

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2906 - 2907

Chapter 2906

George Han didn't speak, and gently leaned to Qinglong's ear next to him and whispered a few words. Qinglong was shocked, but after thinking about it, he finally nodded.

Then, George Han smiled, loosened the rope that bound them, and flew directly back to Huazhou.

And as George Han flew back to the deck, at this time there should be a lot of people in black on the deck, but there were only thousands of corpses. How could there be a living person visible? !

Almost at the moment when the twelve death gods were defeated, these people in black had already fled after hearing the wind. Where is there any sign now? !

After removing the wooden cabinet, George Han slowly came to the cabin, and Amelia Su and the others rushed out to greet him. When they met in the corridor, Amelia Su had already burst into tears.

But just when Amelia Su wanted to rush to hug George Han, George Han did not open his arms. Instead, he looked at Qin Shuang and whispered, "Senior sister, please help me lock the entrance to the second floor."

Qin Shuang didn't dare. To the effect, hurriedly went.

"Waiting for Senior Sister Qin Shuang to lock the door, Amelia Su you let Senior Sister come to my room. You guys rest early." After speaking, George Han turned around and walked all the way to his room.

Looking at the back of George Han leaving, Amelia Su's sad tears were full of decline in her eyes.

What's wrong? Is Sancheon angry with himself? !

Seeing Amelia Su's depression, Su Yan gently patted her on the back, and softly comforted: "Three thousand should have an urgent matter to discuss with Senior Sister Qin Shuang."

Amelia Su nodded.

When Qin Shuang locked the door of the second floor entrance, he hurried to George Han's room after learning about George Han from Amelia Su. Although she was very curious, why did George Han call herself instead of Amelia Su.

However, thinking that there might be other things in the ship that needed to be explained, Qin Shuang didn't think too much.

As soon as Qin Shuang closed the door of George Han's room, the whole person looked startled in the next second, because at this time, blood was sprinkled on the floor in George Han's room and spread all the way to the bed.

At this time, George Han on the bed, even though he was lying on it dying, his right hand was still slightly releasing energy, and this energy was actually wrapped in blood!

"Three thousand, what's the matter with you? Don't worry, I'll call someone to come and help." Qin Shuang said, he wanted to go out. But at this moment, George Han's hand grabbed her arm, shook her head slightly at her, and smiled weakly: "I called you here, just don't want Amelia Su to worry. Go call her..."

"You just deliberately indifferent to her just now, that's..."

George Han nodded, he was always bracing, and moving the huge cabinet before entering the cabin made him almost unable to collapse. , So as soon as he came in, he just wanted to hurry up and arrange everything while deliberately distracting Amelia Su.

Qin Shuang looked at the miserable appearance of George Han's blood at this time. Everyone is the weakest. When the pain is the most painful, he hopes the one he loves to take care of himself, but what this guy wants is that he doesn't want Amelia Su to worry.

"I'm really mad at you." Qin Shuang complained, but still sat down, a piece that can really be placed on George Han's shoulders.

"If I'm right, you have been unleashing your true energy, so that your blood does not directly touch the floor, so as not to corrode the floor and cause movement. Then, will you alarm Amelia Su?" Qin Shuang helped George Han luck Healed, but asked softly.

George Han smiled weakly and nodded, which is true.

Seeing George Han's appearance, how could Qin Shuang not envy Amelia Su?

"The problem is, with your attitude, Amelia Su didn't seem to be too happy just now. You know, she has been thinking too much recently, I think..." Qin Shuang hadn't finished speaking, but the meaning was obvious.

George Han understood that she was worried about herself for a long time, but she did not even respond to a hug when she came back, nodded, and George Han muttered: "I know she might be angry because of it, but as you said, Sister Sister, Amelia Su is now in a sensitive period. If I let her know that I was seriously injured again, do you think she will be more resolute when she leaves Huazhou next time?"

Qin Shuang was speechless when she heard George Han's words. Obviously, if you have to choose, George Han's choice is right.

"By the way, what about the remaining nine gods of death? I think that after you got on the boat, they also followed the boat, but..."

But there was no sign of attack on it, but there were still formations. The sound of this proves that this group of people neither left nor fought. What are they going to do?

Chapter 2907

Hearing this, George Han smiled slightly: "By the way, when you talk about it, nine more sets of tableware will be added to the boat in the future. They guys should be washing the deck, right?"

"Huh?" Qin Shuangyi Frozen: "Three thousand, you didn't kid me? You mean..."

"There are too few people on the ship, and Amelia Su doesn't care about me. Isn't there still some time and distance to go to Burning Bone City? While nine people are now bodyguards, at least someone can accompany me to chat and play chess." George Han said.

Hearing this, Qin Shuang glared at George Han: "It's not serious."

George Han smiled helplessly: "The nine people are extremely proficient in the art of Yin and Yang gossip. If you are fine, you can talk to them. Besides, outside If something happens, you can't always rely on you to help me protect Amelia Su and Nian'er. Although these nine guys are not very powerful offensive methods, people who know the heavens and earthly branches should have no problem trying to escape."

"But the problem is that these people, I heard Su Yan say, they are not good people. They were thinking about how to kill you last second. It is inevitable that in the future..."

George Han smiled lightly and took a strange string. When it came out, there were three beads of different colors: "You give this thing to Amelia Su as a gift from me."

"What is this?" Qin Shuang looked at the not beautiful chain for a moment. Some doubts.

"You can just give Amelia Su, let her bring her on the dazzling place in her hand, if any of the nine monsters are in trouble, just squeeze these three beads." George Han smiled.

Qin Shuang was puzzled, but he still put the string away as George Han ordered.

How did she know that these three beads were ordinary beads, they were just beads made from the dead bodies of the three "death gods".

George Han had basically tried out the effects of these three beads from Qinglong.

The reason why the twelve of them are so close and cooperative is obviously not because of brotherhood that is unknown for many years. More importantly, this is their life jewel, and their twelve life jewels are connected.

Once the life orb of any one of them is broken, it will be a fatal blow to their other eleven brothers, because once the life orb is broken, it means that the person with the life orb will die forever, and the others will suffer. What kind of influence is naturally known.

This was also the guess that George Han caused after hearing Qinglong say that they were the twelve magic beads on the magic disk, and even after killing three people and turning them into beads.

What I didn't expect was that George Han's conjecture was extremely accurate.

This also allowed George Han to take the initiative in that deal with them, and let him, who had the upper hand, take the initiative, and finally complete that, in Qinglong's words, is a shameful unequal treaty.

"By the way, did you ask them who sent them?" Qin Shuang finished speaking, frowning: "I heard Su Yan said that these twelve people were all gangsters from a long time ago, many years ago. They have been sealed in the forbidden area, and their sudden appearance..."

George Han smiled: "As you said, they are famous bandits in the desert world, and then they were sealed, so who else has the ability to unblock them? Come out?"

"So, I don't need to ask more."

"As far as I am concerned, the more difficult it is for someone to release them, the more I don't want to kill them. After all, what a pity it is to do this. , Let's make the most of it!" At this point, George Han smiled slightly, because these guys still have an important role for George Han. It was just this effect that George Han did not say at this time, because as Qin Shuang slightly increased his efforts, George Han was left with screams.

At this time, just a few hundred miles away after George Han Huazhou, a larger flower boat is slowly following...

and on board...
