

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3104 - 3105

Chapter 3104

Almost as soon as the old man's voice fell, the sound of water moving was faintly heard under the thick layer of ice. Although it was unusually subtle, it was very helpful to a person like George Han. . But it is completely enough.

"Be careful." George Han exhorted, and then the golden light on the whole person circulated by his side again, ready to respond to the enemy at any time.

"Be careful, too, although the moonlight ghost fish will die quickly with dew, but the catfish-like huge mouth must not be underestimated." The old man cared.

George Han nodded, and the small, non-aggressive bloodworm became extremely ferocious under the rage. Not to mention the moonlight ghost fish like a beast, how could he be careless? !

"Guru!"

"Boom!"

Suddenly. A huge blister emerged from the water surface in the ice cave, and then, a strange rumbling sound rang, and even the ice surface under my feet began to tremble slightly.

"So fierce?"

George Han smiled slightly, watching the bubbling water quietly.

"Wow!"

"Wow!" There was a loud sound of water, and at the same time, several dark shadows came out of the water directly and rushed to George Han fiercely.

Even though George Han had been prepared, he subconsciously used the jade sword to directly resist, but apparently he still did not expect the ferocious impact of these moonlight ghost fishes under the violent violent.

Although the sword was directly on top of Yukou's steel teeth, the huge impact still made George Han stagger back two or three steps on the ice.

Although two or three steps are really nothing, you should know that this is George Han. How many steps in this world can George Han be able to beat him back by a few steps?

and. At this time, it was just three moonlight ghost fishes about one meter long.

With a slight shock in his heart, George Han shook the jade sword in his hand, and immediately threw three moonlight ghost fish on the ice, just as the old man said. This deep-water fierce fish almost died in the dew. After only a few struggles on the ice, he slowly lost the signs of life.

"Damn, that's it?" After watching this series of operations, the pangolin was immediately puzzled.

Just these basic exercises. Not to mention George Han, even if he plays, he will definitely not have the slightest problem.

The old man smiled slightly, did not speak, just looked at George Han indifferently. is a few more sounds of water. Six one-meter-long deep-sea ghost fish broke through the water again and attacked. This time, George Han not only did not choose to resist. On the contrary, he also absorbed the previous experience and lessons, but dodged sideways. Volley added a sword to their backs.

The moonlight ghost fish that was repaired by the knife, after earning a pile of blood on the joint surface, quickly lost traces of life, and those who were not repaired by the knife still opened their mouths and bite the air on the ground. It also gradually moved towards death.

In a blink of an eye. The nine moonlight ghost fish have already died here.

I dare not say how relaxed and freehand it is, but it is not an exaggeration to say that it is not difficult.

The pangolin raised his eyebrows, and he let out a sigh of relief: "Hey, you were so nervous before you set off. It also made me think that there was a big enemy. As a result..."

Xia Wei was also a little worried, after all, before leaving, whether it was Whether it's the old man or George Han, they all looked like an enemy.

But now, it does seem very simple. Brother George Han had already reaped nine points without even sweating.

However, she was not as arrogant as the pangolin. On the contrary, she was more cautious, saying, "Old predecessor. Anyway, Brother George Han has nine fish. These fish are big. Or, let's go?"

Worried about George Han. Safety. Xia Wei is not greedy.

"What are you afraid of? Do a little more. After you pass this village, you won't have this shop." The pangolin objected: "This stuff is a baby, you will never lose out if you do more."

"But..." Xia Weiyu After talking, she cares more about George Han's safety than her baby.

After all, George Han's safety is more important than the baby.

Especially now, I don't know how long the blood of the phoenix can suppress the seal of the earth. Once it is dragged to the seal of the earth, the situation will change significantly at that time.

He glanced at the pangolin who was about to persuade Xia Wei, and then at Xia Wei, the old man smiled at this moment: "Don't fight."

"Even if we want to go, we can't get off." The words fell, the whole lake surface The ice suddenly sank with a bang...

Chapter 3105

whether it was the worried Xia Wei or the nonchalant pangolin, all of them suddenly lost their color in shock.

