

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2896 - 2897

Chapter 2896

looking at George Han's shocked and unaware look, Qinglong and the others couldn't help laughing at each other. Regarding this situation, the enemy's reaction, the Twelve Death Gods in the Desert had long been unaware. The habit has become natural after seeing how much.

Even, in many cases, they regard the astonishing and foolish performance of their opponents as a kind of capital for talking and laughing.

But all of a sudden, George Han was taken aback for a moment and fixed his gaze on the strange rune on this group of people.

In the previous fight, although the twelve had a square formation and deliberate offensive and defensive systems, this strange rune did not appear on them.

Until the strange dodge and even stranger recovery...could it be

...what thaumaturgy did they use? !

Or is it a strange array like Dunjia?

Qi Men Dunjia?

Suddenly, George Han's eyes shrank suddenly. The so-called Qiankun Gossip, Heavenly Stems and Earthly Branches, these twelve zodiac signs correspond to Zi Chou Yinmao, Chensi Noon, and Shenyou Xuhai twelve Earthly Branches!

It's impossible! ?

"Cosmic gossip? Reverse yin and yang?" George Han suddenly raised his head and stared at Qinglong closely!

Hearing George Han's words, Qinglong and the other twelve people's smiles suddenly solidified, and they were obviously taken aback. However, Qinglong turned to smile again: "You can't see that you are quite smart."

Niutou broke his own. Fingers: "After all, it is also the fourteen thousand seven hundred and eleven of our men who know that they are the dead souls of Qiankun gossip."

"But, what's the use of knowing?" Niu Tau finished, looking suspicious. To my brothers.

The group of people suddenly laughed again, and the sarcasm couldn't be more obvious.

Yes, they have killed countless people, and their bodies can fill a sinkhole, but there are also many smart people in each, and they can quickly reflect the skills they use.

But knowing their methods is another thing, and whether or not they can break their laws is another thing.

“I understand.” George Han sighed slightly. When he arrived, he finally knew why he had only been close at hand several times in a row, and he had missed consecutively under a steady attack.

It's not that he has a problem, and it's definitely not that night chicken and mad dog will hide!

Gossip!

Universe gossip!

The runes on these twelve people are interlocked with each other to form a big formation similar to gossip. Every time George Han attacks, these guys use the power of gossip to judge the universe, use the heavenly stems and earthly branches to calculate themselves. Offense! is the so-called Divination!

It's just that, compared to others who may only assist in divination, these twelve guys are likely to be the hexagrams themselves. They are also very comparable to what they need to calculate!

As for all the restoration just now, it is very easy to understand on this basis.

The so-called Tai Chi produces two instruments, two instruments produce four images, and four images produce gossip. It is not only gossip, but also means that the universe is all-encompassing!

They reverse yin and yang, and act against it!

Thinking of this, George Han couldn't help but draw a sneer from the corner of his mouth. Now, he finally understands why Mad Dog and Ye Ji are so bold, and he also understands better that these guys keep forcing themselves to beat them, why on earth!

Humiliating yourself is the next thing, consuming yourself is the real thing!

“Am I right?” George Han looked at Qinglong coldly.

Qinglong smiled slightly, then clapped his hands and clapped his hands.

All reversals happen to everyone, but they only exclude themselves. In this way, not only the confused self is very confused, but the key is to continuously consume energy in this process.

When they are almost playing and feel that they have humiliated themselves enough, everything will be removed.

Even though George Han was better than them, at that time, George Han was probably already exhausted. It was just a lamb to be slaughtered in their eyes!

This is not difficult to understand. They can claim to be the so-called twelve death gods in the desert. Needless to say, those who are weaker than them will naturally be played by them.

“It’s easy to talk.” Qinglong smiled lightly, and then said: “It’s all tricks of carving insects, it’s not worth mentioning.”

“But it’s just such a small thing, but you can’t break this trash, you can only be trapped to death, hey, trash is trash.”

