

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2930 - 2931

Chapter 2930

The

shell of the tortoise is still lying there quietly, neither cracked nor damaged, everything is the same as before.

A bunch of people are confused, it's okay? !

But at this moment, the tortoise shell moved slightly, and then, under everyone's attention, the tortoise man slowly crawled out of the tortoise shell.

Uncomfortable, very uncomfortable!

Although the tortoise shell can indeed keep him safe, the huge impact caused by the grandson George Han falling from the sky is not small. The loud sound in his hidden jade tortoise shell almost shattered his eardrums, even The ears couldn't hear anything at one time, and people were confused in it.

"Fuck, are you idiot sick?" As soon as he got better, Turtleman couldn't help but yelled at George Han.

Damn, this bitch is so annoying.

If you want to hit you, hit it hard, fuck, what kind of thing is this?

"It was a waste of wise tortoises, but today I was unlucky enough to let a fool give such a pass."

"Although I won, it looks like I lost again."

A group of monsters whispered and couldn't hide the amusement in their hearts.

It's as if you squeeze a bug to death, but it's just as easy to squeeze a bug, but when it's dying, the bug sprays stinky fart on your hand.

It can't be said to be disgusting, it can only be said that the person involved is speechless to the extreme!

Amelia Su looked back and looked at George Han strangely.

Didn't you want to ask what happened to the Turtleman? It can be seen that the tortoise man is not only alive and kicking, but even utterly cursing, what seems to be the problem?

She was so puzzled, and Qin Shuang, Su Yan and others were so puzzled.

At this time, George Han looked at the turtle indifferently, not at all angry because of his cursing, nor was he shaken by the suspicion of Amelia Su and others.

"Look, look, look at your mother!" Seeing George Han looking at him, Turtleman was out of anger.

I wanted to use George Han to show off his abilities in front of everyone and beautiful women, but in the end, when he encountered such a brain-dead, playing some embarrassing tricks of the wife, I felt a little embarrassed.

However, even though he yelled at him, George Han still didn't take his gaze back at this time, which made Turtleman's whole person suddenly furious, and the lost face must be found back!he gritted his teeth all at once, and his capacity went directly to George Han.

However, just after taking a step, a weird noise suddenly stopped him, and the whole person was directly stunned.

"DaDa....."

Then, there were several more sounds.

His brows were frowning, and it seemed that an unknown premonition was coming to life.

"Bang!"

Suddenly, a loud noise suddenly sounded.

When everyone looked around, they couldn't help but open their pupils.

The tortoise shell originally worn on the tortoise man, for some reason, suddenly fell apart with the huge muffled noise!

Like a tile on the roof, it was hit by a hurricane and shattered to the ground.

That was the majestic tortoise man, at this time he was the only one left, messy in the wind, hesitating on the tortoise slice!

"Wow!"

Everyone was shocked, and many people's smiles were fixed on their faces before they even had time to take them back.

“Wh...what?”

“He...he...he... actually broke the turtle man’s shell?”

“This... isn’t it true?” The turtle man’s shell is hard. How high it is, it is self-evident in the Youming City where killing is respected and the weak eats the strong.

In other words, tortoise people can have a certain status among this group of monsters, relying on being punched out. Naturally, those who recognize his status naturally recognize the toughness of his turtle shells.

Although he didn’t have much offensive ability, the hardness of the tortoise was unbelievable.

But... this guy, unexpectedly... actually smashed the tortoise shell directly, and still used that stupid way that almost everyone laughed... Not only them, but Su Ziwu and others collectively opened their eyes. , It was hard to believe what he saw before his eyes, even the meat sauce-like monster could not help but be dumbfounded at this time.

What the fuck is this operation? !

“How...how can...can?”

The tortoise man, who was also full of anger and domineering just now, was already full of horror...

Chapter 2931

shattered... shattered? !

George Han smiled contemptuously and looked at the turtle man indifferently: “What are you looking at me doing? I don’t like men, and besides, you are such an ugly person.”

“This...this is impossible, you...you, you “...”

“What are you? You can’t even say anything? Didn’t you just spray dung with your mouth full? Why? You don’t talk anymore?” At this point, George Han smiled suddenly: “I forgot, spray How can the dung stuff speak?”

Hearing these ridicules, if it were an ordinary tortoise man, he would have rushed up to teach George Han to get back, but now, he dare not.

He is scared!

Even the tortoise shell he is most proud of can be shredded. What qualifications and capital does he have to teach George Han? !

For many years, he could not win the opponent, but relying on the invincible tortoise shell defense he was facing, he could at least be invincible, but today, everything is broken!

Staggered back two steps, he shook his head, even if the eyes can see, but also hard to believe: "You you to hit me hard shell body, it has been broken, you but you really do not have the slightest thing?"

This It was the Turtleman that shocked the most.

Maybe someone in this world can restrain his tortoise shell, but what he imagined is at least the opponent's various magic weapons, and it is definitely not George Han's flesh and blood body.

"Excuse me, do you look at me like something is wrong?" George Han smiled slightly.

The tortoise shell of this turtle man is indeed hard enough. The extraordinary things can't help him. George Han has not thought of other methods. He has considered the jade sword and even the sky fire moon wheel, but George Han also uses himself. His fist has tried its hardness, I am afraid that all the things used above cannot help him.

It is not impossible to use the Five Elements Divine Stone to transform fire and water attacks, but this violates George Han's original intention to break his turtle shell.

Therefore, there is only one method left by George Han.

Take a head-to-head!

Although Turtleman's shell is strong, is George Han's defense poor? !

There is a top-level heavy armor defense like the Indestructible Profound Armor on the outside, and there is an excellent soft hedgehog like the Frost Jade Armor on the inside. So after thinking about it, George Han set up such a trick to head-on.

Although in the eyes of outsiders, George Han's move seemed extremely stupid, in George Han's heart it was the most perfect method.

Falling from a height of thousands of miles, the impact generated by it is extremely huge, coupled with the real acceleration of the oneself, under the inertial acceleration, the turtle shell and the two major defensive artifacts on the body can be the most perfect "short-handed connection"!

The result of the facts was naturally within George Han's expectations!

In the most hard comparison, even the very hard tortoise shell is totally unworthy.

So, the result is obvious!

“Niu Pian, this is the most damn method I have ever seen, but the fucking most amazing result.” The pangolin couldn’t help but complain.

Qinglong couldn’t help laughing helplessly. It was really absurd, but thinking about the fiasco night of a group of his brothers, this George Han’s gameplay was not only strange, but also always strange.

It’s like someone stabbing an elephant with a knife. It looks ridiculous, but it can always kill you with a knife!

Interesting, quite interesting!

Su Ziwu was also dumbfounded, but compared to other people, he didn’t have so many thoughts. At this moment, thousands of words were condensed into one sentence...

Nima, can you still play like this? !

The girls in Amelia Su were also dumbfounded, especially Amelia Su and Qin Shuang. Although they trusted George Han very much, they had to admit that they were suspicious of George Han’s actions.

But as usual, the answers George Han handed over were still of that standard.

Turtleman softened his ass to the ground, looking at George Han who was completely okay as if he had seen a ghost, and he couldn’t calm down at all.

“Is there anyone else going to play?” George Han swept away suddenly, staring at the other monsters present...
