin and looked at him with twinkling eyes.

"Of course I am serious. Someone appreciates my talent and he invested ten billion in me, asking me to set up a company in Yun city. Since we are family, I am willing to give you a chance. But if you guys don't believe me, just forget it." Su Ruijin said indifferently.

"Believe, I believe. I'll follow you."

"I'll follow after you as well. It has been so long since I wanted to leave this stupid company."

"Su Yimo couldn't lead us at all. The company will go down with her for sure. Now that you are giving us such a great opportunity, why would we be unwilling?"

When Su Ruijin heard what they said, he brimmed with great joy and sneered at Su Yimo conceitedly, "It seems that you are not the popular one. Look at them, they all want to follow me!"

"I'll be thankful if you want to bring these leeches away." Su Yimo said with a laugh. She couldn't care less with the betrayal of the Su family relatives. The group of people knew nothing and they contributed nothing aside from stealing from the company.

"Su Yimo, what did you say!?"

"Serves you right to let the company fall in your hands. An ungrateful person like you has no right to be the chairman."

"Since you are our junior, being your senior, we shall show you grace. We look forward to see how this turn out. After offending Mr. Jiang, you will just regret it sooner or later."

When Su Ruijin saw the group of relatives pointed finger at Su Yimo, his smile deepened.

"Sigh, Su Yimo, you have thought too highly of Han Jingru. He wouldn't be able to do everything. Just wait and regret, see what that trash can help." Su Ruijin shook his head and said impassionedly.

If Han Jingru was from the Han family, then things would be different and Su Ruijin would never dare to oppose him. However, he was long ousted by the Han family. Even if he had gotten money from them in the past, he would have finished it now already.

In Su Ruijin's opinion, after purchasing the mansion in the middle hill and acquiring the Su company, Han Jingru had almost finished the money he took from the Han family.

Moreover, now that Shen Wong was backing him up, ten billion was just the initial investment. He could still continue to get money from Shen Wong. With that kind of backup, it was just a matter of time before he steps on Han Jingru.

"Su Ruijin, don't be conceited just because you get some sweet deal now. You should know that you are nothing but a puppet." Su Yimo said in disdain.

The word puppet pierced Su Ruijin's heart. He was an egoistic person, high and mighty before others. However, he was just a dog before Shen Wong. The man wouldn't want others to remind him about that.

"Su Yimo, even if I am just a puppet, I am far better than a person like you that is getting bankrupt. Is there a meaning to act tough in front of me?" Su Ruijin said.

"You will find out soon that who will be the final winner." Su Yimo said indifferently.

"Final winner?" Su Ruijin sneered and said, "I shall let you see who the final winner is!"

After saying that, Su Ruijin turned towards the other employees of the office and said, "Who is willing to work in my company? Aside from a better working benefit, I can give you a more secure job. You guys have seen the Su company's situation. After offending Mr. Jiang, It is only a matter of time before the Su company goes down. You lot should think about your future as well. Now you have a chance before you, if you missed it, there is no use in regret."

Su Ruijin's words tempted a lot of people. After all, they weren't optimistic with the situation and they didn't think Su Yimo could push through this crisis. Once the company goes bankrupt, they would be unemployed. But right now, Su Ruijin was offering them a job and it was just a chance not to be missed.

When Zhong Qiu saw that, she was anxious. If these people were to leave at such a time, there would be another blow to the company.

"You guys should know how Chairman Su had treated you. Now that the company is in trouble, we should stay together and help." Zhong Qiu said.

"And how are we supposed to do that? Aside from letting Chairman Su to get that trash to apologize, how can we win against Mr. Jiang?"

"Exactly, unless Chairman Su is willing to let Han Jingru kneel and apologize. Otherwise, we have no choice but to leave. Who is willing to put our own future in risk?"

"We need to make a living as well. We can't be forsaking our own livelihood because of the company."

A lot of people was rebuking Zhong Qiu and more and more went towards Su Ruijin and said that they were willing to work for him. With that happening, the Su company was entering a true crisis.

