

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2626 - 2628

Chapter 2626

“On that day, as usual, before the flood, the weather had been gloomy for several days, but, for some reason, that day was even more suffocating.”

Huangsha Daxian summoned everyone. To the entrance of the village.

“He said that the weather is still the same, and heavy rains are still constant. Even if there are several low mountains to protect us, it is impossible to use the mountains to block floods for a long time.”

Moreover, Huangsha Daxian’s control of the mountains has entered a period of exhaustion.

Before long, the mountain will collapse, and the flood will overflow like the sea, flooding the area for hundreds of miles.

When the villagers heard these words, they were anxious and desperate.

“Unless the flood is completely removed, or the water is completely suppressed under the land, so, once and for all!” Lei Gong said, Huangsha Daxian’s request that day.

George Han frowned slightly, so, is this the root cause of the rainforest outside this wasteland? !

“Yes, for the safety of the village, we agreed.” The village chief nodded, seeming to see the doubts of George Han and others: “The rain forest outside the village outside the high mountains is born from this.”

Huangsha Daxian’s The method is to suppress the flood there, and then he will still use the mountain to guard the villagers and protect everyone’s safety.

“But this is a good thing in the final analysis, it is to suppress the flood into the ground, and to use the mountains to form the protection of the village.” Wang Simin doubted.

Hearing Wang Simin’s words, the old village chief and Lei Gong looked at each other with great bitterness.

“Does this have a price?” George Han understood in an instant, and asked softly.

The old village chief nodded heavily: “That’s right.”

“Daxian Huangsha tells us that moving the mountain has already spent a lot of his energy. If he wants to conduct water and suppress, he needs more energy, he has no way. Unless...” Lei Gong said this, looking towards him. The old village chief didn't want to mention the painful past for a while.

“Unless what?” Mo Yang said softly.

“Unless, unless the village to be sacrificed to it.” The old village with a heavy heart and said: “It needs to just three young, inexperienced girl.”

“Bastard thing.” Hearing this, one hundred rivers and lakes! Xiaosheng suddenly rose up in anger: “Since he is a great immortal, why is there a sacrifice to a living person? I think it is an evil spirit.” “Didn't you agree?” Wang Simin said coldly.

“We don't want to agree, but do we have a choice?” the old village chief said bitterly.

If he didn't hand him to others, Huangsha Daxian would have to watch the tragedy happen because of his lack of energy.

In other words, the mountain will be removed, the unrecessed flood will hit again, and everyone will be killed.

Whether they have experienced it or listened to them, George Han and others, when they heard this, they all lowered their heads helplessly, and the atmosphere became very depressing for a while.

After that, the mountain torrents disappeared and were suppressed on the ground, and soon the rainforest behind them grew.

However, the nightmare of the villagers has just begun.

Daxian Huangsha told everyone that although the flood had receded, it was suppressed by his skill. Although the villagers had a stable life, they were under his protection. Therefore, he asked us all the villagers to continue to repay. he! “

It selects four girls in the village every year, and then lets us sacrifice to it. “It's a pervert. For seven years, four per year, how many people are there in this village?” “Wang Simin said angrily. The village head nodded heavily: “That's right, so the villagers are panicked. After enduring it for a few years, more than a dozen young girls in the village lost their lives. We thought about running away, but as soon as we stepped out of the surrounding hillsides, there would be no bones left. We have also thought about rejection, but it will only invite more people to die in vain. “It was just a refusal to make a young girl a few years ago, and more than 30 people died overnight in the village.

“When we left, it criticized us for ungratefulness!” “The old village chief said with great pain: “When we refused to hand over, it said we violated our promise. But... but we really can't help it. “

“What kind of evil does this evil have to say about it, what promise? Is it worth it? , let Grandpa Dao meet it, Lao Tzu must slash it to death.” Dao Twelve said angrily.

