

Public Square.

The place was crowded since eight o'clock in the morning. However, there was a cleared path straight to the centre. everyone tacitly left an access because they came for the show. If they didn't leave a pathway for Han Jingru, how could they witness the historical moment?

"Will Han Jingru come? If he doesn't come after we waited for an entire night, I would go crazy!"

"I think he most definitely will. After all, Jiang Fu has given his words. Do you think a trash like him dares not to come?"

"I have always heard about that name but I have never seen his face before. I can finally witness his true face today. I am just curious with his looks as to how he could make Su Yimo be so infatuated with him."

Before the main character came, those who were waiting for the drama were gossiping amongst themselves.

Ever since the day before, that had been a norm. The topics regarding Han Jingru had reached a new height. After all, the name Han Jingru had been popular for an entire three years. Almost everyone would gossip about him. However, most of the people had never seen how he looks like. Therefore, they were simply here not just to see the show but also to satisfy their curiosity.

After one hour, the weather got warmer and the crowd started to lose patience. After all, heat could affect their mood as well.

"F**k, what if Han Jingru doesn't come?"

"Since he is a trash, it is also understandable for him not to come. Otherwise, why would he be called a trash?"

"How dare he makes me wait for so long? Jiang Fu better show him a good time. Otherwise, who is gonna avenge me?"

When a lot of people started to curse, there was an Audi A6 parking by the street. Han Jingru and Su Yimo got down the car. And when he saw such a huge crowd, he just couldn't help but laughed.

"I haven't expected so many people to care for me. It seems that I have a lot of friends in Yun city!" Han Jingru said with a smile.

Su Yimo wasn't in the mood to joke at all. All these people came to witness how Han Jingru would embarrass himself. What kind of friends were those?

"Jingru, will it really be okay?" Su Yimo asked.

"Why not you wait for me in the car?" Han Jingru asked.

Su Yimo shook her head unhesitantly. Even if he were to be humiliated, she would stay by his side.

Husband and wife should stay by each other no matter what happens. Su Yimo would never leave him alone.

"How can I let you go alone?" Su Yimo said.

Han Jingru simply held Su Yimo's hand and said, "I will never leave you in this world alone as well. Unless I die."

"Can the two of you don't be so cheesy? Can't you see that situation? How can you be in the mood to flirt?" There was a woman's voice that interrupted them. Shen Zhuoman was rubbing her arms with goosebumps as she approached them.

"Even you come to watch the show?" Han Jingru chuckled.

Shen Zhuoman held Su Yimo's hand and pulled her to her side, "I came to protect my woman. I can't be letting her get embarrassed with you."

Su Yimo broke free from Shen Zhuoman's hand and said, "Manman, stop fooling around. Jingru will be able to handle this."

Shen Zhuoman adored Han Jingru and she had great faith in Han Jingru. However, she couldn't be restful in this incident. After all, that was Jiang Fu. No ordinary people could go against him.

"Yimo, don't tell me you plan to go with him?" Shen Zhuoman said.

Su Yimo nodded unhesitantly.

The friend gave her an eye roll and said, "This is not a good thing, why are you getting involved for?"

Su Yimo did not say anything but she answered with her actions. The woman held Han Jingru's arm tightly.

When Shen Zhuoman saw how determined Su Yimo was, she simply sighed, "You husband and wife are just making me envious. Han Jingru, if you are a man, don't let Su Yimo get embarrassed."

Han Jingru looked at Su Yimo with a gentle expression and smiled, "It is fine if they shame me. But not her."

In the crowd, Su Ruijin and Su Huiqi came as well. This was a golden opportunity for those who hated Han Jingru. How could they have missed it?

"Ruijin, do you think Han Jingru would come?" Su Huiqi asked.

"Him? Why does it matter if he comes or not? If he comes and kneel, he would be humiliated. If he doesn't come, he would be called a coward and be humiliated as well. What is the difference?" Su Ruijin laughed.

When Su Huiqi heard that reasoning, she smiled happily and cheered, "How I wish I can see Su Yimo's expression. After marrying that trash and getting embarrassed for three years, she ended up in bankruptcy. How amusing!"

"They are here!" Su Ruijin noticed two people walking in the cleared pathway. They were Han Jingru and Su Yimo.

"I have not expected for Su Yimo to come as well. That whore are just as shameless to come with Han Jingru. Are they trying to show how much they love each other?" Su Huiqi scoffed.

The crowd was riled and everyone soon know that Han Jingru appeared. A lot of people were tiptoeing to see how did that legendary man looked like.

Han Jingru and Su Yimo walked hand in hand as if they were walking in the red carpet. If that occasion were to change to a church, it would look just like their wedding.

Unfortunately, what they had were gazes of deride and disdain, not of blessing.

"Is that Han Jingru?"

"He must be. He is holding hands with Su Yimo, who else but Han Jingru can do that?"

"Look at that, he is quite the looker! No wonder Su Yimo was willing to even give up on her company for him!"

"What is the point to be good looking? It is just a trash, a trash with a good skin. The most important thing in our society now is money."

When a lot of men were deriding Han Jingru, one wealthy middle-aged woman's eyes were twinkling as she spoke to her friends, "That young man is not bad at all. If his livelihood is destroyed, I am willing to be his sugarmama. If he can satisfy me, I don't mind to give him a hundred thousand per month."

When Han Jingru and Su Yimo walked to the reserved area in the middle, they had completely gained everyone's attention.

As Han Jingru stood before all kinds of disdain, he maintained his prideful stature.

Su Yimo grabbed Han Jingru's hand tightly. Her palms were sweaty already. The woman was nervous and afraid at the same time.

"Don't worry. I am here. Even if the Emperor himself comes, he won't be able to hurt you." Han Jingru said gently.

When Su Yimo heard Han Jingru, she rested her heart a little as she felt a strong sense of security.

"Han Jingru, what are you doing there? Hurry and kneel. We have been waiting for an entire night until now already!"

"Trash, isn't it enough for you to be embarrassed? How dare you even bring your wife? Do you have no honor at all?"

"Su Yimo is just blind. How could she marry a man like you? You have completely brought shame to us men!"

"Making such a beautiful wife to suffer with you? And you call yourself a man!"

The crowd were starting to condemn Han Jingru. Su Ruijin was inciting from within and riling the crowd, getting more and more people to insult Han Jingru.

"Trash, don't waste our time! Hurry and kneel!" Su Ruijin roared in excitement. He could finally get back on Han Jingru for the episode of him kneeling in Tian Jingle's birthday banquet. The man just couldn't wait already.

Su Huiqi hated Han Jingru but she hated Su Yimo even more. Su Yimo had stolen her dowry and she acted high and mighty before her. Su Huiqi had been resentful ever since.

"Su Yimo, you are just a shameless whore! Do you really like that trash's performance in bed to even bring the entire Su family down?" Su Huiqi screamed in the crowd as well and she wasn't afraid for Su Yimo to hear her.

The situation was resembling that of a public execution of witch. Everyone including those that weren't related to the incident were pointing fingers and condemning Han Jingru, as if they were saints and did it for the higher moral.

All of them had the attitude and jealousy thought that Han Jingru wasn't as good as them yet he could have a beautiful wife like Su Yimo. They were resentful and they were trying to bring Han Jingru down to feel a sense of superiority.

At that time, the members of the Go Association appeared one by one. Everyone of them had a grim expression but the surrounding crowds did not notice that. They simply knew that everyone of them were big shots and their appearance marked the start of the good show of Han Jingru kneeling before them!

Su Yimo was getting more and more nervous and her body tensed up like a rock. Those people were just approaching her and bringing immense pressure to her.

When Han Jingru felt Su Yimo's fright, he tightened his grip on Su Yimo's hand and gestured her to relax. But how could Su Yimo do that under such circumstances?

After a few minutes, no one from the group step forward to ask Han Jingru to kneel. Those that came to watch the show was getting impatient already. They came to watch that exciting moment. But as the weather got warmer, they weren't willing to wait anymore.

"What is happening? Why are they not making Han Jingru to kneel yet?"

"How odd, why do they all have such a weird expression?"

"Could it be some kind of twist?"

"What kind of twist can it be? Jiang Fu has caused such a furore. Aside from that trash, Han Jingru kneeling, would they have a second alternative?"

"Kn...Kneeling already!"

"Bloody heck, knelt! Why is this happening!?"

A lot of people were gasping in shock as they looked at the members of the Go Association kneeling down before Han Jingru. A lot of people had their jaws dropped.

"How is that possible? Isn't Han Jingru supposed to be the one to kneel?"

"Those are the most powerful people in Yun city, they... Are they kneeling before Han Jingru?"

"That is impossible, impossible... I must be imagining things."

Su Ruijin hissed a deep breath and looked at the sight before him in disbelief. Han Jingru wasn't the man kneeling down but those old men. That twist of story had completely shaken him.

"Ruijin, why is that happening!?" Su Huiqi's eyes widened and she asked Su Ruijin with a trembling voice.

Su Ruijin didn't understand what happened as well. However, he knew that Han Jingru was supposed to be a joke for the entire city. Why would things take such a different twist?

A lot of people were hissing in shock and they were trying to process the situation. All of those people were kneeling before Han Jingru, why were they doing that!?

When Su Yimo saw them kneeling down, she was completely overwhelmed. The woman looked at Han Jingru with quivering eyes. Was that why he was always so calm? So he had long settled the incident and he even made those men kneel!

"Jingru, did you do that?" Su Yimo said in disbelief.

"These old dogs had bullied you twice, how can I let them go easily? Since they like to kneel so much, I shall satisfy them and let them kneel here properly." Han Jingru said indifferently.

Shen Zhuoman was completely taken aback as well. She didn't want Su Yimo to go together with Han Jingru because she was afraid that Han Jingru would embarrass Su Yimo as well. But now it seemed that not just Han Jingru wouldn't be embarrassed, Su Yimo became the center of admiration. It seemed that as long as she stood beside Han Jingru, no storm was huge enough to bring harm to her.

"Do you want to bring your jaw back up? I don't think you look very ladylike now." Qi Pingying walked towards Shen Zhuoman and said to her after habitually pushing her spectacles up.

Shen Zhuoman turned towards Qi Pingying and said with stammering words, "Pingying, did you see that? Those people are kneeling before Han Jingru!"

"Of course I did. Am I blind or something?" Qi Pingying appeared to be calm but she was completely overwhelmed as well. Although she knew Han Jingru was capable to handle that problem, she thought that the solution was to reach a concede after negotiations, and made sure something like the Public Square wouldn't happen. But when Han Jingru appeared, Qi Pingying almost thought that Han Jingru was willing to kneel for Su Yimo's sake since he couldn't solve it. But now, not even the woman had anticipated such a twist.

Kneel!

And he made the most powerful people in Yun city kneel before him.

Qi Pingying couldn't understand how did he do that.

But of course, that made Qi Pingying got even more confident with Han Jingru. He was probably the person she had been searching for. Only him could save the Qi family from their crisis.

"You saw it but you aren't shocked? Those people are the most powerful people in Yun city, but... But now they are kneeling before Han Jingru!" Shen Zhuoman exclaimed.

Qi Pingying drew a deep breath and said, "Powerful people? Maybe for Han Jingru, they are less than insects."

"Pingying, what did you say?" Shen Zhuoman didn't hear her clearly. The woman took a step and drew closer to Qi Pingying.

Qi Pingying shook her head and said, "It's nothing. But Jiang Fu hasn't appear yet. He is the inciter of the entire incident. We still don't know what is the conclusion of this matter."

Shen Zhuoman nodded. Although she didn't have any ability, she was well aware of the incidents that happened in the upper class society. All those people that came to the Public Square were powerful but they were not comparable to Jiang Fu. Moreover, Jiang Fu was the person responsible for everything. Since he hadn't appeared, this incident wasn't concluded yet.

Over ten thousand people had gathered in the Public Square but at that moment, the place was eerily silent. Only rapid breathings were heard because everyone were rendered speechless by shock.

All of them had the same thought, that Han Jingru might just shake his reputation of being a trash away. But as for how, nobody knew.

"Jiang Fu, Jiang Fu isn't here yet. Jiang Fu is the real opponent of Han Jingru. When Jiang Fu comes, Han Jingru will definitely show his true self."

"Exactly. I do not think that trash can strongarm Jiang Fu. The Jiang Group is only under the Tian family. That pretty boy has no chance against him at all."

"Jiang Fu, hurry and come! Don't let Han Jingru acts cool anymore, we are still waiting to watch the show!"

A lot of people were longing for Jiang Fu to appear faster. Even if they didn't have any kind of feud with Han Jingru, the general public had the right to condemn a morally depraved person. They had long thought of Han Jingru like a leech in the society and no one was willing to see him get the upper hand.

"Grandpa, how did he do it? How did he make all those people kneel?" In one of the buildings around the Public Square, Tian Shuirou asked Tian Jingle after she saw what happened with her binoculars.

When Tian Jingle told her Han Jingru could handle it himself yesterday, she didn't believe him one bit. However, the truth had proven her wrong.

Tian Jingle wasn't surprised by that outcome at all. After all, Su Yimo was involved. How could Han Jingru let those old dogs go away easily?

Everyone had a line not to be crossed. And Han Jingru's line was Su Yimo. Whoever crossed that line must die.

"Grandpa doesn't know as well, I only know that he would be able to handle it." Tian Jingle said. Although he had heard a thing or two about what happened, he felt that it was better not to tell Tian Shuirou about something so lawless.

Han Jingru could settle it with proper means but the man couldn't be bothered to do so. After all, his opponent was just bugs like Jiang Fu, there was no point to use his own identity.

"And do you trust him that much?" Tian

Shuirou pouted her lips. The granddaughter just couldn't understand why Tian Jingle blindly believed in Han Jingru, even if Han Jingru had shown to be outstanding in the past. Her grandfather wouldn't believe in someone without good reasons.

"The outcome proves me right." Tian Jingle chuckled.

Tian Shuirou took up her binoculars and checked the public square out again and she said, "Jiang Fu isn't here yet. When Jiang Fu comes, maybe it will have another twist."

Tian Jingle shook his head. So what if Jiang Fu appears? The man wouldn't be able to change anything. That old fool was probably hiding somewhere and regretting his actions.

"Shuirou, didn't you want to help Han Jingru? Why do you look like you want Jiang Fu to appear and bring Han Jingru down now?" Tian Jingle asked.

That's why it was very difficult to understand a woman. Her worry had changed into an unnamed enmity because Su Yimo was standing right by Han Jingru's side. Not only that, she was holding Han Jingru's hand. And that made the young lady frustrated.

If her position were to be switched with Su Yimo, she would definitely have Han Jingru to show even bigger muscle and made them bang their heads on the floor!

"Grandpa, look at that car parking by the roadside. It seems that Jiang Fu has come!" Tian Shuirou said suddenly.

"It is about time. How could he be able to escape this?" Tian Jingle said indifferently.

By the Public Square, Jiang Fu walked down his car with a grim expression. The moment he appeared, the crowd was riled immediately.

"He is here, he is here, Jiang Fu is finally here!"

"Finally, this time round, Han Jingru couldn't be so cocky anymore!"

"Damn it, that trash almost turned it around. Let's see how he gets it now!"

Jiang Fu walked in the cleared path towards Han Jingru.

When he saw the other members of the Association kneeling before Han Jingru, he gnashed his teeth hatefully. He had never expected Han Jingru to use such a wicked method. Now that Jiang Hai had fallen into Molan's hands, he didn't want anything to happen to his son and left him without an heir. However, making him kneel in public before Han Jingru was something too humiliating and Jiang Fu couldn't do it.

"Han Jingru, do you think you can really control everything? You can threaten me now, but can you handle my revenge in the future?" Jiang Fu gnashed his teeth and barked at Han Jingru.

"In the future? Jiang Fu, you are so naïve.

Do you seriously think that the Jiang Group has a future?" Han Jingru said indifferently.

Jiang Fu laughed out of anger. That trash was even mouthing off to bring the Jiang Group down? Not even the Tian family dared to say something like that. How could he? He was just a trash!

"Han Jingru, I will give you two minutes. Release Jiang Hai." Jiang Fu said.

"I will give you a minute to kneel. Otherwise, I will give you a high quality coffin." Han Jingru said mirthfully.

Jiang Fu gripped his fist hatefully. He was a famous man, how could he kneel before a trash like Han Jingru? However, Han Jingru had carried himself uncompromisingly and there didn't seem to be any possibility for negotiations.

"Han Jingru, even if you don't consider for yourself, you should consider for the people around you. How long do you think you can protect Su Yimo? Aren't you afraid that Su Yimo will fall into my hands?" Jiang Fu said.

When Han Jingru heard that, he had cold smile on his face as he said, "Jiang Fu, thank you for reminding me. Don't you worry, I will not give you that chance."

"Who gave you the courage to oppose me like this? Is the Tian family helping you secretly?" Jiang Fu asked. That was the only possibility he could think of. If Han Jingru didn't have the Tian family backing him up, how could he be so fearless.

"Thirty seconds." Han Jingru reminded.

Jiang Fu's body tensed up and he stared at Han Jingru with eyes fuming in anger, "Han Jingru, I warn you! You better don't do anything foolish! I, Jiang Fu isn't someone you can challenge!"

"Twenty seconds." Han Jingru stared Jiang Fu right in the eye. The man was carrying himself authoritatively and he did not seem like bluffing at all.

Jiang Fu was feeling an immense pressure from him. He even started to feel suffocated.

How could a trash like him have such a strong aura? He was just like a king that reigned over a long time. Just a glance from him could send fear down to the spine.

"What is happening? Why isn't Jiang Fu making Han Jingru kneel?"

"Don't tell me... That even Jiang Fu cannot handle that trash?"

"What is happening? Jiang Fu was the one that came up with this idea and spread the news that he would make Han Jingru kneel in Public Square. But things seem to be different now. He seems to be controlled by that trash!"

The perturbed crowd continued to stare at the two men as they waited quietly for the outcome.

Right that moment, even Su Yimo felt an overwhelming aura exuding from Han Jingru. That kind of temperament made her feel as if she never knew Han Jingru.

Jiang Fu had a pained expression. The man was clear with what Molan had done in the underground. Although Jiang Hai was a famous man and his death could create a huge wave, what's the point in doing that after the man is dead?

The Jiang family needed an heir and Jiang Hai needed to continue the legacy. The father couldn't let Jiang Hai die in Molan's hands.

"Three."

"Two."

When Han Jingru was counting down, Jiang Fu knelt down with both knees.

This time round, the crowd didn't react in time. Because they just couldn't believe what they were seeing. They couldn't believe that even Jiang Fu needed to kneel before Han Jingru. That had completely turned their understanding around.

How could a trash make someone like Jiang Fu kneel?

Even if they saw it with their own eyes, they weren't able to believe it.

"Who is that Han Jingru? How could he even make Jiang Fu kneel?"

"Maybe he isn't a trash at all. And maybe he has some kind of crazy background?"

"Could it be, the Su family had planned to keep his identity a secret for the past three years?"

At that time, everyone looked at Han Jingru with different eyes. They no longer looked at him in disdain but with a serious demeanor. Even if they refused to believe what they saw, Jiang Fu was kneeling right before their eyes. Denial of the truth was meaningless.

Su Yimo felt that her mouth turned dry. She had not expected Jiang Fu to really kneel!

That was Jiang Fu, the man right under the Tian family!

At that time, Su Ruijin and Su Huiqi's faces turned purple red. They thought that Jiang Fu would be changing the tides after he came. However, the outcome wasn't something they expected. After pushing both Han Jingru and Su Yimo to the centre, they made them gain fame and prestige!

"Ruijin, what is happening? How can that Jiang Fu kneel before Han Jingru?" Su Huiqi asked.

Su Ruijin's eyebrows knitted closely. Could Han Jingru had mobilized the Han family's power? But wasn't he just an ousted kid? How was that possible?

Or, did that trash Han Jingru pretended using the Han family's name?

Su Ruijin was desperate to expose him right away. However, Shen Wong mentioned that he must never tell anyone about it. If he were to say it himself, he might offend Shen Wong.

Su Ruijin would never dare to offend his sponsor. If it wasn't for him, he would still be begging in the street.

"I had not expected that trash to be so lucky!" Su Ruijin gritted his teeth and said.

Su Huiqi had a frustrated expression as well. How could she be satisfied without seeing Han Jingru and Su Yimo getting humiliated, "Ruijin, can you think of something?"

"What can I do? There are things that I can't be interfering right now." Su Ruijin said.

Su Huiqi stared at Su Yimo hatefully. What a waste of opportunity that she couldn't see Su Yimo getting shamed.

But it was fine, the Su company would get bankrupt soon. After Jiang Fu got such humiliation, he wouldn't let the two of them go easily. The moment the company goes bankrupt, Su Yimo would be a homeless beggar.

"I shall let you be happy for a few more days. Show me how long can you last!" Su Huiqi gnashed her teeth and barked.

In the Public Square.

Han Jingru was supposed to be the one to kneel. However, the man was standing with an authoritative posture and the men that knelt before him were all the most powerful people in Yun city. No one dared to call him a trash anymore.

When Han Jingru held Su Yimo's hand and left the place, everyone stared at them enviously. And those rich women who wanted to be his sugarmama got even more excited. That was how a man supposed to be! Ruthless and cool, making his enemy bow before him!