Hearing this, everyone laughed.

And at this time, George Han suddenly cracked his mouth and laughed...

Chapter 2897

“Hahahaha, is this fool also crazy?”

“We laughed, and he laughed too?”

“What a fool, it seems that he has been mentally broken by us.”

“Haha Maybe people use this method to force a wave of momentum.”

Seeing George Han smile, a group of people suddenly sneered.

However, in the face of their ridicule, George Han didn’t care at all, and even smiled very happily.

Maybe it was George Han who laughed too naturally, and maybe Xu Qinglong was cautious by nature. He took the lead to stop laughing, looked at George Han, and said, “Brother, the disaster is approaching, and you still laughed? You can tell us that you are smiling. What is it?”

“This gossip is always changing, and people who have seen it know its power and subtlety well, so it means to worship. This is a smile.”

“Then what is the second smile?”

“Two It’s just a laugh. I think you’re doing it backwards. Although the art of the universe is powerful, but...it’s a pity that I met me.” George Han shook his head after speaking, “It was a sad thing at first. It happens to be an old saying that I will always meet me if I walk a lot at night. Unfortunately, I am your ghost.”

“But what is sad for you, isn’t it happy for me?”

Hear Han Three thousand explanations, Qinglong is angry and angry, what kind of evil is this? But if you savor it carefully, this product seems to make sense, and you can’t refute it for a while!

“In this way, how do you know how to break my brother’s wonderful works?” Qinglong asked cautiously.

Before George Han could speak, at this time, the group of people beside Qinglong had already scolded.

“Grass, brother, don’t listen to this kid bragging, fuck, just rely on him to break our brother’s law?”

“Who wouldn’t brag about this kind of thing? I can also say that Lao Tzu has fought the three true gods, and they are all defeated by Lao Tzu.”

“Young people, bragging must be modest, otherwise you will not be able to brag about yourself. Instead, it will make oneself a laughingstock. The ignorant may be innocent because he is stupid.”

“Hahahaha!” A

group of people didn’t put George Han in their eyes, or even looked down on George Han at all. They are extremely confident in the exercises of their twelve brothers. After all, even if they were imprisoned back then, everyone in the entire desert, including those masters, did not crack this method, but used other methods, a temporary seal in exchange for huge sacrifices.

So they not only have crazy capital, but also have reasons to be proud!

George Han smiled softly, and didn’t put these slanders and ridicules in his eyes. For Qinglong’s question, George Han answered simply: “The problem is not big.”

“Fuck you, it’s still here .” Bragging, eldest brother, lazy talk nonsense with him, let’s kill him together.”

“That’s right, I’ve played with it anyway, this kid is just a rubbish in our eyes, just an ant. , Squeeze him to death.” When they heard George Han’s words, especially when they saw George Han’s expression that was not afraid, or even panicked, they became angry.

For them, George Han should be like everyone else at this time, full of hesitation and helplessness, and even knelt down pitifully begging for mercy, instead of daring to speak to them with a straight face!

This is unacceptable and unforgivable behavior!

Qinglong was also very angry, but he didn't rush to do it. Instead, he looked at George Han seriously, thinking about the truth or falsehood of this guy's words.

He can despise or ignore George Han, but the problem is that they can release themselves and others to deal with George Han. In fact, it also shows that George Han is quite capable, and the fight just now also confirms this.

If he really has a way to break the move, they will suffer if he rushes to attack.

“Big brother, what are you still hesitating about? This kid is clearly pretending to be here, you must never stop his way.”

“That's right, I can guarantee that as long as we do it, this guy can only be one Grandson begging for mercy!”

Seeing Qinglong not moving, several other weird people said anxiously.

The corners of Qinglong's eyes were shrinking. There was some truth to this. It was already clear to George Han that he had lost the game. Thinking about this, Qinglong gritted his teeth, waved his hand, and started to do it!

But at this moment, George Han suddenly shouted: “Hold on!”

Persuaded? !
