

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2808 - 2809

Chapter 2808

This is simply not paying attention to yourself at all.

Fang Kun gritted his teeth and violently walked towards the brazier, and then with a push of energy in his hand, the flames in the brazier suddenly became more fierce.

“In just ten minutes, your useless stinky feet will completely turn into coke.” When the words fell, he violently put the brazier directly at George Han’s feet. After a while, the fire burned. George Han’s legs.

Seeing the fire scorching George Han crazily, the coldness at the corner of Fang Kun’s mouth became deeper and deeper.

“Haha, hahahaha!”

Looking at the fire jumping, the anger in his heart was released at this time, Fang Kun laughed abnormally mad.

Compared with the crazy Fang Kun, George Han only smiled faintly. With a slight movement of his hands, a burst of energy flowed through his dantian to his feet, firmly protecting the meridians.

What kind of shit and strange poison, for others may really imprison cultivation, but for George Han, the hidden poison king, what is the difference with drinking water? !

Just play with them.

Seeing that the fire became more and more prosperous, Fang Kun smiled in satisfaction: “How about it? Is it fun?”

“It’s fine if you are happy.” George Han laughed mockingly.

“Looking at your idiot being tormented by the ice and fire, I am naturally very happy, but these are just appetizers.” As he said, he glanced at his subordinates lightly.

“Want to come when you came in, you already met your new cellmate?”

“He is your main course.” As soon as the voice fell, the subordinate he was looking at also nodded in response, and then gloomily Backed out with a smile.

When his subordinates went out, Fang Kun watched the blazing fire, and gently stroked George Han's face with his hand, and then sat down on the chair next to him, raising his legs, very proud: "Introduce your new cellmate."

"Fu Tian!"

"Maybe you don't know this person, let alone heard of the name, but you may have heard of his nickname."

"The killing in the desert world . " "

"I'm sorry, but I haven't heard of it." George Han shook his head and smiled.

Fang Kun was not angry, but was full of ridicule: "It doesn't matter if you don't know him. Anyway, you will have time to get to know him."

"Forgot to tell you one thing. Although Qidu San is insidious, it has only medicinal effects. Half an hour." "In other words, after half an hour, not only will the poison on your body dissipate completely, but your new cellmate will also wake up." As soon as the voice fell, the voice of the iron chain suddenly rang. Get up, obviously, it must be the one who just quit, to untie the chain of that guy.

If you contact Fang Kun now, with George Han's IQ, he can almost understand what he wants to do in seconds.

"Do you know how normal a person would be if he was kept in a closed environment for a long time?" Fang Kun asked with a smile.

Humans are emotional animals. When they are in a closed environment for a long time, they will begin to repress. Slowly, this repression will continue to swell, and make people's emotions begin to collapse, into madness and various conjectures. The state of...

until the end, either mad or perverted...

"There are only two kinds of people who have stayed in this prison for a long time, either mentally fragile and mad, or extremely psychologically strong and finally perverted." Fang Kun sneered.

George Han smiled slightly: "Obviously, any killer in this desert world is the latter, right?"

Fang Kun nodded and nodded: "In this jail, you are always alone. This loneliness, Death and even fear, all kinds of negative emotions you can think of are constantly pouring up."

"Over time, the big murderous demon looks like a beast that is locked in a small space and cannot move?"

George Han smiled: "The tiger came out of the cage, so he killed it when he saw it?"

"No!" Fang Kun gently shook his head: "You said that it was a tiger that had been locked up for a long time, and it was definitely not locked up for a long time. The longer Tiger, do you know what will happen to him?"

Speaking of this, not only Fang Kun, but also the male guards nearby couldn't help but smile sullenly.

That's right. If it's just a killing machine, who would Fang Kun find hard to find? Want to take yourself into the jail? Obviously, this so-called killer must have his special and extremely cruel methods, even more painful than the so-called Torture of Ice and Fire...

Fang Kun smiled lightly, slowly got up, and opened his mouth...

