

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3010 - 3011

Chapter 3010

Xia Ran smiled and did not refute.

“Impossible!” The pangolin got up from the seat anxiously.

Even as a friend of George Han, he would never believe that George Han could understand Jinfeng’s heart.

Because the heart of the golden phoenix, although people who know the legend of the phoenix know its existence, even many men selected by the Phoenix clan have seen it with their own eyes.

But for those who can understand it, it is almost non-existent.

Even if there is, it is almost rare, and even more of a word about what is written in it.

Many people say that if the true phoenix daughter is a phoenix treasure that cannot be seen or touched by pure luck, then the heart of the golden phoenix is a treasure that is visible and tangible, but does not know what it means.

But the former is at least full of unknowns, but at least it gives you hope, while the heart of the golden phoenix crushes all your hopes to pieces, leaving nothing but despair.

After so many winds and rains, everyone only remembers the daughter of the Phoenix, thus ignoring the heart of the Golden Phoenix.

Xia Ran waved his hand slightly, stood up, and said, “Although the heart of the Golden Phoenix is in the Phoenix family, it is indeed as the young pangolin man said. For millions of years, no one has been able to fully understand this mystery.”

“Phoenix .” The nine sons, the fire phoenix is the respect, the golden phoenix is the detailed, can be transformed into a human form, the descendants of the Phoenix family are mostly from the blood of the golden phoenix .” “When the heart of the golden phoenix can be broken, you can obtain the treasure left by the ancestor of the golden phoenix. At the same time, it will open the time when the ancestor and phoenix return, so the two are connected.”

“No one in the world can solve the golden phoenix. Since I saw the ancestral phoenix returning, there would be no power of the phoenix to show up.”

“So, everyone knows that if you want to see the ancestral phoenix, you must first open the heart of the golden phoenix. For many years, whether it is a member of the clan, or the man sought by the clan, has tried to unlock the secret of the golden phoenix heart, but none of them succeeded. “

Hundreds of years ago, my father and mother tried to solve them. They were regarded as the hope of the Phoenix family. Unfortunately, my father only solved the first two sentences. “However, it is these two sentences that allow me to confirm that Han Shaoxia’s interpretation is correct. Because the two sentences that were unwrapped by his father at the time, and the first two sentences that Han Shaoxia unwrapped, It’s exactly the same.”

“What?!”

Hearing this, the pangolin couldn’t help but retreat two steps because of panic and shock.

“Actually, I should not have come up with the heart of the Golden Phoenix at this time, but do not know why today, there is always a sense of heart throbbing, so it will mysteriously took it out, but did not think

“determined to Planting flowers and flowers will not bloom, unintentionally planting willows and willows into shade.”

Speaking of this, Xia Ran raised his head and looked at the distant sky: “Mother, father, grandfather, grandma, your long-cherished wish is fulfilled, and you can rest in peace.”

After that, Xia Ran Silently closed her eyes for a few seconds, seeming to be in silence, then, she walked towards George Han in a few steps, and smiled: “Since you will not be able to penetrate everything for a while, then, time goes by, there is always a chance.”

Then, Xia Ran lightly He picked up the mahogany box and handed it to George Han.

“Huh?” George Han was dumbfounded, Xia Ran actually wanted to give this thing to herself? This is the treasure of the Phoenix family, and even the heart of the legendary Golden Phoenix!

Isn’t this a joke?

“Sister Xia Ran, are you kidding me?” George Han was dumbfounded, really wondering if he had heard it wrong.

“Even if Xia Ran joked with the thousands of people in the world, he would never dare to joke with Han Shaoxia, especially on this matter.” Although Xia Ran’s smile never disappeared, his eyes were full of sincerity, and there was no joking at all. mean.

At this time, George Han was completely dumbfounded: “No, this is the treasure of your Phoenix family?” Did you take the wrong medicine?

“It is indeed the treasure of our Phoenix clan, and it can even be defended by life. However, from now on, the treasure of the Phoenix clan has changed hands. The heart of the golden phoenix is still important, but it is not as important as the other.” “Han Shaoxia, can you move, Go to a place with me?”