Shen Zhuoman stared at Han Jingru with gleaming eyes. She could no longer hide her affection towards Han Jingru.

"Yimo is just too lucky. I don't know if I can find a man like that in this life..." Shen Zhuoman couldn't help but exclaimed.

Qi Pingying looked at Shen Zhuoman and she had not expected her friend to fall for Han Jingru as well. However, Qi Pingying wasn't worried. In her opinion, Shen Zhuoman didn't even have the right to be her opponent.

"You will surely find one. Unfortunately, it is destined that he wouldn't be as striking as Han Jingru." Qi Pingying said as her eyes lit up. That magnificent man could only belong to her. Not even her best friend, Su

Yimo could have him.

Qi Pingying had always reminded herself that she must see Han Jingru's worth for herself. She needed Han Jingru to prove himself to be worthy to help the Qi family before she acknowledged him. However, even if he did not prove that right now, the woman had also fallen for him.

Friendship?

Before the family crisis, it meant nothing for Qi Pingying.

As long as she could secure Han Jingru to herself, she wouldn't even mind to break all ties with Su Yimo.

"Yeah, how can the two of us be compared to Su Yimo?" Shen Zhuoman lowered her head and said disappointedly.

Qi Pingying simply smiled indifferently and said, "Just you, don't drag me along."

Shen Zhuoman looked at Qi Pingying's back in confusion after she left. The woman had a bad hunch as if something bad would be happening.

On their way back to the mansion in the middle hill, Su Yimo still couldn't pull herself out from the previous emotion, as if Jiang Fu was still kneeling before her. That disbelief situation made her feel as if she was in a dream. She didn't even dare to pinch herself because she was afraid to wake up.

"What's wrong?" When Han Jingru saw Su Yimo had a blank expression, he asked with a giggle.

"Jingru, am I dreaming?" Su Yimo asked with a dull tone.

Han Jingru chuckled and replied, "Of course not. After we go home, we will go and buy the air tickets to Bedrock Island and get our wedding photo shoot done."

"But, what about the company? Do we just leave the company matters behind?" Su Yimo asked. Although the incident of the Public Square had passed, the Su company still faced the same crisis. The woman couldn't be restful to go to Bedrock Island now.

"I have asked my friends for help. Two days later, he will come to Yun city and bring a group of men to take over. All of his employees are the best of the best. Just leave everything to him." Han Jingru said.

When Su Yimo heard him, all of a sudden she lowered her head and was dispirited.

"What's the matter?" Han Jingru asked in puzzlement.

"Jingru, am I very useless? I need your help and arrangement in almost everything. Without you, I can never do anything at all." Su Yimo said.

Han Jingru didn't know how he should answer that. It was true that he was the one that gave Su Yimo her position and everything she had today. Ever since Rumo, he was the one that led Su Yimo to her position at this moment. If it was just Su Yimo alone, she could never be able to do it.

"I am your husband, isn't that what I am supposed to do?" Han Jingru asked.

Su Yimo blushed immediately. The woman punched Han Jingru on the thigh and said,

"But I also want to prove my own worth."

"But I was the one that caused all this problem in the first place. It is only right for me to handle it myself." Han Jingru answered.

When Su Yimo heard that, the dark clouds in her mind were cleared. The woman raised her head and said, "Okay, we will book the ticket the moment we reached home. But when is your friend coming? I'll ask Zhong Qiu to go and receive them."

"He will come after we left." Han Jingru said. The man didn't want Su Yimo to participate in this bloody fight in the business world.

Although Han Jingru knew that it wasn't good to over protect Su Yimo, he had no choice but to do that. Because he was a man. Not just any man but Su Yimo's husband.

When they got back to the mansion in the middle hill, Jiang Yan had heard about the Public Square incident. The woman was so happy that she had opened a bottle of red wine to wait for Han Jingru.

All of the friends had called her several times and every one of them did the same to rub butter on her. That made Jiang Yan felt a huge sense of contentment and attention. The woman was just drowning in the sense of superiority.

"Jingru, Yimo, the two of you finally come home. If you take longer to come home, the red wine would get expired!" Jiang Yan welcomed the two of them passionately.

Su Yimo looked at Han Jingru helplessly. Jiang Yan was just showing a horrible attitude yesterday. But now, she had a hundred and eighty degree change in attitude. The woman had completely carried herself like a standard materialistic woman.

"Mum, you are restful now, right?" Su Yimo asked.

"Of course, I am restful. Since when have I ever worried? I have always known that Jingru would be able to handle it." Jiang Yan answered with a laugh.

Even Han Jingru was impressed with Jiang Yan's shamelessness. She almost got into a fight with Han Jingru but now she was saying that she had never worried at all.

"I will not be drinking the wine since I still have to go out." Han Jingru said.

"Where are you going?" Su Yimo asked Han Jingru worriedly.

"It isn't a big deal. Just go and book your ticket. It is best If we can depart tomorrow." Han Jingru said.

After Han Jingru left, Jiang Yan couldn't suppress her curiosity and she asked Su Yimo, "Where are you guys going?"

"That is a great idea. You silly girl, how can you not even smile during a wedding photo shoot?" Jiang Yan complained.

Su Yimo just didn't know how to react to Jiang Yan's attitude. She was the one that showed the greatest objection towards Han Jingru marrying into her family. If it wasn't the grandfather forcing them, Jiang Yan would never agree to. But now, the mother was even blaming her.

"Mum, are you not forcing me to divorce Han Jingru now?" Su Yimo asked.

Jiang Yan hurriedly waved her hand and said, "What nonsense are you spewing? How can you divorce? Don't you see how great Han Jingru is now? Even Jiang Fu needs to kneel before him. How can you divorce? The Su family still needs Han Jingru!"

"What if Han Jingru no longer have any money? Will you think the same way?" Su Yimo asked sincerely.

Jiang Yan's expression turned grim. The mother was a money grubber, if Han Jingru didn't have any money or power, she wouldn't cast another gaze at him. And why would she favored him?

"I do not answer hypothetical questions." Jiang Yan said.

Su Yimo breathed a sigh. Jiang Yan still hadn't acknowledged Han Jingru's identity. The mother simply changed her attitude because of the power Han Jingru displayed. But Su Yimo knew that if one day Han Jingru became poor, Jiang Yan would treat Han Jingru just as bad as before without a second thought.

Being the maid of the family, Ho Ting had no right to speak. But even as she saw Jiang Yan's attitude, she couldn't help but sigh. Han Jingru was such a nice person. Regardless if he had any money or not, he deserved respect. But everything Jiang Yan ever cared for was just the worldly things.

After leaving the mansion, Han Jingru drove to Rumo. Zhong Ji had been waiting by the entrance for a long time already. Not only that, there was a middle aged man with a nobility temperament that stood beside him. That was Qinfu!

Zhong Ji was very familiar with Qinfu. The two of them had been friends for many years. But Zhong Ji had never expected that Qinfu came to this day with Han Jingru secretly managing in the dark.

That famous man in Yan Jing was just another pawn of the young master of the Han family. That was simply unbelievable.

When Zhong Ji found out about that, the man was completely overwhelmed and had countless sleepless nights.

"Young master."

Zhong Ji and Qinfu greeted Han Jingru.

Han Jingru said nothing and simply strode inside the company.

In Zhong Ji's office, Han Jingru back faced the two of them and asked, "How long will the two of you take to handle Jiang Fu and his group of men's companies?"

"Mr. Han, if we will be using my name, less than three days." Qinfu said.

Han Jingru turned over and leered at Qinfu coldly, "Using your name? Isn't that exposing my identity already?"

Qinfu hurriedly lowered his head and said frightfully, "Mr. Han, if it is just using the Su family's name, I'm afraid it is difficult to reach your expectation. After all..."

"I will be leaving for a week's time." Han Jingru interrupted him.

Qinfu understood what he was trying to say and the man answered, "Mr. Han, rest assured. One week, I, Qinfu will definitely give you a satisfactory answer."

"Zhong Ji, you must work with Qinfu. Since the two of you are old friends, I believe I do not need to remind you too much. But you have to remember one thing, my identity in Yun city must not be exposed." Han Jingru reminded them.

"Yes sir!"

"Yes sir!"

After leaving behind his instructions, Han Jingru left.

Zhong Ji and Qinfu could finally relief themselves. Even if Han Jingru was much younger than them, and with their age, they could easily be an elder of Han Jingru, they would still feel a suffocating pressure whenever they faced Han Jingru.

"Qinfu, what a pleasant surprise that the two of us can work together again!" Zhong Ji smiled.

"This is a rare opportunity. But if we don't do good enough, I don't even dare to imagine the consequences." Qinfu exclaimed.

Zhong Ji was curious about one thing. How did Han Jingru come in contact with Qinfu in the first place and how did he even make Qinfu his puppet and rise to the top tier in Yan Jing.

"Qinfu, can you tell me what happened back then?" Zhong Ji asked curiously.

"Back then?" Qinfu's expression turned solemn. A good man would not talk about his past. What more, Qinfu wasn't a good man in the past. He was simply a homeless loser by the street.

"Can you believe a ten plus years old young boy killed those creditors that pursued me?" Qinfu drew a deep breath and said with a solemn expression.

When Zhong Ji heard that, his pupil widened in shock!

"I can still remember that night. It was a heavy downpour and I lost a lot of money in the casino. After that, I was being pursued and beaten up. I almost lost my life but he appeared and saved me. He asked if I want to be a man on top of others. At that time, I did not have any way out. Therefore, even if he was just a child, I chose to trust him." Qinfu continued.

Zhong Ji frowned. In his understanding, Qinfu used to be a businessman as well. Although his skill wasn't big, he was doing a good job. The man had never heard this side of Qinfu's story.

"Didn't you have a small company before?" Zhong Ji asked.

"Everyone has their ambition. How can I be satisfied to be just a small part of a small company? That time, in order to widen my social circle, I came in contact with all kinds of people. When I was introduced to the casino, the dark part of my life begins. After that, it was my fall." Qinfu said.

"But I still don't understand why the young master would choose you." Zhong Ji asked in puzzlement. Since Qinfu was just a boss of a small-time business, why would Han Jingru chose him?

"I don't understand either. Why he would introduce me to the casino." Qinfu smiled bitterly.

Zhong Ji's eyes and mouth were widened once again. Han Jingru had purposefully lured Qinfu to gamble. In another words, the reason for Qinfu's fall was Han Jingru's arrangement. And after that, his appearance to save Qinfu was also one of his plans!

How could that be possible?!

Back then, the young master was just a boy. How could he have such frightening guile and wits?!

"And do you know how scary he can be? Therefore, after I found out the truth, I did not dare to have any thoughts to revenge at all." Qinfu said.

Zhong Ji took a big breath. The man just couldn't help but feel that the Han family had done a foolish move to oust Han Jingru. How could Han Yu ever hope to compete with Han Jingru? He was just a salacious young master. Aside from getting girls and fooling around, he couldn't do anything at all. On the other side, Han Jingru was completely different. He single-handedly created his own power.

As Zhong Ji recalled how Nangong Shuxian treated Han Jingru, he felt that even if Nangong Shuxian were to know, she would not be able to believe it.

"Nangong Shuxian had done something truly idiotic. The entire Yan Jing will be shocked by young master." Zhong Ji said.

"Mr. Han is a dead man in Yan Jing. However, there will be a day when he goes back and shake the city. A sleeping dragon isn't frightening. But the moment it is awakened, it will bring terror to the world." Qinfu said.

Zhong Ji nodded unhesitantly. Both of them had experienced the scary side of Han Jingru. And that was merely the tip of the iceberg. Who would know how many pawns he had arranged in secret?

Probably it would take until he decided to show himself to the world and people would learn how frightening the young master of the Han family was.

"I have never mentioned this to anyone before and I hope that you can keep it a secret for me." Qinfu reminded Zhong Ji.

Zhong Ji nodded immediately and said, "Don't worry. The two of us are friends for so long and I'll never betray you. Moreover, now that we are working together for the young master, we are just in the same boat. I can only be good if you are good as well."

"Those idiots in Yun city actually dared to offend Han Jingru. How laughable." Qinfu exclaimed.

Zhong Ji couldn't help but chuckled as well. It was laughable indeed. Jiang Fu thought that he was a somebody. However, he was a nobody in the young master's eyes.

After leaving Rumo, Han Jingru drove to the Tian family's mansion. When Tian Shuirou knew about it, she was jumping in excitement. But Tian Jingle just couldn't feel the same.

The incident in the Public Square was just concluded. Why would Han Jingru visit the Tian family so suddenly?

"Master, what are you doing here?" Tian Jingle greeted Han Jingru with a cheerful smile.

Tian Shuirou glared at Han Jingru and said, "What are you doing here? Now that your master is here, shouldn't you go and cook some tea? Why are you asking so many question?"

Tian Jingle was powerless against Tian Shuirou siding with Han Jingru. That granddaughter had completely fallen for Han Jingru and the grandpa had no position in her anymore.

"Tian Shuirou, I have something to talk to you grandfather. Do you want to go put on make up for a while? I'll treat you for a meal later." Han Jingru said.

Tian Shuirou jumped in excitement and hurrayed, "Okay okay, the two of you should take your time. Don't rush it, I still need to pick up the dress and do my make-up properly."

When Tian Jingle saw Tian Shuirou bouncing away, his heart sank. If Han Jingru purposefully diverted Tian Shuirou away, something important must be happening.

"Master, have a tea first." Tian Jingle was trying his best to control his emotion and he said to Han Jingru smilingly.

When Tian Jingle was preparing to pour tea for Han Jingru, Han Jingru took up the tea kettle.

"Master, let me do this." Tian Jingle hurriedly said.

Han Jingru ignored him and started pouring tea for Tian Jingle. But after the tea cup was full and the tea was spilling, Han Jingru did not stop.

When Tian Jingle saw that, he hurriedly said, "It is full, it is full already."

After Han Jingru poured all of the tea from the kettle, he said, "It is empty now, nothing is left behind. I wanted to get more but in the end I lose everything. Was I too greedy?"

Tian Jingle understood what he was insinuating and he answered with a grim face, "For the past years, Jiang Fu has been secretly gathering forces and colluding with a lot of other businessmen. I knew that he isn't willing to be under the Tian family and he wants to change. However, not even the Tian family dares to change anything in Yun city. Because the moment the balance is shaken, I don't know if the Tian family could be the last one smiling. And even if we really end up being the last one standing, we will suffer a huge blow."

"And that is the reason for using me?" Han Jingru asked coldly.

"No." Tian Jingle shook his head and said, "I wasn't planning to use you."

"You weren't planning but you did it anyway. Tian Jingle, you are not convincing me at all." Han Jingru took up the tea cup that he poured for Tian Jingle. It was boiling hot yet Han Jingru simply drank it like that. Tian Jingle's eyelids were jumping and he started to feel fearful.

"Jingru, I really did not plan to use you. I simply wanted to watch it from the side lines." Tian Jingle said with a serious demeanor.

"I shall drink this tea this time. However, shall there be a next, you shall consider if you have the ability to drink it or not." Han Jingru said.

Tian Jingle's back was drenched in cold sweat. He wasn't able to drink a boiling hot tea. And Han Jingru's meaning was clear as day.

If a person could treat themselves so mercilessly, they would treat their enemy far worse.

"Thank you." Tian Jingle said.

"Help me to tell Tian Shuirou that I have something urgent coming up. I owe her one meal." After saying that, Han Jingru stood up and left.

Tian Jingle fell back to his chair and the man lost his spirit. He was the top man in Yun city yet when he faced Han Jingru, he couldn't even stand the pressure he was exuding.

What had that young man experienced to have such a frightful might?

When Tian Jingle looked at the tea cup and recalled that steaming tea, he hissed a deep breath and breathed a long sigh.

"What a dangerous situation. I had risked too much and I almost brought the Tian family down." Tian Jingle mumbled to himself.

After a short while, the beautiful young lady came to the living room. When she couldn't find Han Jingru, she was dispirited.

"Shuirou, Han Jingru said he had something urgent coming up. He said that he owes you a meal and he will treat you some other day." Tian Jingle said.

Tian Shuirou comforted herself that Han Jingru had to leave because he had an emergency, he didn't plan to put her down initially. After that, she felt a little better.

That very night, when Tian Honghui came home, he hurriedly went to look for Tian Jingle.

"Dad, Jiang Fu and those group of men are facing a huge problem now. Your strategy is truly impressive!" Tian Honghui exclaimed.

Previously, Tian Jingle was smug as well. But after Han Jingru visited the Tian family, he could no longer stay happy. Jiang Fu would definitely meet his doom. But his image in Han Jingru's heart had changed as well. Now there was a separation between them.

"The Tian family will not be participating in this matter. And this cake has no share for the Tian family. Not even one bit." Tian Jingle said.

"Why?" Tian Honghui looked at Tian Jingle in puzzlement. After Jiang Fu and the few companies were down, the market would be a fresh pie. If the Tian family were to take that chance to get a share, they would definitely secure the Yun city.

"He came to see me today, and..."

When Tian Jingle told Tian Honghui what happened, the son's face turned paper pale. He leaned back on the couch frightfully. When he recalled the story how Han Jingru drank the hot boiling tea, he felt a cold shudder down his spine.

In the past, if Tian Jingle were to see his son panicking like that, he would be rebuking him. For a person of his stature, he had to be calm and collected all the time. However, this time round not even Tian Jingle had the right to complain. Even he himself was overwhelmed by Han Jingru's might.

"Dad, is there anything we can do to make things right?" Tian Honghui asked. The man was very clear with the vast difference between the Tian family and the Han family. The top family in Yun city did not make Tian Honghui drown in conceit. Not only that, it made the man even more aware of his current state and the risk of offending Han Jingru.

Tian Jingle simply sighed. Han Jingru wasn't an ordinary person. For that man, no compensation would help. That crack would not be fixed no matter what. They could only avoid getting on Han Jingru's bad side in the future.

"It is useless. With his personality, nothing would help. In the future, we can only follow the flow. But as long as the Tian family doesn't interfere in the matter happening in Yun city, we shouldn't be facing much of the problem." Tian Jingle said. Han Jingru wasn't a man without honor. Since he had said to let things go, he wouldn't be causing difficulty for the Tian family for this matter.

Tian Honghui nodded. Since Tian Jingle said that, the man would just follow his instruction. As for the Yun city turning into an inviting piece of pie, the Tian family would simply stay as far away as possible. They would make sure to not even get into the vicinity.

When Han Jingru went back home, Su Yimo was already packing up in the room. Han Jingru could tell that the woman was excited and longing towards the Bedrock Island travel and the man was the same.

After getting married for more than three years, Han Jingru had never travel with just Su Yimo. He would never even dare to fantasize about a honeymoon trip.

"Does this dress look nice on me?"

"What about this?"

"And this, and this as well..."

Su Yimo kept asking for Han Jingru's opinion. And the man was nodding his head mechanically all the time. Because in his opinion, Su Yimo would look good in anything. There was nothing to pick bones on.

"Why aren't you giving me any feedback at all?" After asking for a few times, Su Yimo noticed that Han Jingru wasn't saying anything and she complained.

Han Jingru smiled bitterly, "I think you look good in anything. Do you want me to be dishonest?"

"Am I really so good in your heart? I look good in everything?" Su Yimo asked.

Han Jingru nodded unhesitantly and said, "Of course, you would even look good without wearing anything."

The moment Su Yimo heard that, she glared at Han Jingru and said coldly, "Can't you have a normal thought?"

Han Jingru was holding back his impulses to say "isn't that normal"... But when he saw Su Yimo's expression, he knew that if he were to say that, a misfortune would befall him. Therefore, he simply kept it to himself.

"By the way, should we find a photographer? Or should we look for one locally?" Han Jingru asked. That was very important for their travel. Only a good photographer could bring the best out of their travel. It was the most important thing for the couple to do their wedding photo shoot now.

"If I wait for you, the sun would go down already. I have already contacted a workshop. He is very famous in Yun city. A lot of wealthy people ask for his service during their marriage." Su Yimo said.

Han Jingru smiled apologetically. That did not cross his mind at all. As expected, a woman was more careful.

The next day, Han Jingru and Su Yimo went to the workshop to look for Yang Chen. The man had an assistant following behind him called Shu Tong. The two of them would be going together. They requested for the full amount of the photographing payment, flight tickets and all of the living expenses incurred. However, those expenses were nothing for Han Jingru.

Although Yang Chen had never seen Han Jingru, he knew a good deal about him. The photographer was a local resident of Yun city. And in that case, even a three year old in Yun city would have heard of Han Jingru's story. However, after the incident in the Public Square, Han Jingru's reputation had a complete change.

Almost everyone knew about how even Jiang Fu knelt. Therefore when Yang Chen saw Han Jingru, he was tensed and he carried himself very carefully to make sure he didn't offend Han Jingru.

He wasn't a trash nor a person that depended on a woman. Nobody had proofs of him depending on a woman. However, everyone had seen how he made Jiang Fu kneel. That was enough to prove his extraordinariness.

Shu Tong had heard about Han Jingru's name as well. Therefore, the woman was excited to see Han Jingru. She was curious as well and she wanted to see what kind of person could stand all three years of humiliation in the Su family.

