

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2779 - 2781

Chapter 2779

George Han in the center of the flame!

When it was the most difficult to break the game, he suddenly removed the help of the Five Elements God Stone, or in other words, this guy changed a way to let it help.

Don't rely on it at all to maintain the safety of your body. Instead, he directly aimed it at the Supreme Fire and inhaled it frantically, after which, let the Five Elements Divine Stone turn into energy to help himself replenish the catalysis of the Jade Ice Bead.

The price is that in just a few seconds, George Han's clothes and hair are all gone. Even the skin on his body exploded like popcorn under the fire.

But endured such inhuman pain. George Han has completed the extra aura blessing under the condition of reciprocity. In other words, the energy provided by the Five Elements God Stone is the last straw that crushes everyone in the Liu family!

boom!

The white gas exploded suddenly! !

From the fire to the fire!

The entire area of Juying Pavilion was suddenly covered in white, and even the people on the periphery were suddenly taken a few steps back by the white air.

Everyone was dumbfounded and looked into the white air.

Mr. Chai waved his hand, and a fairy wind hit, blowing away the white air.

Exposed to everyone, everyone in the Liu family fell to the ground, lying on the ground one by one, and the elites died tragically on the spot. And the head of the Liu family and a group of elders, some fell into a coma. Some lie on the ground, just lingering!

And in front of them, a young figure stood there slightly, although the knees were slightly bent. His skin was red and black due to the fire.

But he was still in the breeze and white air, standing till the end.

In the crowd of onlookers. There was no sound, one by one he tugged his scalp, his mouth opened wide, and his eyes opened. Looking at the scene before him incredulously.

Beside them, Su Yan, Fang Jun, Pangolin and others were also dumbfounded.

Even the strongest two, the Patriarch of the Fang family, and Mr. Chai Rong were staring at each other.

There is... someone walked... out of the supreme fire of Liu's family?

How can this be? !for thousands and tens of thousands of years. The fire of Liu Jiazhezun dominates the desert world, even if it is as strong as Chai Rong. I absolutely dare not say that I can come out alive in this fire.

But...

but at this moment, someone came out!

This simply broke the tradition of the desert world for many years. How many people's cognition has been subverted? !

Everyone was dumbfounded and couldn't say a word.

But precisely, sometimes silence is better than tens of thousands.

One second, two seconds...

for a long time...

"Oh, who said just now that adding more fuel to the fire will only make the fire more and more vigorous. It seems that the fire is still not vigorous enough, it was put out by someone, haha." Lvzhu this girl. It was the first to reflect, and the first sentence of his mouth was Fang Jun's cynicism.

The pangolin also reflected, and smiled coldly: "Lv Zhu, you don't slap people in the face, what you said. Where can I put the face of the elder of the family? Anyway, they are also the elders of the Fang family.

" Haha, the elders of the Fang family turned out to be full of mouths haha. It seems that the Fang family, the overlord of the Desert City, is nothing more than that. Fang Jun's angry face almost exploded.

But when he just wanted to do it, he suddenly heard the Fang Patriarch's cold cry: "Stop!"

He didn't look back. Almost like Chai Rong, he stared at George Han.

Because at this time, George Han also moved.

He raised his eyes faintly, with a trace of domineering and solemn cold in his eyes, looked around the scene, and then smiled coldly.

“Liu family, do you still have to continue?”

With a cold drink, it turned out to be silent!

Even though Liu Lu and other Liu family members were still present at the scene, who would dare to respond? !

Almost as soon as George Han’s voice fell, a strange scene suddenly appeared on him...

and it was almost precisely because of this scene that the originally dumbfounded Fang Family Patriarch and Mr. Chai Rong almost Even more dumbfounded.

“Yes... it is it!”

“It turned out to be... it really was it?”

Chapter 2780

At this time, on George Han’s body, the Five Elements Divine Stone released a faint stream of light throughout George Han’s body, causing his entire red and black skin to be constantly in the stream of light. The next was slowly repaired.

From a distance, the momentum of this scene is like a god, and it looks like a hell demon burrowing from the ground.

And what made them feel weird was the look in George Han’s eyes at this time!