“For so many years, every family that has a daughter almost hides it as much as possible. Even at the age of marriage, they would rather not marry. Until Yin'er is a sensible girl...” Speaking of the girl in the coffin, the old village head was quite relieved.

Chapter 2627

“She is smart and brave!” The old village head praised her.

“She is indeed ice and snow smart!” George Han slowly said at this time, but couldn't help but praise the girl who had never seen it before: “If you just tell Huangsha Daxian, there are no girls in the village. Huangsha Daxian's ability, I'm afraid those girls who are hidden by you will probably be found out.”

“So, letting people marry a corpse is actually telling the so-called Huangsha Daxian with actual actions. The village has already No one has been handed over, so that the men can only marry corpses as their wives.” George Han whispered.

The old village head nodded: “That's it.”

“I understand that the use of silent protests to make the strongest defense, this girl is really extraordinary.” George Han said softly, “However, the smarter thing is in the coffin. Tibetans, right?”

“I just said, how can anyone shun joy and sorrow, it turns out that they are playing cleverly.” George Han finally understood now.

I also know what a so-called stand-in is.

The corpse was married to show the great fairy Huangsha, and it was also shown to him how infiltrating it was riding on the coffin.

The purpose is to convince Huangsha Daxian that there are no girls in the village, and that the men in the village are so miserable and absurd because of this.

But in fact, the person in the coffin is the real bride.

Stealing the dragon and turning the phoenix not only deceived Huangsha Daxian, but also allowed the girl to marry successfully.

Since then, the marriage has been completed, and the girl can also be exempted from being sacrificed because of the change of status.

It is not an exaggeration to say that she is smart.

After listening to George Han's explanation, the old village chief, Lei Gong and others were obviously proud of their faces, while Wang Simin and others were also completely stupid in place, completely impressed by the girl's meticulous mind and extremely high IQ.

"Wonderful, so even if Daxian Huangsha doesn't believe it, and really wants to catch a bride away, it looks like a corpse, and naturally he believes more in what he sees." Wang Simin couldn't help but exclaimed.

"It's true." The old village chief nodded: "Daxian Huangsha did have a few times and took the bride away before the wedding." "However, the girl didn't have it, but it made the smelly corpses disgusting." Wang Simin couldn't help laughing excitedly.

The old village head nodded again: "Exactly."

"Since then, Huangsha Daxian rarely comes again. In this way, we have secretly sent a few girls to marry their husbands."

Everyone was relieved when they heard the words. , Some things, you look like that, but in fact it looks like a different look.

The strange mystery of the small village, totally strange.

They are not monsters, they are just adapting to their survival in a peculiar way.

Wang Simin couldn't help being happy. This girl was extremely smart, but then, when she looked at the old village chief excitedly, she saw the sadness on the old village chief's face, and then suddenly remembered that such a smart girl has now disappeared... ..

"Successful so many times and helped so many girls, but why, after all, can't help myself?" Lei Gong muttered sadly.

Yes, it's really embarrassing that people can't cross themselves in the end.

"So, after Yin'er's accident, when I noticed that the people in the coffin were alive, you think it was Great Immortal Huangsha who sent us, and even the person who reported to it after finding out the truth." George Han Now I finally understand everything in it.

"She knows that this method can't be used too many times, she could have left the best opportunity on her own." The old village chief nodded and said helplessly.

“You don’t need to be too pessimistic, the village chief. The matter has just come out. You’re may have just been arrested and not killed yet. Maybe it’s too late to chase after him.” George Han said suddenly.

“Chasing it now?” The old village head was taken aback, apparently, he didn’t expect George Han to say this, but how should he chase it?

No one is its opponent, catching up is also equivalent to dying.

“I’ll go after it!” George Han smiled softly at this time.

Chapter 2628

“Are you going to chase?”

Hearing George Han’s words, the old village chief, a group of elderly people and some villagers were all taken aback.

