

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2659 - 2661

Chapter 2659

Without waiting for any reaction from others, Pei Kun suddenly withdrew the sword in his hand, and George Han's sword fell along the way and slashed directly on his shoulder.

How sharp is the sword of the sky fire, a sword pierced through the shoulders directly into the bone marrow, carrying a raging fire.

"Ah!" The drama was so painful that Pei Kun, who was as stable as Mount Tai, couldn't help shouting in pain at this time.

"Fifth Elder!" Pei Hu shouted in surprise when he saw this scene.

"Hu'er, the defeat is settled, go, go!" Pei Kun tried to endure the pain, the next second, with George Han's sword on his shoulder, he rushed forward and slammed George Han. Thousand held tightly in his arms.

"What?" Pei Hu was taken aback.

"You guys, what are you doing in a daze, take the young master, and go." Pei Kun shouted with blood, and roared at the several disciples who were still alive next to him.

George Han's eyebrows shrunk slightly, his eyes cold! No wonder this guy suddenly gave up resistance. He wanted to procrastinate himself. At the moment, he had to break away from the chaos when he was lucky.

"With my body, burn my ambition, Pei Hu, the old man is unwilling." As soon as the voice fell, Pei Kun suddenly stopped moving, but his body was already full of red and black light!

"No, he wants to explode!" Shengran yelled anxiously, and immediately joined forces with a few elders to support the enchantment.

Seeing George Han in danger, Xiao Xian'er hurriedly wanted to help, but was held back by the pangolin.

"Get out of the way." Xiao Xian'er snorted coldly, and then suddenly released a powerful aura from his body, which directly shook the pangolin away.

"Xian'er, no." Seeing Xiao Xian'er angrily break free of the pangolin, and ran all the way to George Han, Shenglian was very anxious, but he was supporting the barrier in his hand, unable to withdraw, and could only watch this stupid girl wear it. Breaking the barrier, rushed to George Han.

"The devil blew himself up, it is so powerful, I'll help you."

As soon as he reached George Han's side, Xiao Xian'er yelled in a hurry, and then, with one hand, directly hit George Han's body. Yuan Ying blew himself up, almost against the sky, using everything he had to attack his opponent, leaving no room for it.

Therefore, George Han naturally knows its power.

Especially, this grandson is still so close to him!

Even if it is as strong as George Han, there is no good way at this time. He can only transport all the energy with all his strength and forcibly prop up a huge energy shield to protect himself and Xiao Xian'er.

boom! !

Almost at the same time, with a huge explosion, the blood mist filled.

"Xian'er!" Shengran

shouted anxiously in the barrier.

However, Shengran quickly took a breath, and as the blood mist dissipated, a huge golden mask appeared in front of everyone. The cover Zhonghan George Han stood firmly in it, and Xian'er was single-handed. Standing behind with George Han's back.

The two powerful masters with majestic internal forces, the energy barrier supported by them is naturally no worse than anything.

After breaking the cover, George Han directly gently sent Xian'er away from the center area full of flesh and blood, and then chased it out a few steps.

It's just that, at this time, where are the shadows of the Bangcha tribe.

"Young hero, don't chase the poor!" Seeing George Han was about to chase, Shengran took a few elders and hurriedly stopped.

No one knows what is happening outside the fairy mountain in the realm. Moreover, Shengran believes that Pei Hu and others forced the palace this time. May fall into an ambush by others!

"But..." George Han was a little depressed. How could George Han be willing to let go of the murderer of the girl in the village?

Seeing that George Han was still a little unwilling, Shengran quickly glanced at the pangolin and asked him to help persuade.

The pangolin nodded, coughed, and walked a few steps in front of George Han, and said softly: "People can't catch it, but about the Five Elements God Stone..."

George Han frowned when he heard this. , Looked back at him...

Chapter 2660

Chong Shengran nodded, Shengran understood immediately, and raised his hand softly: "It's all right, come in, come in." As he said, Shengran gently patted George Han. Shoulders, invite him into the house.

