

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2701 - 2703

Chapter 2701

“Exactly.” She nodded slightly.

As soon as the voice fell, a white light suddenly appeared in her hand, and then, the dragon plate in George Han’s hand slowly flew into her hand.

“This thing...” George Han really wanted to say something, not to mention relying on this thing to find him here, he doesn’t even know what this thing is or how to use it.

However, when the words came to the mouth, they didn’t know how to speak.

For him, this is indeed a shame.

Picking up the dragon plate, she just glanced at it, and then smiled slightly: “It seems that the emperor has not opened it yet.”

George Han nodded, but did not deny: “Indeed, from the beginning of getting it, I tried several times, but every time I failed, I always felt that I was far from enough to open it up.”

She nodded and did not speak. Then, a slight golden light rose in her hand. The dragon disk began to rotate slightly, and faster and faster...

As the dragon disk turned quickly, cyan light appeared slightly around it.

“Emperor, help me.” She yelled softly.

George Han nodded, just after taking a step, over there, the woman had already waved her hand gently and lifted George Han’s hand with a burst of energy. Then, George Han felt a powerful force pushing her own power continuously. Wander the arm.

Without further ado, George Han focused his attention and directly sent power from his arm to the dragon plate.

“Om!”

Long Pan made a fierce, crisp sound, and then entered, the Pangu imprint faintly appeared on the inner plate of the dragon pan.

After that, the blue dragon on the outer plate quickly condensed, and finally Hua gently ran out of the plate, bending over the sky, and turning into a blue barrier!

George Han suddenly became a little excited. After all, the last time he used his full strength, it was just that the outer blue qi gradually turned into a blue dragon, and he couldn't get to this step at all.

As the cyan barrier rose, the woman slightly raised her finger and whispered in her mouth. After a spit of golden blood burst out of her mouth, she bit her teeth, and suddenly both fingers condensed the empty point towards the cyan barrier.

As her energy reaches the cyan barrier, like a drop of milk in cyan ink, it instantly melts at the point of contact, and then forms a natural small dot.

After the dots were almost stabilized, a line of light suddenly extended from the dots above the cyan barrier, and slowly extended outwards until it suddenly stopped when it was about the length of the middle finger. "Puff!" Almost at the same time, blood sprayed from the woman's mouth, and she fell to the ground in pain.

The cyan barrier turned into a blue dragon, and once again returned to the dragon plate, the Pangu seal was also dim.

"Senior!" George Han retracted the dragon plate and leaned over to help the woman.

"Emperor, don't get in the way." She smiled bitterly, and shook her hand to George Han to signal that she was okay: "It's not something I can touch, and I can't let it last for long."

George Han looked at the dragon plate, Some hesitation, even this unpredictable predecessor, can't open it completely?

Then in this world, who else can open it? !

"The emperor don't need to be discouraged, the dragon plate belongs to you, naturally you can open it." She smiled lightly, lying on the ground, looking at George Han.

"It belongs to me?" George Han said: "You tell me, this thing was given to me by my friend."

"Everything in the world is natural, it belongs to you, and it belongs to you naturally." She smiled.

"But I really don't know when I can open it." George Han said disappointedly.

In fact, his current cultivation base basically believes that he has reached a bottleneck, but unfortunately, this bottleneck is unable to effectively drive the dragon disk at all.

"You really can't open it, but you must be the one who can open it in the end." She chuckled softly.

"What do you mean?" George Han didn't quite understand.

She said that something belongs to her, and that only she can open it, but she also said that she can't open it. This is a huge contradiction. If it is for someone else, George Han will not want to ignore him at all.

She smiled: "Emperor, do you know what this dragon plate is?"

George Han shook his head: "I only heard that there is any dominating power in it?"

"What is dominating power again?" she asked with a smile.

George Han shook his head again: "Senior, please!"

She waved her hand gently and motioned to George Han to get closer. George Han nodded and moved closer...