The moment Shu Tong saw Han Jingru, she was a little taken aback. Because the man did not resemble her imagination at all.

Although a man that depend on a woman must be good looking, but Han Jingru's appearance was different from those pretty boys. Even those young idols from the entertainment industry couldn't hold a candle against him.

"Miss Su, we are ready and we can depart anytime." Yang Chen told Su Yimo.

"Just call me Yimo, don't call me Miss Su, it sounds awkward." Su Yimo said.

That made Yang Chen feel neighborly. The man had taken similar assignments and his clients were mostly wealthy people. And as expected, most of them were arrogant and treated him like a servant. It was rare for him to see such a friendly client like Su Yimo.

"Sure, then I shall do that. I have several experiences in Bedrock Island. And I happen to be familiar with the bridal shops over there. You can be restful in the section of choosing your wedding gown."

"Then it seems like I am in hands. The flight is in the afternoon. You guys should prepare first, and we will come to pick you up later." Su Yimo said.

"No problem."

After Han Jingru and Su Yimo left, Shu Tong spoke to Yang Chen, "Yang Chen, that Han Jingru looks different from the legends."

"And how does he looks like in the legends?" Yang Chen asked with a smile.

Shu Tong pouted her lips and said, "Just like how a standard trash looks like. A pretty boy. Didn't you hear his story before?"

Yang Chen smiled and said, "Don't believe everything you hear. Don't forget about the Public Square incident not long ago. Do you believe that he is just a trash?"

"Don't tell me he is some kind of wealthy people with a hidden identity?" Shu Tong asked curiously.

Yang Chen simply shook his head. How could he even start to guess Han Jingru's identity? However, the man knew one thing for sure. That all of the rumors regarding him were probably fake. After all these years, he simply did one thing, which was making Jiang Fu kneel in the Public Square. But that was enough to show that he wasn't an ordinary person.

"They are just our clients. Just do our job and don't go thinking about other things." Yang Chen said.

Shu Tong nodded but she just couldn't control her curiosity.

Han Jingru and Su Yimo were ready since last night and they had prepared everything already. In the afternoon, they invited Shen Zhuoman and Qi Pingying for a meal.

When Shen Zhuoman knew that the two of them were going to Bedrock Island for a wedding photo shoot, she was just envious. However, she was even more happy for her friend Su Yimo. Because that travel would be the best opportunity for the two of them to take the next step. If Han Jingru wasn't an idiot, they would definitely be able to finally get together.

Qi Pingying was giving them her blessing but she was actually frustrated. The sweetness between Han Jingru and Su Yimo was like poison for her. She wanted to get Han Jingru away from Su Yimo and the more Han Jingru showed his affection towards Su Yimo, the lower her chance seemed to be. She wouldn't allow that.

The Qi family needed a strong pillar to support the family crisis. And at that moment, Han Jingru was the best candidate. Therefore, she must try her best to steal him away.

"I'll go to the washroom." During the meal, Han Jingru stood up and said.

About thirty seconds later, Qi Pingying stood up and said as well, "I'll go to the washroom as well. The two of you shouldn't eat too fast, save some for me!"

Su Yimo and Shen Zhuoman simply smiled and didn't think much.

When Han Jingru was relieving himself, Qi Pingying entered the toilet suddenly and the man almost jumped in fright.

"What are you doing, this is the men's toilet!" Han Jingru tilted his body away from Qi Pingying and looked at her vigilantly.

Qi Pingying had already put the 'Cleaning in Progress' signboard outside the toilet and she wasn't afraid that someone would come into the toilet suddenly. She removed her spectacle and walked towards Han Jingru.

"You have been with Su Yimo for so long. Do the two of you had any sexual relationship?" Qi Pingying breathed right by Han Jingru's ear.

When Qi Pingying showed that intimacy, Han Jingru's eyebrows lowered in grim. Su Yimo had treated Qi Pingying as her best friend. Yet Qi Pingying was doing something that might sabotage their relationship.

"That is our privacy. What does that have to do with you?" Han Jingru asked.

Qing Yun suddenly stretched out her hand and caressed Han Jingru's chest. The woman's eyes lit up seductively and she asked, "Don't you have needs too?"

"Qi Pingying, I am the husband of your best friend." Han Jingru said coldly.

"Do you think I care about that? In my point of view, as long as it helps me, I will never care about anything else." Qi Pingying wrapped her arms around Han Jingru's neck. After removing her spectacles, the woman was bewitching. Her pair of eyes were almost irresistible for Han Jingru.

Han Jingru pushed Qi Pingying aside and said, "I am not interested in you."

After saying that, Han Jingru left the washroom, leaving Qi Pingying with a hateful glare.

The woman had completely casted her pride away by doing that. She felt that she could no longer wait and watched as Han Jingru got closer and closer to Su Yimo. However, she had not expected that even after she offered herself, Han Jingru would reject her.

"Han Jingru, you will regret."

"After Su Yimo disappears, can you continue to love her?"

"You are mine. No one can change that."

After Han Jingru went back to the dining table, he pretended nothing ever happened. He didn't plan to tell Su Yimo about that. After all, Su Yimo treated Qi Pingying like a best friend. If she found out, she would be heartbroken.

"Han Jingru, I warn you. If you don't take good care of Su Yimo, I'll kill you when you come back!" Shen Zhuoman said threateningly to Han Jingru.

Although Shen Zhuoman was clumsy and wild at times, Han Jingru could feel her genuine care towards Su Yimo and she treated Su Yimo like her best friend. It was completely different from Qi Pingying.

"Do I need you to remind me? Just think of your own matters. I heard that you lost your job again." Han Jingru scoffed.

That pierced right into Shen Zhuoman's heart. The woman had been changing several jobs lately and her life was just

"Do I need you to remind me? Just think of your own matters. I heard that you lost your job again." Han Jingru scoffed.

That pierced right into Shen Zhuoman's heart. The woman had been changing several jobs lately and her life was just getting worse. Either she was unhappy with her company or the other way round. After changing so many jobs, she ended up jobless.

"Han Jingru, you purposefully hurt me by mentioning something like that!" Shen Zhuoman pointed her finger at Han Jingru and fumed.

Han Jingru shook his head and rolled his eyes. If it wasn't for Shen Zhuoman treating Su Yimo with sincerity, he couldn't be bothered to help.

"Go and report yourself at the company tomorrow. Since we need more manpower as well and I don't mind to have another freeloader." Han Jingru said.

Shen Zhuoman jumped right up from her chair. Freeloader? How could she stand Han Jingru thinking her as a freeloader?

However, the woman needed a job desperately and the Su Company was a great opportunity. She couldn't refuse it.

"Han Jingru, I'll change your mind towards me. When Yimo isn't around, I will help her to watch over the company properly." Shen Zhuoman said.

"I'd be thankful if you don't create any trouble." Han Jingru purposefully jibed her again.

Shen Zhuoman's chest was rising and lowering rapidly. When Su Yimo saw that, she hurriedly coaxed her, "Manman, since he belittles you so much, you must work harder and make his jaw drop. Let him know the consequences of belittling you!"

Shen Zhuoman harrumphed and said, "Yimo, don't worry. A certain someone will definitely regret. At that time, I will point finger at his nose and tell him that I, Shen Zhuoman is a capable woman!"

When Qi Pingying came back to the table, she did not act any different and continued to talk to Su Yimo passionately. Han Jingru was powerless against someone like that. If she wasn't Su Yimo's best friend, Han Jingru could think of something to make her distancing herself away. However, Su Yimo treasured their friendship greatly. If Han Jingru did anything against her, Su Yimo would definitely be upset and the man had no choice but to let things be.

However, if Qi Pingying dared to hurt Su Yimo, Han Jingru wouldn't let her off.

After having their meal, Han Jingru and Su Yimo went back home to pick up their luggage. After that, they picked up Yang Chen and Shu Tong and departed to the airport.

Bedrock Island was a famous tourism spot. Not only that, it was within the country. Therefore, it became one of the most popular travelling place for the citizens. The popularity was reflected by the filled airplane.

In the first-class seat, Su Yimo and Yang Chen were discussing about the wedding photo shoot details and her requirements.

Being a professional photographer, Yang Chen had given Su Yimo valuable feedbacks. Han Jingru did not interrupt them since he knew nothing. The man decided that he should simply follow their instructions.

When they reached Bedrock Island, it was already night time. Although it wasn't the most busy season, almost all of the hotels were full. It took them quite a long time before they found a hotel with available rooms and they could finally rest.

"We shall go and pick our wedding gowns tomorrow. We have a total of five worthy photo shooting spots. It takes about three days for the photo shoot. Do you think it is too much?" Su Yimo asked Han Jingru.

"It isn't. As long as you want it, we can even spend a whole month." Han Jingru answered. The man didn't mind how long it takes for the photo shoot. As long as Su Yimo was happy, he would do anything to satisfy her.

Su Yimo was cheered as Han Jingru was willing to do everything for her. However, she would make sure to be mindful of Han Jingru's feelings as well. After all, the husband and wife relationship wasn't just a one-sided direction of demanding and fulfilling. She knew well that both side should be equally cared for in order for their relationship to last.

Su Yimo would never act spoiled In front of Han Jingru. If she didn't appreciate their precious relationship, she knew she would just cry in regret when she loses it.

At night, Su Yimo was so excited that she couldn't sleep. Because she would be wearing the wedding gown once again and that was too exciting for her. Three years ago, she wore the wedding gown reluctantly. But now, she was not just willing, but she was so excited she couldn't wait.

Early the next morning, the couple woke up at six o'clock and went for their morning jog. After that, they had breakfast in the hotel and met up with Yang Chen and Shu Tong before going to the bridal shop Yang Chen was familiar with.

That was the most high class bridal shop in Bedrock Island and they provided a rental and sale of wedding gowns. There was a display unit in the shop, being a pure handmade artwork, it costed more than two million. For the past few years, Yang Chen would come into this shop a few times every year. But that masterpiece was always there. That simply meant that no one would be buying something so luxurious.

For a lot of people, wedding gown was just a one-time thing. Therefore, they would opt for rental. Even if they wanted to buy one, they wouldn't buy something so expensive. A real wealthy person that had high expectation for their wedding gown would get branded shops to customise it for them and wouldn't buy it in shops like this.

Yang Chen was very familiar with the shop owner. She was a middle-aged lady about her forties. Due to how much she invested in maintaining her youth, she did not look her age at all. And in comparison to other women, she had a stronger and more alluring feminine.

"Yang Chen, you haven't been coming for few months already. And I thought you have forgotten about me." The owner greeted Yang Chen passionately.

"Business was bad. It has been so long since I got a request for Bedrock Island. And I was afraid you would forget about me." Yang Chen chuckled.

The two of them were making eye gestures and it was obvious they had some kind of history.

"Renting or buying?" The owner asked.

Yang Chen looked at Su Yimo and said, "She is the client. You should ask her."

At that time, Su Yimo was staring intently at the wedding gown inside the cabinet. The wedding gown before her eyes was the most eye-catching one in the entire shop. Su Yimo didn't even look away.

"Hi darling, you have quite the taste. This is the masterpiece of our shop. Are you interested in it?" The owner walked towards Su Yimo and asked. Almost every customer that came to her shop would be attracted by that wedding gown. However, all of the replies she got was the same. After hearing the price, they would shy away.

"So beautiful." Su Yimo exclaimed.

"This wedding gown was handmade by a master personally. It is the one and only in this world. It took him a total of one year, needle by needle and thread by thread.

However, it is expensive as well. If you like this, I can introduce you some similar one." The owner did not look down on Su Yimo. But she had been through too many similar occasions already. The moment she introduced the price, the customer would give up. Therefore, she was lazy to even make more introduction of that wedding gown.

"How much to rent it?" Su Yimo asked.

The owner shook her head with a smile and said, "Unfortunately, this piece of wedding gown is only for sale. Because the price is too high and if any damage were caused, I am not able to bear the losses."

"And how much is it?" Han Jingru asked from the side.

The owner looked at Han Jingru. Although he was quite a looker, judging from his outfit, he didn't seem to be a wealthy person. He might just give up after hearing the price.

"Two million six hundred and fifteen thousand." The owner said.

Su Yimo's jaw opened in shock. A wedding gown that costed more than two million!? Not only that, after buying that, she wouldn't be able to wear it during normal time.

The owner was used to see Su Yimo's expression. Everyone that heard the price would show that kind of face.

"We will take it." Han Jingru said.

This time round, the owner was the one that was taken aback. She stared at Han Jingru in disbelief. The young man looked pretty down to earth. But he didn't even hesitate to buy something over two million?

The owner looked back at Yang Chen and she wanted to ask what kind of customer he brought. How could he be so rich? But at that time, even Yang Chen was shocked.

The Su family was in the middle of a crisis. It wasn't worth it for Han Jingru to buy that wedding gown!

"Are you sure you want to buy that?" The owner asked Han Jingru.

Su Yimo yanked Han Jingru's arm and said, "It's so expensive and I can only wear it once. We don't have to buy something so expensive."

"But aside from this wedding gown that can barely make it, I don't see anything else that can match you. Do we even have a choice?" Han Jingru smiled.

The owner couldn't help but give them an eye roll. A wedding gown for more than two million and it was just barely making it? How rich could he be? Or was he simply joking?

"Maybe I should give the two of you some time to yourself." After saying that, the owner walked towards Yang Chen and pulled him out the shop.

"Yang Chen, what is the situation we have here? I can't tell that the man is rich at all!" The owner asked Yang Chen.

Yang Chen didn't know how he should describe the matter to the owner as well. Han Jingru's reputation had changed after the Public Square episode. However, it should still be a truth that he was relying on Su Yimo. After all, for the past three years, the man didn't do anything in the Su family at all and it was public knowledge. However, he wanted to spend so much money to buy a wedding gown for Su Yimo. Not even Yang Chen could be convinced that he had such financial capabilities.

Or maybe, he was simply using Su Yimo's money to act cool.

"The woman is the chairman of a company. And about the man... I am not sure either." Yang Chen said.

When the owner heard that, she pouted her lips and said, "So a freeloader that depends on his woman. And acting all cool using his woman's money. How shameless!"

In the shop.

Su Yimo was a little reluctant to buy such an expensive wedding gown. In her opinion, it was completely unnecessary. After all, costing 2 million and only used it to take a picture? It was a waste.

"Jingru, let's look at some other ones. This gown is too expensive." Su Yimo told Han Jingru.

"We finally get the chance to re-make our wedding photo shoot. How can I let you wear something others wore before? In my opinion, two million is already very cheap. Just listen to me this time, okay?" Han Jingru said.

Although Han Jingru was asking in most gentle tone, Su Yimo felt an uncompromising decision. Su Yimo knew that two million might really mean nothing for Han Jingru.

"But..."

"There is no but. We shall decide it." Han Jingru made it final and gave Su Yimo no chance to object.

Su Yimo could only nod. Although she felt a little heavy hearted, she was elated at the same time.

Shu Tong was looking at Su Yimo enviously. Three years ago when Han Jingru married into the Su family, the entire Yun city was making fun of Su Yimo, saying that she was blinded to let a trash married into her family. However, Shu Tong felt that she was the happiest woman to have that man beside her. He wasn't a trash but he had the kind of resemblance like those overbearing directors in the romance dramas.

At that time, the owner and Yang Chen came back into the shop and asked Han Jingru, "Have the two of you reached a decision? Have you decided to take it?"

"Yes we are. Should we pay before trying?" Han Jingru asked.

Although the owner was very happy to make the sale, she was irked by Han Jingru greatly. A man that would act cool with his woman's money was just annoying to her.

"Of course." The owner replied.

After paying with his card, Su Yimo went to put on the wedding gown. Since it was a difficult task, Shu Tong went inside the changing room to help as well.

"I heard that your wife is the chairman of the company. What about you? What do you do?" When Su Yimo was changing, the owner approached Han Jingru and chatted with him. However, she did not hide her tone of deride.

Han Jingru simply smiled, "Haven't you already asked Yang Chen? Why are you asking once again?"

Yang Chen felt awkward. He hadn't expected Han Jingru to know what they had been talking about outside.

"I am simply curious. Why would a chairman to a company be willing to marry a person like you?" The owner asked indifferently. Although she admitted that Han Jingru was good looking, Su Yimo was beautiful as well. Moreover, her excellence was reflected by being a chairman to a company. It was just easy for her to find an equally excellent man. Why would she ended up with a pretty boy that leech on her? The owner just couldn't get it.

"A person like me? What kind of person I am?" Han Jingru asked the owner with a smile.

Yang Chen's heart sank. The owner simply knew the superficial. However, he knew that Han Jingru had made even powerful people like Jiang Fu knelt before him. The entire Yun city was gossiping that Han Jingru might have a hidden identity. Because with the Su family's influence, they would never be able to make Jiang Fu kneel. If it was just like the rumors, the owner's rude remarks would offend him and get herself into trouble.

However, Yang Chen did not remind the owner. He had an ambiguous relationship with her but it was simply a fling. If he could affirm Han Jingru's identity through the shop owner, he wouldn't mind.

Everyone has curiosity. Yang Chen was more than happy to satisfy his curiosity since it wouldn't bring any harm to him.

"How would I know? Otherwise, why should I ask you?" The owner asked back indifferently.

"And must I tell you if you ask me?" Han Jingru chuckled.

"Forget it then. It is not like I must know." The owner answered disinterestedly.

After a few minutes, Su Yimo came out from the changing room. At that moment, she was beautiful just like a goddess. Not just Han Jingru, even Yang Chen and the owner were lost in mind staring at her.

Being the owner of a bridal shop, the owner had seen countless women in wedding gown. However, she had never seen someone as breathtaking as Su Yimo. That vexed the owner even more. How could a woman so beautiful married to a man so useless?

Han Jingru walked towards Su Yimo powerlessly and said, "You must have fallen into a trap."

"What kind of trap?" Su Yimo looked at Han Jingru in puzzlement.

When Su Yimo heard that cheesy and outdated line, she couldn't help but giggled, "Where did you learn it from? It is outdated already!"

"That is not a flirt. But my true feelings." Han Jingru said.

The owner was giving him another eye roll. Han Jingru's sweet talk was just so cheap. How could he even impress Su Yimo with that kind of sweet talk in the first place?

"This is the most incompetent man I have ever seen. He can't even say sweet talks." The owner approached Yang Chen and whispered.

Yang Chen was still lost in Su Yimo's beauty. As expected from the rumored number one beauty in Yun city! Even if that statement had an element of exaggeration, It was truly difficult to find any woman that could top Su Yimo.

After that, Han Jingru went and pick a suit to himself as well. After wearing a fine suit, Han Jingru's temperament changed completely. Although he was ousted by his family, he was indeed from a prominent background. That air of nobility wasn't something inimitable.

The owner swallowed a gulp in her throat. Previously, Han Jingru had impressed her a little with his look. But after getting into his suit, even she must admit that he became extremely charming. Probably that was the reason he could conquer someone like Su Yimo.

"If you have decided on the outfit, let us go to the first spot for photo shoot." Yang Chen walked towards Han Jingru and said.

"I am good." After Han Jingru said that, he turned towards Su Yimo.

"I am good as well. This is a two million wedding gown, how can I pick bones?" Su Yimo said.

"Then let's go." Han Jingru told Yang Chen.

Before leaving the bridal shop, the owner spoke to Han Jingru suddenly, "You love your wife so much, I bet you want to give her all the best thing in this world."

"Of course." Han Jingru said.

"In two days, there will be an auction in Bedrock Island. There will be a necklace called Eternity being auctioned and do you want to give it a try? See if you can get it." The owner asked.

"With that name, it should be worth my time." Han Jingru said.

When the owner watched as Han Jingru left, she showed a scornful expression. There would be a lot of prominent people participating in the auction. More than that, the necklace had become a great hype and it would definitely have a crazy competition. The reason she mentioned that was too expose Han Jingru during the auction.

A wedding gown of two million wasn't anything compared to that kind of auction. That Eternity was the real thing the rich people play with.

"If you dare to even raise your hand once, I'll admire your courage." The owner chuckled to herself.

After reaching the first photo shooting spot, there was already a couple that took the best spot. Therefore, Han Jingru and the group could only wait by the side first.

That newlywed came to Bedrock Island for their wedding photoshoot as well. When the bride saw Su Yimo wearing that two million wedding gown, she was envious. She went to the same bridal shop as well and she knew the worth of the piece of dress Su Yimo was wearing. The woman was shocked to see that masterpiece being purchased.

Everyone would have the tendency to compare themselves with others. When a jealous woman saw that they weren't as good as others, their mind would start to play tricks.

"Took a look at her, she was wearing a two million wedding gown. Then looked back at me!" The harmonious atmosphere turned because of her envy. The woman glared at her husband in irritation.

The man had been stealing gazes at Su

Yimo already. Because Su Yimo's charm was simply irresistible. However, he still had to pretend that he didn't care in front of his wife.

"Do you really think there will be a fool that buy a two million gown for one-time use? She must be wearing a replica, a fake." The man snickered.

When the woman heard that, she was agreeable. After that, she leered at Su Yimo in deride.

After the first couple was done with their wedding shoot and walked past Han Jingru, the woman snickered, "Someone just like to act rich even though they don't have the money. Aren't they afraid to be made fun of?"

