

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2880 - 2881

Chapter 2880

A group of people suddenly frowned, especially Su Yan and Lu Zhu, who looked at each other almost incomprehensibly.

If what Huazhou did was not for something special, it would be impossible to stop suddenly!

But now, Huazhou stopped suddenly, obviously indicating something was wrong.

George Han suddenly jumped up from the bed, ignoring the injuries on his body, and rushed directly outside. The stop of Huazhou means that there may be something left to say. The most important thing is that George Han can't see Amelia Su at this time. .

However, when George Han rushed to the deck, there was no one on the deck, and the surrounding Huazhou was also extremely empty. Although the scenery was not beautiful, it was at least calm and no enemy attacked!

George Han frowned, and a trace of badness rose in his heart. The next second, he rushed back to the second floor and ran all the way to Amelia Su's room.

When the door was pushed open, George Han's heart suddenly became cold. Sure enough, the house was clean and tidy, but Amelia Su's simple luggage disappeared.

When he contacted the ship to stop, George Han slammed his fist on the door of the room depressedly. Then, he rushed back to the deck again, and a flying body flew down directly from the ship.

And almost as soon as George Han flew out of the ship, George Han suddenly discovered that under the huge hull, a slender figure was slowly walking away from the ship's side.

"Amelia Su!" George Han fell behind her, looked at her back, and couldn't help shouting a little angry.

Hearing George Han's voice, Amelia Su was taken aback for a moment, and then speeded up her pace.

George Han gritted his teeth, followed Amelia Su a few steps, grabbed her hand, and pulled her in front of him. Looking at Amelia Su's face, George Han said worriedly: "Are you crazy? Get off the boat privately? "

Where are you going?"

"This desert land stretches for thousands of miles, where can you go?"

Seeing George Han worrying about himself, with a caring tone in his reproach, Amelia Su was a little silent, only walking not far, but because he was too high. The temperature, and the whole person is sweating, she lowered her head slightly: "I...I don't know, I just want to..."

"If you don't want to sit in the same boat with me, you don't need to be so, I'll go That's it." After George Han finished speaking, he turned and left. Amelia Su hurriedly grabbed George Han's hand and shook her head desperately at him: "Without the protection of Huazhou, you will be hot, thirsty, and scorched in the desert.

"Even you Amelia Su are not afraid? Will I be afraid of George Han? How can I say that I am higher than your cultivation level, if you can, why can't I?" George Han turned around to question, and put up another hand, he wanted Move Amelia Su's hand away.

Amelia Su hurriedly grasped George Han tighter, and shook her head desperately at George Han nervously, and tears were also a little unsatisfactory in her eyes.

"No, no..."

Amelia Su glanced at George Han. Seeing George Han patiently looking at her, she didn't urge.

"I think we will only cause endless trouble when we are together, so, instead of that, it's better to..." "It's better to leave without your own life, right?" George Han looked at her and was extremely angry for a while.

Amelia Su nodded. Last night, when she saw George Han fight, and then saw George Han come back from his wounds, and almost fainted, Lu Ruoxin's words kept ringing in her mind.

As a wife, you will never bring any benefit to George Han, but will only allow him to constantly touch troubles, rub shoulders with life and death, and even one day, meet an outsider, the mountains outside the mountains, and will be wiped out.

Yes, I met from the Fang family in the desert city. Before I met George Han, he lived a life of wealth and honor that he could see and was regarded as a guest of honor.

But since I met her, there have been successive battles!

Isn't this enough to explain the problem? !

"Okay, it's me who should go more." At the end of the word, George Han directly threw away Amelia Su this time, and walked into the distance in quick steps.

Amelia Su suddenly panicked and wanted to chase after a few steps, but the sand turned extremely, because she was too anxious, she didn't catch a few steps, and her feet slid suddenly, and she staggered and fell to the ground on the spot, looking at George Han. With the leaving figure, she could only cry in anxiousness.