The red light appeared faintly, like the eyes of a demon, while staring at everyone indifferently, it released a chill that made people feel chilling.

But these were nothing compared to the slightly white jade ice beads on George Han’s right hand.

At this time, Yu Bingzhu released a slow white gas, as if it was cooling down, and also as if in this way, proclaiming his current lingering prestige.

“This...” Su Yan is almost the same as the Patriarch of the Fang family and Mr. Chai, opening her mouth in surprise, looking slightly at the little white bead in George Han’s hand.

This breath, could it be it? !

“Fuck it, it’s awesome.”

“The supreme fire of the Liu family was broken by someone!”

“If the supreme fire released by the Liu Gongzi is broken, it’s just learning. If the art is not good, then the eleven elders led by the head of the Liu family have put out the supreme fire, and that can only explain one problem.”

“It’s not that they are not strong enough, but... it’s the young lady called pangolin. Fierce, he is the king of fire, the king of fire.”

“What kind of shit , the king of fire, he is clearly the god of fire, okay?”

“I declare that from today onwards, there is no one in my eyes. He is my idol. !”

“That’s right, the pangolin brothers are the eternal gods in our hearts!”

Almost at this time, the people who had been dumb for not knowing how long have also returned to their gods one after another. At this time, it was like a tide erupting, to George Han. Constantly expressing his admiration and shock.

The Patriarch of the Fang family and Mr. Chai took advantage of this vacancy and glanced at each other slightly in return.

“Fang Jun.” The Patriarch of the Fang family gave a soft cry.

Fang Jun quickly moved over and whispered: “Patriarch, what’s your order?”

“Slap!”

Before Fang Jun could reflect, he slapped his face with a slap. Fang Jun’s whole person was suddenly shocked, and he didn’t know what was going on.

“Asshole thing! In my desert city, you, as the great elder, are responsible for the affairs of the whole city. Now, you let Fang’s guests fight here. What’s the difference between your position as a great elder and nothing?” Fang’s Patriarch shouted angrily.

“I...” Fang Jun was taken aback, isn’t this Patriarch supporting him, why suddenly he has changed his face? !

Besides, the Liu family is an in-house family, how can it be comparable to ordinary guests. Since the Liu family wants to teach others, isn’t it normal for the Fang family to close their eyes? !

Why would the Patriarch suddenly...

However, despite his doubts, he did not dare to make a noise.

“What are you doing in a daze? Take care of the wounded, especially...” After speaking, he glanced at George Han: “Especially Yan’er and her friend!”

After speaking, the Patriarch Fang glanced at Su Yan. , Smiled reluctantly: “Yan’er, don’t worry, I will deal with Fang Jun seriously and give you and your friend an account.”

Su Yan was taken aback, but then reflected, barely squeezing out a smile as a response.

Fang Jun was very depressed, but he didn’t dare to be idle, and hurriedly commanded a group of Fang family members, and hurriedly walked into the court to help the wounded Liu family back home.

On George Han’s side, Fang Jun was naturally going there.

He chuckled, as if he was making peace.

Over there, George Han raised his eyes slightly and looked at the Patriarch of the Fang Family. The Patriarch of the Fang Family responded with a smile, and George Han nodded.

“Patriarch, Juying Pavilion has been burned down, or send this young hero to Miss Su’s residence?” Fang Jun ran back and whispered softly.

The Fang Family Patriarch’s face was cold, and he beckoned gently, Fang Jun hurried up, and then the Fang Family Patriarch whispered in his ear.

However, after hearing these words, Fang Jun couldn’t help but look surprised and looked at the Fang family’s Patriarch in astonishment. Obviously, the other Patriarch’s words were at a loss for a while.

“Patriarch, this... The Fang family has never been like this...”

“Let you go and go, what are you doing with so much nonsense?”

Fang Jun nodded when he heard the Patriarch’s cold voice, and quickly stepped back.

Within a moment, a shocking scene happened...

Chapter 2781

Fang Jun ran back again, but behind him, there were eight more bearers and the huge sedan chair they were carrying.

The sedan body is luxurious, with a jewel about the size of a fist on the top of the sedan, and the bearers are also neatly and luxuriously dressed, and they are not weaker than this group of guest sons.

