

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2620 - 2622

Chapter 2620

This is really incredible.

I have seen these things done for my dead son or daughter. Although the behavior is very bad, at least those who are parents can have the mind to worry about their children. Although it is not understandable to some extent, it can be imagined from the level of family affection.

But conversely tossing his own son and a dead body, this is very unacceptable.

That's your own flesh and blood. How can parents who are parents harm their children in turn? !

After all, this thing has always been good for the dead, but not good for the living.

The first reaction of Wang Simin and others was disbelief, but was thinking about the appearance of the young man carefully, his taste was fine, but he had to admit the fact that the old man and the young man in front of him did have Somewhat alike, if it were father and son, it would be very possible.

"I am the village head of this village. Although I am not a high-ranking authority, I am quite famous in the village! If you don't believe me, you can ask the people in the village." Seeing the expressions of Wang Simin and others, the old man was a little angry. And Tao.

Wang Simin's dissatisfaction subconsciously wanted to refute. At this time, George Han hurriedly stood up, bowed slightly, and apologized: "The village chief asks you to calm down your anger."

"My friend is young and energetic, a bit reckless for a while, and offensive. Look at Haihan."

George Han stood up and apologized, which made Wang Simin a little dissatisfied, but he couldn't say anything, he could only turn his head away depressed.

It was the old village chief who heard George Han's sincere apology, and his anger disappeared a lot, and he nodded slightly, accepting George Han's apology.

George Han also hurriedly picked up the wine on the table, and motioned to his people to raise the wine glasses, and then toasted the wine to the old village chief and others.

After drinking, the grievances and grievances will disappear temporarily.

The old village chief put down his wine glass, and then slowly said, "In fact, you have many misunderstandings, and you may not be all to blame."

After speaking, the old village chief turned his attention to the other elders present, and a group of elders also joined together. Nodding together, expressing understanding.

"After all, in the final analysis, our own affairs are too weird."

"This is natural, you are doing mystery, or simply said to be completely messed up. It is a normal person who thinks you are abnormal!" Wang Simin immediately underestimated. road. Although Simin's speech was a bit sharp, George Han did not stop her from speaking this time. After all, this is indeed a very big doubt, and it is also the biggest confusion in the hearts of everyone present.

The old village chief nodded. Obviously he understood this, and sighed: "This is also a helpless move."

"You are also a parent, young man. Naturally, all you want to see is their happy growth. Whether it is a commoner, Or the elder, or the village head." As he said, the old village head frowned, and he drank a glass of boring wine in one fell swoop.

George Han nodded and held Han Nian, not denying it.

Parents, even if they sacrifice everything they own, are willing to see their children happy.

"As the head of your village, how difficult is it to marry a wife?" Ningyue frowned softly.

If even the village chief's son needs a dead body, then the whole village may be able to dig up the mass grave.

"It's harder than getting to the sky." The old village chief smiled bitterly.

"Although this is our first visit, we can see that the village is still prosperous, and there are not a few women. Why is it more difficult than climbing to the sky?" George Han asked strangely.

"It is true that there are not a few women in the village head, but getting a wife is as difficult as going to the sky, but it is not related to the people." The old village head laughed bitterly.

"What does this mean?"

"Young hero, you only know one, but you don't know the second." The old village chief said softly.

"I would like to hear the details." George Han said.

The old village chief glanced at George Han and then at the elders around him. They all shook their heads and sighed bitterly. Then, the old village chief smiled bitterly and said: "As a guest, he ate and rested. Leaving early in the evening, these are just our own troubles, not to mention it."

"The village head is warm and hospitable, and it also gives us convenience. If the village head has something to do, you might as well say straight, maybe we can help one or two." George Han said in confusion.

"Yeah, the village head, if you have any difficulties, you might as well speak up." Mo Yang also said.

The old village chief looked at George Han, Mo Yang and others with great enthusiasm, and he didn't know what to do for a while: "This..."

Chapter 2621

but only lasted for a moment, the old village chief suddenly said: "Eat some food. Although these do not look good, but the old man promises that they are all normal dishes, but the village..."

"Hey!" The village sighed long, and whispered to the side: "Lei Gong!"

"Yes!" The man named Lei Gong responded softly.

"Let's accompany the guests to dinner. If the guests are not willing, you can take them to rest." After that, the old village chief slowly got up, and said to George Han and others: "The old man is unwell and wants to rest."

Not much to accompany." As soon as the voice fell, the old village head turned and walked towards the inner house without waiting for George Han and the others to agree.

George Han wanted to get up and call the old village chief, but after all, he didn't call out.

"Everyone, eat vegetables." Lei Gong said softly.

The indifferent departure of the old village chief made the otherwise inactive atmosphere even colder. Compared with the old village chief, those old people even kept silent.

Even if there is no problem with this dish, it is obvious that this meal cannot be eaten. George Han politely asked Lei Gong to take himself and the others to rest.

It is said to be a resting place, but in fact it is just a few houses that were vacated that night.

In addition to being larger, it is just four walls plus a roof.

Ningyue and Qin Shuang's daughters spread some self-provided blankets on the ground. They wanted George Han and others to rest. However, George Han and others chose to rest in the living room by hanging ropes. The blanket in the inner room They let the girls rest.

"Hey, I said, let's rest early, and then we will leave this ghost place as soon as daybreak." While lying down, Wang Simin rushed to George Han in the living room from the back room.

"Yeah, this village is really weird. I feel panicked after staying for a second." Liu Fang also said with some fear.

"That's right, the village chief also said something helpless, but after we asked him carefully, he refused to say more. I think there is something tricky at all and it's not easy to see." Liu Sha also said.

