

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2910 - 2911

Chapter 2910

“Senior Sister Qin Shuang?” Seeing the person, Amelia Su was puzzled: “Didn’t San Qian tell you to go to his room? What are you doing?”

“I found something in the aisle, as if it should be you “Yes.” Qin Shuang’s face was cold, as if it were covered in snow, frozen for thousands of miles, and looked like a stranger should not get close.

“Something?” Amelia Su frowned. When she saw Qin Shuang taking out a letter from her hand, she was even more puzzled.

letter? !

Who will give her a letter? !

These few people in the boat are not necessary, right? But besides the person in the ship, who else can it be? ! After George Han came down, he asked Qin Shuang to lock the door on the second floor, so it was impossible for an outsider to give the letter to him.

“Senior Sister Qin Shuang, how could there be a letter?” Amelia Su couldn’t help being confused and asked.

Qin Shuang shook his head: “I don’t know, but when I came to look for you, I saw your name on it in the aisle.”

Amelia Su looked down, and sure enough, there were three words Amelia Su in the letter.

“By the way, Senior Sister Qin Shuang, what are you looking for? Isn’t there anything about George Han?” Amelia Su obviously cares more about George Han than this strange letter of unknown origin.

“You’d better read the letter before speaking.” Qin Shuang said.

Amelia Su still wanted to say something, but seeing Qin Shuang’s firm eyes, she nodded and tore open the envelope in front of Qin Shuang’s face.

In view of the map last time, Amelia Su has an extra heart and is prepared for it. However, the letter paper is very ordinary white paper, nothing else. When the letter is opened, there are a few black pen characters on the letter, even ink. It hasn’t completely solidified yet.

“The catastrophe accompanies the tiger, like a tiger falling in the sun. The life’s destiny is irreversible, and it is good to do it for yourself.”

Seeing these big words on the letter, Amelia Su's face suddenly became cold, and her pupils opened slightly, obviously shocked.

If others don't know the meaning of this letter, then she may be the clearest person in the world, and there is no one.

The disaster star is her, and the tiger is naturally George Han. This is what Lu Ruoxin said to herself at the beginning. The meaning is also very obvious. A woman like her will only drag George Han back in her life and bring him endless trouble. The Fang family had friendship with the Lu family. Presumably, she already knew about the Fang family's revenge, so writing this letter was both a warning and a reminder of herself!

Thinking of this, Amelia Su felt a pain in her heart. In fact, recalling the time when she met George Han, disasters and difficulties were plagued. Indeed, as Lu Ruoxin said, the disaster star accompanied the tiger, like a tiger falling in Pingyang.

No one knows what kind of danger George Han will face if it continues!

But, just as Qin Shuang said, she loves George Han, and George Han also loves her, why is she really willing to put down George Han? !

But when Amelia Su looked at Qin Shuang, Qin Shuang's expression was cold: "Maybe she is right, you should leave George Han."

"What?" Amelia Su was taken aback. If anyone said this, she would be surprised, but it is Qin Shuang!

She couldn't understand.

Because Qin Shuang has been criticizing his own practice for a long time. Even last night he had a long conversation with himself for a whole night. This changed his mind. He even made a special cooking for George Han today. But at this time, Qin Shuang suddenly changed this view

Qin Shuang's mouth slightly drawn, cold smile as a sword of ice and snow general: "Han almost three thousand dead, you know?" "but just in You just hold it up in front of you."

Amelia Su was shocked when he heard this: "Senior Sister Qin Shuang, what are you talking about? Three thousand him..."

"What do you think he asked me to enter the house for? It was just asking me to help take care of him." Well, as for why he didn't call you, he was afraid that you were worried." Qin Shuang said coldly.

“George Han has died for you many times, every time he barely survived by luck, or someone helped him, or he had an adventure, but Amelia Su, you think that a person’s life can be lived by luck. ?”