Coupled with the meaning of the eight-person sedan chair, the high specifications of this sedan chair can't help but attract people's attention.

A group of people looked at Mr. Chai Rong one after another, both with envy and admiration, but also with reasonable expectations.

After all, as a senior in the desert world, he is qualified to enjoy this treatment.

But to everyone's surprise, Fang Jun led the sedan chair and directly skipped Mr. Chai Rong, and even the Patriarch of the Fang family. Instead, he walked all the way towards George Han.

"This...what's the situation?" The group of people were very surprised!

Such a high-level etiquette of the eight-person sedan chair is actually not common in the Fang family. Only when Mr. Fang was alive, he lived in the eight-person sedan chair on the day of attendance on the centuries-old day of the desert city. .

Now that the eight-person sedan chair is present, Mr. Chai Rong, who has the same qualifications, can sit there, but he skipped Mr. Chai directly and went to pick up a young man instead.

Although this young man made their scalp numb and walked out of the supreme fire, their strength was shocked to almost all their hearts stagnating for a few seconds.

But being powerful is related to dignity, but it is by no means as simple as equating.

In particular, what the Fang family did, to a certain extent, represented the entire desert world!

Fang family means that this young man has a higher status than Mr. Chai Lao? !

Just rely on him to break the supreme fire of the Liu family?

Although this is indeed indescribable, the Liu family does not represent the highest strength of the desert world... "Some people can really change their faces. They were still talking cold words a second, and now they use them again. The eight-person sedan chair, I really want to know what Mr. Chai feels now." Lu Zhu obviously sneered at this approach, and said coldly.

Just now he regarded George Han as rubbish, just sitting on the sidelines without saving people, and even making mockery, but now he is playing these tricks.

However, doesn't this guy know that holding a person's stinky feet will hurt another big person next to him?

“Mr. Chai won’t mind.” Su Yan shook her head lightly.

Hearing this, Lu Zhudun was dissatisfied. How could the young lady speak for others? What’s more, why doesn’t Mr. Chai stop being angry?

Not to mention the eight-person sedan chair, even if it is an ordinary sedan chair, it is very unbearable to treat it so differently. What’s more, Mr. Chai is a highly respected person.

However, when Luzhu cast his gaze on Mr. Chai, he saw that he was smiling, without any discomfort.

“What does this mean?” Luzhu frowned.

“You’ll know after a while.” Su Yan smiled softly.

Just when Lv Zhu didn’t know what this meant, at this time, George Han had been invited into the sedan chair, and the Patriarch Fang also slowly walked over, glanced at Su Yan, and said with a smile: “Yan’er, Let’s go back to the mansion and sit down together?” Did n’t you just come to the dinner party? Why did this happen, but suddenly let the young lady go with him? !

“Okay.” Su Yan simply replied softly.

Hearing Su Yan’s answer, the Fang family’s Patriarch finally showed a relieved smile on his face at this time, and then looked at Lv Zhu: “Lv Zhu, you should go back to the other yard first and pack Yan’er’s things. I will send it later. Someone will come and pick you up back to the house.”

“Huh?” Lu Zhu was taken aback.

“Yan’er’s friend is recuperating in the city lord’s mansion. Naturally, Yan’er should also live in the mansion.” Fang’s Patriarch laughed.

Lvzhu was even more stunned. The Fang family’s wedding was just around the corner. Every guest had a fixed residence, and his residence often symbolized the dignity of the people living in the Fang family.

Therefore, the Liu family has a young master’s mansion, the Su family has a separate courtyard, and other big families have their own places to stay.

But none of them lived in the City Lord’s Mansion.

Now, the Fang Family Patriarch suddenly invited the Su Family into the City Lord’s Mansion. How could this not make people feel strange? !

Seeing the stunned Lv Zhu, Su Yan smiled softly and shook his head helplessly, so he was alone, and the dog and the chicken ascended to the sky. Lv Zhu didn't understand, but what she didn't expect was that George Han became that person...

“Qi” The sedan...”

As Fang Jun shouted, the sedan lifted slowly, and the group of people walked slowly towards the city lord's mansion...
