

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2680 - 2682

Chapter 2680

“Pierite?”

“Yes, that’s the commander on the chariot of horses.” Ningyue frowned.

Throughout the whole journey, although the voice was nowhere to be found, Ningyue was surprised to find a place that was unique.

All the petrified people were busy with their own affairs in the future, but only the vertical eyed stoner was motionless throughout the process.

Ningyue always felt something weird, until the end, she suddenly reflected, this weird, isn’t it just this guy? !

“As soon as Ningyue said, it seems to me that I really remembered that the pierced stone man is a bit weird.” After touching his head, Mo Yang also reflected at this time.

“Could it be that the sound came from that guy?” Dao Twelve also said helplessly.

“The so-called capture the thief first capture the king, no matter whether he made the sound or not, in short, take him first.” Wang Simin said coldly.

A group of people nodded suddenly, and in the next second, regardless of the three or seven twenty-one, the twenty-one people quickly rushed towards the Jinjiashimen.

Soon, a group of people arrived.

Twenty-one pairs of eyes were looking at the pierced stone man on the carriage, one by one, ready to go!

The golden armor guards moved in unison, uniformly like training, with spears stabs, standing on the waist and horses, majestic and extraordinary.

On the carriage, the man with the vertical eye still raised his hand slightly, pointing to the front, like a general commanding thousands of troops and horses, with a magnificent weapon.

“Although they don’t seem to see us, will we cause worse consequences if we move them?” Jianghu Baixiaosheng said.

“You have to move if you don’t move, otherwise we will always be trapped here.” Ningyue shook her head.

“Lu Yuan, Zhong Beihai rushed with me, and the others were in charge of the left, right and the queen.” Ningyue commanded, and spiritual power was suddenly lifted from her hand.

“Yes!” Everyone took their orders!

“Go!” As

soon as the voice fell, Ningyue, Lu Yuan, and Zhong Beihai took the lead, and flew towards the erectorite in a triangle. The other eighteen people were divided into six teams, with four teams flying around, two The team goes up behind!

Near, near, getting closer and closer.

But the vertical eye stone man still maintained a fixed posture, motionless.

“Is it possible that you guessed wrong?” Ningyue frowned, and her heart sank.

The two companions, Lu Yuan and Zhong Beihai, were also a little puzzled for a while. Could it be true that they guessed wrong? ! “Guard!”

Suddenly, when the sword tips of the three of them were less than half a meter away from the erector, he suddenly opened his mouth to drink, and his figure instantly turned into an afterimage.

“Drink!”

Almost at the same time, all the golden armor guards suddenly screamed in anger, turning their bodies, and pointed their spears at everyone.

“Sure enough, come on!” Ningyue yelled anxiously, and suddenly flicked the long sword in his hand, changed direction, and walked in the direction where the stone man retreated.

Zhong Beihai and Lu Yuan were equally aggressive and cut straight to the left and right roads of Shiren.

“Arrogant!” The vertical-eyed stone man roared angrily, and while his figure kept retreating, a sudden golden light shot from his eyes, directly hitting the center of the moon.

“Qi Jin!” Ningyue faced the golden light without hesitation when she was blessed by the long jade sword.

At the same time, the erect-eyed stone man raised his head slightly, and the soldiers on the side attacked suddenly, and the eight horses pulling the cart also croaked and rushed forward abruptly.

An energy in Zhong Beihai's hand directly supported the barrier to resist the eight-horse carriage. Lu Yuan also moved vigorously and confronted the soldiers who attacked him.

The remaining eighteen people were dealing with the enemies in front of them.

Simply prepared for a while, even if the number of people is not large, the twenty-one people have offensive and defensive, forming a formation of each other, facing the opponent's sneak attack and a large number of people, they can fight equally for a time.

“Boom!”

But at this moment, there was a roar at the forefront of the center, and Ningyue held a long sword and met the golden light from the vertical eye stone man's eyes.

Suddenly, it exploded!

Ningyue fell from the sky, knelt on one knee slightly, covered her chest with her hand, and traces of blood flowed down the corners of her mouth.

The vertical-eyed stone man also calmly stabilized his figure, stood on the ground, and shook slightly.

“Om!”

A scepter flashed out of his hand, firmly supporting his body while humming the ground.