"Bro, how much do you spend for this replica? Where did you get it? It looks so fake. Look at the needle work, just from the first glance and I know that it is fake." The man laughed at Han Jingru.

"Since you know about this wedding gown, the one your wife is wearing should be rented from the same bridal shop, right? Why not you just go back and take a look to find out?" Han Jingru smiled.

"Of course I will do that. However, the one my wife is wearing isn't rented. We spent over a hundred thousand to buy it. It should be much expensive than a replica of yours, right?" The man snickered conceitedly.

Han Jingru shook his head in irk and he just couldn't be bothered to waste his time with a clown like that. Han Jingru couldn't even get the slightest interest to entertain him.

During the photo shoot, Han Jingru and Su Yimo were like a couple fervently in love. All of their gestures were filled with sweetness and that made Shu Tong simply envious. She had never thought about getting married at all. But after looking at Han Jingru and Su Yimo, the woman was inspired to get married. She wanted to wear a beautiful wedding gown as well and do this sweet task with her prince charming.

At that time, Su Yimo suddenly turned to Han Jingru and said, "Why not you kneel and we get a special shot?"

Han Jingru didn't know what Su Yimo wants but he did as he was told. After kneeling with both knees, he asked, "What do we do next?"

Su Yimo said helplessly, "Who asked you to kneel with both knees? You didn't do anything wrong. But if you were to do wrong in the future, I'll make you kneel on the washing board."

Han Jingru laughed awkwardly and raised one knee, with another one still on the ground.

Su Yimo stretched out her right hand and Han Jingru held her tacitly.

At that time, Su Yimo's eyelashes flickered and her eyes turned misty.

When Han Jingru saw that, he became anxious suddenly. Why would she cry all of a sudden? Did he do anything wrong?

"I..."

"I do." Su Yimo interrupted him.

Han Jingru was thunderstruck. He finally knew what Su Yimo was trying to do. Kneeling on one knee and all he needed was just a ring. However, Han Jingru could feel the proposal.

Han Jingru had never expected Su Yimo to say 'I do'.

But right now, it happened right before his eyes. That was an experience that couldn't be topped for Han Jingru.

At that moment, Su Yimo finally spoke her mind that she was truly willing and happy to marry Han Jingru.

For the past three years, although they had gotten closer and closer, it wasn't close enough to be a real husband and wife. Han Jingru knew that his life with Su Yimo would be intertwined completely from now onwards.

Because after this very moment, they would be a real husband and wife.

"I, I forgot to bring the ring!" Han Jingru said impassionedly.

Su Yimo wiped the tears in the corner of her eyes and shook her head, "I don't need any ring. As long as you are here by my side, I don't need anything else."

Han Jingru's eyelashes flickered and tears welled up in his eyes. He couldn't hold back anymore and hugged Su Yimo.

"Three years. After three years, all of my efforts are finally bearing fruit. I, Han Jingru swear that I will never let Su Yimo suffer, not even one bit!" Han Jingru raised his head and yelled to the sky. At that very moment, all of his past suffer were swept away.

Nobody could understand what Han Jingru had gone through for the past three years. He did not mind any kind of humiliation. Even if others were to step right on his face, he would return the favor with a smile. And everything was the sake for Su Yimo. Finally, he finally got what he wanted.

Even the entire world couldn't match the smile on your face.

The two of them broke into tears while smiling. All of the distance between them for the past three years were removed under those tears.

Shu Tong wiped the tears by her eyes secretly. Although she didn't know what happened between Han Jingru and Su Yimo, she was moved by the sight and atmosphere.

"Yang Chen, she is happy." Shu Tong said.

Yang Chen nodded. Everyone else had said that Su Yimo had suffered because a trash married her. But they just couldn't understand her happiness.

"Maybe, the entire Yun city was wrong towards Han Jingru. This time, we might have just the opportunity to see the real Han Jingru." Yang Chen said. The owner from the bridal shop had purposefully mentioned the auction to Han Jingru. Yang Chen knew that she was trying to make things difficult and awkward for him.

But if he wasn't a trash, the auction would prove his power.

At that time, the previous newlywed had went back to the bridal shop. When the woman saw that the wedding gown was no longer there in the cabinet, her heart sank.

Reality told her that the wedding gown she just saw was real. Claiming it to be a replica was simply deceiving themselves.

"Boss, is the wedding gown really bought?" The man asked the owner in frustration.

"Yeah, did you guys see it?" The owner asked.

The man knew that he couldn't deny the truth anymore. As he recalled how he insulted Han Jingru, he felt a hotness on both of his cheeks.

"I don't even know why the woman favors him. I heard that she is a chairman to a company but that man is simply a leech." The owner said in disdain.

"A leech?" When the man heard that, he seemed to find back his confidence. Although the wedding gown he bought wasn't expensive, it was his own money. If Han Jingru depended on a woman, how could he ever hoped to compete with him?

"Boss, do you mean the woman was the one who paid for the wedding gown?"

"Although he was the one that swiped his card, the money should be belong to the woman." The owner replied.

"Darling, didn't I say? That fellow looks just like a trash. How can he be a wealthy person? But I hadn't expected him to be so shameless to leech off a woman." The man sneered.

"By the way, he would probably participate in the auction that I mentioned to you guys earlier. Not only that, he bluffed and told me that he will be getting the Eternity necklace. If the two of you want to entertain yourself, you can go check it out." The owner knew that the couple were jealous and that made them come back purposefully to ask about the wedding gown. It was a side dish to have more people to go scorn at Han Jingru in the auction.

"Since he is going, of course I should go as well. That trash is harassing us men. I shall go and see what he can afford." The man said.

After a whole day of photographing, Han Jingru and Su Yimo went back to the hotel in exhaustion. After Su Yimo lied on the bed, she no longer wants to move. Therefore, Han Jingru ordered for room service.

"I hadn't expected a wedding photo shoot to be so physically demanding. Why didn't I ever feel it in the past?" Su Yimo stretched out her limbs and lied flat on the bed. She didn't even want to move a finger.

Han Jingru was much better. Although he was tired as well, he wasn't as bad as Su Yimo.

"Three years ago, I think you just wanted to kill me." Han Jingru said.

There was no longer any distance between Su Yimo and Han Jingru. Therefore, they weren't awkward when they talked about that past. Su Yimo simply said straightforwardly, "I don't even know your name back then. How can I stand you barging into my life?"

Han Jingru nodded agreeably. If he were to put in her shoes, he wouldn't be able to accept it as well. That was also another reason why he had always been forbearing towards Su Yimo.

"By the way, why did grandpa insist on me to marry you? Do you know him?" Su Yimo asked curiously.

Han Jingru did not have a close relationship with the Su family patriarch. It was just a coincidence for him to marry into the Su family. The man answered, "I knew him after I came to Yun city. He was the one that suggested the marriage."

Su Yimo didn't ask further. Because the next question would involve something sensitive that Han Jingru wasn't willing to talk about. Su Yimo wouldn't force him to tell her. She knew that when the time comes, she would definitely know what she wanted to know.

"I'm tired. I shall rest a little first." Su Yimo said.

"Just rest then. I'll go out for a while." Han Jingru said.

After leaving the hotel, Han Jingru went to the auction company. Since he would be participating in the auction, he must first get some understanding. Moreover, it was likely that he would need an entrance ticket and he needed to prepare it beforehand.

Although he had never seen the necklace called Eternity, he wasn't joking when he said that he would buy the necklace just because of the name.

Ocean Auction Company had a huge prestige in the nation. It could be considered the largest auction company. A lot of big cities had their subsidiary companies and their turnover could reach a hundred billion annually. And even a lot of nation-class treasure came from Ocean Auction and they had a great reputation in the auction industry worldwide. Not just that, they had quite the influence internationally. It was told that the owner of Ocean was so rich that he had even bought a tiny country. But of course, that rumor wasn't authenticated.

"I want to see your company's person in charge." Han Jingru stood outside the company and asked the security guard.

All of the company personnel had went through a proper training. They would show the most respect towards everyone and there would never be a case where they looked down on people. Because it was the company's motto that everyone was a potential customer. They must not risk offending them. Every wealthy people would be down to earth and they didn't want to risk offending someone like that.

"Dear sir, do you have an appointment?"
The security guard asked Han Jingru.

"I do not." Han Jingru answered.

"If you don't, I'm afraid it might be difficult to meet the person in charge. However, I can go and inform them and give it a try."
The security guard said.

Han Jingru was surprised by the security guard's attitude. He came saying that he wanted to meet the person in charge yet the security guard replied him in respect. As expected from a huge company like that. They had strict training for their employees. Unlike those small-time companies that acted high and mighty.

"Thank you." Han Jingru replied with a respectful manner as well.

After the security guard left for a while, a middle-aged man came with him.

"Hi, I am the person in charge of the Bedrock Island division. You can call me Liu Zhong. May I know what is the matter for you to look for me?" Liu Zhong asked.

"I am interested with the Eternity necklace in your auction. However, I have never participated in an auction before and I don't know the procedures. I think we have to verify my asset first, right?" Han Jingru asked.

"Sir, please follow me." Liu Zhong smiled. Those who dared to be interested in Eternity must be big shots. Important people like that must be brought to the VIP room.

When they were in the VIP room, Liu Zhong explained to Han Jingru, "As for the verification of asset, it can be done right on the spot. But since you are here personally, I can tell you some rules about the auction."

"I am all ears." Han Jingru said.

"The seating in the auction is separated into five areas. The top VIP, they must have more than ten billion in net asset, and..."

Before Liu Zhong even finished, Han Jingru interrupted him and he took out a bank card and said, "I should be able to get into the top VIP spot."

After Liu Zhong accepted the bank card, he passed it to the beautiful assistant of his and smiled, "Sir, if you are interested in Eternity, after the verification, I can bring you to take a look at it first. You have an opportunity to estimate the price. This is a special privilege for the VIP!"

"There's no need. I like the name Eternity. As for the necklace, I don't really care." Han Jingru said.

Liu Zhong had met all kinds of rich people in the past. And all of them had different temperaments and personality. However, it was his first time hearing what Han Jingru said. Just because of the name and he was willing to pay for the price? Even Liu Zhong couldn't help but thought that he was joking.

The assistant came back to the VIP room soon. But it was noticeable that her attitude towards Han Jingru changed.

"Eleven figures." The assistant told Liu Zhong.

When Liu Zhong heard that, his eyes widened. That was a VVIP! He had not expected someone so rich to find him personally!

"Sir, please allow me to apologize for my rudeness against you." Liu Zhong did not show any scorn but he was secretly thinking that Han Jingru was joking. Even if that was the case, he apologized to Han Jingru. That was the attitude of how Ocean treated their VIP guest.

Han Jingru simply smiled and accepted the bank card, "Your company is the most humble one I have ever seen. Otherwise, your security guard would be kicking me away already. I have never heard about the company but I can meet the person in charge so easily."

Liu Zhong had an awkward smile. Previously, the man thought that the company regulation had created a lot of trouble. But now, it seemed that his boss was truly a wise person to set such a rule. To offend an important person like that would be a great loss to the company.

"It is our company's motto to serve every customer with our best effort. That is simply our job. Please let me know if you need anything and I'll try my best to satisfy you." Liu Zhong said.

"There isn't. I have already gotten the top VIP's seat, there is nothing to complain." Han Jingru chuckled.

"You are entitled to it. Please don't worry about that." Liu Zhong hurriedly said. The man admired Han Jingru for being so rich yet so humble. Unlike those uneducated and rude tycoon, acting as if they were the best.

"I shall leave first."

After that, Liu Zhong and his assistant sent Han Jingru to the company's doorstep and watched as he walked away.

"President Liu, when that young man walks in the street, he doesn't look like a rich person at all." The assistant said to Liu Zhong.

"The wealthier is a person, the more low profile he would be. But he is just too much, to have that kind of money in his age. I wonder what family he comes from." Liu Zhong said.

The assistant simply sighed and said, "Unfortunately, judging by his looks, he should have a partner already."

Liu Zhong looked at his assistant and smiled, "I am not belittling you. You are lucky enough if you can find someone over a net worth of ten million. Don't even think about someone like him."

At that time, there was another couple that came to the company. They were the newlywed that took their wedding photo shoot before Han Jingru.

"I want to see your person in charge." Ma Yan spoke to Liu Zhong arrogantly.

Liu Zhong was stunned and he answered, "I am. May I know what is your business with me?"

"I will be participating in the auction few days later. Arrange a good seat for me." Ma Yan said.

After the humble Han Jingru, here came a cocky Ma Yan. The huge contrast simply made Liu Zhong exclaimed.

With one look, he could tell that Ma Yan was just acting. He didn't have much money yet he acted so arrogantly.

"No problem. But we must verify your net worth first." Liu Zhong said.

"There is more than twenty million in this card. If you don't believe me, go and authenticate it." Ma Yan said.

Twenty more million was an astronomical figure for ordinary people. However, it was really nothing impressive for a person like Liu Zhong who dealt extensively with wealthy people.

Twenty million was only enough to get into the room. Moreover, the seat he was entitled to was the lowest class amongst the group.

"There's no need for verification. You can sit in area five." Liu Zhong said.

"Area five? Is it the highest class?" Ma Yan asked.

"Those with net worth under fifty million can only sit in area five." Liu Zhong explained.

"Then isn't that the most low class one?"
Ma Yan fumed in annoyance.

"Regrettably that is our company's rule."
Liu Zhong said apologetically.

Ma Yan came not to get the most low class seat. At the very least, he must make sure to get a more boastable seat. He came to laugh at Han Jingru. How could he not get a better seat for his sense of superiority?

"If you arrange a better seat for me, I'll give you some compensation. How does that sound?" Ma Yan asked.

"If you want to sit in area four, it is doable. But you must make sure you buy on object. Regardless of the price." Liu Zhong said.

Area five was actually for people who watched the show. Most of the people wouldn't be participating in the auction. Those people's significance lied in their worth to tell the public about the situation in the auction. Because the real wealthy people would never go and promote it. In order to advertise the auction and increase the popularity, they needed those kind of people that would gossip. Therefore, the only way for Ma Yan to get in a higher class seat was to join the bidding.

Of course, that special rule was for a person like Ma Yan who didn't have enough net worth. For those with higher net worth, regardless if they join the bidding or not, they were potential customers and they had the privilege to sit in a higher class place.

That made Ma Yan hesitant. Because bidding in an auction like this didn't have any upper limits. Even if he were to choose some unpopular goods, he wouldn't be able to get it with a cheap price. That was a risky move.

"Why are you still hesitating? Can't you just make me proud for once?" Fan Yunyun glared at Ma Yan furiously. After losing in the wedding gown, she didn't want to lose in the auction.

"Okay, I'll take the deal. Isn't it just buying one thing? Do you think I can't afford?"

Liu Zhong was speechless to see those who valued their ego above everything else. With a net worth of just twenty over million, buying an object from the auction could peel a flesh from him. What was the point to act up meaninglessly like that?

"If you confirm, you must give a million as guarantee. If you do not participate in the bidding, the deficit will not be returned." Liu Zhong reminded.

"Why are you so naggy? Are you looking down on me?" Ma Yan said angrily.

Liu Zhong shook his head and said, "If that's the case, please follow me."

At that time, even Liu Zhong's assistant couldn't help but shook her head. If Han Jingru did not come before them, she would simply treat them like a joke. But after the contrast, she simply looked down on them.

Someone with a net worth over a hundred billion was so well mannered and down to earth. But yet the man with just twenty over million net worth acted as if he was better than everyone else.

After Han Jingru went back to the hotel, Su Yimo had already fallen asleep. She was snoring loudly as well. It seemed that she had completely exhausted herself.

That was the unknown side of that beauty. Who could expect a goddess like Su Yimo to snore during her sleep?

On the other room, after Yang Chen and the bridal shop owner had their fling, they were resting in the bed. That was their romantic encounter, to simply satisfy each other's needs. After that, no strings attached.

"Yang Chen, tell me more about that Su Yimo." The owner asked curiously.

"The Su family is actually a second tier family in Yun city. Previously, Su Yimo did not have the family's favor. But I don't know what happened lately and she was made the chairman. However, she does not have the easiest time in the company because she is targeted by another group. And now, her company is almost brought down." Yang Chen said. The man only knew some superficial information and nothing about the Su family's internal affairs.

"Then what about Han Jingru?" Owner continued to ask.

"He married into the Su family three years ago and the entire Yun city is mocking him, saying that he is a trash. But I don't know his true identity at all." Yang Chen said.

"That kind of person is just too shameless. Being a leech and getting insulted by the entire city, yet he can continue to stay in the Su family?" The owner sat up and her curvaceous body was laid bare in sight. However, she wasn't embarrassed before her sleeping partner. After all, she was an experienced woman and she didn't have the shyness of a young girl.

"It was truly perplexing. However, after something that happened shortly ago, a lot of people had a change of opinion towards him." Yang Chen said. Previously, he did not tell the boss about the Public Square incident because he expected the woman to cause some trouble for Han Jingru for the sake of testing his capabilities. But since he would be joining the auction soon, he felt a need to remind the owner in case she pushed it too far. After all, he would be coming to Bedrock Island in the future. With a relationship with her, he wouldn't need to spend his night alone.

"What happened?" The owner asked curiously.

"There is a man called Jiang Fu in Yun city and he is extremely rich. Not just that, he gathered a group of men with similar background like him to go against Han Jingru, forcing him to kneel and apologize in the Public Square with most traffic. That became a great hype in the entire Yun city. More than ten thousand people gathered to watch the show. And what do you think happened?" Yang Chen left her a cliffhanger.

The owner sat beside him and purred coquettish, "Naughty boy, are you trying to leave me hanging? Hurry and tell me. Otherwise, you won't be able to get down the bed tomorrow."

Yang Chen chuckled and grabbed her tiny waist as he said, "All those powerful people knelt before Han Jingru. And everyone in the Public Square were stupefied."

"Knelt before him?" The owner was shocked, "How could those wealthy people kneel before a useless pretty boy?"

"That is the question. Now the people in Yun city are actually saying that Han Jingru isn't just a pretty boy. He simply hid his identity in the Su family all this while. But as for the authenticity of the news, I don't know." Yang Chen said.

The shop owner had a grim expression. When she saw Han Jingru wearing the suit, she was puzzled. A trash couldn't have that kind of temperament. He must have had some kind of background and built up that charisma after a long time.

Could he be a great person that hid his identity?

But why would someone so great marry into the Su family? Can the forces behind him agreed to something so embarrassing?

"How amusing. I wonder if he can surprise me during the auction two days later. If he can really buy the Eternity, It will be interesting." The shop owner said longingly.

"With the Su family's asset, the cash they can mobilize won't be exceeding five billion. If he can really buy Eternity, it means the money has nothing to do with the Su family." Yang Chen was just as curious as well whether Han Jingru could do that or not.

"If I can have a fun time with someone like that, I don't even need to spend so much effort in operating my small bridal shop!" The shop owner laughed.

Yang Chen had never thought of her as his significant other. Therefore, he did not care about her private life. However, in that matter, Yang Chen felt a strong need to remind her, "I advise you to give up on that thought. Lest you be embarrassed."

"Are you telling me that I am not attractive enough?" The shop owner stood up and made a seductive pose.

"If he is really someone great and he was willing to be humiliated in the Su family, aside from Su Yimo, do you think the Su family can offer anything to him?" Yang Chen chuckled.

"And he is a romantist?" When the shop owner heard that, she was dispirited. Although she was confident with her looks and body, she knew she was nowhere compared to Su Yimo. If Han Jingru wasn't a salacious or indecent person, she wouldn't have any chance at all.

"I don't know about him. But I am an animal now, do you want to try me?" Yang Chen pulled the owner right into his hug and the room was filled with their passion.

Su Yimo woke up about ten o'clock in the night. She opened her eyes drowsily and said that she was hungry. And Han Jingru hurriedly ordered room service.

"How long have I fallen asleep? What time is it now?" Su Yimo rubbed her eyes and asked Han Jingru.

"It isn't late. The sky is not bright yet." Han Jingru chuckled.

When Su Yimo heard Han Jingru's jibe, she said apologetically, "Sorry, I wanted to go walk around with you."

"We still have time after the wedding photo shoot. Don't worry." Han Jingru said.

Su Yimo was very worried about the company's situation. Therefore, she planned to go back to Yun city right after the photo shoot. After hearing what Han Jingru said, they still needed to stay back in Bedrock Island after the shoot and she felt restless.

"Can I make a call back to Yun city?" Su Yimo asked.

"Didn't we have an agreement to let go of everything in Yun city for now?" Han Jingru said. He could satisfy Su Yimo in everything else but not this. The couple came to Bedrock Island to take their wedding photo shoot as well as their honeymoon. Since it was honeymoon, how could they be distracted?

"All right then." Su Yimo did not insist and said with her head held low.

"Don't you worry. Everything in Yun city is going well. When you go back, you will see a brand-new company and it will definitely do better." Han Jingru said. Although he didn't get any updates from Yun city, With Zhong Ji and Qinfu there, he didn't need to worry.

After a waiter brought the food, Su Yimo and Han Jingru had dinner and rest.

