

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2623 - 2625

Chapter 2623

“Swipe!” On

this side, Wang Simin and others also knew that the villagers were not good at coming, and they had already drawn their swords collectively without waiting for George Han to say.

The two sides were at a desperate situation.

“Stop it, put all the weapons away for me.” George Han snorted coldly. Although Wang Simin and the others were puzzled, but George Han’s eyes couldn’t be argued by anyone. He could only bite the bullet and put it away depressed. The weapon in hand.

George Han saluted slightly at this time, and quickly explained: “Village Chief, what do you mean? Why do you know the living person in the coffin will make you so furious?”

“Don’t pretend garlic in front of me, if you are not its person? , How can you know that the coffin is a living person? I believe you are wrong, you are clearly its accomplices! Come.” The village chief yelled, and in the next second, a group of villagers immediately attacked George Han and others. go.

Outside the house, more villagers also chased in angrily.

“Don’t hurt people.” George Han yelled at Wang Simin and the others, and the chaos in his hands opened!

“Broken!”

Boom!

An extremely strong energy was released from George Han’s body instantly!

Almost all the villagers were rushed by Qi Jin. When they did not reflect at all, the people in the house had been blown hard on the wall by Qi Jin and could not move.

And the villagers who rushed in were all blown backwards suddenly!

“Enough.” George Han shouted, and for a while, no one dared to move inside or outside the house.

“Haha, hahahaha!”

At this moment, the old village chief laughed suddenly, and looked at George Han closely and cursed angrily: "If you want to kill or slash, just come directly. As the village head, I believe you are wrong. I am sorry for my son and daughter Sorry to all the people in the village, please give Lao Tzu a good time, you beast."

George Han frowned, and took away the breath that trapped the village chief: "The village chief, we are staying here. It's too late to be grateful, so what? Will kill you? I don't quite understand what you mean."

"What? Is it still acting in front of us now?" The old village chief snorted coldly, "I think you don't need it, people in my village, You are in the same position as the evildoers!" "Acting?" George Han is really hard to understand: "You are all but ants in my hand. Isn't it easy to pinch you to death? Do I need to act in front of you?"

"There must be a misunderstanding in this. . ." "

three thousand do not have to bother about them, is that they Cyangugu strange, but now falsely accuse us, pinpointing under the knife, fight with them. "Wang Simin saying that, the spot will have to put the sword to assault.

"Bang!" With a muffled sound, Wang Simin just started his hand, but the sword in his hand was suddenly blown away by strange power, and his wrist hurt.

Looking back, the sword had been inserted fiercely on the wall next to it.

"Three thousand!" Wang Simin looked at George Han in confusion.

"They are not thieves, nor are they bad guys, but just unarmed ordinary people." George Han said coldly.

So many villagers can be trapped in one breath, and George Han is so powerful, of course, needless to say, but it also reflects the ability of most of the villagers.

After finishing speaking, George Han looked back at the village chief, and then removed the control of the other villagers: "The village chief, we may not be good people, but we are definitely not bad people. I don't quite understand. I know the coffin. China is a living person. How does it have anything to do with things tonight? It has caused all of you to change your attitude?"

Seeing George Han's actions and the sincerity in George Han's eyes, the old village chief's anger gradually faded: "Are you really not one of it?"

"Who is the village chief pointing to?" George Han asked in confusion.

"San Qian is our leader. We have always been his people. Who is qualified to let him be a man?" Mo Yang explained.

“Yes.”

“Yes!”

The people who followed also nodded in unison.

Seeing this, the old village frowned: “Did I misunderstand you?”

“Village Chief, what happened?” George Han asked.

Chapter 2624

“Yes, the village chief, what can you say? Not only can you clear up each other’s misunderstandings, but maybe we can help you.”

“You have seen three thousand skills just now. “

Mo Yang and the others also agreed at this time.

The old village chief raised his eyes and glanced at the elderly people next to him.

Several old men also nodded. Obviously, what Mo Yang and others said was not unreasonable.

“Okay.” The old village chief nodded slightly, then got up slightly, looked at George Han, and said, “The person in the coffin you saw is called Yin’er!”

“Nianfang twenty is mine. Daughter-in-law!”

“Daughter-in-law?” As soon as they heard this, everyone, including George Han, was so surprised that they couldn’t help but utter strange words.

Obviously, the words of the old village chief are almost a fantasy for everyone.

To know that the village chief’s son and the corpse, everyone has witnessed it with their own eyes.

But now, the living person in the coffin has emerged as his daughter-in-law. How can this not be surprising? !

Wang Simin suddenly frowned, and said with dissatisfaction: “You mean your son has a daughter-in-law, but you are locked in a coffin, and then with the corpse...I rely on it, you guys are too disgusting?”

” So your daughter-in-law objected and was put in a coffin by you? Not only did you restrict her freedom, but also humiliated him in this way?” The same woman, coupled with Wang Simin's unfair character, was quite angry on the spot.

George Han glanced at Wang Simin slightly, and signaled her not to be too emotional. If there is such a thing, it is naturally angry. But looking at the expressions of the old village chief and other villagers, George Han felt that things were not that simple.

"Actually...my daughter-in-law, Yin'er, is here today." The old village chief said slowly.

"Come through?" George Han frowned, what does this mean? !

Why would you lie in the coffin after passing the door? !

Who would lie in a coffin and marry someone?

How oozing panic is this? !

How unlucky it is!

As long as it is a normal person, I am afraid that no one wants to get started in this unlucky way? !

"Is it possible, buy one get one free?" Mo Yang said softly next to George Han.

Buy one get one free? !