When everyone heard the buzzing sound, they subconsciously rushed to Matsushita to cover their ears with their hands in a hurry, but as soon as they covered it, a group of people were surprised to find that the harsh sound did not appear.

Instead, there were bursts of terrifying roars and extremely loud footsteps!

When everyone looked back, they were shocked...

Chapter 2681

large number of “stone men” are now frantically emerging here!

“Well, we are surrounded.” Mo Yang exclaimed.

“How can there be anything that is not surrounded, in this cave, we will always be surrounded!” Wang Simin snorted coldly.

“The entire cave is extremely empty, there is no danger to guard, what should we do?”

“Fight with them.” Sword Twelve roared, lifted the knife and directly greeted it.

“Don’t be impulsive...” Mo Yang wanted to stop, but it was too late at this time.

Lu Yuan and Zhong Beihai looked at each other, and all the stone men in the crypt moved over. Whether it was the soldiers patrolling the outer layer or the residents before, they were densely packed like an army of ants.

The two nodded to each other, it was impossible to fight hard, and no one was the kind of perverted George Han, who could fight one thousand, or even tens of thousands!

In the face of such a raging army, there are not many options for their masters. It is the only choice to capture the thieves and the king first.

Almost at the same time, Lu Yuan and Zhong Beihai simultaneously used their forces to block the soldiers and the carriage that trapped them. The next second, they pulled out the gap and attacked the vertical-eyed giant together!

“You can block it for as long as you can.” Ningyue shouted at Wang Simin, and in the next second, she flew away quickly, joining the battle between Lu Yuan and Zhong Beihai.

“Got it.” Wang Simin nodded heavily, gritted his teeth, and slammed back towards the soldier in the golden armor.

On the other end, Ningyue and the three of them rushed towards the erect-eyed giant.

Facing the menacing attacks of the three, the vertical-eyed giant was expressionless, and with a move of his hand, he slightly pressed the golden scepter against him.

“Om!”

In the next second, the sword of the three intersects with the scepter, and the golden scepter also emits a strong golden light, firmly resisting the attack of the three.

Three spirits to one spirit!

The aftermath tears the space and shakes the surroundings!

“This guy...!” Lu Yuan’s expression was defeated and sweat flowed down.

“This golden light is so strong.” Zhong Beihai was also embarrassed.

“We don’t have time, we have to fight with him.” Ningyue also endured the severe pain with difficulty, and suddenly moved her hand, instilling all her energy into it without reservation.

She understood that if she couldn’t defeat this vertical eyed stone man with a single blow, then once the other stone people closed up, they would no longer have any chance to turn over. Lu Yuan both responded in unison, and likewise increased their energy unreservedly.

Suddenly, the energy of the three people shines!

The golden light of the scepter was also eclipsed by the light of the three.

“Fight! Break!” Ningyue yelled, her hand suddenly pressed!

boom!

Three lights are broken!

“Om!”

Suddenly, a strange sound came, and in the next second, the vertical eyed stone man suddenly disappeared in place!

Lu Yuan appeared tightly in front of Ningyue.

And Lu Yuan was facing Zhong Beihai, and Zhong Beihai was obviously facing Ningyue!

“What?!”

“What?”

“How could this be?” The three of them were shocked and looked at each other.

But at this time, the distance between the three of them was too close, and it was too late to stop.

boom!

The three lights connected, and an explosion sounded.

“Puff!”

Almost at the same time, Ningyue’s trio spurted blood and flew out in three directions!

“Bang bang bang!”

Three muffled sounds, the three of them fell heavily to the ground.

In the short distance attack, the three of them had no backhands at all, and hit each other on each other. In terms of their high level of cultivation, they were naturally seriously injured.

How could they have thought that at this critical moment, the man with erect eyes would suddenly disappear, and they would suddenly turn their gang into opposition? !

“Swipe!” The

three of them were not stable, and dozens of golden armored soldiers had arrived with their long spears over there.

Rao has a very high level of cultivation. Even if he is severely injured, he still has enough ground to avoid the attack of the Golden Armored Guardian.

“Bang bang bang!”

Almost at the same time, Wang Simin and the other eighteen people’s team also began to fall apart with a few muffled noises.

The number of stone people is really large. Although the 21 people have a good cultivation base now, they can hardly match four hands with two fists.

Faced with the continuous emergence of stone men like a tide, a group of people were shocked and filled with despair.

