

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3018 - 3019

Chapter 3018

“Wow!”

At this moment, with two roars, the black shadows of the peacock and the Dapeng suddenly struck again.

Even different from the previous ones, this time the two were obviously very angry because the previous attack failed. Not only did the speed increase, but the claws in their hands were also expanded.

“Shan.” The two looked at each other almost at the same time, yelled at each other, and then ran quickly to the sides.

Almost as soon as the two of them ran away with their front feet, the two big birds had madly attacked where they were, and only an explosion was heard. Although the two had fled, the huge shock wave still overturned the two directly. A few meters.

“I’ll take it.” The pangolin fell to the ground, holding his stomach with his hands, with an uncomfortable look on his face.

He was like this, George Han was not much better there, the whole person shrank in place, and his back was so painful that the explosion wave blasted him.

But at this time, George Han didn’t have any kung fu at all. The two big birds were already turning back in the air after looking back. In the next second, George Han yelled at the pangolin, violently. The pain, just got up and went away to hide.

Although the body cannot be transported, the strong alertness and anticipation of the battle will not be lost as the body rusts.

George Han could roughly predict the movement trajectory of the two big birds and the next attack.

Sure enough, when George Han roared loudly, when the two of them just ran away, after the two big birds turned back, one circled and rushed.

“Damn, Old Han, it’s not a way to go on like this, you can hide for a while, you can’t hide for a lifetime.” The pangolin staggered, ran back to George Han again, and said anxiously.

Of course hiding is not a long-term solution, and George Han naturally knows this.

“Don’t forget, we are not only facing two phoenixes, but nine.” The pangolin said anxiously.

George Han glanced at the other seven phoenixes hovering above his head, and felt cold in his heart. Yeah, this is not just one or two, but a total of nine. The room leaks when the night rain is saying that it’s not the current situation. NS?are still in the air, but the ghost knows that they will be like the wind at any time, suddenly shot?

“How about a dangerous move?” George Han bit his teeth and looked at the pangolin.

“What do you want to do again?”

“Like you said, hiding is not a way. Since they want to engage us one by one, we will play with them one by one.” As soon as the voice fell, George Han turned around and looked back. Scanning the position of the two big birds, feeling cold, he directly drew out the jade sword, and pushed the pangolin away with a palm: “Stand by and listen to my orders.” The pangolin stepped back and frowned: “What are you doing? “

George Han did not speak, holding a jade sword, staring at the two big birds closely.

“Chang!!!”

two big birds turned back and saw George Han standing there holding a weapon, roaring angrily, and rushed towards George Han.

At this time, George Han gritted his teeth, his eyes were like gods, holding a long sword in his hand, waiting nervously.

Near, near, getting closer and closer.

“It’s now, pangolin, come on!” Angrily roared, George Han’s long sword suddenly blocked his chest, directly on top of the Dapeng sharp claws that flew directly.

“Oh.” The pangolin was also suddenly awake. He understood that George Han was deliberately using his body to resist the attack of the Dapeng. The purpose was to delay its action, and he had to seize this opportunity, completely. Attack the Dapeng.

However, this is also extremely dangerous, because first of all, whether the Dapeng can be resisted or not, the key is that the peacock’s attack will be completely opened, which may be like death for George Han.

After all, the sharpness of the minions of these two big birds has been clearly seen by the two of them just now.

However, now that George Han has decided to do this, he has no choice but to send his arrow on the string.

Gritting their teeth, the pangolin screamed, accumulating all the strength on the body, and violently attacked the Dapeng who had already attacked George Han...

Chapter 3019

Almost at the same time, George Han and Dapeng had already collided. Even though the jade sword was firmly in front of its claws, his slender nails still pierced George Han's body directly. George Han's whole person was even pushed back several meters in a row, causing two long drag marks on the ground.

George Han clenched his teeth and twisted his face. Even with great strength, he still felt like his whole body fell apart when faced with an impact like Dapeng.

But obviously, the most painful thing is not so, but the peacock who arrived almost at the same time.

Fortunately, on the other end, the pangolin also exhausted all its strength and slammed into a big bang.

"Bang!"

two sounded muffled one after another. After the first muffled sound, George Han's whole body was like a marble on a spring, and he flew upside down. After a parabola appeared in the volley, he went straight. It hit the wall of the cave tens of meters away, slowly sliding down...

and almost when the second sound sounded, the pangolin hit the Dapeng with a sudden blow.

When hitting a snake and hitting seven inches, the bird will attack its wings. The pangolin hits the right wing of the Dapeng. Although the strength is naturally not as fierce as George Han, don't forget that the back of this product is all barbed like thorns. In addition, Dapeng's center of gravity is entirely at George Han's, and there is no guard against him.

This blow can be said to be perfect. Dapeng's huge body moved slightly. At the same time, the entire right wing was slightly deformed due to the impact of the pangolin. At the same time, many of the barbs on the pangolin's back went directly into its wings. There was a moment when the blood flowed slightly, and Dapeng also let out a low painful cry.

"It's hit." The pangolin looked into the distance excitedly.

On the far wall, George Han had already slid from the wall to the ground. The huge impact generated by the impact not only made him feel the internal organs tumbling, and was extremely uncomfortable. More importantly, at this time, George Han's right shoulder was almost There are only white bones left, and the flesh on the hands and shoulders is hardly grasped by the sharp claws.

On the chest, the immortal mysterious armor also broke open, George Han could even see a huge blood-sparkling wound on his abdomen. He looked hard at the two big birds in the distance. Did he miscalculate?

Couldn't even the hardest immortal profound armor plus the frost jade armor resist the claws of these two big birds?

What he originally wanted was to use his body's instinctual artifact, even if he was unlucky, he should be able to hold the attack of the two big birds in order to create a chance for the pangolin to strike back.

But now, the result does not seem to be too good.

The only comfort is that even though I'm bad here, at least the pangolin is completely within my calculations.

However, this relief did not last long.

Almost at the same time as the pangolin roared, the Dapeng suddenly flashed with golden light. It was a pangolin that was rigidly inlaid on the wings of the Dapeng. It was directly hit by the waves of golden light for several meters, and the wings of the Dapeng were also there. Under the golden light flowing, buzzing, it was completely restored as new in an instant.

"What?" The pangolin slammed heavily on the ground, looking at the intact Dapeng, the whole person was dumbfounded.

"Puff!" The

pangolin suddenly spewed out a mouthful of old blood, not knowing whether it was because of being angry, or because of being hit by a shock.

Clang !" "Clang!" The

two big birds cried to each other, and the next second, with a flap of wings, they flew directly towards George Han.

At this time, George Han was still leaning against the wall. He was surprised when he saw Dapeng Jinguangdu, but as he saw two big birds attacking him again, George Han knew that he had no more Time went to shock again.

Gritting his teeth forcefully, George Han held the jade sword with his left hand, and then supported his body. He slowly stood up, looking at the two big birds that had hovered not far in front of him. He didn't have any fear in his eyes, he only looked at them faintly.

"Three thousand!" The pangolin looked at the situation there from a distance, and was very nervous for a while, but for a while, he was injured by the shock flying, which made it difficult for him to go to support for a while.

"Dapeng, Peacock!" George Han smiled suddenly and looked at them coldly, slowly raising the jade sword in his hand...