“Maybe I wanted you to be together before, but after experiencing George Han’s life and death once again, I have had enough.” Qin Shuang finished speaking and looked at Amelia Su coldly. “So...”

“Amelia Su!”

Chapter 2911

Amelia Su took a step back in a daze. If Qin Shuang was the pillar that allowed her to change her original idea, then her words now are equivalent to letting everything fall directly.

For a while, she couldn’t find any reason to persevere against Buddha, and she couldn’t even find an excuse to persevere for a while.

“Even a man like Fang Kun who has a relationship with you will not escape death in the end. Maybe Lu Ruoxin is right. You are really a disaster star.”

Looking back on the past, Qin Shuang seems to have something to say if you look at it extreme . reason.

“There are many people who change their lives against the sky, but the ones who are really successful, even in the long river of history, how many people are there? And you Amelia Su doesn’t have the strength to change your life, so why put this pressure on George Han? ? “

Having said that, Qinshuang sighed:.” desert border community as well as a day’s journey, you have a good think clearly it ‘

. “burn after watching the letter, I went back to take care of three thousand of the” finished, turn Qinshuang Turned around, slammed the door and left.

Amelia Su dropped her hands weakly, and then sat down on the bed with a decadent ass.

All of a sudden, Lu Ruoxin’s words and Qin Shuang’s words kept ringing in Amelia Su’s heart. She could do nothing for love, and nothing could threaten her!

But what if this love is just a bondage in the name of love? Isn’t that insisting? Is that shameless? !

Han Nian stretched out his little hand, trying to wipe Amelia Su's tears, but because he was not tall enough, he could only climb onto the bed and hugged Amelia Su tightly with a pair of little hands.

"Mom doesn't cry, mom, Aunt Qin Shuang said you are a disaster star, which is nothing but nonsense. Nian'er told Dad that Aunt Qin Shuang is a badass."

Amelia Su had tears in her eyes, a smile in her tears, and she touched affectionately. I touched Han Nian's head and looked at this girl, all feelings became more mixed for a while.

Maybe she would be very painful without her biological mother, but she no longer needs to be poisoned, no longer need to be imprisoned, let alone suffer such twists and turns! According to Lu Ruoxin's words, George Han will be the only son-in-law of the Lu family, so Han Nian should naturally be the jewel in the palm of the Blue Mountain!

The Lu family may not agree, but San Qian will definitely give her this treatment!

Han Nian at that time, George Han at that time, how beautiful should it be?

Lie ten thousand people on top, hold the world's life!

And the current situation, frightened and frightened, hovering on the edge of life and death at any time!

Comparing the two, the high judgment was reached. Perhaps, Lu Ruoxin was right, and even Senior Sister Qin Shuang, who had always cared about him, now fell to that side.

Maybe, I should really think about this issue.

And Qin Shuang, who left Amelia Su's room, returned to George Han's room all the way, but when she closed the door again, suddenly, her eyes suddenly flashed red, and her body was even more intense. There is a faint red light.

She only felt that the whole person was extremely hot and hot. Looking at George Han who was lying on the bed, the cold and bloodthirsty eyes suddenly changed to desire intertwined.

On the bed, George Han's complexion was slightly cold, his eyes closed, and he was completely in a coma. However, almost the same as Qin Shuang, there was also a faint redness on the surface of George Han at this time. Light is looming!

The red lights between the two echoed each other, flashing and concealing each other.

Qin Shuang locked the door with her backhand, and then walked slowly to George Han's bed. Looking at George Han for a moment, she suddenly used her jade hand to unfasten the light belt around her waist. Slightly lying on George Han's body again, following his buttons, untied them one by one.

Even the Bingshan beauty showed a smile at this time, but her smile was not as warm and charming as before after the ice and snow had passed. On the contrary, it was quite evil and ghostly!

This ordinary Qin Shuang is almost like two people.

As she smiled softly, she leaned down directly...