At this time, George Han and the pangolin were rapidly approaching the village from the ground.

“Do you feel weird?” The pangolin stopped suddenly, staring at the location of the crypt from the ground...

Chapter 2682

George Han frowned and shook his head: “What’s wrong?”

“There are strong energy fluctuations in the village.” After the pangolin finished speaking, he looked at George Han: “Can’t you feel it? ? “

Han was about to speak three thousand, pangolin patted his head:”. rely on, forget that this is in the ground, only I sense a very strong “

,”? the village out of trouble yet, “Han three thousand softly frowned.

“I don’t know, the place where the aura exploded is nearly 100 meters from the ground.” Pangolin said.

“Under the village?” George Han frowned, which really puzzled him.

If conflicts broke out in the village, George Han would be happy to accept them, but what does it mean that conflicts broke out underground?

“You kid, shouldn’t you have an accomplice? You are a native of the native land, and it is normal for your accomplices to behave underground.” George Han asked suspiciously.

The pangolin felt tight. “Brother, I’m all yours now. I still dare not make a mess? Besides, I want to have an accomplice, and I will fight with you when I first meet you, and I will keep it for now. now, wait for the next Aberdeen ah? ” “

Besides, it is an underground tomb in the village where the trouble occurred, hairy with me. ” “

underground tomb? ” “

as a soil Ling zhu, of course, what’s hiding underground village but my eyes. the place has graves, although I did not go off, but I’d induction into there are many stones. ” ” a lot of stone? ” “

Yes, the tomb is full of things made of stone, even a There are no bones.”

George Han frowned involuntarily when he heard this.

Is there such a weird grave? Could it be that what is it?

“Damn, you won’t be defeated by gold and jade? If you keep saying to help the villagers, you actually want to steal the gold clothes and jade armor from other people’s graves, right?” Suddenly, the pangolin remembered something.

“Golden clothes and jade armor?” George Han smiled: “I can move out with a lot of money to bury you alive.”

“Then I don’t know.”

” Let’s take a look.” As soon as the voice fell, I didn’t wait for the pangolin to be available. He reflected that George Han had already directly mobilized aura, and pushed the goods forward frantically.

In just a few seconds, the two had arrived at the bottom of the crypt. However, the pangolin did not move.

“What are you doing in a daze?” George Han frowned.

“Here.”

“Go in.” The

pangolin remained motionless, but his face flushed slightly.

“Won’t you tell Lao Tzu that you can’t get in?” George Han seemed to have discovered something.

The pangolin’s face was even more flushed, and he touched his head in embarrassment.

“Yes, I can’t enter...”

“The tomb is surrounded by special stones, and the diameter is more than three meters...”

If you can enter, the pangolin would have gone in to see what happened. NS.

“It seems that you are not as strong as you thought. Xiao Xian’er looks down on you and can understand it.” George Han couldn’t help being speechless.

“Asshole, I have said everything, this outer layer of stone is extremely strong, don’t talk about me, even if you find a big Luo god, he will...”

“Damn! My deed...”

Just in the pangolin. When he tried his best to argue, and when he yelled at him, something stunned for him appeared.

At this moment, I saw George Han step forward slightly, and immediately after holding the jade sword in his hand, the Five Elements Divine Stone moved and pointed his sword directly at the thick stone layer around the tomb.

Qi Luck at the tip of the sword, breaking through the stone!

Wow!

The hard and indestructible boulder, instantly like a layer of water, kept giving way, so that George Han and the pangolin continued to rise.

Although the boulder is hard and others can’t use it, but who let it meet, it was the abnormal George Han? !

As George Han’s chaotic energy widened, the Five Elements Divine Stone reversed its power, turned into golden power, and broke through the boulder!

“Bang!”

Almost just when Ningyue and others were desperately waiting for death, there was a sudden muffled noise somewhere in the entire cave.

In the next second, two figures jumped out.

Ningyue's gang were all dumbfounded at the time. No one had hoped that someone would come to rescue them, but the problem is that even if everyone wanted to break their heads, they would not have thought that someone would never be a hundred meters deep. It burst out from the ground...

so when the two rushed out, everyone was shocked.

However, when one of them was clearly seen, the worry and fear on everyone's faces disappeared.

"Han...George Han."

"It's George Han!"