Chapter 2702

"Emperor, is there anything stronger than Chaos in this world?" Seeing George Han approached, she whispered.

The power of chaos is the ancestor of all qi, and the strongest of nature is the power of chaos.

"Senior, do you mean that the so-called power of dominance is the power of chaos?"

She nodded heavily.

"It probably means this, but what it means is not just that simple, all kinds of mysteries, or when the emperor opens the dragon plate, he will slowly spy and enjoy it."

"I can only tell you that it will eventually lead to ancient times. The fundamental reason for the collapse of the times is because of the small dragon plate in the hands of the emperor."

Hearing this, George Han was dumbfounded, his eyes staring like Tongling.

This small dragon disk turned out to be the root cause of the ancient era's burst and the outbreak of the battle between the gods and demons, which is simply unbelievable.

"I can't believe it?" she whispered.

George Han did not deny this.

"That's because it looks mediocre and unsurprising now." She said softly.

“For you people in the post-True God era, its existence will not attract anyone’s attention at all, and even if it does, you don’t know its secrets at all. Even if you know it, what can you do with it?”

George Han nodded. Even George Han himself never thought of the existence of the dragon disk. If it weren’t for the imprint on the disk that George Han would recognize, George Han would not even regard it as an important one. thing.

“In the dragon disk, six people are needed to open it.” She whispered.

“Yes, you, and the people of the five races.” She nodded: “In order to protect it, the head of the five races was sealed together, so if you want to unlock the outer protection, you need the head of the five races to seal it. After that, the person who has the Mark of Pangu can open it.”

“I just represent the Xuanyuan clan and unlocked the seal of my clan.”

“When the five-star connection and the blue dragon are destroyed, the outer disk will dissipate, and you, the emperor. , You can unlock the inner disk and obtain the purest and most domineering power in the world and some very magical things.” She said softly.

“Emperor, why aren’t you excited?” she asked strangely. George Han shook his head helplessly: “I am not interested in these things. What I want most is my wife and daughter by my side.”

“Emperor, everything is an arrangement, everything is a definite number.” , Sometimes just because you are too obsessed, it has become a certain number.” She smiled gently.

What does this mean?

George Han’s brows furrowed, there was clearly something in these words, and it was aimed at himself and Amelia Su, but he didn’t quite understand what she meant.

“You will understand later.” She chuckled softly: “It’s too early, you should almost leave.” As soon as the voice fell, the surrounding golden palace had disappeared, leaving only the vast loess and thatched huts, and George Han stood beside him. The horse head girl also gradually became transparent, and finally turned into a streamer, lightly lifted into the sky, blending with the heaven and the earth.

Instead of waiting for George Han and the pangolin to react, they opened their eyes and looked around, but they didn’t know when they were standing in the stone house again.

George Han bowed to the stone statue, expressing gratitude, the small door of the stone house opened slightly, George Han glanced at the pangolin, the two nodded to each other, turned around and walked out together.

Rumble!

Suddenly, almost immediately when the two of them had just walked out of the stone house, the entire grotto shook violently, and the top of it was broken and falling, and the stone bricks on the ground were also cracking, and the stone door at the entrance slowly opened with the sound of rumbling.

“It’s not time to speak, this place is about to collapse, leave here.” George Han glanced at everyone, yelled softly, and ran towards the entrance with everyone.

When a group of people rushed out of the big stone gate, the entrance also spewed out a lot of mud and rocks, which completely collapsed!

“I rely on it, it’s dangerous, I was almost buried alive.” Dao Twelve looked behind him, unable to help but frightened.

“Is everything all right?” George Han glanced and saw everyone ran out safely. Then he let out a sigh: “Go back to the village and talk about it.”

Almost at the same time, inside the broken grotto, in the loess hut. Suddenly, the figure of the horse head girl reappeared, and a man slowly walked out of the inner room.