Su Yimo hadn't expected things to escalate to such degree. If the Su family relatives were to leave, they wouldn't create any loss to the company at all. However, a lot of those employees were pillars of the company. If they were to leave, the company would get into deep trouble.

"I will not force anyone to stay." Su Yimo drew a deep breath. Even if everyone from the company were to leave, she would never ask Han Jingru to apologize.

"Chairman Su, I am sorry. We have a family to feed as well."

"Sigh, losing the company for the sake of a trash? It is not worth it."

"Let's resign earlier. Otherwise, we will be losing our job soon."

Su Yimo stood rigidly as she watched all her longtime employees turned towards Su Ruijin's new company. Zhong Qiu was the only one stayed by her side.

"Chairman Su, I believe in you and I'll stay with the company through this crisis." Zhong Qiu said with a determined expression. Although the woman felt that the crisis was overwhelming, Su Yimo had treated her so well in the past that she would not turn her back against her.

Su Yimo smiled in comfort and said, "Don't worry, I will not disappoint you."

"Tsk tsk tsk~" Su Huiqi walked towards Su Yimo with a deriding expression and snickered. "You are quite the romantic one. Why didn't I notice that you have fallen for that trash? You are even willing to throw the company away for him?"

"Su Huiqi, this has nothing to do with you. Aren't you supposed to be happy if the company goes down?" Su Yimo said.

"Of course." Su Huiqi nodded unhesitantly and asked, "I am truly happy now. However, I am curious as well. What did that trash do to you? That you are willing to go so far for him."

"I love him." Su Yimo said.

"Pfft..." Su Huiqi couldn't help but broke into a hysterical laughter and she looked at Su Yimo, "Funny, how laughable! How can you even find anything lovable on a trash? Su Yimo, your taste is so peculiar. I hope that you can say the same thing when you sleep under the bridge with him."

"It doesn't matter what happens to the surroundings. My feelings towards him will not change. A cheap materialistic woman like you will never be able to understand it." Su Yimo said coldly.

When Su Huiqi heard that description towards herself, she didn't get angry but raised her chin smugly, "So what if I am materialistic? Am I wrong to strive for a better life? Do you want me to be like you, staying with a trash your whole life? After offending Mr. Jiang and losing your company, you guys will become beggars soon. Even if such a love presents itself before me, I will not be bothered to cast another look."

Talking about love with Su Huiqi was a disgrace to the word Love. Therefore, Su Yimo was unwilling to say anything anymore and she turned towards Jiang Fu.

"Mr. Jiang, please try your best and I, Su Yimo shall entertain you. If there isn't anything else, I shall excuse myself now." Su Yimo said.

Jiang Fu was quite impressed with Su Yimo's unbent character. She did not compromise even under such dire circumstances. In order to protect her man, she would even give up on her company.

However, even if the man was impressed, he would not be showing mercy.

Since the matter had gone viral and high profile, if he didn't destroy the Su family to dust, he would be the next laughing stock.

"Su Yimo, I hope that you can keep this attitude the next time we meet. However, I don't think I will be meeting a beggar." After Jiang Fu said that, he brought the group of men and left furiously.

The Su company's employees dispersed as well, leaving behind those Su family relatives that jeered at Su Yimo. In their eyes, the love Su Yimo was talking about was nothing but a joke. Moreover, it was crazy foolishness to do that for a trash.

"Su Yimo, I hope you learn your mistake."

"To fall in love with such a useless man, love has made you a fool."

"If you become homeless and broke, this relative of yours will keep you some leftover foods."

After the few elders said that, they turned and stood behind Su Ruijin.

"Ruijin, let us go as well. It is a waste of breath to speak with a beggar-to-be." Su Huiqi leered at Su Yimo in disdain and said.

Su Ruijin nodded conceitedly and said, "You are right. Let's go, only I, Su Ruijin can give you guys a good life. This woman can only bring harm to you."

After the crowd left, the high strung Su Yimo was slightly relieved and she breathed a long sigh.