The next day, they continued with their photo shoot. They would be joining the auction the day after and that might postpone their plan further. In order to go back to Yun city as soon as possible, Su Yimo asked Yang Chen to increase their pace. The wedding photo shoot that day was even more tiring. After getting back to the hotel, Su Yimo was completely drained. It was Han Jingru who carried her back to the hotel.

Han Jingru did not complain and simply let Su Yimo do as she pleases.

During the day of the auction, Han Jingru wore his suit and Su Yimo changed into a classy dress. The beautiful couple became an attraction in the place.

Outside the entrance, Ma Yan and Fan Yunyun came early in purpose but they did not get in the hall. After paying one million deposit to get a seat in area four, they would waste the money if they couldn't get into the hall together with Han Jingru. At the very least, they should rub it in front of Han Jingru a little.

"The leech is here." They didn't wait for a long time and Fan Yunyun saw Han Jingru and Su Yimo. The woman whispered to Ma Yan.

Ma Yan tidied his collar smugly. The moment he saw Su Yimo, he was once again stunned and he hated Han Jingru out of jealousy even more. How could a pretty boy like that seduced such great beauty? While he being so rich and successful, he could only find himself an ordinary-looking wife.

Fan Yunyun couldn't even raise her head before Su Yimo. Because not just her appearance, her social status was nothing in comparison to her. After knowing that Su Yimo was a chairman to a company, Fan Yunyun had lost her interest in competing with Su Yimo. However, she had one thing better than Su Yimo, her husband.

Although Ma Yan wasn't extremely wealthy, he was much better than a leech that lived off his woman.

"What a coincidence, I hadn't expected the two of you to join the auction as well!" Ma

Yan smiled and greeted Han Jingru.

"It is such a coincidence that you waited for me purposefully. Did you wait long?" Han Jingru laughed.

Ma Yan's eyes turned cold. After getting exposed, he felt embarrassed.

"I wasn't talking to you. A leech like you are just embarrassing us men. Who wants to talk to you?" Ma Yan said coldly.

"Why do I smell such a strong smell of jealousy? Don't tell me you want to be like me, you want to be a pretty boy that lives off a woman?" Han Jingru said.

Ma Yan showed a scornful expression. That man even felt proud to depend on a woman. As the saying goes, a person can be invincible if they are shameless enough.

"I have over ten millions net worth, do I need to depend on a woman? Do you think every man are like you? What a joke!" Ma Yan snickered.

Han Jingru shrugged his shoulders uncaringly and said, "The auction will be starting soon. If you want to continue to bluff at the entrance, I don't mind. But please move aside and don't block the way."

Ma Yan smiled smugly and said, "You should go in as well, lest all the seats are taken in area five. However, I don't have to worry. Because not just anyone can sit in area four."

And Han Jingru finally understood why he was waiting for him by the door. So he was planning that. However, Han Jingru just couldn't understand the thoughts of Ma Yan. Can't he think? Competing his wealth against someone that could buy a two million wedding gown? And now he wanted to compete in seats?

"Well said!" Han Jingru raised his thumb towards Ma Yan.

After getting Han Jingru's acknowledgement, Ma Yan was even more conceited. The man had never thought about the seat Han Jingru would take at all. He had treated Han Jingru like a trash but he had never thought about Su Yimo's status. Even if Han Jingru did not compare himself with his net worth, Ma Yan couldn't match Su Yimo's net worth either. The man was completely blinded by his jealousy and pride.

After the four of them entered the hall, Han Jingru saw Yang Chen and the shop owner in area five. Yang Chen was waving at him.

When Ma Yan saw that, he felt an even stronger sense of superiority and he sneered at Han Jingru, "Your friends are calling for you. Hurry and go now~"

At that time, a staff with white shirt walked towards Han Jingru.

"Mr. Han, please follow me." The worker spoke to him respectfully.

Han Jingru nodded and followed after him.

"How can anyone be that stupid?" Su Yimo wrapped her arm around Han Jingru's and said in puzzlement.

Han Jingru simply smiled. Although that seemed to be idiotic, Han Jingru had seen far worse. Especially those spoiled second generation. They would always do something unbelievable and laughable, as if they were three years old.

"I wonder how much money Ma Yan had spent in order to sit in area four. If he doesn't show off in front of me, he would feel that the money spent is a waste." Han Jingru explained with a smile.

At that time, Su Yimo didn't know where they would be going and she asked, "Is there a difference in the seats? How weird."

"Of course. You should remember the looks on their face now." Han Jingru said.

Looks?

As Su Yimo looked around, she saw a lot of puzzled gaze as well as salacious gaze. In her opinion, that was just the most natural thing. After all, people didn't know each other here and they shared a puzzled expression. As for the salacious case, Su Yimo had gotten used to it. After all, the woman was crowned the most beautiful woman in Yun city.

"Where are we going?" Su Yimo asked.

"You will know soon enough."

When Fan Yunyun saw Han Jingru and Su Yimo walking away, she couldn't hold back her curiosity and asked, "Where are they going?"

Ma Yan's eyebrows furrowed deeply and the man wanted to know as well. He observed that no one was escorting the guest for area four. But yet, someone came to escort Han Jingru and Su Yimo. That proved that they would be sitting in a higher class seat than area four!

"That leech is just crazy lucky. It seems that I have thrown one million into the sea." Ma Yan gnashed his teeth and grumbled.

"Without a net worth more than ten billion, they would not have a right to sit over there. Is that young man someone from a prominent family?"

"Them... What is happening to them?" Su Yimo asked in puzzlement.

"It seemed that your guess is spot on. Su Yimo being the chairman is just under him. He is the real deal." The shop owner exclaimed.

"Who are those? I have never seen them before. How can they afford to sit in the top VIP spot?"

According to the rules, they could sit in the top VIP spot. However, the bridal shop owner was still dubious with Han Jingru being able to buy the necklace, Eternity. After all, Yang Chen had already told her Su Yimo's company's net worth. If Han Jingru wanted to act cool using Su Yimo's money, a few billion was different than that two million expenses. Su Yimo wouldn't be able to afford that.

"Where do you think they will sit?" The shop owner asked Yang Chen.

"That man is simply lucky and the gods are blind!" Ma Yan said hatefully.

Ma Yan was fixing his eyes on Han Jingru. He knew that he was no match for Su Yimo and he could only find his sense of superiority from Han Jingru that trash.

"He... He is sitting in the top seat of the VIP spot!" After Ma Yan saw Han Jingru getting seated, his eyes turned blood shot. He had spent 1 million to get himself into area four. That was simply a laughable act before the top VIP seat. After spending such a huge amount, he didn't get anything at all. Only the gods could tell the dread Ma Yan was feeling.

"Is that woman really that rich?" Fan Yunyun said in frustration. The woman simply sat down on the spot with the entrance limit of ten billion. She just couldn't begin to fathom the difference between herself and Su Yimo.

Although Su Yimo didn't understand what Han Jingru meant, she did according to what Han Jingru said and looked around. And after that, she noticed that all of the puzzled gaze turned into shock. Even some of those salacious men no longer look at her that way. Su Yimo could even see fright in their expression.

Lu Shun was a famous wealthy boy from Bedrock Island. He was the wealthiest person in that island. His family's asset spread across the entire island and it took a share of almost 30 percent of the entire Bedrock Island. He had a frightening amount of money. Not only that, the man had mentioned long ago that he would go for Eternity. The man purposefully said that to remind the others not to compete with him, Lu Shun.

"If he is able to get so much favor from the auctioneer, it seems that he is planning to spend a great deal of money to entertain his partner. The finale today will be interesting. I heard that Lu Shun is interested with Eternity as well."

On the other side, the bridal shop owner and Yang Chen had a weird expression each to themselves. Yang Chen had expected that to happen but the owner had all of her hopes lost.

The man and woman in area five seat was staring at Han Jingru all the time. They knew that Han Jingru and Su Yimo's seat in the VIP made their competition for Eternity very probable.

"If he really wants to get the necklace, I don't think it is impossible now that he is sitting in the top VIP's seat." Yang Chen drew a deep breath and said.

After getting seated, Su Yimo was puzzled. She could see that everywhere else were filled with people but the place she and Han Jingru sat was almost empty.

"Why don't we see anyone sitting over here?" Su Yimo asked.

"Why not you continue to look at how the rest of them look at you." Han Jingru answered with a random statement.

As Yang Chen looked at them, he said, "We will know once the auction starts." The man wasn't confident with his guess. After all, sitting at that seat didn't mean they would be spending any money, unless Han Jingru would be bidding on the necklace.

"This is the top VIP spot and only those with more than ten billion's net worth can sit over here. Since they have never seen us before, it is only natural for them to be so surprised." Han Jingru explained with smile on his face.

A requirement to have more than ten billion to sit over here?!

Su Yimo's gaze changed just like the rest of the crowd. Because with her net worth, it was obviously not enough. And that simply meant that the reason they could sit there wasn't because of Su Yimo but Han Jingru.

Ten billion. Even for the Su family, that was an impossible figure. But him...

Su Yimo drew a deep breath to calm herself down.

"Actually, I am pretty rich." Han Jingru chuckled.

Su Yimo nodded. After Han Jingru brought the mansion in the middle hill, she had known that he was rich. However, the woman had not expected him to be so rich.

After the auction officially started, a lot of the biddings were having great competition. However, Han Jingru wasn't interested with any of those objects at all. Since he came for Eternity, then he wouldn't be raising his hand before the finale.

At that time, Ma Yan was just devastated. After paying one million worth of deposit, he just didn't want to throw the money away. However, just from what he saw, there was no single object that worth below three million. Ma Yan didn't even have the chance to raise his hand and he was getting high strung.

Although the product of auction had a certain value, that value was only valuable before the collector. For a person like Ma Yan who simply didn't understand, it was nothing more than a trash. Even if he were to sell it after purchasing it, it would be a great loss. After all, the products were generally marked up and he would lose either way.

Ma Yan was just regretful and the man hated Han Jingru even more. If it wasn't for Han Jingru, he wouldn't be wasting 1 million to act cool.

"Darling, are we really wasting one million just like that?" Fan Yunyun said in remorse. That one million could buy her so many bags and make ups.

"What else can we do? Do you see anything cheap that we can buy?" Ma Yan gritted his teeth and said. The man was resentful towards Fan Yunyun as well. If it wasn't for the wife pushing him, he wouldn't have paid the one million deposit.

"Cheap? There is nothing cheap in this auction. If you are simply here to pick up cheap stuff, I'm afraid you have come to the wrong place." The next person that sat beside Ma Yan heard that and scoffed.

Ma Yan glanced over at the man. He was huge and fat, wearing ostentatious gold accessories all over him. Not only that, He had a follower that had tattoos over of him. It was obvious that they were gangsters and the man dared not to offend them. Ma Yan simply pretended he heard nothing.

After a few hours, a lot of transactions had been done. Finally, it was the time for the finale. At that time, a young man came late into the hall and he seemed to be just in his middle twenties. Not only that, the man was bringing an extremely sexy woman beside him.

"Lu Shun is here!"

"It seems that he had changed another female partner. Almost faster than us changing our clothes!"

"Don't you know how many women are queueing for him in Bedrock Island? Of course he could change his partners easily."

The crowd was gossiping enviously. Because Lu Shun's life was a dream come true for almost every man. He had never lack any money or woman.

"Lu Shun, what do you plan to buy today?" The sexy woman asked Lu Shun. She had not known about this schedule earlier. The woman thought that it was a surprise from Lu Shun and she couldn't help but got excited.

"Don't you know that they will be auctioning a necklace called Eternity?" Lu Shun said.

The sexy woman was so elated that she couldn't say anything. Ever since half a month ago, the auctioneer had been hyping up the topics about Eternity. And now, almost everyone in Bedrock Island knew about that. From the picture from the auctioneer, the necklace was extremely exquisite. It was something every woman would want.

"You... Are you giving me something so precious?" The sexy woman was so excited that she even stammered.

Lu Shun scoffed in disdain and replied, "Giving it to you? Why not you take a look at your own place? This is a gift for my future wife."

When the sexy woman heard that, her expression turned awkward. However, she knew that her chances to sleep with Lu Shun was enough to get her money and luxurious goods. She was happy and contented enough with that and she wouldn't dream of marrying into the Lu family.

"I wonder what kind of woman could marry you. She must be the happiest woman in this world!" When the sexy woman said that, she was still grabbing Lu Shun's arm. Even when she knew that Lu Shun was playing with her, she was willingly staying beside him.

"That of course. My woman will definitely be the happiest woman in this world." Lu shun said conceitedly.

After the staff escorted the two of them to the top VIP seat, Lu Shun was surprised to see two people sitting over there. They were new faces to him.

The man simply ignored Han Jingru and fixed his eyes on Su Yimo. In terms of appearance and temperament, Su Yimo was way ahead than the woman beside him. And Lu Shun's lips curled up.

As long as he was in Bedrock Island, he could get any woman he wanted. Even if she already had a boyfriend or husband.

Lu Shun flung the sexy woman's arm away and hurried towards Su Yimo. The man smiled gentlemanly and said, "Hi pretty, I have never seen you before. Are you here for a vacation?"

When Su Yimo saw that Lu Shun was staring at her chest all the time, she was flustered and she answered coldly, "I am married."

When Lu Shun heard that, he turned to look at Han Jingru and continued, "It doesn't matter. If I, Lu Shun is interested, I don't even care if you have a son. After all, I am not dating you."

Su Yimo was infuriated to see that cocky attitude treating woman like a play thing. She hated that kind of indecent people like Lu Shun the most.

"I am not interested in you." Su Yimo fumed.

"Hey bro, I am interested in your wife. Give me a price? Although you are able to sit here, Bedrock Island is my turf. If you go against me, you will definitely suffer." Lu Shun said blatantly. The man had committed a lot of horrids in Bedrock Island. That wasn't the first time something like this happened. Even if a woman were to work in the street with a baby in her hands, Lu Shun would say something similar. The man was cocky beyond limits.

Han Jingru looked at Lu Shun like a dead man and he said, "If you don't want to die, you better apologize to my wife."

"Apologize?" It was as if Lu Shun heard the biggest joke of his life. How could anyone in Bedrock Island dared to make him apologize? He dug his ear and pretended that he didn't hear Han Jingru and asked, "Bro, can you repeat? I didn't hear you clearly just now."

"Just apologize if you don't want to die. Is that too difficult to understand for you?" Han Jingru continued.

Lu Shun's expression turned grim immediately and he said, "You have guts to talk to me, Lu Shun like this. This is definitely a first and I'll remember you. I hope that you can leave Bedrock Island safely."

When the bridal shop owner in area five saw that, although she couldn't hear their conversation, she knew Lu Shun's personality and history. It seemed that Han Jingru had clashed with him.

"After the auction, you should ask them to leave Bedrock Island as soon as possible. Lu Shun was nothing less than the Emperor himself over here, No one can challenge him." The owner reminded Yang Chen.

Yang Chen was familiar with Bedrock Island as well and he knew what kind of person Lu Shun was. In another word, offending Lu Shun was like offending the King himself.

"I know. Let's wait until the auction is over." Yang Chen said.

The last item for auction finally made its appearance. Eternity was twinkling under the spotlight and it was embedded with countless diamonds. The pendant was made by a pink diamond as large as a goose's egg. Although most of the people had seen the picture, they were still taken aback the moment they saw the real thing.

"I believe everyone have been anticipating this moment for a long while. I shall not be wasting time and start the auction. The bottom price of this necklace will be ten million. You may begin to bid." After the auctioneer said that, people started to bid. However, not many people do that. After all, the price of ten million was simply testing water to bring up the atmosphere.

At that time, the only people that could afford it in the top VIP seat became the centre of attention.

There were only two pairs of couples in the VIP seat. In another word, the competition would likely be between Han Jingru and Lu Shun. Most of them knew Lu Shun and they knew his background. Therefore, in their opinion, Lu Shun had almost 99 percent chance to win Eternity.

"Eighty million." At that time, Lu Shun started to bid. And he raised the price right to 80 million.

The crowd were clapping and cheering for him, affirming the price he gave.

"As expected from young master Lu, how generous!"

"It seemed that nobody can compete with young master Lu today!"

"I wonder what kind of woman can make young master Lu wear that necklace on her. I am simply envious."

When the businessmen in the crowd found the opportunity to rub butter, they were calling out loudly, thinking to leave a good impression for Lu Shun. If they could secure some kind of business relationship with Lu Shun, they would be elated.

Lu Shun leered at Han Jingru smugly and said, "If you sit over here, you have to show some muscle. It is your turn now. Eighty million, don't tell me you are afraid already?"

Su Yimo nudged Han Jingru secretly. In her opinion, only a lunatic would buy a necklace of eighteen million. She didn't want Han Jingru to waste so much money.

"One hundred million." Han Jingru bid with a smile and spoke to Su Yimo, "We don't even have a wedding ring for our wedding. This necklace is only barely good enough for you. Please don't stop me."

Su Yimo stared into Han Jingru's eyes with gleaming eyes. Back then, they did not have the ceremony of exchanging rings in their wedding. Because they didn't prepare for it at all. At that time, Su Yimo had no interest to marry Han Jingru and she was forced to do it. That was a regret for both of them. But the woman felt that it was completely unnecessary to pay so much to compensate that regret.

However, Han Jingru had displayed an uncompromising attitude and Su Yimo didn't dare to go against him.

Lu Shun simply smiled indifferently and said, "Since this is for my woman, as long as she is happy, even if this is a pile of trash, it will be priceless. I lack almost everything else, but not money."

After Han Jingru bid, Lu Shun raised his voice once again, "One hundred and twenty million."

After that, Lu Shun looked at Han Jingru tauntingly and said, "Bro, are you sure you want to continue and bid? I have never cared about money at all."

Lu Shun didn't care about money but Han Jingru was the same. Molan asked for two billion and Han Jingru gave him without hesitation. Because in Han Jingru's mind, money didn't have any value aside from its purchase power.

"Two hundred million." Han Jingru said to the auctioneer.

The auctioneer was smiling joyously. That auction would definitely get into the news. Not only that, his reputation in the auction industry would rise as well.

"Two hundred million. Mr. Han is offering two hundred million. Anyone else?" The auctioneer asked.

After the VIP started to bid, the price shot right up to 200 million. Even the spectators started to get nervous. A lot of people were even breathing rapidly.

"Who was that? How could he called out two hundred million so easily? Does he has a higher net worth than Lu Shun?"

"But he is opposing Lu Shun. I'm afraid he won't be able to leave this place alive."

"I don't think so. Although Lu Shun is powerful in Bedrock Island, if that man has an even more frightening background, Lu Shun will not dare to do anything. It seems that we will have a great show today. Fortunately I came. Otherwise, I would have missed this show of the year!"

In area five, the bridal shop owner was clutching on Yang Chen's hand tightly.

Previously, all of her disdain towards Han Jingru turned into worry. A bidding of two hundred million was definitely not something Su Yimo could afford. That had completely proven that Han Jingru wasn't a leech that she thought about.

"Yang Chen, go make arrangement and find a time, tell him I want to eat with him and I want to apologize personally." The owner said.

Yang Chen had a grim expression. Han Jingru had displayed his outstanding wealth. If the people from Yun city knew about it, his image as a trash would be completely turned.

However, his opponent was Lu Shun. If he embarrassed Lu Shun so publicly, that could spell danger for him and Su Yimo.

Lu Shun was a wicked man. He would never let Han Jingru go easily.

"I simply hope that he will stop competing with Lu Shun. If he really gets that necklace, he may lose his life." Yang Chen said.

On the other side, Ma Yan and Fan Yunyun were completely speechless. The bidding price of two hundred million had melted his heart in fear.

"Is he really a leech that depends on his wife?" Fan Yunyun asked dubiously. If he was simply a freeloader, how could he be able to bid such a high price. Not only that, Su Yimo simply stayed meekly beside him. It was obvious who was the leader and who was the follower. The woman was clearly meek before Han Jingru.

Ma Yan gnashed his teeth. The man was only willing to admit that Han Jingru had a pretty face but not competence. Because that was where he found his sense of superiority and the reason he could look down on him. If he were to admit Han Jingru was better than him, wasn't he just shaming himself?

"So what if he can really get the necklace? Didn't you hear what they were talking about? That Lu Shun is the richest man in Bedrock Island. If that idiot were to offend him, they will not end in a good way!" Ma Yan said hatefully.

Fan Yunyun nodded as well. It would be wise for even a dragon to not fight with a snake in their turf. And if Han Jingru was truly a visiting dragon, he had no choice but to bow his head before someone like Lu Shun.

"Let's see how he digs his own grave and we simply enjoy the show!" Ma Yan continued. The man was so hateful that he just want to see Han Jingru die in Bedrock Island. It seemed that only by doing so, he could feel comforted.

Two hundred million had completely exceeded Lu Shun's budget. Although he was acting uncaringly when taunting Han Jingru, he was still a businessman. Why should he waste so much money on something that wouldn't bring him any wealth? And if he spent so much money for the sake of pride, his father and grandfather wouldn't be able to stomach it. If they were to know, they would just punish him severely.

But since Lu Shun had given his word, how could he embarrass himself in public?

"Bro, are you simply calling out for fun? If you are not able to pay up, the auctioneer won't let you go!" Lu Shun gritted his teeth and barked at Han Jingru.

