

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2713 - 2715

Chapter 2713

Where did George Han know, even though he had determined that there was no one around, even though he had determined that the surrounding singing and dancing were up, so he felt confident and boldly chatting with pangolins in private.

But he just didn't know. Behind the bead curtain, the woman in white had already fully heard what he had said.

She beckoned slightly, and for a while, the woman in green next to her gently lowered her body, listening to her whisper. Nodded.

"Everyone, Miss has an order. Change the subject."

Change the subject?

Everyone was shocked when he said this, but soon, some people's minds quickly turned.

"Oh, how come you have to change the question when it's good? I'm so close, so I remember the answer."

"Me too."

"This shouldn't change the question." I don't know which little "smart" has found a reason for myself, And then a group of people licked their old faces and kept talking.

"The young lady said that the previous sentence was not satisfactory, so I hope to change the question." Behind the bead curtain, the voice rang slightly.

"There are indeed some questions about this question, otherwise. I've already answered it a while ago." A man said softly, without a face.

As soon as he said, the others nodded. Have responded.

Inside the bead curtain, the woman in green couldn't help but shook her head slightly, but the woman in white nodded at her.

"Listen to the rain. Live in the rain, and live in the rain building to listen to the sound of the rain. The sound is dripping, listen, listen, listen!"

“If you are awesome. You will pick it up again.” The pangolin stuffed a chicken leg and said nonchalantly.

George Han smiled slightly: “Watch the tide, the tide is coming, come to watch the tide at the Chaochao Pavilion. The waves are surging, watch. Watch, watch!”

The pangolin frowned. Looking at George Han weirdly: “Damn, it’s okay.”

“The bow is long and stretches, and the archer stretches the bow to shoot arrows, and the arrows are all in the middle.”

“Muzi Li Limu, Li Carpenter Li Mu carves the bow, the bow is difficult to open. “

“The sixties reopened. Plus three or seven years!”

“Ancient and rare double celebration, one more spring and autumn.”

“Qiuqiuqiu, you’re still alive, now it’s really going to be autumn for your mother.” The pangolin said depressedly. One sentence. Then he got up and hugged his little table, and moved it slightly away.

Following the look in this guy’s eyes, George Han realized that he was cold. At this time, the two waitresses walked over slowly with a smile on their faces. And a group of young masters who had already been quizzed about being stupid, couldn’t help but follow the waitress’s eyes strangely and slowly looked over.

“My son, the young lady ordered that she send her daughter’s milk for you to taste.”

“This is made by the young lady. Ordinary people are not qualified to taste it.” After the two maids finished speaking, they smiled softly at George Han. It’s about to pour wine.

At this time, a group of young masters suddenly fry the pot.

Su family daughter pulp. That’s a treasure that is out of the world, and even ordinary people can never taste this little bit even if they have their eyes cut off.

But now...

now Miss Su Jia, pours this excellent wine to this... this hillbilly? !

“Stop it for me.” A young man shouted angrily, and then rushed over a few steps, facing the two maids angrily said: “Are you crazy? Give your daughter to this trash to drink?”
The

other is also tight. Then he said angrily: “What qualifications does the hillbilly have to drink daughter’s milk? I’m afraid it’s in my mouth, and I don’t know what it’s like.”

“Ridiculous, does the hillbilly have to learn from others to drink good wine? These water wines, Enough for him to drink.” Another person rushed over with a few young men.

A gang of people was angry, and couldn't wait to take George Han alive.

Although Gongzi Yuan and the others were not so naive, they looked at George Han's eyes, but they were full of viciousness, and their hands were clenched into fists, obviously angry.

As for George Han, he glanced at the angry group of people around him, and then suddenly smiled dumbly: “Yes, the hillbilly naturally doesn't drink, nor can he taste much.

” “It's really wasteful to drink these good things.” “

Hearing George Han's words, the gang of princes were a little relieved, at least, this kid knew what was good or bad.

But I did not realize, at this time, but suddenly three thousand Han Wang Zhuoshang put the cup: “But I like to watch you simply can not drink, but I have to look at this rustic appearance brought wasted dog.”

“Down !”

Chapter 2714

“Give me full!”

George Han smiled softly, and then smiled at them in the next second, looking at them indifferently.

“Don't fall!” The gangsters turned blue. Some people even clenched fists and nails deeply sinking into the flesh.

Then the superb wine has to be drunk by such rubbish, trash, and hillbilly. The most hateful thing is that such low-level characters dare to publicly humiliate and ridicule them.

“This rubbish is not qualified to drink.”

“That's right, you must not pour this hillbilly.” A group of people stared like two barrels, if they could. It can even spit out fire.

The two maids looked at each other, and then. Nodded to each other, looked back at the princes, and said: "Sorry, everyone." As soon as the voice fell, a woman knelt on the ground slightly and raised George Han's wine glass, while the other woman picked up the wine jar. Pour the wine slowly.

"You two slaves, crazy, crazy, do you want to listen to a hillbilly? Don't you listen to us? Okay, wait. Wait for me, and I will tell your lady to go." Angrily threatened.

Just. At this time, this guy was obviously dazzled by anger. If there is no order from the lady, how dare the two waitresses dare to use this superb wine?

Sure enough. In the face of threats, the two women barely changed their faces. He said coldly: "Master, please."

Hearing this answer, the guy's whole body was twitching.

But it was George Han at this time that made him even more crazy.

The glass has entered the wine, and the crisp sound of water makes people crazy, but it is not over yet. I saw this guy slightly took the wine glass handed by the waitress, but didn't drink, just holding the wine glass, shaking it in front of everyone. Then, sniffed.

