

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3020 - 3021

Chapter 3020

The

pangolin stared, what is this kid George Han doing? Not only did he not rush to find a way to protect himself, but directly provoked the two big birds. Is he crazy?

“Clang!” The

two big birds seemed to feel George Han’s provocation, and couldn’t help humming in unison to vent their dissatisfaction and anger.

George Han’s face was slightly cold, and he smiled again and again: “How happy is life, and how afraid is death, I don’t know if history repeats itself, or Laozi’s life is short, come.” With a wave of the long sword, George Han put on a fight. .

Even if he died, he would recognize it. At least the treatment of Peacock and Dapeng would be enough for himself.

There are ancient rumors that a Buddha was swallowed by a peacock and broke out in desperation. He wanted to kill him because of the anger in his heart, but because he was afraid that the peacock was the son of the original phoenix and hurt him as if he hurt his mother. Weigh the pros and cons, and look for the steps to go down in order to be beautifully named the peacock.

After Dapeng heard the news, the consequences were unacceptable, and he rushed to the clouds to avenge my sister. The slain Mantian God and Buddha could not find the north. The Buddhist scriptures of the Buddha led the sentient beings for several days and finally captured him and named him the Dapeng Mingwang, and the matter was ended.

The Buddha can have the calamity of these two things, and George Han has it now, naturally enough.

Thinking about this, as the two big birds rushed, George Han already sneered: “Even if I die, you must be dragged back.”

” Get me up!”

Boom!

George Han shouted angrily, and the golden light and black energy on his body burst at the same time, and the afterglow swept around. The next second, the jade sword in his hand buzzed with a streamer, and the sky fire moon wheel appeared at the same time.

In the next second, George Han was already directly like a light and shadow, shooting directly at the two big birds.

“This guy, don’t die?” Seeing George Han’s direct luck, the pangolin was both surprised and extremely worried, because it was very clear that in the current situation of George Han, luck is equivalent to what result.

However, if I were George Han, I am afraid I would do the same.

After all, the two now have no other choice.

“Keng!”

“Chang!”

Seeing George Han rushing, the two big birds were ignited not knowing whether they were fighting, or they were extremely angry. They shouted at once, spread out in the air, and directly flanked George Han away.

Fight two and fight one! face two strong opponents, Han three thousand hardly hesitate to raid pushed all the energy to Dapeng, while in the hands of seventy Road driven Excalibur Skyfire month round of direct attack to go.

“Chang!”

Dapeng roared, his wings spread out, and thousands of feathers suddenly appeared under the wings, which burst down like an arrow. Han’s three thousand and seventy-two divine swords opened the way, and his body was immortal with mysterious armor and frost jade. A is able to drive to the maximum, not only attacking but also solid defense.

At the moment of breaking through the arrow rain, the jade sword approached, and the sky-fire moon wheel turned into two streams of light, rushing simultaneously from the left and the right.

But just as George Han was about to succeed with one blow, he saw Dapeng’s wings move slightly, and in the next second, the original form had disappeared in front of his eyes, appearing hundreds of meters away.

“Fast speed.”

“But, you are fast, and I am not slow.” George Han snorted coldly, his body flashed with golden light, his feet moved too vainly, and he attacked again with his jade sword in his hand.

Dapeng's golden mouth opened, and flames rushed, directly annexing George Han who was rushing forward.

However, just for a moment, only a streamer flashed, and George Han rushed directly out of the flame.

Amidst the flames, George Han had already urged the Five Elements Divine Stone, and he could really irrigate the five elements and reverse the five elements to help George Han resist the flames from the Dapeng.

Dapeng was taken aback for a moment, and he didn't know how George Han could rush out of the flames unaffected. When he lost his mind, George Han had already slashed his jade sword.

Dapeng suddenly panicked, but at this time there was no other choice but to turn around in a hurry to avoid it.

But its speed is fast, and George Han, who urged Taixu's steps, is not slow. When the jade sword smashed into the sky, the sky fire moon wheel also split from the left and right sides, returned to the two sides of the sword, and went straight to the Dapeng.

“boom!”

With a loud noise, the sword directly pierced the wings of the Dapeng. While the sword left long scars, the Skyfire Moon Wheel also left more serious burning injuries on the long scars, directly pulling the scar width of a few centimeters. It's twice as wide.