Han Jingru simply smiled indifferently and replied, "That is none of your business. Why are you worrying? Don't tell me... You are afraid?"

"I, Lu Shun? A person like you can never understand my net worth." At that time, Lu Shun was infuriated and he was overcome with anger. Before pride and money, he unhesitatingly chose the first.

"Two hundred and fifty million." Lu Shun bid once again.

Money seemed to be worthless in their hands. When the spectating crowd heard them, they could do nothing but stayed in awe.

"Three hundred million." Han Jingru did not hesitate and bid again.

"You..." Lu Shun's face turned purple red. He glared at Han Jingru menacingly.

"Money is the most worthless thing for me. But it sure can be useful, afterall, everything has its price. Do you still want to continue?" Han Jingru smiled towards Lu Shun.

When Lu Shun heard that, he caught Han Jingru's insinuation.

Everything has its price? Then what was the price of the necklace? Lu Shun wasn't able to estimate. However, he could somehow feel that if he were to bid again, he would be going home with an overpriced necklace.

Three hundred million. It was over ten times the bottom price. And if he were to bring the bomb back home, he would definitely get chewed at by his family. Maybe the elders would even freeze his bank card.

"I request to authenticate his asset. I want to see if he is eligible to compete in the bidding." Lu Shun called out to the workers. It was impossible for him to follow along. He was afraid of the elders at home and he could only do something else to disqualify Han Jingru.

Han Jingru simply smiled indifferently and the man was secretly relieved. If Lu Shun continued to bid, he would lose more and more. Although money was meaningless for him and his objective was to make Su Yimo happy, if he were to buy the necklace with an overpriced amount, the woman wouldn't be in the best mood as well. Moreover, Han Jingru was afraid that she wouldn't dare to wear something so expensive and simply leave it at home. If that was the case, the necklace would just be worthless.

When Lu Shun voiced his doubt, the rest in the crowd started gossiping.

"Was he simply bluffing?"

"It is highly probable. Judging from his look, he doesn't look like a wealthy person at all. How could he bid 300 million for a necklace?"

"What? Is that young man crazy? Did he think this is a place he can act without consequences?"

"Bloody hell, if he doesn't have the money, even I would feel stressed out for him!"

When the crowd were doubting Han Jingru, Ma Yan and Fan Yunyun were even more elated. If Han Jingru was really bluffing, they would just be the happiest person in the hall. After Han Jingru got exposed, he would have the chance to mock the man.

However, that was destined not to happen.

Han Jingru's net worth had been authenticated few days ago. Not only that, it was Liu Zhong that did it personally.

How could there be any mistake?

"Liu Zhong, where is Liu Zhong? Get him to see me now." Lu Shun roared.

Liu Zhong walked out from the back stage. He was the only one that didn't need to be afraid of Lu Shun. Because the boss behind him was even greater than the Lu family. Otherwise, the subsidiary company in Bedrock Island wouldn't be able to last for so many years.

"Young master Lu, I have already personally authenticated Mr. Han's net value. There is no problem at all. Please rest assured." Liu Zhong said.

"Are you sure? I advise you to authenticate him again. If any accident were to happen, are you able to handle it?" Lu Shun threatened.

Liu Zhong simply smiled indifferently and replied, "Even my boss acknowledged Mr. Han's might. He is present today as well. Young master Lu, if you don't trust me, you can confirm it with my boss at the backstage.

When Lu Shun heard that, he was taken aback. He hadn't expected the boss to be there. His father and even grandfather had made sure to remind him, that he could cause trouble as much as he likes but he must never challenge someone from the auction. Because the boss behind the scene wasn't someone they could oppose.

Since boss was around, Lu Shun had no choice but to drop his act.

"If young master Lu had no other problem, we may resume the bidding." Liu Zhong said.

Resume?

Lu Shun wouldn't dare to continue.

"Not bad, you dare to oppose me, Lu Shun. I will make sure you regret this!" After saying that, Lu Shun left the hall in rage. That was the first time the young master from the Lu family embarrassed himself so much. Everyone in the hall knew that he would never let Han Jingru go.

Without any other accidents, Eternity was passed to Han Jingru. Of course, in Han Jingru's opinion, there weren't any accidents. However, for everyone else, it was just a bomb drop.

From the moment Lu Shun attended the auction, everyone expected him to go home with the necklace. No one had ever thought that it was another nameless man that won the necklace.

"Mr. Han, our boss wishes to meet with you. I wonder if you have the time?" After the auction finished, Liu Zhong walked towards Han Jingru and said.

"Alone?" Han Jingru asked.

"Alone." Liu Zhong nodded.

Han Jingru replied, "Wait for a while."

After bringing Su Yimo to Yang Chen and the bridal shop owner, Han Jingru told Yang Chen, "Help me to take care of Yimo for a while. Bring her back to the hotel."

"Han Jingru, Lu Shun is a wicked and immoral man. He will definitely seek vengeance towards you. You shall hurry and leave Bedrock Island. Otherwise, He will be coming for you." The owner said to Han Jingru hurriedly.

Yang Chen nodded as well and said, "Maybe you have never heard of Lu Shun's notoriety. He is a very cocky man. After getting humiliated by you, he will definitely think of something to avenge himself."

Han Jingru simply smiled and said, "Don't worry, I can handle it. If you are worried that you might get involved, you can leave first."

Yang Chen frowned. The man didn't understand why Han Jingru wasn't worried at all. Could it be that even if he was in Bedrock Island, he didn't need to be afraid of Lu Shun?

What kind of social status did he have? Why was he so pressuring even when he carried himself in humility.

"Alright." Yang Chen nodded and said, "I will bring Su Yimo back to the hotel first. Please be careful."

In the chairman's office. When Liu Zhong brought Han Jingru to the doorstep, He opened the door for him and said, "Mr. Han, our boss is waiting for you inside."

Han Jingru nodded and strode inside.

The office was huge. it was separated by two segments, the office area and guest lounge. At that time, there was a middle-aged man in Tang suit sitting on the couch in the lounge.

The man had very tall build with clean cut hair. His white shirt was skin fit, bringing out the outlines of his muscular body. It was clear that the man had been training his body for a long time. He was completely different from other ordinary bosses.

Most of the time, after someone got rich and got used to the comfortable life, they would only care about entertaining themselves. It was truly rare to have someone building up their physique like that.

"Mr. Han, I hope you don't blame me for inviting you so suddenly. I am Wen Liang, you can call me brother Liang." Wen Liang said.

"Chairman Wen, may I know what is your business with me?" Han Jingru asked.

Wen Liang faced turned into a serious demeanour when he heard that. But it was simply a flash and he hid his emotion immediatley.

"You are an esteemed guest for our company, it is only right for me to secure your safety. After all, the person you offended are the notorious Lu family from Bedrock Island." Wen Liang said.

"Chairman Wen, thank you for your kind gesture. However, Lu Shun isn't enough to intimidate me." Han Jingru answered.

Han Jingru's overbearingness was genuine and that made Wen Liang surprised. What was the man's background to make him so fearless in even Bedrock Island. Was he ignorant of the Lu family's influence in Bedrock Island or was he blinded by his own confidence?

"Mr. Han, I have no trouble believing that you have a powerful background. However, this is Bedrock island and you are an outsider. It must be inconvenient for you. If you need me, Wen Liang in anything, please don't hesitate to speak." Wen Liang said.

"Having the boss of such a great company to work for me? I'm afraid I will be overwhelmed." Han Jingru chuckled.

Wen Liang laughed heartily. That kind of business compliments were meaningless. But it could make people feel comfortable.

"Mr. Han, I am curious with one thing. But I do not wish to offend you." Wen Liang said.

"Chairman Wen, I have always heard about your good name in Yan Jing." Han Jingru said.

Wen Liang raised an eyebrow. It seemed that he came from Yan Jing as well.

Not only that, the surname Han!

All of a sudden, Wen Liang's pupil widened. There was a lot of people with that surname in Yan Jing. However, there was only one Han family that could be so powerful. Could it be...

But Han Yu was in Qing Cheng serving jail time. How could he be someone from the Han family!?

"Mr. Han, although I have never acquainted with the Han family in Yan Jing, I have heard a lot about them. But you..." Wen Liang purposefully did not finish his sentence because he wanted to hear that answer from Han Jingru's mouth.

It was difficult if Han Jingru wanted to rely on his own power to handle a trouble like Lu Shun. After all, this was Bedrock Island. And hence, when Liu Zhong came for him, Han Jingru came up with a plan.

Wen Liang's influence in Bedrock Island could help him tremendously. And the man wouldn't mind to expose his identity of the Han family. Wen Liang's auction company had great network even in the first tier cities. It would be truly advantageous for Han Jingru to make a friend like that.

"Since you have known about the Han family, you should have known that the Han family had a pair of twins." Han Jingru said.

Wen Liang's pupil widened. He had heard about that as well. However, according to the rumors, the second young master of the Han family had passed away when he was a child. The Han family simply didn't mention about that.

A person that was assumed dead stood right before Wen Liang and the man couldn't help but had a complicated feeling.

If he wasn't dead, why did the Han family do that?

"You... Are you the deceased young master from the Han family?" Wen Liang asked with quivering voice.

Han Jingru nodded and replied, "Everyone thought that I was dead. But I was simply hidden by the Han family because Nangong Shuxian didn't think I was worthy to be the heir. In her eyes, Han Yu is the worthy one to inherit the Han family."

Wen Liang drew a deep breath and continued, "I heard that Nangong Shuxian had passed away. Everyone from the upper class are gossiping about that. However, we still do not have any word of confirmation."

"She hung herself before my eyes. She had paid the price for belittling me." Han Jingru said indifferently.

All of a sudden, Wen Liang shivered as he felt a sudden chill. Nangong Shuxian and Han Ying were dead. Han Yu was imprisoned as well. Then, wasn't the Han family under his control!?

"Mr. Han, please don't hesitate if you need anything at all." Wen Liang's attitude towards Han Jingru changed immediately and showed his greatest respect.

Although Wen Liang's company had stretched towards almost every first tier city. In Yan Jing, he was still quite a distance away from the real upper-class. And an existence like Han family was something too far away from him.

This time, Han Jingru was leveraging on the Han family's reputation to pretend it. He asked for Shiyan's help in Rong City but this time round, he took it upon himself and the man was feeling uncomfortable. However, he had no choice but to do it. If he was alone in Bedrock Island, he wouldn't need to be afraid to face the Lu family alone. However, now that Su Yimo was following him, he had no choice but to come up with a safer alternative.

"Help me to warn the Lu family, but do not expose my real identity. I do not hope for too many complications." Han Jingru said.

"I understand." Wen Liang said.

"After this time, I will think of something to repay your kindness when I get back to Yan Jing." Han Jingru continued.

"Mr. Han, this is nothing much. Please don't worry about it." Wen Liang said.

Han Jingru simply smiled. If he wasn't expecting something in return, why would he even offer his help? Han Jingru was clear with those businessmen's little guile. Wen Liang's main company was in Yan Jing and the man would definitely have to get acknowledgement from a real upper-class society. When he gets the chance in the future, it wasn't a difficult task to bring him into the social circle. And that was something Han Jingru destined to do.

How could he surpass the Han family?

In his opinion, not just in terms of wealth, but he needed to surpass in terms of social status as well.

Han Jingru would let those in Yan Jing who thought he was dead know how fearful the young master of the Han family could be. And he would make them witness him stepping the Han family under his feet.

He wanted to let Han Yu know that lipservice meant nothing against the real ability.

At that time, Lu Shun reached home and he had a grim face. No one in Bedrock Island had ever dared to embarrass him. Even as he was walking in the street, everyone needed to greet him respectfully. However, today a nameless bastard had completely shamed him in public. If he doesn't avenge himself, Lu Shun would be the joke in the island.

"What's gotten into you? Who dares to offend this young master Lu?" When Lu Fung went into the living room, He saw Lu Shun making a frustrated face and he jeered on him.

"Grandpa, your grandson has been completely humiliated today. And here you are, making fun of me!" Lu Shun said vexedly.

When Lu Fung heard that, he was amused and he laughed heartily. It was truly rare to see Lu Shun getting the lower hand. After all, with that notoriety in Bedrock Island, how would anyone dare to offend him at all?

"Of course I must make fun of you. This is just a rare opportunity. Why not you tell your grandfather what actually happened that got you served?" Lu Fung asked curiously.

"Grandpa, I went to the auction today having in mind to buy Eternity for your future granddaughter in law. But all of the sudden a nameless bastard went against me and bid 300 million. He had completely humiliated me in the auction." Lu Shun said.

"And you are angry for something as petty as that?" Lu Fung shook his head helplessly and continued, "You are not a kid anymore. Why are you still so impulsive? Moreover, spending three hundred million for a necklace, he had gotten his lesson as well. You should feel happy."

Lu Shun couldn't care less about how much the necklace worth. He wanted his pride.

"Grandpa, if I was humiliated, it means the Lu family gets humiliated as well. I'm guessing a lot of people are even secretly laughing at us now!" Lu Shun said.

"Don't you twist the story around. How can something like this be related to the Lu family?" Lu Fung knew why Lu Shun brought that up purposefully. He was expecting his grandfather to avenge him. However, it was only justifiable for the person with higher price to win the goods in an auction.

"How can it be unrelated? I am the heir of the Lu family. If I was humiliated, who would show me face in the future? Not only that, Liu Zhong was obviously siding with that bastard, he even pressured me with his boss. I think that Wen Liang was trying to challenge our Lu family in Bedrock Island." Lu Shun said.

When Lu Fung heard that, he frowned. Wen Liang came to Bedrock Island? If the man got himself involved, things would be different.

Although Lu Fung told Lu Shun not to offend anyone from the auction company, that didn't mean he was afraid of Wen Liang. Moreover, the Lu family's social status in Bedrock Island was unchallengeable. If Wen Liang was taking sides, that meant he wasn't showing face to the Lu family and things were on an entirely different meaning.

"Wen Liang is in Bedrock Island?" Lu Fung asked.

"I heard that from Liu Zhong. It should be credible. Grandpa, why are you afraid of Wen Liang?" Lu Shun asked in puzzlement.

"Afraid?" Lu Fung scoffed, "Why am I afraid of him at all? We are simply trying to stay in peace. In Bedrock Island, there is no one that we, Lu family needs to be afraid of."

"Grandpa, aren't you worried that if you concede too much, he will disrespect you?" Lu Shun incited.

Lu Fung gritted his teeth. The grandfather didn't plan to get involved at first and it was his intention to let Lu Shun get served from time to time to learn his lesson. However, now that Wen Liang was involved, he mustn't stay away.

Bedrock Island belonged to the Lu family. If the man wanted to do business in Bedrock Island, he must serve the Lu family, not challenge them.

"Leave this to your grandfather. If Wen Liang really disrespects us, the Lu family, I will make sure his auction company disappears from Bedrock Island." Lu Fung said coldly.

When Lu Shun heard that, he grinned ear to ear. If his grandfather were to take over, things would be simpler.

"Grandpa, you must make sure to teach that Wen Liang a good lesson and make him understand who the real owner of Bedrock Island is. Lest he gets more and more conceited with age." Lu Shun said.

"Okay okay, grandpa knows what to do."

After Han Jingru went back to the hotel, Su Yimo was finally relieved. On her way back, the shop owner had told her what kind of person Lu Shun was. After hearing all of the horrible histories of what he did, Su Yimo was worried. After all, Han Jingru had completely offended that wicked man during the auction earlier. With his personality, he would definitely try to exact revenge.

"Jingru, why not we go back to Yun city first?" Su Yimo asked Han Jingru.

"We are not done with our wedding photo shoot yet, why are you in such a hurry?" Han Jingru answered with a smile.

"How can I not be? You don't know what kind of person that Lu Shun is. But I have heard about him from the owner. He is a depraved wealthy young man and he has done a lot of horrors in Bedrock Island. After you snatched the necklace from him, he will definitely come back for you." Su Yimo said worriedly.

Han Jingru held Su Yimo's hand and they were already comfortable with such intimacy. In Han Jingru's opinion, their relationship had taken a great leap. Now the man was looking forward as to when he could finally take the final step as husband and wife.

"Don't worry, I am here and I will be able to handle everything. Don't you trust me?"

Han Jingru asked.

"Of course I trust you, but..."

"Just listen to me. We shall leave after we are done with our wedding photo shoot. Lu Shun won't be able to do anything." Han Jingru interrupted Su Yimo.

When Su Yimo saw how confident Han Jingru was and the man seemed to be assured that he was able to handle it, she said no more. Han Jingru was the only person in the world that could give Su Yimo a sense of security. Moreover, she believed in him completely.

On the other room, after coming out from the shower, the bridal shop owner covered herself with towels and she walked towards Yang Chen invitingly.

"If Han Jingru really refuses to leave, what do you do?" The woman dried her head and asked Yang Chen.

Yang Chen just couldn't make up his mind in this issue. If he didn't leave, he might get involved as well. However, if he were to leave, he might just missed the good show.

"Do you think Han Jingru could be the last man standing?" Yang Chen asked.

The woman couldn't help but broke into a laugh, "Last man standing? Do you mean that Han Jingru can compete with Lu Shun in Bedrock Island?"

That truly sounded impossible, even laughable. No one would believe that. After all, the Lu family had been rooted in Bedrock Island for so many years and the family was a mammoth. How could an outsider challenged them so easily?

"No chance at all?" Yang Chen asked with a frown.

"If he can really go against the Lu family, I don't mind to become his slave. But that is an impossibility. Just take a good look for the past years, all those people that wanted to branch out their businesses in the city, if they didn't acquire the Lu family's permission, they would lose everything. From that, we can see how great the influence of Lu family is in this place." The owner said.

After hearing what the woman said, Yang Chen had a grim expression as he drew a deep breath. The man knew Bedrock Island as well but not as much as the local citizen. Since the woman said that, it seemed that the chances of Han Jingru going against the Lu family was truly slim.

However, Yang Chen's hunch told him that he should stay. Otherwise, he might miss a great opportunity.

"Do you really think I should go?" Yang Chen asked.

"Isn't that obvious? What is there to hesitate about?" The woman said determinedly. After that, she looked at Yang Chen curiously and asked, "Why are you so reluctant to leave? Are you planning to get his favor or something?"

Yang Chen shook his head. The man had never thought about things like that. However, he felt that this is a good opportunity for him to get some friendship with Han Jingru. If he could end up being an underling of Han Jingru and work for him, his life might just have a tremendous change.

"Do you really think I like photography so much? I simply don't have better option. If there is a better way, why should I give it up?" Yang Chen said.

"But your choice is too foolish. You are betting everything on someone that is destined to lose." The woman shook her head and said.

Destined to lose?

The reason Yang Chen was hopeful in Han Jingru was because of the episode in the Public Square. Back then, everyone expected Han Jingru to kneel before Jiang Fu because they thought it was destined. However, the outcome shocked everyone. Who would have thought that the person that knelt wasn't Han Jingru but Jiang Fu?

And ever since that twist, Yang Chen became hesitant. Otherwise, he would have left Bedrock Island long ago.

"Everyone from Yun city thought like that as well. However, the result turned out that the whole world was wrong." Yang Chen said.

When the bridal shop owner saw that Yang Chen was so stubborn, she came up with an idea, "If Han Jingru is really so great, Jiang Fu that you mentioned should be in a devastating state, right? Why not you make a call back to Yun city and ask about his situation?"

When Yang Chen heard that, he sank into a sudden realization. That was truly an effective way to verify Han Jingru's power. Although Yun city couldn't be compared to the situation in Bedrock Island, it could indirectly show what Han Jingru could do.

Yang Chen took out his phone and called one of his friend.

"Hey Si, is there anything special happening in Yun city?" After the call connected, Yang Chen asked.

In just a matter of minutes, Yang Chen was stupefied. He sat back on the bed lifelessly and the man's eyes were widened in shock.

When the woman saw that, she stopped wiping her hair.

"Are you serious? Is that true?"

"Something like that happened!?"

"Okay, I got it. Thank you."

After hanging up the call, Yun Chen's eyes were filled with a strong disbelief.

When the woman saw that he wasn't speaking, she asked impatiently, "What happened in Yun city? Hurry and tell me!"

Yang Chen drew a deep breath and said, "Jiang Fu and his group of men's company went bankrupt. All of them. And now, the business world in Yun city had a complete change. For the moment, the Su family became the largest company just right under the Tian family."

Although the bridal shop owner didn't understand the details in Yun city, she had heard about the power and influence of Jiang Fu and his group of men. Yet, everyone of them got bankrupt!

"That... Could that be Han Jingru's doing?"
The woman's eyes widened and she felt that her heart was beating so rapidly. She had never come in contact with someone so great. Not even the Lu family in Bedrock Island could do that easily.

"Who else but him?" Yang Chen smiled bitterly. Jiang Fu offended Han Jingru and his company went bankrupt in just three days. No one would believe that the two incidents were not related.

The woman drew a deep breath and exclaimed, "Bloody hell, who is that pretty boy? He came to Bedrock Island for just a few days. How could he make Jiang Fu bankrupt so fast?"

"Exactly. It wasn't even a few days and he managed to do it. Do you still think that he isn't an opponent for the Lu family?" Yang Chen smiled.