"The aroma of the wine is rich. When you smell it, you are already drunk. Good wine." George Han smiled lightly. Although his movements were casual, his eyes kept staring at everyone.

Obviously, for everyone, this is Chi Guoguo's provocation.

"Oh!"

Suddenly, this guy yelled. Then, the cup fell to the ground, and the wine sprinkled on the ground. directly caused the people present to blow up their hair instantly.

A few people couldn't stand it directly. Turned and walked into the hall, facing the bead curtain, he depressed and said: "Miss Su, take a look, what this hillbilly is doing."

"He is so brave that he dared to knock his daughter on the ground. It's a violent thing. This kind of person is damned."

"That's right, as long as you give Miss Su your order, I will immediately take the dog's life for Miss Su."

"You want his dog's life?" Upon hearing this. The pangolin, who had moved a long time in the distance, became interested: "Hey, are you serious?"

It's probably all night. The only joke that can really make George Han cheer up immediately.

Fight with George Han?

Isn't this funny what is it? !

But when the pangolin stood up and talked arrogantly, George Han also stood up at this time. He grabbed the guy slightly, and smiled: "Why do you use a knife and a gun? It's reasonable."

George Han is never the kind of person who bullies people, and naturally he will not use a knife and a gun with others just because of this. , However, George Han's behavior caused a group of princes to be a little startled in the pangolin roar just now, and instantly relieved.

It's just a counselor who is greedy for life and fear of death, but he doesn't dare to admit it for some reason.

But even if you pretend, why not?

"Say reasonable? Okay, then you are talking about it, what should you be guilty of knocking down your precious daughter to the ground?"

"That's right, such a thing was overturned by you, you countryman, you can only apologize with death. ."

" Today, you have to pay a heavy price. "

A group of people was angry and pointed that if they were less courageous, they would be scared to death on the spot.

But obviously, there are no timid people. There is one George Han, with no fear on his face. Instead, he looks at everyone like a fool.

"Naughty milk is naturally good wine. It's a waste of this stuff. It's really damn it." George Han nodded thoughtfully, then suddenly raised his head and smiled: "But, is this something to do with you?"

Chapter 2715

made everyone present in a daze.

"Diao people come out of poor mountains and remote soils. You, you stubborn people, are utterly unreasonable."

George Han smiled slightly: "If I'm a gangster. What are you guys?"

"A bunch of idle bugs?"

” Again. Or an old eight-wife with three tongues?” “Or a long-legged woman with nine ears?”

George Han had a light smile and a quiet voice, but his tone was full of teasing. All the people present were shocked all at once.

Who knows, just now this guy still cursed but couldn’t talk back. But suddenly, his teeth sharpened.

“My daughter is expensive. What’s the matter?” George Han finished speaking, turned around a few steps, and directly took the hip flask in the hand of the maid. Suddenly, it smashed directly to the ground with a snap.

“The wine was given to me by Miss Su, what should I do? It’s up to you?” George Han asked with a frown.

“You...”

group of people were so angry and anxious that they couldn’t even speak for a while.

“You bitch, irrational words, this alcoholic bullshit is yours, this...this is what Miss Su sees you pitifully. Only...just...” One of the people wanted to say, but forced himself to say half of it. I felt unreasonable and not strong, so I could only stare openly, and awkwardly rely on the loud roar to gain momentum.

“It doesn’t matter whether I’m poor or what I’m doing. That’s also for me.” George Han said coldly.

“This is reasonable, and the young lady sent it sincerely. Naturally, things belong to this young man, and how he handles it is his right and freedom.” Within the bead curtain. The woman in green said softly.

As the voice from within the bead curtain came, the people in the hall were speechless, even if they did. It was stuck on the throat abruptly, unable to send it out.

George Han glanced at everyone with a sneer. With a cold smile, then. I have to step back.

But almost just about to take a step, at this moment, the few sons suddenly stopped in front of George Han and the others.

George Han frowned slightly and looked at these guys lightly. “Even if it’s your wine, what about it? Above the flower boat is an elegant place. Everyone is even more interested, but you get dirty here first, and now it’s even more Smashed the hip flask to the ground. It is so inconvenient and elegant, it seems that this account should be counted? “The leader is not someone else, it is Gongzi Yuan.

Behind Yuan Gongzi, all the masters were obviously very proud. Obviously, after George Han couldn't do anything about it, when this group of people was hesitating, this son of Yuan stood up. With his own strength, he made difficulties for George Han again.

However. For George Han, this was expected. From their perspective, they are the strong, and the strong will only give respect to the strong, but never give mercy to the weak.

“I accidentally knocked the wine, which is unintentional as to throw the jug of things and you have the nerve to mention it.?” Han three thousand: “If not you, I'm afraid that you'll feel the wine already,”

“strange yellow sand , Let's go.” After that, George Han was about to go forward with the pangolin.

“Just think about it?” Yuan Gongzi said coldly.

“Then what do you want?” George Han asked.

Pangolins helplessly spread their hands: “Big deal, we clean up our own place, you clean up the living room, and one person takes a step back.”

“Clean up? Haha, then I'll give you a knife, and then help you repair the wound. Is it even a tie?” Yuan Shao said coldly.

“If you really want to clean up, you can, don't say that we don't give you a chance, you go and lick it clean, and that matter is forgotten, how?” After speaking, a group of people looked at each other and smiled.

“Okay.” George Han smiled and nodded.

A group of people burst into laughter.

George Han also smiled lightly.

A group of people laughed crazily for a while, they laughed at George Han, who was stupid than this time, and laughed.

However, they probably didn't know that George Han actually laughed and laughed at them...