“Where to go?” George Han stunned.

“Shuiyuedongtian.”

Chapter 3011

“Shuiyue Dongtian?” George Han was taken aback.

“Exactly.” Xia Ran nodded.

Where is that?

Although Taozhiyuan was big, George Han had already roughly observed everything here on the way to Taolin. Here is like a green fairyland, with a simple but elegant small hall, plus a peach forest beyond sight. If you have to talk about the landscape, there are green mountains and green waters not far in front of the hall.

However, the mountain is no more than two meters high, not to mention that there is a cave inside.

It is more like a rockery, like a palace for decoration.

“Please find this by yourself, and I will be there waiting for you.” As soon as the voice fell, she suddenly turned into streamer and disappeared in a blink of an eye.

George Han was stunned. Didn't you invite me to go? When did the inviter turn into a place for people to find a place to rush over by themselves?

“What are you still doing in a daze? Great sage!” Just when George Han was dazed, the pangolin walked over with three big peaches step by step.

“What do you look at?” Seeing George Han looking back at the three big peaches in his hand, the pangolin's face was a bit unbearable, but even now, he still held it up and said: “What do you see? I'm only a peach for ten years of cultivation, and you're a fucking one for a hundred years, I don't take a few more, I'm not going to lose a lot?”

George Han rolled his eyes and was directly affected by this guy's wonderful brain circuit I'm convinced.

“If you are so yin and yang strange again, you really have to be careful that your armor is gone.” George Han gave her a white look: “Did you see any paradise here?”

“I want to pass so impatiently? “

George Han did not speak, gritted his teeth and stared at him coldly.

He was not as dirty as the pangolin thought, but the heart of the golden phoenix was so precious to the Phoenix clan, George Han had to return the things to others.

Seeing George Han’s eyes, the pangolin was obviously guilty, and shook his head: “When you were in a coma, I was bored with the gluttons of evil. I walked around here roughly. It’s a big place. You have to say yes. There is nothing else, it might actually be there, but it’s water and holes, this one really doesn’t.” However, as Xia Ran said just now, it was clearly true.

She had no reason to deceive herself. Could it be that this Shuiyue Cave Sky is actually a very hidden place? !

Thinking of this, George Han dragged the pangolin and walked to the previous small hall, wanting to find Xia Wei directly to ask for understanding.

Back in the hall, after searching for a circle, I finally found Xia Wei’s room, but it was a pity that Xia Wei’s door was closed.

George Han knocked on her door, but only heard Xia Wei’s answer from inside: “You still don’t knock. My sister is waiting for you in Shuiyue Cave. She told me that before you go there, you are not allowed to and Xia Wei When you meet, I am not allowed to talk to you. “

Damn!

George Han was depressed, but listening to Xia Wei’s tone of resoluteness and Xia Ran’s instructions, he really had no choice but to take the pangolin from the temple to the outside, and then looked around, looking for the so-called water moon. Cave sky, or even the place associated with it.

However, the result was disappointing.

The two people who flew into the air to get a bird’s eye view of the surroundings shook their heads helplessly.

“Although this place is big, all places with water are beside the temple, but besides the hill where a pig can’t squat down, there isn’t even a bag of soil beside the temple, let alone any holes.” Pangolin He shook his head and sighed helplessly.

George Han was also very melancholy. What the pangolin said was very discouraging, but it must be admitted that this is an indisputable fact.

“Go over there and see.”

George Han glanced into the distance, and flew over with the pangolin at an accelerated speed. As the two of them got closer, the peach forest was still under the fog without any other new discoveries.

George Han still can only keep moving forward, hoping to make new discoveries in the pervading fairy fog.

It is a pity that until the night falls and the moon rises, the two of them have no idea how far they have flown, but there are still peach trees under their feet and in front of them.

At this moment, George Han suddenly grabbed the pangolin who was planning to fly forward: “Wait a minute, it’s not right.”