The woman was unable to answer that question. She was cocksure at first and she could guarantee that Han Jingru had no chance against the Titan. However, it seemed that she had belittled Han Jingru too much.

"But this is Bedrock Island." The woman said.

"But maybe for a person like him, the old saying of a visiting dragon isn't valid. What if the entire nation is his turf?" Yang Chen said.

When the woman heard that, she couldn't help but gave Yang Chen an eye roll. She admitted that Han Jingru was truly great. But his description was too exaggerated.

"You are just crazy. If he is really someone so great, how could he know someone like you?" The woman said.

"It doesn't matter if he is or not. I have decided to stay. At the very least, this is an opportunity and I do not wish to open my eyes to the same life every day." Yang Chen said.

Yang Chen's attitude was the most common side in the society today. Most of the people had a riskless life and they could tell what would happen ten years down the road. It wasn't exactly peaceful and worry less, but it was calm and boring.

"I won't stop you for staying back. Just nice that I can spend more time with you!" The woman smiled alluringly as she wrapped her arms around Yang Chen's neck.

The room was filled with passion but the air in the other room was a little dense.

Han Jingru and Su Yimo lied in the bed and there seemed to be an invisible wall between the two of them. However, in Su Yimo's opinion, they were separated by just a thin linen.

Whenever it was night, Su Yimo would feel frustrated and angry. She just couldn't understand why a man just wouldn't do something a man should do.

Now that Su Yimo had treated Han Jingru like her real husband, the man that she entrusted her future on, she was looking forward to have a more intimate relationship with him. After all, they were only husband and wife on papers and they never had any consummation relationship. Unfortunately, Han Jingru just wouldn't take the initiative at all. Being a woman, Su Yimo just couldn't bring herself to do something so embarrassing.

Han Jingru had an innocent thought. In his mind, he didn't want to make anything that could make Su Yimo uncomfortable. Moreover, he still thought that Su Yimo wasn't ready. Therefore, even when he was burning with desire, he would suppress himself.

The man cared for Su Yimo too much that he carried himself carefully.

"Are you asleep?" Su Yimo couldn't stand it anymore and asked Han Jingru.

"Not yet." Han Jingru said.

Su Yimo only knew that Han Jingru would keep watching her during her morning jog and her trip to and fro the work place. However, she didn't know that Han Jingru would never sleep before hearing her snore. For the past three years, the man had not failed to do it every night.

"Then I shall sleep first."

"Okay."

That was an extremely awkward conversation, and Su Yimo just wanted to kick Han Jingru down the bed ready. How could there be a man so dull!?

"Umm... Then do you want me to talk to you?" Han Jingru asked in puzzlement.

Early the next morning, the most powerful person in Bedrock Island came to the auction company. The man was Lu Fung.

When Liu Zhong told Wen Liang about that incident, the man that was still sleeping in the hotel had no choice but to get up and washed himself up. However, he wasn't worried at all. Previously, he didn't dare to oppose Lu Fung. But now, things were destined to be different.

After waiting for about two hours, Lu Fung saw Wen Liang coming into the company. The man was infuriated.

"Wen Liang, you are getting cockier now, Making me wait for two hours!" Lu Fung fumed.

"You came so suddenly and didn't even let me know. I can't even prepare earlier. My apologies." Wen Liang said.

From Wen Liang's tone, Lu Fung didn't feel an ounce of apology. Not just that, he caught on disdain.

"Wen Liang, you seem to have forgotten how you begged for my help when you wanted to open a branch in Bedrock Island." Lu Fung said coldly.

"All these years, I have never failed to thank you properly. I prepared a great gift for you every year. Did I do anything wrong?" Wen Liang asked.

Lu Fung harrumphed and said, "You should give me an explanation in the incident where my grandson got humiliated in your auction."

"Patriarch Lu, he did not win the bid and here you are to find fault? Are you bullying me? Aren't you aware of the rules of an auction? Whoever bids the highest price gets the goods. Isn't that just common knowledge? What kind of explanation do you want from me?" Wen Liang said unhappily.

"If you didn't help that nameless kid, how could my grandson have lost?" Lu Fung answered coldly.

Wen Liang shook his head in vex and said, "Three hundred million cash. How could I have helped him? Do you think I was the one that paid for that? Do you think there is any meaning for me to buy the things I put on auction, Patriarch Lu?"

"Wen Liang, do you think I don't know what are you trying to do? Now that you prospered, you wanted to test the Lu family, right? Don't you forget that the Lu family was the one that brought you up. If I, Lu Fung wants to bring you down, What can you do?" Lu Fung said.

"Lu Fung, heed my advice and just let things go. This is a good thing for the Lu family. If you really want to escalate things, you will definitely regret it." Wen Liang said.

When Lu Fung heard that, he was trembling in rage. No one had ever dared to speak disrespectfully to him in Bedrock Island. Moreover, Wen Liang was threatening him.

"Wen Liang, just you wait. If I, Lu Fung doesn't bring you down, I'll change my surname!" Lu Fung gnashed his teeth and barked. After that, he stormed out from the company.

Wen Liang stood up and walked to the window. After he saw Lu Fung's car leaving, he mumbled to himself, "The Lu family has reigned in Bedrock Island long enough. It is time for the place to welcome a change. Offending the young master from the Han family will bring you doom."

The reason Wen Liang was willing to invest in Han Jingru was because he felt a suffocating might from the young man. Especially when he said that Nangong Shuxian died before him, the old man felt fearful from the chill he exuded.

After so many years, Yan Jing had completely forgotten about the man called Han Jingru. However, only gods know what the sleeping dragon would bring the moment he awakes from his slumber.

At that time, Wen Liang's phone rang and it was an unknown number. The man was perturbed. His personal information was always a secret and he would never have any kind of promotional calls. Therefore, that was his first time answering an unknown caller ID.

"Who are you?" Wen Liang asked when he picked up the phone.

"Don't interfere in Han Jingru's matter. I can give you what you want." The voice over the phone said.

Wen Liang's eyebrows knitted nervously and he asked, "Who are you?"

"You don't have to know who I am. You simply know that with my power in Yan Jing, I can bring your auction company down in just one night."

Wen Liang's heart sank. Bringing his company down in just one night? If that man wasn't bluffing, then his influence in Yan Jing would be frightening.

"Why should I believe you?" Wen Liang asked.

"Do you want to give it a try or do you want me to prove it to you? If you are not afraid, I don't mind." The person from the call scoffed.

Try?

Wen Liang didn't even know who the other party was and how would he dare to try? He didn't want to see everything he worked hard for the past decade disappeared into thin air.

"And what do you want me to do?" Wen Liang asked.

"Best you make sure Han Jingru doesn't leave Bedrock Island alive."

Wen Liang gritted his teeth. Made sure Han Jingru doesn't leave Bedrock Island alive? That would be going for the young master of the Han family's life! With his current power, if he were to do anything that incur hatred from Han Jingru, Wen Liang dared not imagine what kind of consequences await him.

"If you are worried about his identity, I can lift that burden from your shoulder. He is simply an ousted child from the Han family. It is not worth the fright." The man from the other side continued.

Wen Liang didn't know what actually happened in the Han family. However, almost everyone had forgotten about Han Jingru in Yan Jing and that had reflected his position in the Han family. But now, too many changes had happened in the Han family and he was still ultimately one of the blood line. Wen Liang decided to gamble in his future and he invested in him. However, the man had not expected to have a secret enemy of Han Jingru contacting him.

"And what can I get?" Wen Liang asked.

"Han Yu's favor. He is much better than this trash Han Jingru and he will definitely inherit the Han family. The future family head of the Han family will definitely be Han Yu, not that trash."

Although Han Yu was imprisoned, his position in the Han family was much greater than Han Jingru. And now, Wen Liang was in a dilemma. If he wasn't careful, he would become collateral damage in this silent war.

"If you don't believe me, I will show you my power in the next two days. Han Jingru will not be able to save you." The person over the phone threatened.

"Okay." After contemplating for a long while, Wen Liang agreed with him. Investing in Han Jingru carried a certain risk in itself. He could only reap the benefit after Han Jingru's name became famous in Yan Jing. However, the person that made the call could bring his company down immediately. Without his company, what was the point to even invest in Han Jingru? Therefore, Wen Liang had no choice.

"You are a smart person. In the future, you will know that this is a wise decision." The other person from over the phone laughed.

After hanging up the call, Wen Liang drew several deep breaths. He hadn't expected such a twist to the incident. The person that called was obviously Han Yu's helper. If he went against Han Jingru and helped Han Yu, it would mean he had helped him to secure the position of the family head.

After that, he took out his phone and called Lu Fung.

"Patriarch Lu, I can arrange a meeting between you and him. After that, you can do whatever you want." Wen Liang said.

Lu Fung was simmering in anger. But when he heard what Wen Liang said, he laughed, "Wen Liang, and I thought you really dare to challenge me. It seems that you are a coward after all!"

Wen Liang was completely undisturbed before Lu Fung's jibe and the man said, "Patriarch Lu, how can I ever challenge you? If it wasn't for you, how can I even secure a place in Bedrock Island?"

"Hahaha!" Lu Fung laughed smugly and said, "Not bad, you are quite the wise one. I will not blame you for this incident. But I must see him tonight. Hurry and go make your arrangements!"

After saying that, without waiting for a reply, Lu Fung hung up the phone.

After getting home, Lu Fung looked at his grandson with a frustrated expression and he said, "Why are you still upset? Now that grandpa went personally to settle the incident for you, do you doubt me?"

"Grandpa, what did Wen Liang say?" Lu Shun had not been going out the whole day because he was afraid to embarrass himself. He knew that the episode in the auction had spread through the entire Bedrock Island. If he didn't avenge himself, he would dread to go to the street.

"Doubting your grandpa? Now that I made a personal appearance, do you think a clown like Wen Liang dares to defy me?" Lu Fung scoffed.

"Then how did you resolve it? Hurry and tell me!" Lu Fung said impatiently.

"That brat will be coming to our house tonight. At that time, you can do whatever you want to him." Lu Fung said.

When Lu Shun heard that, he was exhilarated. With his grandpa backing him up, he could do anything he wanted. And he would make everyone in Bedrock Island know the consequences of defying him.

"Grandpa, do you want the headlines tomorrow to be something like a naked man getting tied up and exhibited at the Longing Rock?" Lu Shun said with a wide grin.

The Longing Rock was a famous tourist spot in Bedrock Island. It was a natural formed gigantic rock by the sea. It resembled that of a woman looking towards the sea longingly. Therefore, it was named as that description. It was a place every tourist would take picture of.

"You can do whatever you want as long as it isn't murder." That was Lu Fung's bottom line. If they didn't take a life, he wouldn't care how and what Lu Shun did. After all, that was his one and only grandson. Now that he was humiliated, of course the elders from the family must avenge him.

Lu Shun simply grinned slyly. Not just Han Jingru, but that great beauty, Su Yimo would also fall into his hands. For the man, if he couldn't settle a woman with money, he would use forceful measures. And he was fearless because he had his grandpa backing him up.

Han Jingru and Su Yimo continued their photo shoot schedule. When Su Yimo wore her wedding gown, she herself became a tourism spot. Everyone that passed by, especially men would have the eyes glued on her. They probably had the exact same thought and hoped to have a wife like Su Yimo.

"Mr. Han, I have already made an appointment with the Lu family for you. Are you free tonight? I will bring you to meet Lu Shun."

When Han Jingru was still taking his wedding photo shoot, he received a call from Wen Liang. And the man agreed to his suggestion. In order to have a comfortable travel in Bedrock Island, he must settle the feud properly.

When Wen Liang got Han Jingru's agreement, he was relieved. But after he hung up the phone, he couldn't stop his hand from shaking. The man had taken his first step to betray Han Jingru. After this decisive step, he couldn't foresee what will happen. Before the unknown, Wen Liang was feeling fearful.

That ousted kid could force Nangong Shuxian to her death and that simply meant he was an extraordinary person. That mysterious man called him a trash and it was obvious that he wasn't aware of what Han Jingru was capable of. However, when Wen Liang was being threatened by the safety of his own company, he had no choice.

"Don't blame me. I have no choice." Wen Liang mumbled to himself.

After taking the last set of photos, they finally completed the task of wedding photo shoot. Although Su Yimo mentioned that she wanted to go back to Yun city as soon as possible because she was worried about the Su company, after knowing that Han Jingru felt like staying back for a few more days and redo their honeymoon over here, Su Yimo did not mention anything about going back to Yun city anymore. After all, there was one thing that she had not completed yet.

"Where are we going to play tomorrow?" After Su Yimo removed her wedding gown, her tiny dress inside made Han Jingru feel uncomfortable.

If someone else's wife were to wear like that, Han Jingru wouldn't mind to cast another look. However, that was his very own wife. If any guy were to see her like that, wasn't Han Jingru getting taken advantage of.

"Yimo, do you want to go and change into another dress?" Han Jingru asked.

"Why?" Su Yimo looked at herself in puzzlement. In her opinion, there wasn't anything wrong at all. Her dress was nice. Could Han Jingru have a different taste?

"You are showing too much. Now that every man can see, I am being taken advantage of." Han Jingru said.

After being stunned for a while, Su Yimo broke into a hysterical laughter. After that, the woman said, "I shall not do that. Let you have a taste of jealousy!"

Han Jingru just wanted to get a winter coat to cover Su Yimo already. But actually, Su Yimo was simply wearing a normal summer attire and she did not show too much at all. However, when Han Jingru noticed that a lot of men was leering at her, he couldn't stand it anymore. Their gazes were just salacious and thirsty, as if they would pounce at Su Yimo anytime.

"Jingru, when do you guys plan to go back to Yun city?" Yang Chen walked towards them and asked. After spending a few days together, they became closer and they greeted each other more intimately.

"I will play for two more days. When we got married in the past, we did not have our honeymoon. We shall redo it this time."

Han Jingru said. There was of course, another reason. Even if he wanted to leave now, it might not be possible. With Lu Shun's influence in Bedrock Island, he could easily detain the man in the airport.

Yang Chen nodded and said, "Then I shall follow the two of you."

"Aren't you afraid?" Han Jingru asked with a smile. Even when the man knew that staying back could mean danger, he did not choose to leave first. Han Jingru was able to notice a hidden agenda.

Yang Chen simply smiled and said, "If we come together, we should leave together. There isn't anything to be afraid of."

"Go find a homestay and it is best to be far away from the central. Don't tell anyone about it too." Han Jingru instructed.

Yang Chen looked at Han Jingru in puzzlement.

"Just do as I say." Before Yang Chen asked

"Okay, I'll do it right away." Yang Chen said.

Su Yimo looked at Han Jingru in puzzlement and asked, "Aren't we staying in the hotel already? Why should we go to a homestay?"

"Because a homestay feels more like home." Han Jingru answered with a giggle. He did not explain the reason to Su Yimo in case he made her worry.

The man would be meeting Lu Shun tonight and he wasn't sure with the outcome. However, he had no choice but to go. Therefore, he must make sure that Su Yimo was safe. After changing the accommodation to somewhere further away, even if any accident were to happen, Lu Shun wouldn't be able to find Su Yimo right away.

After hearing what Han Jingru said, Su Yimo was moved and she replied, "You have long treated me like a family but yet I... I have always ignored you. Will you blame me?"

"Of course not." Han Jingru shook his head unhesitantly and said, "My addition into your family had brought so much pain to you. But you have never once chased me away. I am sincerely grateful to you."

Although the man said that, Su Yimo still feel guilty towards Han Jingru. Especially how Jiang Yan had always treated Han Jingru in the past. That was completely abusive and immoral. Not even Su Yimo could stand watching her own mother treating Han Jingru.

"The two of us have suffered equally. And it is truly precious that we can come this far." Su Yimo exclaimed.

Han Jingru nodded agreeably. It had been more than three years and it was indeed difficult. If the matter of Han Xiuzhi didn't happen, after Han Jingru had the ability to surpass the Han family, he would be enjoying life with Su Yimo already. However, his life was destined to be without peace.

Han Jingru needed to confirm the well-being of his grandfather. Even if he has to get into Terra prison himself, he must make sure to get a closure.

In the beach.

The couple walked side by side barefooted. From time to time, there would be waves brushing on their feet and caressing the top of their feet when they pulled back into the ocean. That kind of peaceful serenity gave Han Jingru a great comfort. However, the man knew that if he needed to keep that peace, he must be strong enough. Especially after knowing that the Han family might have a secret enemy, he couldn't relax for even a second.

"Can you piggyback me?" Su Yimo asked Han Jingru.

Han Jingru knelt before Su Yimo immediately and said, "Of course."

Su Yimo jumped on Han Jingru's back with a joyous smile. After that, she wrapped her arms around Han Jingru's neck and rested her chin on his shoulder merrily.

"When we get old, shall we retire in a beautiful place like this?" Su Yimo asked.

"As long as you are happy, let's do it. I will do everything in my power to build a paradise for you." Han Jingru said.

Su Yimo smiled ear to ear. Although the future was still far ahead, she knew that Han Jingru would definitely exact his promises. The man would never go back on his words.

"We... We will definitely have a lot of grandchildren in the future, right?" Su Yimo's face was blushing red when she said that. If Han Jingru still couldn't get her, then she would lose hope already.

*Hissed*

Han Jingru had a pained expression. He raised his leg and his heel was sliced by a seashell. Blood was gushing out.

"What happened?" Su Yimo couldn't see Han Jingru's feet and she asked worriedly.

"I think I have stepped on something sharp." Han Jingru said.

Su Yimo said nervously, "Hurry and let me down, let me take a look."

When Su Yimo knelt in front of Han Jingru and looked at the heavily bleeding wound, she was so anxious. The woman was trying hard to hold back her tears and she said, "Let's go to the hospital."

That little bit of pain was nothing for Han Jingru. But after feeling Su Yimo's care, the man enjoyed that feeling. It seemed that exchanging blood with Su Yimo's care was a very worthy thing.

"It's nothing, just a small cut. We don't have to go to the hospital." Han Jingru said.

"No! What if it gets infection. Just do as I say." Su Yimo assisted Han Jingru and said determinedly.

It was just rare to see Su Yimo being so uncompromising and Han Jingru decided to follow her will. After the two of them left the beach, they called a cab and went to the hospital.

After arranging the registration and queueing, the wound had stopped bleeding. The doctors simply disinfected and bandaged the feet a little. The cut was shallow and if they were to come any later, the wound might close up already.

After leaving the hospital, Yang Chen gave him a call and said that he had found the homestay. After Han Jingru got the location, the two of them got a cab to the homestay.

"I have something going on tonight and I might be going back later. You, Yang Chen and Shu Tong shall eat earlier. You don't have to wait for me." On their way to the homestay, Han Jingru told Su Yimo.

Su Yimo would never ask questions regarding Han Jingru's matter. She knew that Han Jingru wasn't as free as he presented. The entire Yun city thought that he was a trash that do house chores at home. However, after seeing how Han Jingru knew Molan and several other powerful people, she could tell that he had been doing a lot of things in the secret. Otherwise, how could all of them had such a close relationship with Han Jingru?

When they reached the homestay, Han Jingru was pleasantly surprised. The place was far away from the central and it had beautiful scenery. Not only that, there weren't many people around and it was an ideal place.

Yang Chen could somewhat guess what Han Jingru was trying to do. The man should be worried about any possible accident and he prepared a safe house for Su Yimo.

"Follow me." Han Jingru told Yang Chen.

After the two of them left the bungalow, Yang Chen asked, "You instructed us to stay here because you are worried that Lu Shun would harm Su Yimo, right?"

Han Jingru nodded. He wouldn't mind to let Yang Chen knew about it and the man said, "I will be meeting Lu Shun tonight. I don't know If there will be any accident."

Yang Chen was determined to stay to the very end and see if Han Jingru had the ability to go against Lu Shun. But at that time, He was more concerned about Han Jingru's safety. It didn't matter if he could handle Lu Shun in Bedrock island. Because everything Han Jingru did in Yun city was enough to prove himself. Not only that, he had a closer relationship with Han Jingru now and that would mean a lot of possible opportunities in the future.

"Why don't you just leave as soon as possible?" Yang Chen asked in puzzlement.

"You should know Lu Shun's influence in Bedrock Island. Do you think I will be able to board the flight?" Han Jingru said.

When Yang Chen heard that, his face turned grim. He had only wondered about the reason why Han Jingru didn't want to leave. But the man had never thought about the feasibility of the plan.

Lu Shun had embarrassed himself publicly. For that spoiled man, if he didn't exact his revenge, this would mean a lifetime joke for him. How could he let Han Jingru leave so easily.

"With Lu Shun's ability, it is indeed easy to detain you in the airport." Yang Chen said.

"Help me to take good care of Yimo. Since you chose to stay here, I know what you are thinking. After we get back to Yun city, I'll give you a bigger room for improvement." Han Jingru said.

Yang Chen was waiting for his opportunity and he hadn't expected Han Jingru to offer him just like that. The man said elatedly, "Don't worry. I will definitely take good care of her."

"If you know how to cook, it is best for you to cook yourself. Do not ever let Yimo cook. Otherwise, it will be a disaster." Han Jingru reminded kindly. He wasn't badmouthing Su Yimo but simply stating the truth. After all, he was the one that saw how Su Yimo almost burned their house down.

