Chapter 3096

the three finally breathed a sigh of relief.

George Han smiled first, waved his big hand, and an invisible force instantly lifted the old man from the pit to the house.

“Come on, come in with Lao Tzu.” As soon as the old man landed, he waved his hand boldly, and then walked toward the house by himself.

After that, the old man sat down at the table.

The pangolin took a strange look at the old man’s back, looking at George Han and Xia Wei: “What’s wrong with this old man?”

Both smiled bitterly.

“As far as his situation is in this room, do you still give us a big gift?” The pangolin glanced at the whole room again and couldn’t help.

Although the room is large, it is simple and simple, and everything in the room can be seen clearly at a glance. If you have to say what is valuable in the room, I am afraid it is the old man sitting at the table.

George Han shook his head helplessly. In fact, he didn’t care about the old man’s so-called gift. For George Han, this old man’s willingness to not seek death was the greatest gift to himself.

“Why are you still stunned, come here.” Seeing that George Han and the others did not follow, the old man raised his head and looked at the three of them and urged.

George Han Chong Pangolin and Xia Wei nodded, smiled, and then took them to the table, and then slowly sat down.

The old man smiled slightly. At this time, he took out the remaining Moonlight Ghostfish’s meat foam. Although he had cleaned it up, the meat foam was much cleaner, but after all, it was just foam, which looked really shabby.

The three looked at each other suspiciously.

“Old man, is this the big gift you said?” The pangolin asked suspiciously.

George Han glared at the pangolin. What would stimulate the old man to do at this time? Secondly, even if the old man gave soil, it is at least a sentiment, and it is naturally deep.

The old man nodded: “Exactly.”

“I remember the predecessor said that this thing is a baby.” George Han laughed softly.

The old man nodded too.

Xia Wei frowned slightly, and muttered her small mouth: “Actually, I think the old man is right. This is indeed a baby.”

” I am a baby.” The old man was quite happy to see someone understand him. Then, With a slight movement in his hand, he took out three small pills. “This is a fire pill. After taking it, it can produce a small amount of warm current.” As he said, he took out a knife and divided the small pill into half.

He grabbed three and a half of them at random, and put them in front of the three of them: “Taste it.” The pangolin and Xia Wei glanced at George Han, and when they saw that he had grabbed them, they put them in their mouths. Put it in your mouth.

The taste is light and sweet, and it is even a bit bitter after the mouth is sweet, but soon after that, I can feel a faint warm stream flowing out of the stomach and all the way to all parts of the body.

“This Fiery Pill is not a rare gadget, it’s just a simple medicine to keep out the cold when it’s cold.” The old man explained with a smile.

George Han nodded. It is true. Although there is a warm current, it is very weak. Basically, it can keep out the cold, but if there is too much, the effect of this medicine will not keep up.

It's almost like wearing a down jacket.

The old man smiled when he saw it, then he got up and came to the stove, almost the same as before, poured water into a bowl, and then put a dry green plant in the water to soak.

After that, he came over with the bowl, and after sitting down again, he smiled slightly, took the soaked green plant out of the bowl, put it in his mouth, and started chewing.

It's still a familiar formula, and it's still the same method used to rescue George Han.

Pangolin frowned, obviously somewhat difficult to accept, quietly touched Korea three thousand legs underneath, softly: "He chewed after that thing just now is to co-author those fish into your mouth," hear At these words, George Han frowned involuntarily.

I have to say that it is indeed disgusting, but what makes George Han feel strange compared to the nausea is that this method is outrageous!

He did this without asking other questions. Anyway, the result was healed himself, so it was natural for him to explain this method. But precisely because of this, then the problem also arises. What is its principle?

Thinking of this, George Han looked at the old man's eyes full of doubts, hoping to get answers from him.

At this time, the old man smiled softly, and the chewing on his mouth was finished...

Chapter 3097

Then, as before, he vomited out all the green plants he had chewed.

