

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2962 - 2963

Chapter 2962

Boom!

With a loud bang, all the ground surface was completely scattered, revealing something similar to organs and tissues black in powder, and they were connected to each other. Or they may be a body, but because there are still parts of the ground that have not completely fallen off, they look like they are connected.

The swollen pieces were piece after piece, and each piece had a huge pothole, densely packed so that the scalp was almost numb. With their slight agitation, those potholes also opened or sucked.

They or it. It occupies almost the size of the entire Youming City, which is daunting.

Is this the true ontology of the King of Youming? !

It's not ugly. It can even be described as disgusting, the blame has to dare to show people in his true colors, otherwise, I am afraid that the people of the demon clan will be frightened when they see it.

"Rusty!" He seemed to hear George Han's heartfelt voice, and he shouted angrily: "I am the mother of the earth, there are more than 30,000 people living in this Youming City, who is not in the bloody soil of my body, avoiding demons. The ups and downs of the clan, I am a god, you child, you are so presumptuous." The voice fell off. Suddenly countless branches protruded from those numerous potholes, and once again attacked George Han.

Thousands of branches. Even if George Han is not a intensive phobia, what he is looking at is a numbness of his scalp.

Han three thousand seventy-two road magic sword, plus Taixu Shen step. Even though Wan Zhi followed, George Han still wore like willow leaves. Unaffected in the slightest, offensive and defensive, advance and retreat relaxed.

"Is that this?" George Han sneered as he wandered around.

Next second. With a movement of his hand, the Taixu Shen step stepped out of the phantom, showing the shadow of gossip, and the magic of the body. It is even worse than before.

Use the gossip knowledge learned from Qinglong and apply it flexibly to actual combat. Although George Han is indeed suspected of being brave, but it is more of George Han's helplessness. He knew well that the branches triggered by this monster looked ugly. It's even a bit weak and not shocking, but in fact these branches can pass through the raging molten lava without being affected at all. It can also keep the imprisoned George Han with perverted power intact. How can he underestimate it? These guys? !

"Roar!"

Almost at the same time, the evil gluttons surrounded by flames were also dissipated because of the flames. But he broke free from the restraints, screamed frantically, and in the next second the entire huge body suddenly dived, and rushed towards the guy.

Sharp claws are like swords. The minions are like daggers, and the gluttony of evil rushes up to a part of the guy that is scratching and gnawing, crazy.

And George Han also hit the branch with his sword, and immediately after the whole Ren Teng shot, he aimed at that guy directly.

boom!

Suddenly, a lot of land left on the guy's body was directly blasted away. It should be understood that although the land remaining on it is only lumpy, it is based on his huge figure to compare and take it out. Even any small piece of land is at least the size of a football field. With one blow of George Han, dozens of plots of land were directly exploded into powder. It can be imagined how pure George Han's energy was at this time.

After George Han experienced the combination of two energies. The strength has already risen to a higher level than before.

But what is unbelievable is that this blow, almost the same as the previous two, is still like a meat bun hitting a dog. Although the thunder is loud, there is almost no rain!

This caused George Han to scratch his head. Is it all like this, or is it invalid?

Even if he has two great artifacts to protect himself, if others attack him with such a dose of attack, he will definitely not be able to remain so immobile.

Just when George Han couldn't think of his sister, in silence, George Han suddenly turned his eyes to the evil glutton who was biting crazily...

Isn't it?

different from George Han's fart-like offense. With the crazy bite of this guy, the evil gluttonous side uses both mouth and claws to force a small part of the huge "heart". The flesh and blood of the bite bite is blurry. The green blood immediately flowed down the ground. Although the wound at that point of the "heart" that has the size of Youming City seemed large from a local point of view, it looked like a mosquito biting a person's body as a whole. The wound is average.

The subtle can't be more subtle.

Perhaps this may not mean anything to others. But for George Han, flies and mosquitoes are all meat. The small arms and legs were also fat, and the huge wound bitten by the evil gluttons at least explained that this guy was not solid and indestructible, nor was it indestructible with a spear.

That wound is the biggest breakthrough!

Ants gnaw on an elephant, and that starts with the smallest wound.

Thinking of this, George Han smiled coldly, holding the jade sword horizontally, and a large gossip phantom volleyed out.

"Heaven and earth left hand, right hand yin and yang, fire from heaven on wheels, electric shock brontosaurus. Overcast surgery, ground fire. Jian Zhen"

Han three thousand of his fall had ever learned, all play, but the difference with the other Yes, all the magic power at this time was shot through the gossip phantom in front of George Han. As the gossip turned around, he went away.

Boom boom boom!

The "heart" above the ground exploded repeatedly. At this time, George Han's figure suddenly disappeared, and in the next second, an acceleration has already come to the side of the evil glutton.

"I will kill you while you are sick!" The voice fell off. George Han held a long sword, and flew in directly from the side by a moment of evil gluttony, using the sword as his head, piercing all the way.

"brush!"

Blood splattered wildly. Roumo flew across, George Han was like a human meat grinder. Rotating all the way, directly pierced from the wound that was bitten by the evil glutton!

The speed is fast, and the action is flashing. Even the evil glutton, was completely surprised by this guy's sudden operation, and was taken aback for a moment, then looked back dumbfounded, and looked at George Han who had already rushed inside.

And George Han at that time. Almost only a leg that hasn't fully entered for the evil glutton.

With the force of the early rotation and the sudden relaxation of the sword, George Han had apparently pierced the epidermis of the "heart" directly and entered this guy's body.

It's red. Just like entering a pink lamp room, the meridians are hanging lightly, and the meat is hanging horizontally. The fleshy skin on the inner side of both sides is covered with blood vessels as thick as water pipes and flowing with green liquid, which beats with the beating of the external "heart". The sound is endless.

The stench came over, and even George Han felt nauseous in this kind of space, and he wanted to vomit it out on the spot.

Tolerate the meaning of vomiting. I took a disgusting look at the muddy mucus all over my feet, and every step I took, I could pull out long filaments. It's like some kind of snot, but it doesn't look like it's all snot.

"I can't beat you outside. The head office is inside, right?" George Han said coldly.

This is the only comfort to George Han when he is not afraid of nausea and messy.

With so many spells, the purpose is to attract the attention of this guy, so as not to block his way by those countless branches. At the moment, the tactics are successful.

Lightly provoking the jade sword, George Han stopped talking nonsense. Although it was extremely good for him to come in when he was unable to attack him, there was a fatal danger that also existed, that is, it was too much inside. After being closed, the stench will not affect George Han too much, but what about other things?

If this is his body, stomach acid, or other unknown dangers, it may make George Han who is trapped in it even more dangerous.

Therefore, there is not much time left for George Han.

Thinking of this, George Han was not talking nonsense, and directly raised his sword on the spot and cut it towards a hanging shredded pork.

But with this cut, George Han was completely dumbfounded.

With a bang...
