

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2932 - 2933

Chapter 2932

As George Han's gaze struck, all the indomitable and arrogant monsters were all scared to take a step back.

In the killing world where strength is respected, you are not capable enough, and you will naturally be trampled on indefinitely, and even on your face with your feet, but if you are strong enough, it is equivalent to holding a big knife in front of all unarmed people. Naturally, they are also afraid of you. Naturally, they are human beings.

A gang of monsters were full of fear in their eyes, and some lowered their heads, constantly dodge the gaze that George Han swept, for fear that they would be stared at by George Han because of their peculiar appearance or other reasons.

Only the toad, with a hideous face at this time, glanced at the undecided tortoise man on the ground, as if he could feel his gaze, and the tortoise man's incomparable eyes suddenly became firm at this time.

Toad smiled coldly. At this moment, he stepped forward slightly and stood at the forefront: "I will play with you."

As Toad snorted coldly, George Han's eyes were fixed on his body, his whole body healthy. The anti-Buddha muscles may explode from him at any time, giving people a strong visual impact and a display of strength.

Coupled with the slippery toad head, there is a feeling of power bursting and a feeling of sinister evil.

"This guy is a hard role at first sight. Three thousand, you have to be careful." The pangolin whispered.

Qinglong also nodded while scanning the appearance of the toad: "Although it looks like a very powerful person, this kid's calf is unusually slender. This shows that this guy's explosive power and speed are also extremely terrifying."

Su Ziwu also inserted his mouth at this time: "In this tavern, I have seen this toad several times. Although he doesn't often mix in the tavern, every time he comes, this guy has to be greeted by everyone standing up. Ying, based on my experience of visiting Youming City, this toad is by no means an extraordinary status, but in a demonic place like Youming City, its status and strength are completely equated."

Hearing these words, Amelia Su's worries could not help rekindling, even worse than what he had just now. All the monsters stepped back, but this monster, after witnessing George Han breaking the tortoise shell, still dared to stand upright. Before, how could he not have the ability to excel? is George Han at this time. He couldn't help not having the slightest worry. On the contrary, he was extremely calm. He looked at the toad man and said dismissively: "Okay, how do you want to play?"

"Very simple," Either you kill me, or I don't kill you, but play with your chick." As soon as the voice fell, the toad man sneered, and then his body suddenly disappeared in place.

"Three thousand, be careful!" Amelia Su shouted anxiously.

At this time, when the toad's figure was prominent on George Han's right, a fist as big as a casserole appeared on George Han's left face less than five centimeters away.

Facing such a vigorous but powerful fist, George Han's face hurts even if it is just the fist wind.

Perhaps for others, this punch was scary enough, and some would even be overwhelmed on the spot, but for George Han...

He smiled contemptuously, his head flashed slightly, and his left hand turned into a palm to block his right. In front of his face, he directly hit the toad's giant fist.

Immediately afterwards, his left hand slid, driving the fist of the toad, and withdrawing it directly to the left. After a short time, he moved a thousand kilograms in four or two, and only heard a loud noise. The extremely large body of the toad was directly pulled to the left of George Han, and he staggered. After a few steps, his figure was slightly stabilized.

"Wow!"

There was an uproar below!

Faced with such a ferocious and quick punch from the toad, George Han just evaded them directly. How could this not surprise them? !

"That's it?" George Han gritted his teeth slightly, looked at the toad, and said with disdain.

Toad was shocked secretly in his heart, with such a blow, this guy actually escaped? !

However, compared with surprise, the uproar underneath made Toad's face even harder, and the anger in his heart naturally became stronger.

As soon as he gritted his teeth, Toad snorted and turned around: "It was just an appetite for your kid. The real good show has just begun." As soon as the voice fell, the toad clenched his fists, and the veins burst. The muscles all over his body suddenly collapsed, and the clothes on his body instantly turned into cloth strips and burst apart.

“Really?” George Han smiled slightly, but only gently patted the dust on his body!

Toad evil smile...

this product has already hit again.

The figure is extremely fast!

Do the same moves need to be used twice? Or on the premise of failure? !

George Han frowned slightly, shouldn't he be so stupid? !

Seeing George Han not moving, but frowning on the spot, Qin Shuang quit, and said softly, “George Han, what are you doing? Don't be careless.”

No, absolutely not!

George Han shook his head. Even though he is a fool, but can live in the killing world to this day, he still has a good status, so his attainments in battle will never be too low.

The failed move takes two times, which is obviously impossible!

Therefore, this time, it must be just a feint!

Thinking of this, George Han's legs slightly braced the inner character, while doing a good job of resisting, he secretly observed all other changes!

Sure enough, at the same time as Toad hit, he opened his mouth when he was backhanding at George Han at the same time.

“Ha!” A

green breath came out directly from his mouth, instantly spraying directly beside George Han's face.

Sure enough, there is a fraud!

George Han smiled coldly. Because of the advance judgment, George Han basically had the time and ability to avoid this green aura.

However, when George Han saw that it was such a green aura, he felt ashamed to hide, and he didn't even move.

Toad passed by with a single blow, and looking back at George Han who had already caught his green aura, he suddenly showed a cold smile and stopped his hands.

“I said how good you are, it turns out it’s just a waste.” Toad was naturally very proud of it, and the look in George Han’s eyes seemed to be looking at a cold corpse.

“Really?” George Han gently fanned the green air in front of him, but it was stinking: “Have you eaten garlic? The tone is so heavy?”

“George Han.” Su Ziwu hurriedly wanted to come forward to remind, George Han. The green gas in front of him is an incredible poisonous gas. Almost anyone in it will lose combat effectiveness in a short period of time, and will eventually be poisoned to death.

Although Su Ziwu has not personally seen it, he has heard a few things in the trade and commerce over the years.

However, when he was about to leave, George Han had already signaled with one hand that he didn’t need to say more. is on Poison. Can the Poison King George Han be killed? !

“Hmph, I was poisoned by Lao Tzu’s toad, you are still in this hard mouth, I am afraid that even how you died, I am afraid I don’t know.” Toad smiled coldly.

Suddenly, the group of people behind also roared with laughter, and the previous fears and worries about George Han vanished in an instant.

After all, for this group of monsters, George Han has now been poisoned by their toads, so naturally he is no different from the dead.

The dead, what’s to be afraid of?

“This stupid idiot, it’s poisoned by our Lord Toad, and I still don’t know it.”

“Haha, Lord Toad’s toad poison, as long as anyone is hit, no matter how high his cultivation level is, the result will be only One, wait for death.”

“Little idiot, do you feel tired now, and you feel heavy eyelids and shortness of breath?”

“It won’t be long before you will feel numbness in your limbs, then dizzy, and finally Falling down to the ground, I will die from now on.”

Several monsters laughed loudly, joy and ridicule that couldn’t be said for a time.

George Han only smiled slightly, how can they be fierce and fierce? With George Han, why should he be afraid? As far as the so-called symptoms they are proud of, I am sorry that George Han has no symptoms at all.

Even, because of the inhalation of this poisonous gas, George Han not only did not feel the slightest discomfort, but was rather refreshed and refreshed.

When it is very toxic to others, what is the difference between it and nutrition? !

Hearing the mobs behind him flaunting their might, the toad was more confident in a moment, hummed coldly, and walked towards George Han dismissively.

When he came to George Han's side, he just glanced jokingly and took a sip. In his eyes, George Han was naturally no different from ants. Forgive him for not daring to resist, so he just fucked. His big hand, with a smiley face, touched Amelia Su's face.

“Little girl, from now on, you belong to Lao Tzu.” The voice fell...