"Although this village chief is weird, but fortunately, he left early so that we don't have to suffer at the banquet table. Those dishes, I think about it now, I feel nauseous." Wang Simin responded. Nodded."Damn, when it comes to those dishes, it's really disgusting, like some internal organs have been corrupted for several weeks and turned into a pool of mud." Dao Twelve couldn't help but vomit.

"Maybe, it's not as bad as you think." Zi Qing said weakly.

But in the next second, she might have felt the gazes of Liu Sha and other women in the dark, closed her mouth slightly, and stopped talking.

"Let's rest." George Han said, and then the energy in his hand moved directly when the door of the back room closed, closing his eyes.

Although it was weird, George Han felt that he was always living in someone's house. Therefore, let alone say that others are not.

Maybe the customs are different, maybe there are really unspeakable concealments, let others do nothing, don't blame others for behavior.

Closed his eyes, gently patted Nian'er in his arms. After the little girl fell asleep peacefully in his arms, George Han began to fall asleep slightly.

Suddenly, shortly after George Han fell asleep, strange noises suddenly rang quietly in the dark night of the village.

Although the voice was as subtle as a cockroach crawling by, with George Han's alertness, he opened his eyes in the darkness almost instantly.

"Ah!"

Tightly, the tranquility of the long night was suddenly broken by a scream!

Ningyue, Qin Shuang and other women as well as Mo Yang and others were also awakened by this scream. They ran out of the back room in a hurry, thinking about calling George Han. At this time, above the door, Han Three thousand years ago, Han Nian was already standing there.

A pair of cold eyes are like eagle eyes in the dark, staring at the direction of the village.

“What’s the matter?” Qin Shuang looked around coldly, already holding the Sword of Demons, making a defensive posture.

George Han did not speak, but at this time, in the middle of the village, the torch was already lit, and countless footsteps rushed towards that side.

“Is that the village chief’s house?” Qin Shuang said suspiciously.

George Han nodded, eyes full of confusion. If the target is oneself in the middle of the night, the scope should be on one’s own side. How could it suddenly appear near the village chief’s house?

What does it mean? !

“How could this happen!?” Apparently, Qin Shuang, like George Han, was also very confused...

Chapter 2622

George Han shook his head, he didn’t know!

“Didn’t they trouble us? How could it...” Wang Simin was also dumbfounded.

Even if they gather in secret, they should act quietly. But these footsteps are so rushed, and they don’t stop, and the fire in the village is soaring...

As long as the brain is not broken, it is impossible to gather in this way.

“Could it be that what happened in the village?” Mo Yang asked strangely.

These words reminded George Han that he was also affirming George Han’s conjecture. George Han nodded: “Ningyue, Head Du, Senior Sister.”

“Yes!” the three of them responded immediately.

“You go to the disciples first, and do a good job of safety protection. If it is not my order, you must never leave for half a step.”

“Yes!” To the place of rest.

“Others, come with me and have a look.” As soon as the voice fell, George Han took the lead and rushed towards the center of the village.

When George Han and his party arrived, the village was already crowded with torches.

A group of people surrounded each other closely, and almost blocked the water surrounding the village chief’s house.

George Han flew alone, and in the next second, he was in the air and looked down on the ground.

Above the ground, where the crowd was, it was in a side house next to the village chief’s house. In the house, there was even the sound of howling.

Seeing that Mo Yang and the others were rushing through the crowd and walking in, George Han speeded up quickly and dived straight down, rushing towards the side house all the way.

“Wow!”

George Han landed abruptly, and the group of elders who were watching in front of the house shuddered.

George Han furrowed his brows and stared at the side room.

Next to the dark coffin, the old village chief and the young man he had seen before were lying next to the coffin, gaunt and crying.

And beside the coffin, the wooden hard coffin had already broken a big hole, the entrance of the hole was uneven, and there were rebuttal bloodstains beside the hole and on the ground.

This confuses George Han. What’s the matter with the blood on the ground and the breach in the coffin?

The coffin arrived home before the evening, so why didn’t I cry before, but now I am heartbroken.

Suddenly, George Han suddenly remembered that in this coffin, there used to be living people, but now there is blood on the ground, could it be...Could there be an accident in the coffin?

However, something happened to the person in the coffin, and the two fathers and sons were so sad. This shows that this person should be very important to both of them. Then George Han doesn’t understand it. Since such an important person, why would he let him in? Inside the coffin? !

Suspicious, Mo Yang and the others also broke through the crowd, came to the side house, and stood beside George Han.

When they saw the situation in the room, they frowned one by one, obviously, just like George Han, and fell into great confusion.

At this time, an old man walked in quickly, and then said something in the ear of the village head, the village head raised his head and noticed that George Han and others were coming.

Wiping his tears lightly, the old village chief stood up and walked towards George Han: "Young man, can I take a step to speak?"

George Han nodded and followed the old village chief, and walked all the way to the lord. Room.

Inside the main house, the old village chief did not sit down, but looked at the sky, and said: "It's too early, young man and your friends, go back to the house and rest. When the sky is up, you don't need to say hello to us. , I hurriedly left here, remembering that after leaving the village, you must not go northeast, let alone the three mountains of that generation."

Hearing these words, George Han was stunned, always feeling that something was happening, saying: "The village chief, what has happened?"

"This is all in the village. It has nothing to do with you. Go back and rest."

"The village chief, married a corpse again as a daughter-in-law. Now, the living person in the coffin has disappeared. , If you don't explain it clearly, it will be difficult to convince the public, right?" Wang Simin said unceremoniously.

"How do you know what is in the coffin..." The village chief frowned upon hearing this, and the whole person became extremely vigilant.

Almost at the same time, a lot of villagers rushed in from the main house in an instant, and instead of their previous relatively relaxed attitude, they became aggressive!

George Han frowned, knowing that the coffin was filled with living people. Why did these people react so much? !

What does it mean? !
