

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2641 - 2643

Chapter 2641

Shui Qi!

The tree moves!

Crushed stone!

The huge wind and waves even knocked several women and pangolins to the ground.

At this time, some disciples on the main peak and Taoyuan on the left were also surprised to find that a huge energy circle directly spread out from the right peak where Yaochi was located.

“What’s going on?” In the main peak hall, the two elders had just come out of the hall and were about to inspect the surrounding area as usual, but they were shocked when they saw the vision of the right peak where Yaochi was located.

“What a powerful aura exploded!” The other elder frowned.

“It’s a little princess!” The first elder spotted the two people fighting on Yaochi: “Just, who is the young man opposite her?”

“The little princess is the saint of my Qilin clan, although she has not opened the top. But the inner strength of the spiritual energy in my body is the invincible existence of my Qilin family. How can someone compare the spiritual energy to her?” Another elder also discovered this fact, but even greater doubts were born in his mind.

In the Qilin clan, although the little princess has not yet fully opened the top and is unable to exert her own strength, her inner breath is the topmost existence of the unicorn.

Someone can sneak attack on the little princess in 10,000 ways, but there will never be anyone who dares to provoke her by competing with internal strength.

Because it is no different from looking for death.

“Third brother, that kid, isn’t it a true god?” Another elder stared at the elder next to him in shock.

“True God?” The first elder apparently fell silent.

So young people are true gods, this is almost impossible, but then again, besides true gods, who else can have the ability to use spiritual power and inner strength to confront the little princess? !

However, just before the two of them had an answer, George Han and Xiao Xian'er over there suddenly moved slightly.

George Han smiled slightly and let out a long sigh.

The little Xian'er over there also returned to his mind, his eyes were rippling, and his expression was slightly surprised.

It was a tie!

Although his internal strength is strong, he has several energies mixed with George Han, but what makes people feel strange is that these extremely mixed energies are not only without the slightest chaos, but are completely mixed together. Under the leadership of the domineering force, it is extremely fierce! Looking at George Han, Xiao Xian'er asked in a condensed voice.

"George Han." George Han replied calmly.

"George Han?" Xiao Xian'er frowned, as if the name had been heard before.

"Fight, continue to fight, one doesn't want to be taken, the other thinks, then the strength will be the truth." Aside, the pangolin saw the two stop, and couldn't help adding fuel to the side.

The two immediately stared at this guy together.

What George Han didn't understand was what the hell was this guy doing. He clearly said that he would bring himself to solve the Five Elements God Stone and the real murderer behind the scenes, but suddenly in front of this so-called Qilin Saint, he said that he wanted to fall in love with her!

If they are accomplices, they don't have to be like this.

So obviously, this guy is deliberately starting a war.

But at the moment, although George Han was shocked by the arrogance of this woman's internal strength, she basically didn't have any other abilities except internal strength.

In other words, if George Han wanted to avoid her edge and defeat this woman by other means, it was really just a breeze.

Moreover, although this woman had just attacked herself, it was only because of anger, she was not murderous.

If a person uses force against others without murderous intent, how can he be a demon who wants a living person to sacrifice? !

Intuition and a lot of side evidence are telling George Han that the kirin saint in front of him may have a certain relationship with the pangolin, but they are a little involved with the missing girl in the village, but they are definitely not behind the scenes.

The Qilin Saintess is also very strange. The pangolin likes herself. This is almost an open secret. He can even do that kind of activity for himself.

How can you suddenly bring a man who has thoughts about yourself to this frivolous self? Even if he doesn't help, he is still encouraging?

But when both of them were confused, at this time, the pangolin sighed helplessly, and then walked a few steps to the side of the Qilin Saint Xiaoxian'er, looking at George Han and whispering: "Do you think this man Compared to Pei Hu, how about he be your father-in-law?"

"What?!" Xiao Xian'er was taken aback for a moment, his face flushed!

