

His True Colors Novel Chapter 28230– 2831

Chapter 2830

George Han has a jade ice bead in his hands, which can continuously produce cold air, and because it has the body of a jade ice bead, the cold air it releases is also the purest and most massive of.

If the Ice God can help, he can certainly help Amelia Su suppress Rootless Poison to the maximum extent. After that, relying on his purest jade ice beads, it can more or less make Rootless Poison's attack less painful. .

Thinking of this, Su Yan said anxiously: "I will invite him over now."

"Miss Su." Amelia Su called her out, smiled at her, and shook her head: "Just as you said, I have Yubing. The bead is the ice god respected by thousands of people in the desert world. In other words, the jade ice bead and the ice god are almost equal. You let an ice god will be the treasure of the body and bring it to Amelia Su to suppress the illness. , Isn't it a fantasy?"

"I think, although Miss Su likes the ice god, but because she likes it, she knows the truth better, right?" Amelia Su said.

How did Amelia Su know that if the two really met, let alone Xiaoxiaoyu Bingzhu, even if it wanted all of George Han, then what? !

On the other side, when he heard this, the joy on Su Yan's face also completely stopped. Yes, the jade ice bead is a symbol of the ice god. It is self-evident how precious it is to suppress the illness. A bit.

But she killed Amelia Su like this, so what would she care about? !

At the moment of embarrassment and self-blame, Su Yan suddenly turned his gaze to the box on the table and the piece of paper falling on the ground.

Suddenly, her brows wrinkled slightly, and then, she bent down and walked over and gently picked up the paper.

"Miss Su, is this a map?" Su Yan shouted, and then carefully unfolded the drawing completely.

I don't know it, but I was shocked when I saw it, the place depicted on the entire map turned out to be the entire desert world!

However, there is a route mark on it, and following the direction it is located all the way north, it turned out to be the Burning Bone City of the Demon Race.

“If you want to solve the rootless poison, see you in Burning Bone City.” After the book, eight red letters are looming! Su Yan suddenly looked frosty, what does this mean?

She stared at Amelia Su in a daze: “I think this may have been a conspiracy from beginning to end!”

“Someone wants to use me to send this thing in front of you, lead you to poison, and then push you to Burning Bone. City.” Su Yan understood immediately, frowning and looking at Amelia Su.

She tried to recall the appearance of the old man, the strange thing is that he can still remember his general appearance and dress, and even who she remembered every detail, but the old man’s looks, but becomes abnormal fuzzy she Obviously, she had talked with the old man in person, and the two were directly face-to-face. Naturally, she knew very well what the old man looked like.

But, why is it completely vague when I think about it now, and even... you can’t even remember what he looked like?

Headache, Yufa headache, Su Yan tried harder to think, her head became more and more painful: “How could this happen? I can’t remember his appearance...”

Amelia Su hurriedly dragged her weak body. , Stood up strong, and a burst of energy protected her mind. After her mood stabilized, Amelia Su said calmly: “If you can’t think of it, don’t think about it. Just like you said, someone deliberately set up this game.”

“Moreover, it should be. He is a very powerful master.” To be able to obliterate other people’s impressions so miraculously, this kind of superb strength is obviously not something that people can do.

But who is it that will set up such a big picture for himself?

If it is a deep hatred, Amelia Su can’t think of anyone other than the Fuye family, but the question is, does Amelia Su, the top person of the Fuye family, still don’t understand? !

They simply cannot have such a master.

Even if it was Lu Ruoxin, she was already dependent on her now, and she was even more unlikely to send a master of the Lu family to forcibly take herself away from the desert city. This was obviously completely contrary to her original intention.

But besides these, who else can it be? !

Su Yan didn’t understand, but one thing was very clear...

Chapter 2831

If the city of burning bones can relieve Amelia Su's rootless poison, then he has the obligation and responsibility to take Amelia Su with him.