"Chairman Su, now everyone has left the company. What should we do?" Zhong Qiu asked Su Yimo. Su Ruijin had turned all the workers against the Su company. Now the entire Su company was left with nothing but an empty shell.

"Don't worry, I'll think of something. Just go back and get some rest first. It is a paid leave." Su Yimo said.

Zhong Qiu had a worry expression. The basic operational work needed the workers. But now that even the old time employees left, even if Su Yimo could find new workers, they wouldn't be able to pick up the work seamlessly and it would take time. To make things worse, Jiang Fu would be targeting them during that period and Zhong Qiu could hardly see any hope for the company to survive at all.

She wasn't worried about her well-being but worried for Su Yimo.

"Chairman Su, I am not afraid to lose my job. I simply don't want the company to go down because of those wicked people."

Su Yimo knew Zhong Qiu's personality. If she was afraid to lose her job, she would be leaving with the crowd to Su Ruijin's company. Why would she chose to stay by her side?

"I understand. Just relax yourself and take a good rest. Treat it like an annual leave. The company will do just fine. Trust me." Su Yimo said.

Zhong Qiu looked at Su Yimo sincerely and she saw that Su Yimo did not seem to be joking. The woman felt a little more at ease.

"Chairman Su, I believe in you. You are so much better than Su Ruijin. Even if someone were to fund his company, he would go bankrupt sooner or later." Zhong Qiu said.

Su Yimo simply smiled. She looked back at the company's building and she was actually diffident. If it was merely by her own effort, she wouldn't be able to change anything. Therefore, the woman actually rested all her hopes on Han Jingru. However, Han Jingru was injured. She wanted to tell him after he has recovered. That was the reason why she gave a one week break.

After getting back to the hospital, Su Yimo pretended as if nothing ever happened. Even if Han Jingru asked her, she simply told him everything was fine.

"By the way, how long do you need for the busy period to be over?" Han Jingru asked. Previously, they had plans to do another wedding photo shoot. Han Jingru was excited to do it already.

"It should be soon. But if you are willing, we can do it right now." Su Yimo chuckled.

"Right now?" Han Jingru touched his head instinctively. With that kind of get-up, he would just make the photographer die in laughter. That was something extremely important that he must do it in his best condition.

"No way. If our son were to see me like this, he would just laugh at me." Han Jingru rejected unhesitantly.

When Su Yimo heard that, she was moved. Although she had never considered about that, she knew it would happen eventually. Being a mother was quite fearful and worrying. However, Su Yimo was feeling a great longing as well.

"Who agrees to have a son with you, how shameless!" Su Yimo averted her gaze away from Han Jingru and said.

Han Jingru had a merry smile on his face. Su Yimo did not reject him seriously but in coquettish. That proved that she wasn't rejecting the idea in her heart. Han Jingru saw hope. It seemed that the great city was about to be conquered.

When the air inside the ward turned warm, the door to the ward was opened once again. Han Jingru was vexed. Why would the doctor always appear during the most crucial time!

But the moment Han Jingru saw the person that come in, he no longer had any complains.

It wasn't the doctor but Jiang Yan and Su Wenlun. He had not expected them to visit him.

"Dad, mom." Han Jingru greeted them.

"Are you all right?" Jiang Yan brought a basket of fruits and came to his bedside.

"I'm fine, just some light brush on the head." Han Jingru answered.

"Good that you are safe, good that you are safe." After Jiang Yan said that, she turned towards Su Yimo and said, "Yimo, come out with me, I have something to talk to you about."

After Jiang Yan and Su Yimo left the ward, Han Jingru frowned a little. It was obvious that Jiang Yan came to the hospital not to visit him but to look for Su Yimo.

"Dad, what happened?" Han Jingru asked Su Wenlun.

"No, nothing at all. Everything is alright, you just need to rest properly." Han Jingru could see the anxiousness Su Wenlun was trying to hide.

His face turned grim. It was obvious that something must had happened. But Su Yimo simply didn't want to tell him.