Chapter 2642

the man in front of you is handsome, and his internal strength is so exaggerated that he can be tied with himself. Conquer, Xiao Xian'er naturally thought it was a very good choice.

But, why is it so messy? !

"Don't talk nonsense." Xiao Xian'er yelled softly, but couldn't help but cast his eyes to George Han.

"He can help the villagers to find me to seek revenge. Naturally, he is a righteous man. When he was fighting your internal strength, he also had other ways to defeat you, but he was simply comparing his internal strength with you, indicating that he is a man of integrity. There is a gentleman's style. In addition, this kid is indeed longer than I am handsome, and I am very relieved to put you in his hands." Faced with Xiao Xian'er's shame, the pangolin didn't care, and seriously helped Xiao Xian'er. Analyze it.

"I don't know what you are talking about." Upon closer inspection, Xiao Xian'er really felt that George Han's length was really good-looking, and the pangolin's words were reasonable.

Seeing Xiao Xian'er's expression, the pangolin shook his head pretending to be helpless: "Hey, I only saw people first, and once handed over, some people were very excited. I have been chasing you for ten years, but you have no choice. I didn't move, I really licked the dog and licked the dog until the end was nothing."

“Oh, yellow sand monster, I didn’t mean it, I…”

“You just treat me as a friend, right?” The pangolin was helpless. Rolled his eyes.

Xiao Xian’er looked at him guiltily, but finally bit his lip and nodded.

The pangolin felt that at that moment, Fang Buddha heard his heartbreaking voice.

With a long sigh, the pangolin said helplessly: “It’s okay. I have already thought of the result. Otherwise, I will not bring him. After the internal force test just now, do you think that I said just now that he wants you, you are very Angry, but what I’m going to say now, you suddenly aren’t that angry anymore?”

Xiao Xian’er’s face suddenly became pink.

“Okay, since you are satisfied with his performance, it didn’t waste my toss.” After speaking, the pangolin walked up to George Han in a few steps. George Han looked back at him weirdly, wondering what this guy was going to do.

“The first step has been completed for you, and the next second and most critical step is up to you.” As soon as the voice fell, this guy would look up at the sky.

“What is the first step and the second step?”

“Naturally it is the devil’s heart you care about and the real murderer.” The pangolin smiled, looked back, and looked at George Han: “You will soon understand that I am not fooling around. “

Xiao Xian’er, it’s almost time.” He suddenly looked back at Xiao Xian’er.

Xiao Xian’er frowned, when is it almost time? But suddenly, she was taken aback, and she seemed to remember something!

Almost at this moment, above the main hall, there were loud drums. Its sound is positive, its power is strong, and its majesty is full of a breath of peace at the same time, which makes people sound different and comfortable.

Looking back, many disciples had already moved closer to the main hall of the main peak, and halfway up the mountain, a group of people were also slowly moving towards the main hall.

What’s wrong?

George Han frowned slightly.

Seeing George Han’s doubts, the pangolin smiled slightly: “This is the distinguished guest coming to the door.”

“The distinguished guest?” George Han asked suspiciously.

“It’s indeed a distinguished guest.” Xiao Xian’er nodded, her face has long since disappeared from the redness that I saw George Han just now, and some are just more cold and indifferent, and even with a little despair.

“Have you heard of the demons?” The pangolin smiled softly.

“The three palaces and four halls of the Mozu have heard about it.” George Han said, not only did he hear about it, but even one of the three palaces and two halls had fought side by side with George Han.

“Yes, but remove the three palaces and four outside the house seven doors were, as well as four families forces, now the strongest forces Tao Wu is the son of a family inferno south.”

“Pei tiger!”

“Tao Wu Family?” George Han murmured softly.

“They claim to be the incarnation of the fierce beast, extremely brutal in nature, and extremely good at fighting, so they are quite prestigious among the demons.” They have already met the demons here, and it seems that the far north is getting closer and closer. .

“Is this the second step?” The pangolin smiled lightly.

Chapter 2643

Almost just when George Han was stunned, at this time, an old man had already flown over.