Chapter 2809

"The killer is about seven meters tall, strong and strong. Although he has no superior wisdom, he has the courage that ordinary people cannot match. Therefore, when the mutiny occurs, he will become the root of others who dare to rebel, And the capital that kills the world."

"Originally, the Fang family intended to solicit, but considering his sins were serious, so he was imprisoned in the jail for thousands of years. Helplessly, maybe he was detained for too long, this guy has been perverted... .."

"The power of the whole body is not used. This is not only the distortion of the heart, but also the distortion of the body."

"You are also a man. I haven't seen a woman for a long time. Hehe, even when I see a man, I feel pretty. "

Speaking of this, a group of male guards couldn't help laughing and hiding their faces one by one.

George Han also understood what Fang Kun's colorful intestines contained.

"Before, I had occasionally imprisoned a few people in the jail. Hey, everyone ended up in a miserable way. They all broke apart and died. They were inhuman, so they were inhumanly small, not to mention men, even if Even a woman can't bear it."

"However, don't worry, in the jail, I have the final say. Therefore, I will never allow this to happen. The goods have been made by me with four fire irons. The limbs were locked by the iron chain. Without my key, even if the goods had the ability, they would never be able to rush out." After speaking, Fang Kun still looked quite worried.

"I understand." George Han smiled.

“Really?” Fang Kun asked suspiciously.

“The torture of ice and fire, fire does not hurt me, but it is just a grind of the mind. Although ice hurts people, it is not a day’s cold. The purpose of your real use of this punishment is to make me lose my basic ability to act, right?” George Han sneered.

“Papa!” There was a few applause, Fang Kun nodded in appreciation while applauding: “Clever, clever, worthy of the person that Ms. Lu’s fancy, this brain... it’s clear.”

George Hanyin sneered, how much IQ does this require? !

“I said, the front is just an appetizer, and the dish at the back is the real main dish.”

Facing a master like George Han who had played against each other, Fang Kun naturally did not dare to neglect, the killer Although fierce, George Han is not bad, so Fang Kun must do some work for the killers in advance. By the way, he can also get some rewards from George Han.”You know how to play.” George Han nodded and couldn’t help but praise.

“Hehe, don’t need to bring me a high hat, I know you are very human.” Fang Kun smiled lightly, then he patted George Han on the shoulder and smiled: “A man like you, broke and died. Isn’t it a great humiliation?”

“Think about it, people who are known as the epicentre of the Central Plains, in the end, died with such humiliation. Isn’t that a great irony?”

“So, George Han, you can’t die so quickly. . ” “

both for your dignity, but also for my super good show tomorrow you’re ready, I can assure you life, you will definitely be very interesting tomorrow. “ hearing this, Han three thousand brow Slightly wrinkled, tomorrow?

Isn’t that the happy day for Fang Kun to get married?

What does this have to do with him torturing himself? !

However, even though he couldn’t figure it out, seeing the vicious expression on Fang Kun’s face and the unbearable triumph in his eyes, George Han also knew that there was definitely something serious about this guy, otherwise it wouldn’t be the case.

This really makes George Han quite interested, what will this guy do tomorrow.

“Well, since you have said so sincerely, I will also promise you that I will live till tomorrow and taste your main course.” George Han laughed softly.

With George Han's words, Fang Kun became even more arrogant and happy.

"Okay, what a gentleman?"

George Han didn't want to make a gentleman's agreement with him. Is he worthy?

"However, there is a word I want to remind you." George Han smiled.

"What?" Fang Kun was taken aback.

"Be careful when cooking. Your grandfather should have taught you a saying, children play with fire, that is bedwetting, if you wet the bed, ha ha, tomorrow will be embarrassing, I am afraid it is you." George Han laughed softly.

When Fang Kun heard the words, he was taken aback, but then he sneered: "I hope you can still be so sharp at this time tomorrow."

After finishing speaking, Fang Kun got up and looked coldly at the way that the chain was unlocked and he was back. The male guard of George Han smiled and said, "Good luck." After leaving a word, Fang Kun slowly left with a group of people...