George Han looked behind him a little unwillingly, and just let that Pei Hu escape, which was really unwilling.

At this time, Pei Hu and the others had already escaped from the mountain and joined a large number of disciples outside of Xianshan.

As Shengran expected, although Pei Hu and the others came to propose marriage this time, it was true that they forced the palace. Therefore, this time, not only Pei Hu, a master jumper, but also the elite soldiers of the Yingzou clan were also ambushing outside the mountain early.

Once the Qilin clan dared not respond, Pei Hu and these elite soldiers ambushing outside the mountain would directly threaten them by force.

However, the ideal is full, but the reality is very backbone.

No one would have expected it. The development of the matter was far beyond expectation. Before Pei Hu started, he was already defeated by a more powerful master.

As a result, the overall plan is all messed up.

When he heard the explosion in the fairy mountain, he was angry on the spot and rushed back.

"My son, no." The subordinate hurriedly grabbed him and said anxiously: "The Fifth Elder used his own life to allow you to run out. If you go back, isn't it the same as sending you to death for nothing?"

"That kid deceived too much. he barely played really thought I was invincible? I just barely out of his hand fills again if I need to kid him a rude awakening, moreover, I have you ten thousand chosen men, for even afraid of him? "

Wrath On the one hand, he had the confidence to converge with his own elite, and on the other hand, Pei Hu naturally dared to challenge again at this time.

"Master, even if we have good soldiers, don't forget, the attitude of the Kylin clan towards that kid has already changed."

“Are you still afraid that the Qilin clan would dare to help that kid?” Pei Hu said angrily.

The servant lowered his head, although he did not speak, but the meaning was already very obvious.

“If the Qilin clan dares to help that kid, it will be a big deal for me to flatten his Qilin clan.” Pei Hu said angrily.

“Master, although the Qilin clan is not as good as before, but the so-called skinny camels are also bigger than horses. If you rush to attack, plus the master, it’s easy to talk about it with us alone? Stay in the green hills, don’t be afraid that there’s no firewood. Don’t ruin the self-sacrifice of the five elders.” The subordinate hurriedly persuaded. “But...” Hearing this, Pei Hu was anxious and angry, but he also understood that his subordinates’ words were not unreasonable. The moment he slammed his fists on the ground, he was very depressed: “Damn it, isn’t it so vain to forget it?”

“Master, naturally it won’t be the same. When we go back and discuss the long-term plan, in the future, this kid will not be able to eat.” The subordinates said, quite it made sense, and also gave Pei Hu a proper step to go down, nodded, no longer said, waved his hand, and withdrew his own people.

And at this time, in the main hall of Qilin.

Pei Kun’s death has long been forgotten. On the main table in the hall, Qilin Patriarch Shengran has invited George Han to the left deputy seat, and his own daughter Xian’er on the right. Looking at it this way, it is quite an old man. The appearance of bringing newcomers to attend.

Many elders also toasted one by one at this time, and one after another respected George Han.

“Han Shaoxia, I am the fourth elder of the Qilin clan.

I toast you a cup.” “I am the fifth elder, come, I also toast you.”

“I am the eighth elder. “

A group of elders were enthusiastic, and they all approached George Han.

Although George Han didn’t want to hurt their face, so he could only take it one by one, but apparently, let Pei Hu, the culprit, run like this under his nose, and George Han was in a bad mood.

Seeing that George Han was in a normal mood, Shengran stood up quickly and said with a smile: “Okay, okay, all of you sit back quickly. What’s the difference between you toast and drink wine?”

” Oops, patriarch, what’s the matter? The people who started to protect you so soon are here?”

“Haha, yeah, patriarch, it’s okay to roll your elbow in, but we are yours too.”

“Oh, we are a bunch of old guys with old arms and legs. How can we compare to young talents like Han Shaoxia, hahaha!”

Listening to a bunch of old men’s rhetoric and strange glances at themselves Suddenly, George Han’s hand holding the wine glass was stunned in mid-air, and the whole person frowned.

