

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3014 - 3015

Chapter 3014

When the two landed again and before returning to the main hall, it was already midnight.

At this time, the night is dead, and the bright moon has hung high in the sky. It is at its fullest time. Under the moonlight, the entire source of peach is like a silver cloak. It is a bit cold, but there are some differences. Kind of amorous feelings.

“Okay, you’re satisfied, you can go back to sleep happily.” As soon as it landed, the pangolin was obviously still immersed in the depression of George Han giving up. After saying a word, he walked into the house unwillingly.

However, he walked a few steps but didn’t find George Han following. After looking back, he saw that George Han was still standing in place, only looking up at the sky.

For a moment, the pangolin couldn’t help but feel depressed and said: “I am in a bad mood, and I can recover after enjoying the month? Shame is shame, I don’t have to say, wash and sleep.”

However, when the words fell, George Han did. Still motionless, the pangolin couldn’t help but curious, and followed.

Following George Han’s gaze, the pangolin’s gaze finally stayed in mid-air, above the high-hanging bright moon.

However, although the moon is round, this thing has never been unusual. After all, we may have never seen anything weird in this world, but the moon and the sun are things that everyone has seen since birth.

“What are you doing?” Seeing George Han’s vision, the pangolin couldn’t help shaking his hand in front of him, but George Han’s eyes were still staring at the bright moon, unmoved.

Just when the pangolin was about to be unbearable, George Han suddenly lowered his head, focusing on that side of the low mountain and flowing water.

The water was gurgling, the ripples moved slightly, and the full moon was reflected in it like this, swaying and swaying.

“Sure enough.” George Han smiled softly.

“What is it?” The pangolin looked blank, wondering what happened to George Han.

“I think, I found Shuiyue Cave Sky.” George Han smiled and looked at the pangolin: “Although the maze is a maze, it is not something people can solve.” “The maze is also the enchantment of the entire source of peach.” The pangolin buckled its head strangely: “What is messy, the maze will be lost, and it will be a maze and another. Enchantment, you made me confused.”

“The source of peach is worthy of the habitat of the Phoenix family. There is an old saying that it is not a phoenix tree but the phoenix does not dwell. It seems that this is not false at all. The criticality of the land is indeed strict enough.”

Although those extremely cumbersome and complicated puzzles may seem unsolvable, their actual function is not to be used as a puzzle to solve, but the whole Taoyuan. The most stable enchantment defense in the land.

This is also the fundamental reason why when George Han tried to solve it, he found that this guy could not solve it at all.

Its real function is to protect the entire Taoyuan from being discovered by outsiders, or to effectively resist foreign invasions when found by outsiders.

It can be said that this thing should be the strongest and most mysterious enchantment George Han has ever seen, not even one of them.

“If you want to forcefully break through those puzzles on the peach forest with my abilities and yours, I am afraid it will be no use waiting for the two of us to turn into a pile of bones.” George Han smiled and said.

“In fact, there is no doubt that Xia Ran is testing us.” George Han smiled.

If according to the normal logic, I finally found that there was a problem in the process that I had been looking for, and got into the puzzle. So the first thing to do is to break the puzzle.

I had always had the same thinking as the pangolin before, until George Han discovered that this puzzle could not be broken at all and the strangely round moon above his head.

“Look at the moon again, don’t you think it’s strange?” George Han smiled.

The pangolin raised his head to look at the moon in the sky, frowning, his eyes almost shining...

Chapter 3015

For a moment, he shook his head: “Is there any difference between this moon and other moons? Isn’t it brighter? Isn’t it rounder?”

“To be honest, I think it is much more beautiful than the moon in the land of the demon. ,
The moon in the land of the demon race is full of blood when you look up.” George Han smiled: “You have reached the point.”

Any hidden space just uses a special barrier to hide itself. In fact, it still exists between heaven and earth.

“The mouth of the bottle is small and its own space is large, just like a transparent bottle hidden there, which can not only preserve the inner aura from leaking, but also absorb the aura of the world through the mouth of the bottle, and use the essence of the sun and the moon for your own use.”

“As for the bottle. The sun and the moon in the middle are either like sitting in a well and looking at the sky, or they are condensed by absorbing the essence of the sun and the moon, but of the two types, the former is to look at the corner of the sun and the moon and shape it into a simulation, and the latter is to use its essence. In terms of condensation, although the two are different, the sun and the moon in the realm have one thing in common.”

“That is how much will be affected by the real external environment.”

“When I was in Nothingness, if the sun and the moon were counted. If it is normal, the sun and the moon on the Qilin Sacred Mountain are obviously much stronger. And the moon seen in the land of the demon race is like a layer of blood. The place where the source of the origin is located is the land of the demon, so normally, shouldn't its sun and moon, even if it is perfect, still have the slightest blood red?”

Hearing George Han's words, the pangolin shot Head, he just remembered that in the daytime today, although the sky is indeed clear and cloudless, the sunlight does change from golden to a little red.

Although this is very subtle, it is difficult to distinguish the difference even without careful observation.

“The moon is now bright, clean and beautiful, and surprisingly round, without even a trace of flaws.” The pangolin said while looking at the moon.

“The real moon will always be affected by various factors, be it demon, or devil, and even a dark cloud can affect its sight. A silk defect can truly be called a beauty, and it can be truly remembered. The artificial beauty is the same. It seems that every inch is perfect to the extreme, but in fact, when they are together, you will feel awkward.”

“The matter of the world,” It's all the same.”

Hearing George Han's explanation, the pangolin roughly understood: “George Han, do you mean this moon is fake?”

“Shuiyuedongtian, its existence is just like an enchantment. In fact, it is not a certain function in our imagination, but another function.”

The pangolin followed closely, looked at the swaying moon in the water, touched his head, and said in a puzzled way: “How do you show the way?”

George Han smiled slightly, grabbed the pangolin’s hand, and then suddenly jumped into it. In the pool.

“Fuck me!” How could the pangolin think that George Han would suddenly come out like a damn, and shouted in a panic. The next second, with the explosion of the pool, the two of them had fallen directly into the pool. .

As soon as he entered the water, the pangolin was struggling, and the Buddha-defending drought duck went into the water and killed him. He kept yelling: “Your mother’s mother, George Han, I’m like your grandfather and your aunt , You are fucking sick, you jump into the water, you are so damn good-looking, you are a handsome guy when you get wet, I’m just this fucking outfit, you... wait.”

Halfway through the scolding, this Suddenly, the goods were silly on the spot. There was no imaginary water surface, and no drenched body as imagined. Instead, he seemed to be standing on the ground at this time.

Looking up, the sky is rippling with water, and the clarity can be faintly revealed. Looking at the moon in the sky, the two of them are in the water, but they don’t seem to be affected by the water. How wonderful and wonderful.

“This...” The pangolin reflected, and the whole person was shocked.

When I looked back, I saw George Han faintly looking ahead, and following his gaze, I saw that there was a cave in the front of the reef with silver light flashing in the cave, and there was a word in the cave entrance: Shuiyuedongtian
