You fucking pretend to be innocent, I fuck.” Seeing George Han like that, the man in black was obviously out of anger and shouted on the spot.

To be reasonable, he did roll and did not interfere.

But the fact is that if you say that you didn’t interfere, it seems to be very panic!

The big beautiful woman suppressed her smile. She had never seen a man like this before, and she couldn’t help being extremely interested and curious about this man. While looking at George Han, she said, “What he said makes sense. No one else has ever intervened. You two can’t speak without words, right?”

“This is the matter of the three of us, isn’t it?”

Hearing the big beautiful woman talking, the two of black and white Shuangsha became even more embarrassed for a while.

The man in black retorted on the spot: “Who can’t believe it? Damn, I don’t bother to kill him at all. I just bother him to keep nagging forever, affecting my normal performance.”

“Big brother, are you right? “The white-clothed person was taken aback, but at this time there was nothing to say, he could only bite the bullet and nodded: “Yes, it’s just an occasional mistake, little beauty, do you really think you’ve won?” “

You are still in our hands.”

The big beauty glanced at George Han. He was still there, and couldn’t help smiling. At this time, there was no longer the previous sense of fear in her heart, and it was more of a calm.

She herself never dreamed that one day she would gain a great sense of security because of a strange man she didn't know.

Seeing her looking at George Han, Black and White Shuangsha couldn't help but feel angry for a while, and the two of them looked at each other affirmatively. In the next second, they stopped using the previous left and right flanking, and attacked each other in a way of changing and interspersing with each other. beauty.the

For a while, he couldn't help but stepped back again and again while looking at George Han to delay time.

But what made her anxious was that George Han stopped talking at this time.

Damn it, didn't he be said a few words, now he dare not? !

Thinking of this, the big beauty was a little desperate, but at this moment, she suddenly saw George Han slowly stand up at this time, and then, he began to stretch a long lazy waist on the rock.

Then, he moved his hands and feet slowly, almost to death. If the big beauty is an earthling, he will be surprised to find out, and then roar George Han in a furious rage...

because, at this time, George Han is like six in the morning. At o'clock, those old men who were in the park slowly started Tai Chi.

However, even though he didn't know Tai Chi exercises, the dead could still see that George Han's soft, slow movements were obviously some kind of warm-up movements.

Damn, it's all this time. This guy actually...

looked up, facing the crazy and fierce attack of the black and white duo, she retreated and retreated, but she had no choice but to retreat.

"You die."

She closed her eyes and her heart. Anyway, she couldn't beat the black and white evil spirits. She simply closed her eyes, recalling George Han's actions just now, and brazenly stretched the mystery. She also learned to fight.]

But...

just a few tricks, the big beauty opened her eyes in complete horror.

Because at this time, she suddenly discovered that she had not been directly hit by the black and white Shuangsha as she had imagined, nor was she even trapped because of it, and she could even clearly feel the collision with each other between her hands.

It's amazing. At this time, she actually looks good, and is easily responding to the crazy attack of the black and white duo...

if the attack of the black and white double evil spirits is stormy and the direction is fierce, then the beautiful woman at this time has the soft steel in the hand, like a woven cotton, let him How the two attacked and fought bravely, but they never got any effect.

With the passage of time, the offense of the black and white duo suddenly dropped a lot, but the big beauty became more comfortable.

Looking back, George Han suddenly raised her right hand, and she also followed closely. The man in black was immediately thrown away for several meters and smashed heavily into the pile of rocks. For a while, the earth, flying and rocks were smashed. , Very embarrassed.

Looking over, George Han raised her left leg, and she did the same, and then the white-clothed man flew out and hit the ground directly, blood spurting wildly.

George Han took his hand slightly, let out a sigh, and shook his head.

The big beauty followed her, shook her head, and then looked at George Han with a smile in her eyes.

Seeing her looking at George Han, the black and white Shuangsha, who suffered another loss in the hands of the beautiful woman, immediately moved his gaze.

"Two, this time, I didn't even make a sound. I can't blame this, right?" George Han spread his hands and said helplessly.

The black-clothed man glanced at the white-clothed person, and his eyes signaled whether to kill the guy first. After all, the two of them were not blind. How could they not see the actions George Han did just now? !

The white-clothed man did not speak, but stared at George Han with his eyes, as if he wanted to see through George Han.

Who is this guy?

It's fine to have never seen it before, but what annoys him is that he didn't do anything, but just dialed a few words about the woman, and the woman changed from not being able to fight back at all to being as dead as it is now. Suppress them dead.

This had to make him jealous.

“It seems that we have met a master.” The white-clothed man shook his head and motioned to the black-clothed man not to do this.

“Master? Who?” The man in black didn’t understand. In his eyes, he simply thought that George Han was too bored and kept disturbing them.

“That guy is not easy.” The white-clothed man looked at George Han and said vigilantly. “Brother, what kind of master he is, you exalt him too much.” The man in black dissatisfied.

“Be careful to sail the ship for ten thousand years, don’t accidentally lose your life here, take the last fight, if it doesn’t work, then withdraw.” As soon as the white-clothed man’s voice fell, he turned over and suddenly attacked the big beauty.

The man in black did not neglect, and followed the man in white crawling from the ground, and attacked the big beauty again.

However, unlike last time, this time it was obvious that the white-clothed man attacked the big beauties, but the observation of George Han was true.

As the two approached the big beauties, as expected, George Han suddenly stretched out a lazy waist. The big beauties moved almost the same way, but what surprised him was that the big beauties were just such an inadvertent action, but they just happened to kill them. Offense.

The white-clothed man stopped on the spot and looked at George Han in a shocked manner.

Seeing his mother’s ghost, that guy was just a few random and incomparable actions, but he could actually offset the two people’s repeated joint efforts!

But when he frowned, the man in black didn’t care about it, turned around unwillingly and attacked the big beauty again.

George Han lightly jumped from the big rock to the ground, and while driving the beautiful woman to escape, George Han fell to the ground, seeming to dislike a stone in front of him blocking his way, and immediately kicked it away uncomfortably. He moved, but this kick hit the black-clothed man’s abdomen firmly, and suddenly he flew out with the black-clothed man’s scream.

Sure enough, hell hell, I met a real master, and play with them here as a pig and a tiger!

He was about to shout loudly to withdraw, and on the other end, the more unwilling man in black rushed up again.

The white-clothed man wanted to stop it, but it was too late at this time. For the life of his brother, he could only grit his teeth and launch an attack on the beautiful woman again.

The big beauty was already quite proficient at this time. She suddenly looked back again. When she saw George Han's actions, she was dumbfounded. Even the white-clothed man who was on the offensive while staying vigilant was observing George Han's actions. Also dumbfounded.

This...what is this going to do?