Fortunately, at this time, George Han seemed to be aware of the strangeness, stopped his figure, and slowly turned his head back...

Chapter 2881

Seeing teary eyes whirling, Chu Chu, poor Amelia Su, how can George Han feel better in his heart?

He really didn't understand why Amelia Su was like this? Could it be that she is really with her again, is she completely tired of this kind of life? !

Perhaps this is the final answer.

She may still love herself, so she will still care about herself, but loving someone does not mean that she has to accompany him to live a life of worry and fear.

Without saying more, George Han turned back gently, helped Amelia Su up, and then silently led her back to Huazhou.

Before everyone could say anything, George Han had already got into the cabin alone.

When Qin Shuang and Su Yan saw this, they were anxious for a while, but they looked back at Amelia Su, but they didn't know how to persuade them. Who is right and who is wrong about their husband and wife, and how should outsiders intervene? !

The only thing they can do is to gently blame Amelia Su for doing such a stupid thing, but they can't go too far, so as not to irritate Amelia Su again, after all, she just did not get off the boat.

Su Yan glanced at Lv Zhu. Although he didn't speak, his eyes clearly explained everything. Lv Zhu also understood everything. He quickly walked down to the bottom of the dock. Since then, Huazhou has had more rules. If there is no Su Yan or George Han ordered Huazhou to stop.

And almost at this time, George Han walked out of the inner layer with a large piece of cloth in his hand. He turned over the ink and laid the cloth flat on the deck. Several people looked at each other strangely, not knowing. What the hell is George Han doing?

George Han lifted his pen and ink and wrote a large Korean character on the cloth. After that, he retracted the cloth roll and got into the dock again.

Not long after, when George Han came out again, he already had a two-meter-long plank in his hand. He bent down and picked up the long cloth roll on the ground, and walked to Su Yan's face: "Miss Su, trouble. You are one thing."

Su Yan was obviously taken aback, not sure what George Han was going to do, but she nodded: "Sanqian, what do you want me to help you?"

"I borrowed the Xiaoyu ice beads on the Huazhou to use it." Although I don't know what George Han is going to do, the Huazhou was originally built by the Fang family for George Han, and he should want anything on this boat.

"I'll get it for you." Su Yan nodded and walked toward the dock.

George Han ordered: "You only need one or two."

Qin Shuang looked at Su Yan who was leaving. At this time, while supporting Amelia Su, he couldn't help staring at George Han: "Sanqian, what are you doing?"

George Han stared slightly, but did not reply, and he did not even look to this side.

Qin Shuang was anxious and looked at Amelia Su depressed. Obviously, Qin Shuang knew that George Han might be angry with Amelia Su, and he had to tie the bell to untie the bell!

However, Amelia Su felt Qin Shuang's eyes, but didn't make any action. Instead, she chose to avoid her eyes and moved her eyes aside.

Qin Shuang was speechless to the extreme, love quarrels are just so twisty!

But when Qin Shuang was speechless, Su Yan had already walked back again with a few small jade ice beads in a box.

Gently handing the box to George Han, Su Yan whispered: "Three thousand, here!"
After

taking Su Yan's box, George Han took back his eyes and glanced at Su Yan again. Looking at Qin Shuang, he looked at Amelia Su who looked elsewhere.

After all, he nodded in disappointment. In the next second, George Han stopped talking nonsense. He carried the plank on his body and wrapped the cloth in his hand, and walked to the edge of the ship deck in a few steps.

Then, under the shock of the women, George Han suddenly turned over and jumped off.

The three women suddenly felt anxious and rushed to the stern of the ship. Could it be that George Han was irritated by Amelia Su. Either he jumped off the ship and prepared to commit suicide, or he was going to copy Amelia Su's thing again and leave the ship again?

Although everyone's impression of George Han is calm and very calm, but who knows that people in love will lose half their sanity or even be cleared. If George Han does anything impulsive, it is normal.

But when the women rushed to the end of the dock and looked down, they couldn't help but be dumbfounded...