“Are you here?” Seeing the man, the horse head woman lowered her body slightly.

Chapter 2703

“The emperor, he is gone?” The man is tall and mighty, and his body is faintly golden.

“Yes.” Ma female head nodded: “Why not come out to see him?”

“Self-will meet, why hurry,” he smiled gently: “The challenge, of how he passed”?

“Vertical eye Shiren It’s not his opponent, and he can lose without three moves.”

He nodded in satisfaction: “What about the Linglong mechanism?”

“Although he did play a few silly moves with him, he quickly discovered the problem. “Speaking of this, the horse head girl smiled softly: “If you do this, you are not afraid that the emperor will not come in at the end?” The man laughed and said, “The two old men blow the emperor so beautifully, I always have to look at our emperor. who is not really that of God. ” “

but, he reminds me very satisfied, both Kazuo courageously off of, there are beings clever measure, not bad. ” “ you are good, however, and so he fully awakening of the future At that time, will you blame us at that time.” The woman sighed helplessly.

“As long as Amelia Su doesn’t die, he will never blame us.” The man said.

“Then what if Amelia Su wants revenge?” The Horse Head Girl smiled.

“Why does she want revenge? This is her duty, Amelia Su, who made her identity not as simple as the daughter of the family supporting her?”

“The Emperor Xuanyuan is the only one who can use Xuannv in this way.” The woman smiled bitterly. Shook his head.

Emperor Xuanyuan!

This man turned out to be the patriarch of the Xuanyuan clan, one of the former emperors, the Great Emperor Xuanyuan.

“Why don’t those two old men use strange tricks frequently?” Emperor Xuanyuan smiled lightly, “Fortunately, the emperor finally came to this barren land.”

“I think that when the emperor walks into this land of the undead, the heroes who died in the battle of the gods and demons will rest in peace.” The horse head girl nodded: “There is nothing more than the return of the once emperor. It’s inspiring, I think it will be exactly as you said.” Emperor Xuanyuan nodded his head heavily: “Who can think of this so-called scorched earth on earth, the forbidden land of the demons, is it actually not what they thought?” “Everything will be revealed!”

“I am also looking forward to that day.”

At this time...

George Han and others also climbed onto the ground from the stone ladder and walked out Ancestral hall.

The sky was beginning to light up. When George Han and others came out, the old village chief had led the whole village and stood outside the ancestral hall collectively.

Seeing the old village chief, George Han was a little apologetic, the yellow sand monster was not cleared, and the real murderer was not arrested at all, but he completely destroyed the crypt.

Now, it seems reasonable that the old village chief led all the villagers to besiege.

Thinking of this, George Han took a special look at everyone and motioned to them not to mess around.

Then, George Han got up slightly, and just raised his feet to go to apologize in person, but the old village chief and a group of people had suddenly knelt down.

“I have seen my ancestor grandfather.”

As the old village chief shouted loudly, a group of villagers behind him also shouted in unison.

In such a scene, even George Han was taken aback.

In the next second, George Han hurriedly greeted him: “Old village chief, what are you doing?”

“Ancestor grandfather, it was me who was so dizzy and blind to Mount Tai, who mistakenly regarded you as..., and... Let you help us fight monsters...” The old village chief was full of regret, and he didn’t know how to speak anymore.

“The silkworm goddess has already appeared to tell us everything, hey, I, I am guilty.” After the old village chief said, it seemed that it was not enough, and she was ready to slap herself fiercely. Fortunately, George Han hurriedly slapped herself. Grabbed him.

“Old village chief, it doesn’t have to be this way.” George Han shook his head.

“Thank you ancestor grandfather for forgiveness, by the way, Lei Gong, what are you still doing, why don’t you take out the things quickly?” The old village chief suddenly remembered.

“Something?” George Han frowned.

Lei Gong lowered his head: “It’s the goddess of silkworm, let us give it to you.” After speaking, he took out something from his arms...