Wings were injured, the huge Dapeng body suddenly lost its balance, and it was tilted to one side. While Dapeng was completely focused on the gap to adjust his body, George Han jumped up suddenly and raised his sword toward his head.

Hand up, knife down...

Chapter 3021

“Bang!”

“Fuck it, awesome!” There was a loud noise, accompanied by the silly pangolin's sudden shout, and Jinpeng's big head fell to the ground.

boom!

Immediately afterwards, his huge body also fell to the ground in mid-air, and the dust and smoke were everywhere, and the ground rock rolled.

George Han raised his sword in his hand and hovered in the air, like a god of war.

“George Han, he is so handsome, I want to give you monkeys.” The pangolin yelled excitedly.

The second son of the phoenix, the Golden Winged Roc, was cut down by the sword of George Han at this time. How could he not be handsome?

George Han didn't have time to be excited. At this time, he turned his head and looked at the peacock behind him. Although he killed Dapeng at an extremely fast speed, George Han knew that his time was running out.

It can even be said that now that he is still standing here is far beyond the original plan.

With his luck, the seal of the earth will take effect soon, and George Han can only decide as much as possible as soon as possible before it is not sealed by the seal of the earth.

But such a long period of time has obviously exceeded George Han's budget, not to mention that his own killing of Dapeng has urged the true energy in the body to the extreme, and the seal must be greatly catalyzed.

However, the strange thing is that the seal has not yet appeared, but George Han has not thought so much anymore. In short, he has not been sealed, he will not give up everything he can do.

Seeing George Han looking back, she was planning to attack George Han's peacock. At this time, she slowly stopped. After a few meters in the air, her tail slowly opened. At the same time, seven colored streamers were also in the tail. Circulate in the screen.

“Keng!”

Suddenly there was a peacock chirping, and seven streamers hit George Han's side. George Han subconsciously blocked, but found that the final direction of those streamers was not on his side, but the Dapeng on the ground not far away.

George Han frowned immediately. When he looked back, he saw that the Dapeng surrounded by colorful streamers suddenly glowed with golden light, and then the head that had fallen back to his body, the next second, he As soon as his body moved, he stood up, directed at George Han, and opened his mouth with a wild roar.

“Qiang!” In the next second, Dapeng suddenly rushed towards George Han.

“What?!” George Han frowned. It was clearly cut off by himself, and it could recover instantly, which really made people call it perverted. In a hurry, George Han quickly set up his jade sword to directly resist the resistance, but even so, he was still driven by Dapeng for several meters.

After barely stabilizing his figure, George Han shouted angrily, and the eight golden bodies suddenly opened, and after a step away between the hands and the Dapeng distance, he held the sword and slashed directly at him.

Eight Dao Jin bodies are the main defense, even if the two are very close, George Han is not afraid of his claws. The eight Dao swords are open and close, and it is bound to come to death and death with Dapeng.

“Qiang!”

Dapeng roared, apparently he had never seen such a desperate style of play. With a big wing, several feather arrows rushed towards George Han with the force of a hurricane, but at the same time he wanted to escape from this position. Come, avoid George Han for the time being.

At this time, George Han didn't care about his feather arrows. Since he had opened eight golden bodies, it was equivalent to George Han's abandonment of flexibility, and he was bound to give up defense and directly attacked.

Therefore, George Han cut it down with a single sword.

Dapeng panicked. Even though he knew that George Han's wanton play style had already evaded his brilliance, he never expected that George Han could not kill himself to such an extent. He hurriedly backed away, but it was still difficult to completely distance himself. .

He heard several chuckles almost at the same time, and the feather arrow was on George Han's body. At the same time, George Han's sword also slashed on the wings of Dapeng.

Both lose!

However, there was no fear in George Han's eyes, and a sudden movement in his hand was another sword.

“Bang!”

Almost when the sword touched the wings of the Dapeng, suddenly, a golden light flashed on the wings of the Dapeng. The cut in George Han's sword was not only directly healed, but even the golden light on his wings. He also bounced George Han away in an instant.

“puff!”

George Han spurted out a mouthful of old blood, and his body lost his center of gravity.

“What?” George Hanqiang was uncomfortable and looked at Dapeng in shock. Suddenly, he suddenly turned around and looked at the peacock behind him.

George Han frowned. At this time, he seemed to have discovered something...