“What’s the matter?” The old man smiled sadly: “When we decided to hunt them, they also decided to hunt us.”

“Moonlight ghost fish is very fierce. Just killing its fish eggs has attracted several ghost fish. Furious revenge, this old hatred has not been eliminated, and we have killed them several adult fish and forged new hatreds. Think about...what kind of revenge?”

Hearing this, the two looked at each other and looked back. All around. But found that the circle around the lake at this time had already crossed the floors.

Not only is a natural glacier a few meters wide formed on the periphery. It also makes the entire lake’s ice layer exactly like a huge ice cap floating on the water.

Xia Wei finally began to understand why the old man and George Han looked so serious when they decided to go out fishing.

It turned out that things were not as simple as she thought.

The pangolin couldn’t help but swallowed his saliva, then smiled reluctantly, and said, “What are you afraid of? Don’t say that George Han solves the nine fishes in one fell swoop. Even if it is me, it will be easy to deal with.”

“I will come and kill one. I will kill one pair to see if they are more numerous or Lao Tzu’s hands are faster.” The old man shook his head and smiled bitterly, without speaking.

Boom boom boom!

Almost at this time, the three of them suddenly felt under the ice surface a few meters deep, as if something suddenly rubbed the ice surface.

When I look back. Suddenly, I only smelled the central ice layer in my eyes. Suddenly there was a sound of water, and the next second, the ice around the ice eye suddenly burst, accompanied by a huge wave soaring into the sky. There is also a huge black shadow.

When the dark shadow rushed out, the four looked up. I just felt that even the sky was turning black in an instant!

“Damn, this is too big, right?” The pangolin yelled in alarm almost subconsciously.

Big, more than big? !

The dark shadow thing can be described as a giant!

If it is not necessary to find a reference, then I am afraid it is Dashan.

Even the biggest creature that George Han has ever seen on the earth is in front of it. It also existed like a younger brother. It was quite big and could not be simmered in a pot of sight, only half of its body rushed from the surface of the water. In front of George Han and others, there is a sense of oppression that obscures the sky and the sun. Xia Wei staggers backwards. Obviously taken aback by it.

On the huge head like a catfish, his mouth opened slightly. The steel teeth are staggered, and the cold light faintly exudes, which is daunting.

The water brought in front of his abdomen rushed like a torrent, directly rushing a few people almost to lose their feet.

“Om!” I have

n’t heard the sound of a fish in my life, but at this time I heard it roar like a beast. Even George Han didn’t pay all his attention, and he didn’t dare to be careless.

Faced with the sudden pressure of his huge body, George Han hurriedly urged to really get up and get out of the way. Almost at the same time he dodged sideways, the huge body of the giant fish was also crushed down.

boom!

The extremely sturdy ice layer is like a big watermelon, it was hit by a hammer!

The ice slag bursts!

Splashing and rushing, the huge impact made the ice slag rush to the four quickly like daggers or hidden weapons.

George Han quickly turned over, blocking the front, making a stroke of his hand. It is a huge energy barrier that is strong in the front.

“Bang bang bang!” The energy barrier suddenly exploded four times!

“This is too horrible? If these ice slags are pierced on a person, there is almost no difference from being stabbed by a knife.” Xia Wei, not far behind George Han, came back to her senses, watching the smashing constantly. The flashing energy barrier said with lingering fear.

The pangolin couldn't help but swallowed a sip of water, how dare to have the arrogance of talent.

If it was only then, the strange fish in front of him was not George Han but himself. I'm afraid I don't know what the ending will be anymore.

boom!

Just as the three of them were talking, the giant fish that hit the ice suddenly moved again. The fishtail, which was still in the water, suddenly flicked, and it usually came to George Han overwhelmingly.

What is the black cloud over the city. I'm afraid, this is the time.

“Brother George Han be careful.” Xia Wei said anxiously.

At this time, George Han had just resisted a wave of ice slag attack, but before he recovered, he heard Xia Wei scream, couldn't help but tilt his head slightly, and suddenly his pupils opened...
