

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2938 - 2939

Chapter 2938

Just when everyone thought it was impossible, George Han suddenly turned around!

“What?!”

“This...”

“How is this possible?”

“What speed is this?”

Yes, something that is almost impossible in everyone’s eyes is happening right now under their noses.

With almost no time and no space left, George Han directly completed the entire turn when others could almost only return to the limit.

Not only that, but George Han slowly raised the left hand that is conceiving the power of the moon wheel, suddenly condensed his fist and struck out!

boom!

Only the sound of the fist wind sounded. Even though the turtle man had a knife in his fist, the fist did not hit George Han. The two fists were almost facing each other in the air, although the distance between the two was not too small.

But no matter how hard the Turtleman tried, he couldn’t move forward even a little bit.

“This...” Turtleman sweats coldly, so he can’t move forward. The key invisible pressure is constantly pressing himself through George Han’s fist, even though he has exerted his full strength, but still It’s hard to resist.

“Get out!” With a cold voice, in the next second, a strong force burst out from George Han’s fist.

“Boom!” That

force mixed with the power of the moon wheel, directly and completely wrapped the turtle man.

The blue-violet electric jumped, driving the tortoise man’s body, and flew straight to the stone wall dozens of miles away. With a muffled sound, he hit the wall heavily, and then fell on the ground like a toad.

However, even so, the purple electricity on his body still hasn't disappeared, and he grinned, who sometimes jumped and hurt.

"Niu...Niu that batch!"

"I took it."

Underneath, a group of monsters were dumbfounded. What the hell is this?

It's just a fighting scene from a textbook, it's a very extreme scene that people can imagine.

Over there, Qinglong was already laughing, clapping his hands, shaking his head and applauding.

Wonderful, wonderful, really wonderful to the extreme.

No difference, no difference. It can even be said that one second in the evening or one second in the morning will definitely cause trouble in the extreme exercise just now. But George Han controls every detail, even every time node.

"It's the first time that the old man can show the speed so exquisitely after he has lived for more than a hundred years." Su Ziwu, who had been straining his nerves, finally relaxed at this time, looking back to see the admiring smile on Qinglong's face. Su Ziwu couldn't help but said with appreciation.

Qinglong nodded: "His speed is so fast that it is unimaginable. The most important thing is the grasp of the timing. It is simply exquisite. No wonder he didn't even want to move when the two attacked. At first, I thought He didn't reflect it, but now, I know."

Su Ziwu nodded: "That's contempt, Wang's contempt."

Qinglong smiled, yes, it's as if the real Wang laughed watching a group of people posing. Not only was there no panic at all, but on the contrary, it might be full of disdain and ridicule.

"It's okay, it's okay." Thinking of this, Qinglong sighed.

Su Ziwu was taken aback: "What's okay?"

Qinglong shook his head and didn't say anything, but he knew in his heart that fortunately, they surrendered in time, and fortunately, only after they gave up, they kept their promises and never exceeded them. Lei Chi half a step.

To rival such a person is simply anyone's nightmare!

Amelia Su's daughters all showed a gratified smile at this time, and the previous worries finally disappeared at this moment.

George Han stood slightly, glanced at the toad in the corner. He was extremely embarrassed after being burned by the sky fire, and glanced at the tortoise man injured by the moon wheel. Now the purple and blue electricity still occasionally jumps.

"Are there any other tricks?" George Han said coldly: "If not, I should send you on the road."

Turtleman and Toad glanced at each other, and then, it was not the slightest expression of fear on their faces. On the contrary, they laughed, and even laughed extremely arrogantly and arrogantly.

"Send us on the road?"

"Hahahahahaha!"

"Does it depend on you?" Toad looked at George Han evilly, and said in a cold voice...

Chapter 2939

George Han did not speak, but looked at the two people indifferently.

"Do you really think you won?" Turtleman also spit out the blood in his mouth, staring at George Han viciously.

Seeing George Han still not talking, Turtleman glanced at Toad and smiled: "It's time, right?"

Haha, I heard the sound, laughed, and nodded: "Ordinary people will take three to five minutes. People with better physical fitness. probably ten minutes, another strong point, half an hour. " "

However, just when we play with this guy, apparently moving to get angry, blood boiling, issued by the Yidu time, it should be almost the same. " is , After two people have seen George Han's ability, naturally as long as they are normal-minded people, they will not be stupid enough to resist.

However, the two of them dared to rebel against George Han based on this situation. This shows that the two of them have absolute confidence in George Han.

And these self-confidence originated from the green breath that Toad had expelled to George Han earlier.

Naturally, they would not think that the poison gas was ineffective, but that George Han's physical fitness was stronger than others, so the onset of poison was postponed.

This happens from time to time in most cases, and it is purely normal.

Therefore, the two people quickly made a plan that they believed to be perfect, and the two attacked together.

If two people can fight, naturally everyone will be happy, but if they can't fight, at least they will consume George Han in the process, and the poison in George Han's body, whose blood is soaring, will intensify.

Whether it is success or failure, both of them are stable winners.

"Poisonous?" George Han couldn't help but laughed.

"What? You forgot this?" Toad laughed coldly.

"The battle just now intensified your blood flow, and the toxicity spread faster. You forgot, but we don't have it." Turtleman laughed coldly.

"You are despicable and shameless!"

"Are you human with this kind of indecent means?"

When the turtle man said something, Su Yan and other women were naturally filled with righteous indignation and angered at each other.

"You idiots, among the demons, only the living are the winners. As for the fallen, who cares about their life and death? Not to mention how they died." fell, the tortoise man and the toad laughed loudly, and some mobs around, seeing them laugh so arrogantly at this time, I knew for a while that they might really have the chance to win, one by one. He hesitated and laughed.

"Haha!" At this moment, George Han also laughed loudly, and the mobs who had hesitated so much were also dumb for a while.

Turtleman and Toad immediately glanced at each other, Turtleman smiled and said, "This is stupid, I will still be laughing here at this time."

"The dying person is naturally crazy and brainless in doing things. Maybe before the poison is released. I want to pretend to be a wave of heroes in front of us," Toad said with disdain.

Hearing this, Turtleman snorted disdainfully: "Pretend to be like Grandpa? Does he really think Grandpa is scared?" As the two were talking, George Han slightly took out the jade sword at this time. Originally, when they saw George Han drawing a sword, although the two of them didn't care about it, they were still somewhat guilty in their hearts.

After all, they had all seen the skills of George Han before the poisoning.

However, the worry was only for a moment, because at this time George Han raised his hand slightly, and then unexpectedly tipped the sword, but cut it directly at his arm.

Upon seeing this, the two of them were taken aback for a moment, and then laughed, followed by a roar of laughter from the mobs behind them.

“Fuck, is this stupid stupid? Cut yourself with a sword?”

“Maybe it's not stupid, but knowing that I have a poisonous hair, there is no way of retreat, simply, just slay yourself, at least you can save your reputation, I ended up dying quietly, free from the pain of flesh and blood.” Su Ziwu and Qinglong were suspicious, they didn't understand, why did George Han be like this? Even if it is really poisonous, it is not so?

Only Qin Shuang and Amelia Su suddenly remembered something, and then a faint smile appeared on the corner of their mouth...
