

His True Colors Novel Chapter 2968 - 2969

Chapter 2968

black shadow is huge, but at this time George Han was completely driven by the green current, especially after the defenses on all parts of his body were completely collapsed, not only could he not resist the impact of the green current, but even Even the corrosion brought by the green stream to the body can't be resisted at all.

The whole person closed his eyes completely, not only to prevent the green stream from eroding his eyes, but also because of the intense pain that made him have to distorted his expression because of the pain.

He felt his muscles begin to collapse, and he felt that his bones were even slowly being corrupted, and then it seemed that he had reached the meridians, and then his internal organs.

George Han was already powerless to resist the black shadow that suddenly entered.

boom!

There was a huge sound of water, and the black shadow had already plunged into the green stream. Then, he suddenly took a big mouth and swallowed George Han and a lot of green streams directly in one mouthful.

Wow...

As George Han swallowed the sound of the flowing green stream, it became more and more distant from George Han's ears, until the sound of water completely disappeared in his ears, George Han was too far away from his ears. After the pain, he fell into a coma.

Extreme consumption, continuous serious injuries, if you change to an ordinary person, I am afraid that you will have to lose half your life if you don't die, but for George Han this abnormality, it is just a coma, and this coma did not last too long.

Even though the Five Elements Divine Stone has already consumed a lot of body energy in the previous molten lava, it is basically exhausted now, but it still emits a faint light silently, consuming itself frantically trying to mend George Han. Wounds wounded by the green stream.

But this kind of repair actually caused a huge damage to the overdraft of the Five Elements God Stone, but the treatment for George Han was just a drop in the bucket, and it was useless.

However, at this moment, as a cloud of whiteness suddenly floated into the Five Elements God Stone, the Five Elements God Stone, which had not much light anymore, suddenly regained its vitality as if the dry ground was injected with clear water.

Immediately afterwards, it shone brightly, releasing a strong energy to envelop George Han. With this huge energy package, the injuries on the surface of George Han's body are being repaired rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye.

I don't know how long it has been. Maybe, it's half an hour, maybe, another hour. At this moment, the energy circle is three thousand in Han. The body that has been corroded by the green current is already visible, but at this moment, it is intact. As before, even completely new. George Han slowly opened his eyes.

There is not the kind of pain that I had imagined, and even the sharp pain caused by the epidermis disappeared, and some were just a warm current flowing gently in the body.

Like a mother's hand, caressing herself gently and delicately, and like a lover's hand, soothing herself lovingly and considerately.

"Where is this?" George Han opened his eyes in a daze. The surroundings were dark and he couldn't see anything clearly. He couldn't even see his fingers between his hands.

No, to be precise, after the light is stretched out, you can't see it.

Thinking of this, George Han slowly moved his gaze to the Five Elements Divine Stone that was emitting a faint light towards him.

His brows were frowning involuntarily. Before that, he clearly remembered that the Five Elements God Stone had completely used up the last energy by himself. This also meant that if he did not instill strength into its body, then it would be completely depleted. It is impossible to release any light.

Moreover, such a strong light!

George Han looked around subconsciously, and he was completely in a coma just now. It is theoretically impossible to inject any energy into the Five Elements Divine Stone, so the only possibility for it to shine is other people.

But around the eyes, it was pitch black, and after listening carefully, there was no sound. It didn't seem to be a place with people at all.

Then this matter is also strange.

If there is no one, how can the Five Elements Divine Stone light up? The Eight Desolation Book of Heaven is not there, Linlong is also in the Book of Heaven heal In the land of the clan, George Han had already instructed this in advance for their safety, and it was even more impossible for them to violate it.

That's... even more embarrassing.

There is no one else, the five-element sacred stone...

“Also, where exactly is this?”

Chapter 2969

The confusion filled George Han's eyes, is he dead?

But if you die, how can the Five Elements Divine Stone heal yourself? And how can he really feel its treatment? !

Could it be that he was taken by Lu Liu to a cell where this monster held him?

This looks extremely similar, but there is an unexplainable fact that if he is locked up, that guy will heal himself so kindly?

Is it possible that you want to heal yourself and then torture yourself? Although this makes sense, one thing is impossible.

How does the monster know the Five Elements God Stone? How does he know how to use it? ! Will its power make the Five Elements Divine Stone work?

Each possibility of these three questions is very small, but if they are linked together, the possibility is almost non-existent.

So what is going on? !

George Han was also confused and stunned, and the whole person felt panic in his heart in such a dark environment.

But when George Han was at a loss, suddenly, an incredible surprise flashed on George Han's face. In the next second, his whole person's worries and confusion began to become astonishment and surprise.

Familiar, familiar, very familiar.

It was just because he just woke up and hesitated about the surrounding area, so that George Han didn't notice the details for a while. Now, after thinking about it carefully, he seemed to understand where he was.

“No, no, really damn it?”

“What the hell did I get?” George Han was slightly agitated, shook his head, and seemed to be madly affirming himself again. If this answer is not denied, it is the happiest thing in his heart.

Thinking of this, George Han smiled slightly, and then sat up on the spot with excitement.

Qi Luck Dantian, this guy actually cultivated incredible.

Perhaps this is an extreme thing in the eyes of others, but a slight smile appeared on George Han's face.

That's right, that's the feeling, this familiar formula, this familiar taste.

George Han couldn't help increasing the speed of his dantian, like a child waiting to be fed, sucking everything around him frantically. Almost on the periphery at this time, the green stream was still violent, and its water flow was as fast as a dragon. With the blessing of quality and speed, the force generated by the current is almost equivalent to a giant mountain slamming, and anything in the water will be twisted into pieces in an instant.

Even the gluttonous gluttony of evil is extremely difficult in the green stream at this time, four claws are firmly buckled into the flesh wall, a big mouth is desperately biting on a piece of flesh, but even so, the body is also Wandering crazily directly in the current, it seems that he will be taken away by the direct wave of the current at any time.

What's more terrifying is that the power of the water almost caused the evil unicorn's body to be hurt. Long wounds were opened everywhere in the body, and the armor that protected it on the limbs was also directly pulled apart, exposing the muscles connected to the armor and muscles. , As if a person's nails were turned outwards.

Not to mention the people who are there, even if a bystander sees these things, he will abruptly feel pain for the gluttony.

"Huh, gluttony of evil? I don't know if you are real or fake. However, this is not important anymore." The ethereal voice remembered again, full of mockery.

"If you are fake, kill you and kill you, then it should be natural."

"But if you are true, it doesn't matter. Anyway, you are already a running dog of humans, and you are not worthy of being an ancient beast and killing you. , I can still take your place on the Demon Beast List."

"Haha, hahahaha, come on, let you feel the greater death impact." The words are over, it is already very fierce. The speed of time has changed even faster, and the already shaky gluttony is in a more critical situation at this time, even if the claws stuck in the flesh wall, it starts to crack at this time...

"Bang!"

The armor on the limbs finally It fell apart, forcibly tore the raw meat from its four knees, and went with the waves, the evil gluttony opened its mouth in pain...

“Bang!”

There was another loud noise, and the sharp claws also cracked, and the entire huge body of the evil glutton was immediately knocked over. Seeing that it was about to be carried away by the waves, suddenly, the fierce current suddenly stopped...

a The figure stood in front of the gluttonous evil at this time...