Obviously, they did not expect that George Han would take the initiative to invite Ying.

“No.” Lei Gong hurriedly waved his hand, and then looked at the old village chief anxiously: “The village chief, the yellow sand monster is extremely dangerous, how can the young man chase after? Besides, they are our guests, how can we let them? Taking risks with one’s body, let alone repeat the mistakes of these years!”

“Yes, the village chief, this is the matter of the village, how can I bother others?”

For the people in the village, the Huangsha Immortal is very powerful. , Chasing him is equivalent to sending him to death.

It is good that George Han is willing to help them, but they can’t just watch the good people sacrifice in vain.

The old village chief nodded, looked at George Han, and said: “Young man, you have this heart, and all of us in the village are grateful.”

“However, the fairy Huangsha is far from simple as you think.

” What does the village chief mean? Do you not trust our family?” Wang Simin laughed softly.

The old village sighed: “Is it a shame that the young man is still young, so he died in vain?! For many years, our village has been extremely hidden, but it is not without the masters stepping through. They also kindly wanted to help us, but in the end, they all There is no return, buried in the yellow sand.”

Speaking of this, a group of elders and villagers present bowed their heads in regret, and mourned the dead souls.

George Han smiled softly: "You stay here." As soon as the voice fell, he turned around and walked outside the house.

In the next second, without waiting for the old village chief and others to stop him, George Han speeded up and disappeared into the dark night.

"This..." The old village chief was taken aback for a moment, and looked at the elders and villagers who were also shocked behind him in a panic.

In the next second, the old village chief yelled and rushed out with people on the spot. At this moment, since George Han could not be stopped, he naturally had to choose to help.

However, as soon as he moved, he was stopped by Wang Simin.

"What are you doing?" The old village chief looked at Wang Simin in confusion.

"Guard your lives." Wang Simin said calmly.

"You just nonsense to me get out!!" Then, in front of all the villagers back to the old village and the old man said: "Do not worry about this girl, and quickly convene horse, holding their weapons, ready to go." everyone drank in unison, leaving now.

"Chun!"

Suddenly, at this moment, a cold light flashed, and a long sword was directly in front of everyone. At this time, Wang Simin said coldly: "Who would dare to take a step?"

"Girl!" The old village chief jumped anxiously: "You are just fooling around!"

"Do you know what magical powers that Huangsha Daxian is? Do you know who that Huangsha Daxian is? No one knows him better than we do." The anger was unstoppable, and he turned around in a hurry.

One minute late, it means an extra point of danger. When Yin'er is dead, he will have to go in with that young hero George Han.

However, as a friend of George Han, this Miss Wang was so obstructive, the old village chief was really incomprehensible.

"Daxian Huangsha?" Wang Simin thought slightly. After a while, a slight smile appeared at the corner of his mouth: "I don't know who he is, but I don't seem to have to think about who he is, but him. Consider, who is George Han!" As soon as the voice fell, Mo Yang and the others couldn't help but all smile.

Sweeping, the atmosphere, can't be forever.

This is the first perception of the old village chief.

He was a little shocked, but at the same time he fell into deeper worries.

Blind self-confidence, knowing the heights of the sky, this is a common problem of all young people. Sooner or later, they have to pay for their youth and frivolousness, but some people can buy it many times, but some people only have one time in their lives.

And George Han is undoubtedly the latter.

It's a pity that he was full of passion and justice, but in the end...

"Hey, you..." The old village chief was rather helpless.

But for Wang Simin and others, it was easy at this time and couldn't be any longer.

"Old village chief, how about a bet?" Wang Simin couldn't help laughing when he saw the appearance of the old village chief and others.

"Bet? Little girl, what do you want to bet on?" the old village chief asked puzzled.

"I bet that George Han will arrest Daxian Huangsha and come back. If he can't come back, then I lose, how about?" Wang Simin smiled lightly.

The old village chief was taken aback: "What is the best?"