As soon as he landed, he glanced at the pangolin with a bit of boredom, and then at George Han dissatisfied, apparently considering George Han as a member of the pangolin.

Then, he came to the front of Xiao Xian’er, bowed slightly, and said in a humble tone: “Little princess, the patriarch has an order, the distinguished guest has arrived, please go to the main hall.”

” Thank you seven elders to tell your father, Xian’er. If I don’t feel well today, it won’t go away.” Xiao Xian’er said with an unhappy face.

“Little princess don’t want to be temperamental, you also know that the family of Yinglu is a big clan and has a cruel personality. If you provoke Peihu’s dissatisfaction, I am afraid...” Speaking of this, the elder was slightly anxious.

“I see, I’ll go later.” With a helpless sigh, Xiao Xian’er was rather helpless.

He glanced at George Han, then looked at the pangolin, followed the Seventh Elder, turned and flew towards the main hall.

“Why are you stunned? The second step without going to see you?” The pangolin smiled, looked at George Han’s words, and then flew to the main hall.

George Han shook his head helplessly. I really didn’t know what kind of medicine this guy sold in the gourd, but when they came, George Han could only bite the bullet, follow behind the pangolin and go all the way.

At this time, the main hall was full of banquets, and the maids played string music in the corner of the hall, and the hall was full of people. Not only a group of Bangla tribesmen, but even this so-called unicorn tribe, from top to bottom, almost came out of their nests.

On the central main table, several elders and patriarchs of the Qilin clan were sitting around a young man.

And this young man was considered majestic and heroic.

He is the son of the Yingzhao clan, Pei Hu.

But some people like the dragon and the phoenix are not only burly in shape and powerful, they have a tendency to sit there without anger and self-prestige, and more importantly, this person is born with strangeness, and he is extraordinary at first sight.

The eyes are like hooks, bursting with golden light, and the blonde hair is slightly swinging, like a golden waterfall.

The old man sitting next to him was Xiao Xian’er’s father, the patriarch of the Qilin clan, Shengran! although he is smiling on the surface, his smile is relatively stiff, obviously not really happy.

The Qilin family is not that powerful, but it is definitely not Xiaoxiao, especially the daughter Xiaoxian’er who has come, is the real son of heaven, and the incomparable spiritual power in his body is the future of his Qilin family.

However, this point was also clearly spotted by the Yingzou clan. From seven years ago, this Pei Hu had already brought people to the door to propose marriage.

Although Pei Hu is good, it is a pity, but he is a demon, and they are cruel by nature, and their daughter does not like Pei Hu, and Shengran knows the real purpose behind Pei Hu’s marrying her daughter. Therefore, Shengran has always been reluctant to do this marriage. It’s just that He Yingzhao’s clan is far stronger than them, and Shenglian is really helpless.

At this moment, Xiao Xian’er also entered lightly, causing that Pei Hu’s eyes to flash.

Such a woman should only be in the sky, not in the world.

When he saw her, Pei Hu even swallowed his saliva unconsciously.

It's just that Xiao Xian'er was unusually indifferent, came to the main table, and after greeted the elders present with his dad, he stood aside indifferently.

"The unicorn has a girl, it is a blessing from heaven." Next to him, the fifth elder of Ying Lu, and Pei Hu's fifth uncle said softly in praise.

"Haha, the Fifth Elders are showing love." Shengran returned softly.

Pei Hu had been staring at Xiao Xian'er, but Xiao Xian'er had never even looked at him directly, which made him a little uncomfortable suddenly, thinking about who he is Pei Hu, that is the son of the Ying clan, the future successor. , Noble status, how can it be so ignored?

It seems that Pei Hu's dissatisfaction has also been seen. At this time, the fifth elder said slightly: "This is not the first time to come. Proposal of marriage."

"I think, patriarch Shengran will not oppose it anymore, right?"

Just as Shengran smiled awkwardly and didn't know how to answer, a voice suddenly remembered outside the door.

"I object!"