How did Su Yan know that because of this, their Su family was forced to be involved in a pre-arranged fate.

"Miss Su, I heard that there are some jade ice beads in the Su family, right?" Amelia Su returned to her senses and asked softly.

Yes, but not much." "Can you take some for me?" Amelia Su's face was a little pale, and her words tended to be weak.

"Girl, you want to..."

Amelia Su nodded: "Although I am not a person in the desert, but I have heard Dong Ju mentioned that Fang and Su's family has always been good friends, but the four families are the same, and it is indispensable to fight against each other. If you and me Once it becomes a spearhead, the consequences are unimaginable. Since Miss Su said that coldness can slightly suppress the poison, then..."

"I hurt you like this, but you have to think about me everywhere, Su Yan is ashamed." Su Yan heard these words. I could not help lowering my head: "The outside world has long been rumored that the Fang family has married a saint. Now it seems that it is not false."

"However, please don't worry, Miss Su, it is because of Su Yan. In any case, Su Yan will help Miss Su. Eliminate rootless poison." After Su Yan finished speaking, she looked at Amelia Su with sincerity in her eyes.

Amelia Su smiled sadly, wanting to say something that is unnecessary, but seeing that Su Yan's ashamed eyes were full of firmness, she couldn't bear to refuse, and nodded slightly.

"I'll let Luzhu go to fetch it." After speaking, Su Yan quickly got up, opened the door and gave Luzhu a few words, then quickly returned and closed the door, helping Amelia Su to come to the bed to rest.

After a while, Green Pearl sneaked over with a few small jade ice beads, Su Yan placed them in the sachet, and fed Amelia Su a fiery red pill.

"Little jade ice beads can help you lower your body temperature, and the energy of this fire sand pill can protect your body from being hurt by the cold."

"How about it, do you feel better now?"

“If it still doesn’t work, I can ask the ice god for help. Even if the true jade ice beads can’t be borrowed, I can always help suppress them.”

Amelia Su slightly grasped Su Yan’s hand. He smiled and shook his head at her: “To preserve the reputation of the Su family and Miss Su, the less people know about this, the better?” Su Yan still wanted to speak, but Amelia Su spoke again: “Besides, if the Fang family knew that he had married a poisonous woman, how could the face be preserved in front of all the guests?”

Su Yan knew that Amelia Su was obviously looking for excuses for herself. Su Yan was moved and stopped talking, but in her heart she regarded the kind-hearted Amelia Su as her friend, nodded silently, and sat back by the bed.

“I think Miss Su is not only beautiful, but her makeup is also exquisite. If Miss Su is deeply sorry, how about Miss Su dressing up for Amelia Su?”

Su Yan’s heart quickly melted, saying so, but in fact First, I want to use makeup to make myself feel better, and second, I don’t want her own state to be known by Dongju and others. If such a girl is obtained by a good person, how can a husband ask for it?

“Okay” Su Yan nodded and glanced at Lu Zhu, who got up and hurried to set up the dressing table.

Su Yan gently lifted Amelia Su up, and slowly walked towards the dressing table...

At this moment, inside the room far away.

Compared to the silence and sadness here, there is...

hysteria!

“Oh!” “Oh!”

“Sweet

“Here, here, and here...”

Even if the door is closed, people outside can clearly hear someone in the room. The waves inside shouted.

Sometimes high-pitched, sometimes comfortable, sometimes extremely ecstasy.

In the room, George Han closed his brows, lying on the bed depressed, and even wished to put a protective energy shield on his head, not wanting to be polluted by the noise of pangolins.

In the other part of the room, the pangolin has four girls alone, massages, and beauties feeding. The whole person is so refreshing that he is almost up to the sky. The leisurely appearance, not in the fairyland, is better than the fairyland.

In the front hall of the Fang family, as the salute first sounded, the servants of the Fang family dressed in festive costumes to separate everyone, opening the door to welcome the guests.

The Fang family's wedding has also officially opened...