Even though they had seen it before, the pangolin and Xia Wei at this time saw the chewed and pulpy green plants mixed with saliva, and they felt sick.

George Han didn't have any reaction, just carefully observing the old man's every move, for fear of missing any details.

Seeing George Han looking seriously, the old man was quite relieved. Then he picked up half of the Fire Pill on the table, and put it in the green plant in front of George Han. Finally, in Xiaoxiao A small slit was cut on the fish meat and stuffed in.

Then, he repeated the old trick, and quickly stuffed the other two and a half fire pill into the other two pieces of fish in the same way.

The meat is small, and these things must be stuffed into it. Naturally it is a delicate job, but the old man does it very well.

After finishing the three pieces of fish, the old man once again placed it in front of the three of them, and gestured to the three of them to have a taste.

Xia Wei and the pangolin looked at each other and looked at each other with embarrassment. The process of making is really disgusting. If you want to taste it, it's hard to swallow.

On the other hand, George Han started to pick up the fish on the table and stuffed it into his mouth without thinking.

Xia Wei and the pangolin looked anxious, but it was too late to shout again.

As soon as the fish entered his mouth, George Han's frowned brows tightened even more.

The previous smell of the fire pill almost disappeared, or it was completely covered by the green plants in the mouth, and it was a bit numb, and even a bit piercing.

Seeing George Han frown, Xia Wei and the pangolin, who didn't want to eat, frowned even more at this time, making it hard to speak.

However, just when the two of them hesitated, George Han smiled at this time, looked at the two, and motioned for them to eat.

The two made a very difficult “ah”, and in the end, they could only put things into their mouths under the “attention” of George Han.

As soon as they entered their mouths, the two of them were obviously embarrassed. The kind of painful defense against Buddha meant to kill them.

But in the next second, the two frowned almost at the same time, and then looked at each other with shocked eyes.

George Han couldn't help but smile, and the reaction of the two was obviously in his expectation.”It's strange.” Xia Wei spoke first.

The pangolin was also shocked on his face: “I suddenly felt very hot.”

“That's right.” George Han nodded, and after chewing carefully, the difference is that after the entrance this time, it still radiates from the stomach. The warm current reaches the whole body, but compared with the last time, it can only be said that if it was only considered a warm current, then the current is a molten smelt that is tens of millions of degrees red.

Hot, it is extremely hot.

The anti-Buddha was thrown into the volcano.

“Oh my God, how could it be so hot, I seem to have been ignited all over my body.” Xia Wei said incredulously, and her beautiful face was full of fiery red at this time.

The pangolin is not much better. It's like being suddenly filled with countless peppers. The breath out of the whole human nose prevents the water vapor from the Buddha's boiling water: “Damn, it's really hot, I really miss it. Undress, old man, can you turn off your stove? I can't stand the heat anymore.” The old man just chuckled when he heard the words, and looked at George Han deeply, waiting for George Han's reply.

George Han smiled bitterly and shook his head. No wonder he was already extremely anemic but was suddenly filled with blood. Now, the mystery is finally revealed.

It's this fish and this strange green plant.

"Treasures, treasures, they are indeed treasures." George Han smiled: "I only blame myself for being ignorant and ignorant at the beginning, so I am ashamed."

"Haha!" The old man laughed loudly: "Those who don't know are naturally not responsible."

"Old Han, why is it a baby?" The pangolin said in a puzzled way.

George Han smiled: "This is a cornucopia, don't you know?"

"A cornucopia?"

"Well, plant a gold nugget to get a pile of gold nuggets, plant a woman and you can get a bunch of wives' cornucopia." George Han teased.

The pangolin was stunned, and I don't know whether this guy was stunned when he heard this feature, or was stunned when he heard that he could get a bunch of wives.

"How is it? Do you like this gift?" The old man ignored the pangolin and looked at George Han.

George Han nodded naturally. At this time, the old man slowly stood up...