"You mean, someone forced the village chief's family to solve the corpse and also included the living woman in the coffin?" Liu Fangqi said. Mo Yang nodded slightly, and this can also explain why the village chief sent his own son to such a cheating situation.

This situation seems to be the best explanation right now, and even George Han himself faintly agrees with this view.

Only the old village chief shook his head slightly: "My Jiang family has only one daughter-in-law, and that is Yin'er, the person in the coffin."

"The corpse?" George Han frowned.

"Stand-in." The old village chief said softly.

"Stand-in?" George Han frowned. He had seen a living person give a dead person a substitute for a dead ghost, but it was the first time I heard about it.

"Old village chief, what do you mean by this?" Jianghu Bai Xiaosheng also frowned.

"Yin'er wants to go through the door, but she must never let it know. So, I used a corpse as a substitute, and put Yin'er in a coffin for funeral, playing a trick of stealing a dragon and turning a phoenix. In the past, this trick was almost 100%. It was unsatisfactory, but I didn't expect this time..." At this point, the old village elder had tears in his eyes, and the whole person was very sad and regretful.

Steal the dragon and turn the phoenix? !

It's unsatisfactory again! ?

George Han's brows tightened, and the whole person was more puzzled: "Village Chief, it is it again? You have mentioned it many times. Where is it sacred?"

"Yeah!" Mo Yang also Nodded: "It can be seen that you seem to be afraid of it, and hate it, but why do you even use it as a substitute for it?"

"It?" The old village chief slowly raised his head, his eyes murmured towards the darkness outside the house. At the sky, the corners of his mouth twitched slightly, he couldn't tell whether he was crying or laughing, only that his eyes were full of bitterness.

"It's the god of our place." The former man named Lei Gong said dully.

"God?" George Han was puzzled.

Shouldn't a person who is worshipped as a god bless the locality? How could it make the villagers scared? And also came up with such a scene of stealing a dragon and turning a phoenix with a cold back? ?

The village chief stood up slowly at this time and spoke...

Chapter 2625

"This matter... starts from seven years ago."

This village was originally the only village in this desert and rainforest area. Although the conditions are relatively bad, after all, there are people in the same area. Relying on the only grassy land located at the most central junction of the desert and rainforest, although it cannot be rich, it can at least be self-sufficient, and the days can be considered peaceful and peaceful.

But fifteen years ago, a flood broke the tranquility of the village.

"That flood hasn't happened in a hundred years, although you can see that the rain forest behind can help us absorb most of the floods, and the desert in front can also help us digest the water. But the flood still attacked us!" The old village head Sighed.

The old man called Lei Gong nodded: "The flood has overwhelmed the rainforest and hit turbulently. Although we have built a dam with the entire village, in the face of the huge flood, it is nothing but a drop in the bucket."

“The depth of the flood reached tens of meters, the dam. It cannot be stopped at all. And once it breaks through the dam, it will be a disaster for all of us in the village. It will completely engulf our village, and people and animals will be completely lost in the flood.”

However, the villagers are desperate. A miracle happened when it was extremely difficult.

The whole village shook suddenly, and countless people panicked. But at this moment, the relatively bold villagers discovered an extremely astonishing thing.

In the distance, several big mountains are moving fast, like giants with life, and their destination is the village!

“A lot of people were in deep despair at that time. There was a flood in front of them, and a huge mountain shifted behind them. I am afraid that it is not an exaggeration to say that it is a catastrophe.” Lei Gong said.

The old village chief nodded steadily: “That’s right.”

When the mountain got closer and closer, even around the villagers, everyone closed their eyes in despair and waited for death, but a miracle happened.

“When the mountains moved near us, I thought they would crush us to death, but what is strange is that these mountains were quickly distributed around all of us.” The village chief said.

“It blocked the flood for us.” Lei Gong agreed.

“You mean, the mountains around the village are not nearby? They moved from a distance?” George Han couldn’t help but interject in surprise. old village head nodded steadily: “Exactly!”

Hearing the old village head’s affirmative answer, the George Han group looked at each other.

This is really shocking.

“If I guess right, this mountain is what you call it, moved over, right?” George Han said.

“Yes, at that time, the flood was gone and everyone was very excited. We knelt on the ground and thanked the gods for their blessings, but we didn’t expect that a god would really appear.” The old village chief nodded.

Among the surrounding mountains, there was a continuous hill pile formed by three mountains. A yellow light lit up and it appeared.

“It is called the great fairy of yellow sand, but the earth splits between waving hands, and the mountains move all the way. It is the king of the earth immortals. When passing through this place, we found that we were trapped by the flood, so we did a little trick and moved the big mountain a hundred miles away. Come here and cover the natural disasters for us.” The old village chief said.

“Since saving you from the fire and water, it should be for you, you should be grateful for it, why did it become like this? Fear it?” Jianghu Baixiaosheng said strangely.

The old village chief nodded. After being rescued, the villagers really appreciated it. In order to resist the flood, it has always blocked the mountains around the village, and the villagers will pray for three bucks and nine prayers from nine to five.

“But one day, Daxian Huangsha summoned all of us.” Lei Gong said that, there was even a trace of fear and sadness in his eyes.

Obviously, from that day on, it was the beginning of a nightmare for him and all the villagers.

Outside the house at this time, the breeze blew, and the already dark sky was all over the black, and there was no bright moon.

It seems that even the sky is setting against the scene at this time, or, with their memories, go back to the original years, and then can't help feeling sad for them.

All the villagers also lowered their heads at this time. Although there was a lot of sadness on their faces, they were very light, and the reason for the lightness came from their own numbness.

“That day...” Lei Gong spoke slowly...