After leaving the homestay, Han Jingru took a cab back to the hotel and called Wen Liang to reconfirm the time to meet Lu Shun.

Late in afternoon, Wen Liang's car parked right before the hotel. When Han Jingru got into the car, he could obviously notice Wen Liang's tensed up body. The man's eyes were filled with murderous intent.

"Wen Liang, you were the one that arranged this meeting, right?" Han Jingru asked.

Wen Liang's heart was about to jump out from his throat as he answered, "Yeah, it's me."

"Good. I believe you. Since you are the one that arranged it, I believe there wouldn't be any problem." Han Jingru said.

Just when Wen Liang breathed a sigh of relief, he heard Han Jingru continued, "It is not easy to forgive a man. I still can't do it until now. Do you have any advice?"

The man tensed up immediately and his face changed into a grim expression. He had no choice but to do that. Therefore, the man was guilty before Han Jingru.

"That... I don't know either." Wen Liang said.

Han Jingru simply smiled and said no more.

After the car parked before a luxurious villa, Han Jingru took the lead and got down the car.

As Wen Liang looked at Han Jingru, he felt that Han Jingru had known everything. But why would he come? Wasn't he afraid?

Charging right into the lion's den? That was an act of courage but also an act of stupidity.

"If I am able to stomach this banquet, do you know what consequence awaits?" Han Jingru asked.

Before Wen Liang said anything, Han Jingru walked towards the mansion. It wasn't that he didn't want to steer away.

But he didn't have such luxury.

Wen Liang wiped the cold sweat on his forehead. He had never associated himself with someone so terrifying. Moreover, the man was almost half his age yet his aura was overwhelming. A simple word of his could easily made him suffocate.

Even if he were to fall into Lu Shun's hands, Wen Liang felt that if he doesn't die, then the Lu family and him together would definitely pay the heaviest price.

"I hope that this is me overthinking." After Wen Liang comforted himself, he followed after Han Jingru.

The Villa belonged to the Lu family. At that time, Lu Fung and Lu Shun were sitting in the living room. Aside from them, they had twenty over fighter looking man with huge build standing around the living room.

The moment the door bell rang, Lu Shun raised his eyebrow and said, "He is here."

After the house servant opened the door, Han Jingru and Wen Liang walked into the villa.

Lu Shun stood up and looked at Han Jingru hatefully.

"I am coming alone. Do you need to prepare such a huge welcome party?" Han Jingru said indifferently. Judging from his attitude, it was obvious that he had anticipated this.

"Stinking fool, acting cool now? If you are afraid, you may show it, I will not laugh at you!" Lu Shun sneered.

"Afraid?" If I am afraid, why would I even come?" Han Jingru sat on the couch fearlessly.

Lu Fung's eyebrow knitted closely. The young man came despite knowing that is a trap. That was an extraordinary valour.

"You knew we had laid a trap for you?" Lu Fung asked.

Han Jingru glanced over at Wen Liang and said, "Yes. However, I am simply curious. What have you offered to make him betray me?"

"Hmph, offered? You have belittled our Lu family too much. If Wen Liang's company wants to operate in Bedrock city, he needs our approval." Lu Fung scoffed. Even when Wen Liang was right in front of him, he did not show any respect to him at all. Because in his opinion, Wen Liang had no choice but to concede because he was intimidated by the Lu family. But then again, how could he ever know that Wen Liang had received the phone call?

"You have overestimated yourself. Wen Liang, why not you tell it yourself? Since things had come to this, is there any meaning to hide?" Han Jingru asked Wen Liang.

Wen Liang did not dare to make eye contact with Han Jingru's cold glare. He looked at Lu Fung and said, "I received a phone call from Yan Jing but I don't know who he is."

Yan Jing?

Did that old dog Shen Wong stretched his hand over to Bedrock Island? Han Jingru was caught off guard. However, aside from him, no one could threaten Wen Liang into betraying him.

"If that's the case, does that mean you are not showing face to us, the Lu family?" Lu Fung said coldly.

Wen Liang wasn't the slightest bit afraid when facing against Lu Fung. The market in BedRock Island meant almost nothing for him. There was no point to be fearful of Lu Fung.

"You are right. I am not afraid of the Lu family because he is even more frightening. I believe even the Lu family is nothing but clowns in his eyes." Wen Liang continued.

Lu Fung jumped up in rage after hearing that remark. Comparing the Lu family to clowns? That Wen Liang had insulted him!

"Wen Liang, you better be careful with your words. Otherwise, I'll make sure that you won't be able to leave this place unscathed." Lu Fung threatened.

Wen Liang simply smiled indifferently and answered, "I believe you know what those people from Yan Jing is capable of. If you don't believe me, go ahead and give it a try."

Lu Fung's face twisted in malice. However, the moment he heard about Yan Jing, he didn't dare to lash out easily. If the other party was a big shot, it wasn't impossible for them to bring the Lu family down on the way from there.

"Grandpa, you are avenging me today. Why are you talking about other things?" At that time, Lu Shun said.

Lu Fung harrumphed and stopped talking.

When Lu Shun walked towards Han Jingru, he sneered at him, "You trash. Now that you are in my mercy, do you want to know your fate?"

"What do you want?" Han Jingru asked.

"The show hasn't start yet. When your woman reaches here, I will let you know what I want to do." Lu Shun answered with a grin.

At that time, there was a group of people heading towards the hotel. They were given the assignment to seize Su Yimo and bring her to the villa. However, Han Jingru had made preparations beforehand and they were destined to come back empty-handed.

After Lu Shun received a call, he was stunned. There was no one in the hotel. How could that be? The information he found out wouldn't be wrong. But why didn't they find anyone there?

The only possible reason was that Han Jingru had foreseen that he would target Su Yimo and he arranged for the woman to leave.

"I am surprised that a trash like you could be that smart, hiding her before coming here. However, do you think there is any use?" Lu Shun waved his hand and the twenty plus huge men approached Han Jingru together.

Han Jingru was a good fighter. However, there was a disadvantage in numbers. Facing such a huge group of enemies, it was highly unlikely that Han Jingru could fight back victoriously. That was a miscalculation on Han Jingru's part. He did not expect Lu Shun to prepare so many fighters.

Probably, that was an idea given by Shen Wong to Wen Liang and Wen Liang reminded the Lu family to come up with such arrangements.

"Do you want to surrender your cell phone yourself, or do you want me to take it myself after you get beaten up?" Lu Shun chuckled. At that very moment, Han Jingru was just like an insect he could squash with a finger. That sense of superiority that he could master another person's fate made him feel good.

"There is no use. My phone do not have any kind of saved information." Han Jingru said.

"Do you think I am a three year old? She is your woman. How can you not save her number?" Lu Shun sneered.

Han Jingru drew out his handphone and threw it to Lu Shun.

After Lu Shun unlocked the phone, there wasn't any saved information in it at all. There was no name in the contact list and not even any call history. That made Lu Shun infuriated.

"How dare you deleted all the numbers!" Lu Shun gnashed his teeth and said. The man was desperate to get Su Yimo and he had been fantasizing on how he would play with Su Yimo in front of Han Jingru, and also how Han Jingru would be begging him for mercy. However, now that he was unable to find Su Yimo, all of his plans were for naught.

"If I can't even tell your little thought, aren't I as dumb as you?" Han Jingru laughed.

"Dumb? Do you have any right to say I am dumb? Now that you have fallen into my hand, I can do whatever I want to you." Lu Shun had a grim face. After saying that, he instructed the fighters, "Beat him up! You will only stop after he gave the phone number. That woman belongs to I, Lu Shun!"

There was more than twenty people. Although Han Jingru tried his very best, he couldn't handle the sheer difference in numbers. Soon after, he fell to the floor.

Lu Shun looked towards Han Jingru with a smug face and sneered, "Look at you now. What difference is there between you and a dog? Why are you not showing your cockiness during the auction?"

After Lu Shun said that, he squatted down and pulled Han Jingru's hair and continued to sneer, "And do you have any right to flaunt before me now?"

The moment Han Jingru opened his mouth, blood flowed from the side of his lips. He gnashed, "You better kill me. If I don't die, you will die for sure."

After saying that, Han Jingru laughed. His laugh was terrifying and sent a cold chill down their spine.

Lu Shun banged Han Jingru's head on the floor hard. After that, he stood up and stepped on his head, "And do you really think you are so great? This is Bedrock Island. It is I, Lu Shun's turf. So what if I kill you?"

"Lu Shun, I advise you to kill him. Otherwise, he will definitely seek vengeance." Wen Liang said from the side as well. That was the instruction from that mysterious phone call. If Lu Shun could be the one to do it, it would be the best case scenario.

Previously, Lu Fung had said that he would avenge Lu Shun but the grandson must not involve any taking of life. That was the grandfather's bottom line. In the future, Lu Shun would be inheriting the Lu family. If he had committed murder, it might be a time bomb. Even if they could hide the matter for now, who could guarantee that it wouldn't get exposed in the future? Not only that, the wealth Han Jingru displayed in the auction reflected that he must have a strong family background as well. If he were to die in this place, the moment his family investigate on this matter, this could be the silver bullet to the Lu family.

"Wen Liang, you have no right to speak over here. Hurry and scram. Otherwise, your fate will be the same as this trash." Lu Fung told Wen Liang.

Wen Liang glanced over at Han Jingru. If he doesn't see Han Jingru dies with his very own eyes, he wouldn't be restful. However, judging from Lu Fung's attitude, if he doesn't leave, he might not have a chance to leave later.

"I am doing it for your own good." After Wen Liang said that, he turned around and left the villa.

After Wen Liang left, Lu Fung reminded Lu Shun, "Do not forget what grandpa have told you. You can do whatever you want but you mustn't take a life."

Lu Shun did thought about killing Han Jingru. However, he wouldn't be doing it right now. At the very least, he would hold himself back before he found Su Yimo.

"Even if you want to die, I wouldn't let you. I want you to watch how I play with that woman. Do you really think that I wouldn't be able to find her if you hide her? You have belittled my ability in Bedrock Island too much!" Lu Shun said.

After that, Han Jingru was thrown into the wine cellar of the Liu family. He was heavily injured. That matter had taught him a valuable lesson. Never trust the person he didn't know.

After Wen Liang left the villa, he did not leave but he sat in the car and gave Shen Wong a call.

When Shen Wong knew that Han Jingru got beaten up, he wasn't surprised. In his opinion, that was how the story supposed to be.

"Why is it a surprise to beat up that trash? You don't have to tell me the obvious. Just think of a way to kill him in Bedrock Island." Shen Wong said.

"Lu Shun was an impulsive young man but Lu Fung was sensible. It is not easy to make him kill Han Jingru," Wen Liang said.

"If it is not easy, you should try harder. Start from Lu Shun. Who said that you must let Lu Fung know if you killed someone?" Shen Wong said.

"I understand. Just wait for my good news." After Wen Liang said that, he hung up the phone. Shen Wong wanted Han Jingru dead and he was the same. If Han Jingru doesn't die, he would never be able to live in peace.

When Han Jingru didn't come home the entire night, Su Yimo couldn't sleep well as well. When she woke up the next morning, she couldn't hold back her feeling to call Han Jingru. However, she recalled that before Han Jingru left, he said that before he comes back, she should never contact him on the phone. That threw Su Yimo into a dilemma.

During breakfast, Su Yimo told Yang Chen about that matter.

"Yang Chen, do you know where Han Jingru went? He hadn't come home last night and I am very worried about him." Su Yimo said.

Yang Chen did not rest well last night and he was waiting for Han Jingru to come back as well. When he heard Su Yimo asking that, he said, "He should be going to the Lu family. And now it was highly possible that he had fallen into Lu Shun hands."

He had not been coming home since last night. Aside from that possibility, Yang Chen couldn't think of any other reason.

"Fallen into Lu Shun's hands!" Su Yimo's pupil widened and said, "Then what should we do?"

Yang Chen shook his head and said, "He had possibly anticipated this to happen. That's why he instructed us to leave the hotel. But I think he must have some kind of solution. Otherwise, he would not be going."

"But... It has been one night. If he was able to handle it, he would be coming back already. Why is his whereabouts unknown until now?" Su Yimo was so anxious that her face turned pale. She was fearful that an accident would befall Han Jingru.

"Why not I try to give him a call?" Yang Chen said.

"Okay!"

Yang Chen took out his phone and called Han Jingru's number.

But when the phone was connected, it wasn't Han Jingru's voice but Lu Shun's.

"My darling, I knew that you will be worried about him and you will call. If you want to see him, come to my house." Lu Shun said.

Yang Chen did not reply and he simply hung up.

"What is it? What did he say?" Su Yimo asked anxiously.

"Lu Shun was the one that answered the phone." Yang Chen said.

Su Yimo fell back to her chair lifelessly. If Han Jingru's cell phone was in Lu Shun's hand, that meant Han Jingru was taken captive. Su Yimo was unable to keep calm anymore.

"I will go look for Jingru. I want to go see him!" Su Yimo stood up and rushed out the homestay.

When Yang Chen saw that, he hurriedly pulled Su Yimo back and said, "It is useless for you to go now. Jingru asked you to stay here because he wants to protect you. If you go there yourself, you might just throw his plans off!"

"Then what should I do now? Can't I do anything at all?" Su Yimo broke into tears in panic.

At that time, Yang Chen's phone rang. When he saw that it was Han Jingru's number calling back, he hurriedly made a gesture to shush Su Yimo.

After Su Yimo suppressed her sobbing, Yang Chen accepted the call and turned on the speaker.

"Hey pretty, if you want to save your man, you better come to my house. Otherwise, I can't guarantee what I will be doing to him. He is lying in front of me like a dog. Do you want to hear his voice?"

After Lu Shun said that, he started beating up Han Jingru. They were able to hear the sound of pounding, but they didn't hear any cries of pain coming from Han Jingru.

"F**k you, acting tough? Let's see how tough you can be!" Lu Shun's intention was to let Han Jingru make some noise in order to make Su Yimo worried and come forward herself. However, he hadn't expected that after he used up all his strength, Han Jingru could grit his teeth and took it all in.

"Bring me a toothpick. I want to see how long this trash can last."

"Hey pretty, do you want to know what I am going to do to your man? Let me describe it for you. I will be putting the toothpick under his nails. And I have a hammer in my hand. Try guessing what I am going to do?" Lu Shun said with a laugh.

Su Yimo covered her mouth and she didn't dare to imagine what Lu Shun would be doing. Her tears broke down like a broken dam.

Yang Chen felt the fine hair behind his neck rising and he hurriedly hung up the call and switched off the phone.

"Yimo, he is simply scaring you. He won't dare to do something like that." Yang Chen told Su Yimo.

At that time, Su Yimo was completely covered in tears and she wept, "I'll go look for him. Only I can save Jingru now."

Yang Chen didn't dare to let go of his hands that were grabbing Su Yimo. If Su Yimo goes to a person like Lu Shun, she wouldn't be able to save Han Jingru. More than that, she would get herself in danger as well.

Before Han Jingru left, he had given strict instructions to take good care of Su Yimo. If he allowed Su Yimo to go, he wouldn't dare to imagine the consequences.

"Calm down first. If you really go, then nobody will be able to save him. Try to think, is there anyone who can help us?" Yang Chen said.

Anyone?

When Su Yimo heard that, the first name that came to her mind was Molan. However, Molan was still in Yun city. Even if he were to take the earliest flight, he would only reach during the night. Su Yimo was afraid that Han Jingru couldn't last that long.

"Molan, Molan can help him. But can we make it?" Su Yimo said.

Yang Chen's pupil widened. Although the man was a nobody in Yun city, he had heard about the name of Molan. Now that Han Jingru was even connected to Molan, what kind of might did he really have?

"Yes, yes of course. Hurry and contact him!" Yang Chen said.

When Su Yimo heard that, she took out her phone.

Molan was staying in Mojo nightclub. That gang leader wasn't even willing to buy a house for himself. Therefore, the man would only sleep after the nightclub closes. When Su Yimo called him, he was still sleeping.

"Hi sister-in-law, why aren't you resting so early in the morning?" Molan said the moment he answered the phone.

"Brother Molan, Jingru got into trouble. Can you help him?" Su Yimo asked.

Molan jumped right up from the bed and the man became wide awake.

"What happened?"

"We are in Bedrock Island. Just come over here first and I will explain to you later." Su Yimo said.

"Okay, sister-in-law. Stay calm and don't do anything. Wait for me." Molan said.

After that, Molan gave number 12 a call. If he didn't bring that great fighter, things might not be easy.

Molan, Ling Heng and number twelve met in the airport and they took the earliest flight to Bedrock Island.

At that time, in the wine cellar of the Lu family's mansion.

After Lu Shun failed to get the call through, he was infuriated. All ten fingers of Han Jingru had toothpick nailed in it and he was bleeding.

"Trash, look at your woman. She doesn't care about your well-being at all." Lu Shun told Han Jingru.

Han Jingru felt the piercing pain from his fingers and his shirt was drenched in cold sweat. The man had paid the price for trusting Wen Liang and also his overconfidence. He thought that even if Lu Shun were to try to subdue him, he would be able to leave the villa. However, he had not expected Lu Shun to prepare so many people for him.

"Don't let me live. Otherwise, you will be begging for a quick death." Han Jingru gnashed his teeth and said.

Lu Shun slapped Han Jingru's face and scorned in disdain, "Just look at your pitiful look now. Who gives you the guts to threaten me? I am the one to make you beg for a quick death."

"Beat him up!"

After leaving the wine cellar, Lu Shun sat in the living room and all he could think of was Su Yimo. The more he couldn't get her, the more he couldn't calm his raging impulses. However, the men that he sent to find her didn't report back yet.

"Bitch, I don't believe you can hide in Bedrock Island for the rest of your life!" Lu Shun had already made arrangements at the airport. The moment Su Yimo appears, she would be apprehended. Therefore, he wasn't worried that Su Yimo would leave Bedrock Island.

At that time, Lu Shun's phone rang.

"Wen Liang, if you want to apologize to me, save your breath." Lu Shun answered the phone and said.

"Do you have time? I want to meet with you and this is related to that woman." Wen Liang said.

The moment Lu Shun heard that, he was interested and he answered, "Aside from money, the only thing I have the most is time. Where should we meet?"

"The club of you family. I am already here." Wen Liang said.

When Lu Shun's car reached the club, he opened the door before the car even parked properly. The manager had already been waiting for him.

"Young master Lu, what brings you here today?" The manager asked respectfully.

"Do you have any good ones today? Get me two of them first. I shall enjoy myself before meeting Wen Liang." Lu Shun said.

"Yes of course. I shall arrange it right away."

Wen Liang had been waiting for a long time in the room until Lu Shun finally appeared in his pajama. It was obvious what he was doing earlier.

"Wen Liang, if you dare to fool me, you will not be leaving this place alive." Lu Shun said arrogantly. Previously, Lu Fung asked him not to offend Wen Liang. But right now, even Lu Fung had completely put himself as an enemy of Wen Liang. The grandson did not have to worry anymore.

"I know where she is." Wen Liang said.

Lu Shun raised an eyebrow and said, "Since you don't want to tell me directly, that means you have a condition. Speak, what do you want?"

"Han Jingru must die." Wen Liang said.

Lu Shun's face turned grim. He could think of all kinds of torture for Han Jingru. However, Lu Fung wouldn't let him kill Han Jingru. Moreover, Lu Shun himself didn't dare to commit murder as well.

Getting involved in a murder because of a woman? It wasn't worth it.

"Why must you make him die? Do you have some kind of feud?" Lu Shun asked curiously.

"You don't have to know about that. Moreover, I can tell you that if he doesn't die, you will be in great danger. If he were to exact his revenge, he would bring a lot of trouble." Wen Liang said.

"Are you scaring me? Do you think I am afraid of him?" Lu Fung scoffed.

"He could spend three hundred million for Eternity. Do you think he is just an ordinary wealthy people?" Wen Liang said.

That was indeed his concern. Not only that, Lu Fung said that that was the reason they must not kill Han Jingru.

"He isn't an ordinary person. But if I were to kill him, isn't that even more troublesome?" Lu Shun said.

"Have you forgotten where you are staying? You have your own cruise and you have the sharks in the sea to handle the corpse. You are the young master of the Lu family, don't tell me you don't even have the guts to do that." Wen Liang taunted him.

Killing the man and disposing the body. After Han Jingru's body became shark food, nobody would be able to investigate it anymore. That was truly a good idea.

Moreover, he could avoid Han Jingru's revenge as well. That was killing two birds in one stone.

When Wen Liang saw that Lu Shun was still hesitating, the man continued, "Young master Lu, have you forgotten how did he humiliated you in the auction? Now everyone in Bedrock Island are actually laughing at you, saying that you are just a coward. Now that you can't even do that to an outsider, don't tell me you are really a coward?"

Lu Shun's face turned grim and he slammed the table. The young man stood up and roared, "Wen Liang, do you believe I will tear off your mouth right here? How can I, Lu Shun be a coward?!"

"If you are not, then why are you afraid to kill him?" Wen Liang chuckled.

"Who says I am afraid? Don't worry, I will kill him."

Wen Liang stood up in contentment and threw him a name card, "This is the address of where she stays. But remember my warning. If he doesn't die, you will get into trouble."