“By the way, Han Shaoxia, I have something to ask.”

At this moment...

Chapter 2661

At this moment, an elder slowly looked at George Han and spoke.

George Han frowned, and there was a vague premonition in his heart, so he didn’t want to answer the conversation at all, but no matter how everyone looked at him with a smile, George Han could only hold back helplessly, and said: “What is the matter with the elders? ? ” “

Oh, how can you ask Han Shaoxia it, I do not know etiquette. to ask these things have to ask the patriarch ah. ” “

Oh yeah, you ah, old fool. “

a bunch of elders swore laughter, but between each other It is not happy.

“Okay, then I will ask the patriarch, are you satisfied with George Han?”

“Haha, silly question, do you need to ask?”

Shengran also laughed and was about to speak.

Aside, but has three elders spoke up: “Gu said the golden couple, perfect match, but already the word is casually and, where they want, today it is an eye-opener.” “Three elders saying this is good, more and more I like it. This man is handsome and unrestrained, with peerless power, and the woman is graceful and graceful, and has the power of ten thousand breaths. This is simply made in heaven, the world’s double.”

“The so-called perfect combination, used to describe it, is just like this.

Right ." Everyone said very happy, Shengran was also very happy, laughed, waved his hand: "I am also very optimistic, very satisfied. However, marriage is not a trifling matter, this matter is still a fairy Er nod."

After speaking, Shengran turned his gaze on Xiao Xian'er: "Xian'er, Han Shaoxia is the one you are satisfied with? The king of dreams?" Upon hearing this, George Han stopped working. Now, let's talk about it, if you want to be real, how can you do it?

Seeing that George Han got up and was about to stop, the pangolin hurriedly grabbed George Han's arm and yelled anxiously, "What are you doing?"

"Bullshit, when did I say that I would marry her?" George Han took the pangolin's hand away, and stood up to say again.

The pangolin was still persevering and held George Han again. Seeing that someone had cast his gaze, he whispered, "Don't you want to know the secret of the Five Elements God Stone?"

"Even if you want to know, it's not at the price of me marrying her." George Han replied. "Damn, are you a man? Xiaoxian'er is a great country, how can you be so..." The pangolin was depressed.

"I have a wife." George Han glared at him speechlessly: "So you don't want to mention this matter again."

"Hey!" He held George Han again, and the pangolin said: "Even if you want Rejection is not at this time. The Qilin clan is full of talents. If you refuse in person, what is your face?"

"Listen to me, you pretend to accept it first. I'm sure not to propose marriage, but still make sure you can know. How about the secret of the Five Elements Divine Stone?"

"Just as I beg you."

George Han looked at the pangolins slightly, and refused them in front of everyone. It would really make the Qilin clan people unable to get off the stage, especially the Qilin patriarch and Xiao Xian'er has no prestige.

Even if the matter of the Five Elements God Stone is not considered, George Han is unwilling to affect the innocent.

"Pangolin, what are you talking nonsense with Shaoxia Han?" Shengran also noticed the small movements of the pangolin and George Han, and could not help but whispered at the pangolin.

“Oh, nothing, just to help you ask this kid if he would like it or not. In the end, this kid is not only willing, but he couldn’t bear what he wanted, so I grabbed it.” The pangolin laughed.

Hearing this, Shengran laughed and said, “You are a yellow sand monster, you are very cunning. However, this time, you not only helped Xiao Xian’er avoid that ugly marriage, and at the same time, brought back a unique son, old man. I am very happy. From today onwards, you yellow sand monster is our noble guest.” As soon as this was said, a group of elders laughed happily, and the pangolins also chuckled like a fool.

“Since Han Shaoxia has no objection, although I know the daughter Mo Ruo father, according to the rules, I still have to ask Xian’er first, what do you think?” At this time, Shengran looked at Xiao Xian’er who was aside.

Everyone immediately turned their eyes to Xiao Xian’er...
