

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2767 - 2769

Chapter 2767

the onlookers lowered their heads. This was the end of the fight against the Liu family.

“Tsk tusk, since there is no evidence, it can’t prove that what you said is true?” The elder laughed a weird smile.

The elders behind him also suddenly smiled.

The pangolin was getting angry, and even Lu Zhu and Su Yan were very angry at this time.

Killing and killing people has never seen such a blatant one.

“You guys...” The pangolin roared angrily, but was stopped by George Han, staring at the elder, George Han said slightly: “No need to prove anything.”

“Because” George Han smiled coldly suddenly: “For the dying person, this is not necessary!” As soon as the voice fell, George Han suddenly turned into an afterimage, but his body had already attacked the person at a very fast speed. Elders.

The speed of George Han obviously made the Liu family stunned, but in the next second, a group of people is worthy of being the elders of the Liu family, the elite of the elite, reflecting that Wei Wei retreated extremely quickly and gave up enough Space, then, the elder snorted coldly: “Go!”

Dozens of elites behind him immediately attacked George Han.

“Boom!”

But almost for a moment, the dozens of elites only rushed forward one step, and even some feet had not landed. The next second, they stood still collectively there.

And George Han’s figure, passing through them like lightning, holding a jade sword, was already standing there.

Jian Guang was cold, but there was no trace of blood!

But those dozens of disciples suddenly fell to the ground in a group.

Sword fast!

Soon they even killed dozens of people, and their blood did not have time to be stained on the sword!

The onlookers were dumbfounded, and couldn't say anything shocked.

Even the elders of the Liu family and Liu Tao couldn't help being shocked, and the elites behind them couldn't help but retreat half a step in fear! What the hell is this fucking speed? What kind of ghost swordsmanship is it?

Under a sword, dozens of elites have not even reflected, they have become the souls of his sword! ?

George Han bent over slightly, then hugged the body of Xiaoer from the shop slightly, and smiled bitterly.

What is wrong with him?

But just telling the truth, and asking him to use his life as the price? !

What's wrong with him?

So much so that he lied to himself, and he was stabbed with such a wound!

He is not wrong, you are the one who is wrong!

Suddenly, George Han looked at Liu's family and Liu Lu with angry eyes!

The Liu family was stunned by the look of George Han, and Liu Lu almost rolled off the couch.

What kind of look is that?

The look in the eyes of the god of anti-Buddha hell!

"Brother, I'm sorry." George Han smiled bitterly suddenly, as if talking to himself, and as if saying to the dead shop second, "Blame me for being careless, for causing you to lose your life. The only thing I can do is let you see clearly, how I avenged you." As soon as the voice fell, George Han shouted coldly: "If you don't want to die, get out!"

With

this drink, the Liu Jiarui who insisted on drinking took a half step back, and the crowd watched. Also retreated quickly.

Only Liu Tao, with a group of elders, stood firmly in front of George Han.

“Zi, Zi!”

Holding Xiao Er with his left hand, holding the jade sword in his right hand, but at this time the sword is half wrapped in red fire, half wrapped in blue and purple light!

It was actually the sky fire and the moon wheel!

And the twelve elders over there were also lined up, making preparations for battle!

The two sides were at war, and the atmosphere burned to the climax.

George Han suddenly smiled evilly, and the next second, with a sword in one hand and the body of Xiao Er in the other, he rushed towards Liu's parents...

the

elder Liu also quickly confronted George Han who was rushing, suddenly formed a formation, turned into a circle, and directly attacked.

“Boom!” The

two sides are in contact, one to twelve, twelve in one!

Suddenly, the sword, the sword and the shadow, the magic can explode!

A group of spectators have joined forces to gather energy to resist. Although their abilities are average, they can at least support the enchantment by gathering the power of everyone, so as not to be affected.

In the crowd, George Han jade sword swept across, the sky fire moon wheel wrapped around the sword body, sometimes blessing the jade sword's power, and sometimes with the sword moving and the flames or the purple and blue electric turbulence.

The twelve elders of the Liu family are obviously not the general generation, especially the formation of the twelve members is invincible and defends as solid with their skilled cooperation!

The six elders were in charge of the main attack, and while the six elders were in charge of the defense, they also assisted in a feint.

This is the strongest combination of the twelve elders of the Liu family, and it is also their magic weapon for defeating the enemy for many years.

The twelve arrays of all lights!

“Smelly boy, how does it feel?”

Seeing George Han’s failure to break the battle several times, one of the elders sneered.

George Han chuckled coldly, but did not answer. The Twelve Lights Array is indeed a bit powerful, and it depends on the close cooperation and tacit understanding between the twelve of them.

But these can only improve their cultivation base and ability to a certain extent, but it does not mean that their cultivation base and ability can skip a few stages directly.

Since that can’t be the case, what is the significance of these cooperation in the face of George Han, who is obviously at a high level of cultivation? !

Without talking any more, George Han was holding a jade sword, and the sky fire moon wheel instantly pulled out of the sword body, transformed into two flying dragons, and bowed left and right, followed by George Han’s fierce attack on one of them, and went straight away.

The hapless elder was obviously taken aback, subconsciously just blocked, but in the next second, this guy completely regretted it.

George Han’s offensive was swift and fierce, and his swords were extremely powerful, and his angles were extremely tricky. Just dealing with a few swords, he was already numb and tired of coping.

“Protect the youngest.” With a sudden drink in the crowd, the other eleven people immediately surrounded them.

George Han suddenly sneered, and the 72-way divine sword in his hand was swung more fiercely. The unlucky elder was already tired to deal with it. Facing the 72-way divine sword that was continuously upgraded, he was dumbfounded and dazzled, even I have forgotten how to resist. Although the twelve people are closely connected like iron buckets, they can trap people larger than themselves in them like water, but there is a problem that if any one of the buckets collapses, the remaining The other barrel plates have no meaning.

George Han understood this truth, how could the twelve elders not understand?

Seeing that George Han didn’t care about the attack behind him, he just used more force to target the elder. A group of people looked at each other and simply used their full strength to attack George Han more fiercely.

It is bound to kill this George Han in one blow!

But almost when the eleven elders used all their power to attack George Han, George Han suddenly turned over.

Like the overlord returning to the horse!

Turning back, he directly met the elder who had attacked from behind!

The elder is using all his strength to attack George Han, how can he suddenly choose to turn around and counterattack? In shock, the arrow had already left the string and could only bite the bullet and attacked George Han.

At almost the same time, George Han's fast figure suddenly attacked the elder.

"Puff!"

"Clang!" There was a metal voice and a puff, and the two figures passed by.

George Han had already rushed out of the twelve people's encirclement, and the elder also passed through and flew forward for a certain distance, and then suddenly stopped.

"Enclose him." Seeing that his junior brother had returned, George Han had already rushed out. He immediately shouted, leading a group of senior brothers, lined up again, and surrounded George Han again. .

"Smelly boy, do you think you can get rid of our Tietong Formation in this way? Idiot." The leading elder snorted coldly, staring at George Han with enthusiasm.

George Han smiled wickedly and glanced coldly at the group of elders surrounding him.

Suddenly, someone seemed to perceive something wrong, and looked around anxiously, suddenly shocked.

The iron barrel array was re-arranged, but there were only eleven of the twelve people.

The eleven people turned their heads in panic, but saw behind them, the elder did not follow them, but stood motionless...

Just when everyone was puzzled, suddenly, he moved...

Chapter 2769

The blue-gray gown went as usual, but a puff of blood suddenly flowed out from the abdomen, dyed a large area of the clothes red, and dripped slowly along the clothes.

Bang...

This time, he finally moved.

It's just that the body is heavy, and it directly hit the ground stiffly.

"He... he's dead." Someone panicked.

But what is even more frightening is the way and process of his death.

It was clear to him that nothing happened, but in a blink of an eye, he suddenly had blood flowing like water, and then he died!

"This may not be too fast, right?" Someone exclaimed.

"Sword fast!" The answer is only this one!

When a person's sword is fast enough, a sword passes, and there seems to be no wound in the body. Before any reaction is made, everything is over!

But this is enough speed, what kind of speed does it have?

Everyone didn't know it, and never even thought about it!

"How is this possible?" Liu Tao stared at the scene in shock.

The twelve elders are almost the treasures of the Liu family's home-shaking. Any elder has at least the strength of the realm of punishing evil.

Even if there is a master like Yahuang, it is absolutely impossible to kill with a single sword.

What's more, this elder is not single yet, but is in their strongest twelve-man formation.

Was punished like this? !

It's not that I haven't thought about it, but I can't think of it at all.

The eleven elders also showed shock, especially when they set their sights on George Han, they were surprised to find that there was no trace of injury on George Han's body.

It's just now that the two sides are not defensively confronting each other. Why is their elder dead, but George Han is unscathed?

This is impossible!

Even though they were as stable as old dogs, at this time, they couldn't help but feel a little bit of fear and incomprehension in their hearts under the shock.

However, there was no time left for them to figure out the reason, because at this time George Han, with a sword in his hand, once again killed him.

The elders rushed to challenge!

However, without the blessing of the iron and bronze formations, how would the eleven people who are already struggling win against George Han? ! As the battle progressed, the eleven people were not only forced to retreat by George Han, but also suffered various sword wounds on their bodies. They were originally a group of elders who were still immortal, but at this time One by one was beaten in embarrassment.

“Meng, this is too fucking fierce, right?”

“Damn, that’s the pillar of the damn Liu family. Not only does it have no advantage in front of him, but it is completely crushed and beaten.

Did you read it wrong?” “You are not mistaken, this guy’s swordsmanship is very outrageous, and while the sword is extremely fast, the sword and sword are extremely powerful. Where the hell did this kid come from? Freak?”

The people who watched the battle were shocked. Even in front of the Liu family, they had to show their inner shock.

Over there, the faces of Liu’s family were obviously not good-looking. At this time, the cronies beside Liu Tao looked at the scene in the field and couldn’t help but said anxiously: “Patriarch, the situation is not right, the eleven elders can’t hold on anymore. If it goes on like this, they will be dead.”

Liu Tao nodded, he is not invisible to this situation, and the situation is now like this, if the eleven elders lose again, where should the reputation of the Liu family be put? !

“Patriarch, let’s do it.” The man whispered.

Liu Tao stopped speaking, but energy was already slightly transported in his hand, and a group of red flames suddenly appeared in his palm.

“Extreme Fire!”

“Damn, the Patriarch of the Liu Family, is this going to be a shot?”

When the flames had started to be transported on Liu Tao’s side, all the spectators couldn’t help but exclaim.

Even if George Han faced the eleven elders at this time, he had the absolute upper hand, but he couldn’t stop a group of people from expressing their deep concern for him at this time.

Supreme Fire.

That is the real stunt of the Liu family and its foundation.

And the supreme fire released by Liu Tao is obviously not a three-legged cat like Liu Gongzi!

“I didn’t expect that after many years, I could see the prestige of the Liu family again here!” The group of people was shocked, and at this time, Liu Tao suddenly started...
