Chapter 3108

and almost in the next second, when the shadows covered, when the steel teeth violently attacked, the big mouth like a blood bowl directly swallowed George Han as a dust.

“No!”

Seeing this scene, Xia Wei was excited and shouted in pain with exhaustion.

The pangolin was also completely panicked, looking at the scene in front of him unbelievably.

A mortal in the old man's area was even more stunned and hard to express...

“No, no.” Xia Wei shouted, tears in her eyes kept spinning, how could this be? ? Why would Brother George Han... be this kind of ending?

He is great, he shouldn't...

he was dragged down by himself.

If it hadn't been for the lack of ability to wait for people, he wouldn't be distracted to protect them, and would not be caught by the water column, nor would he be swallowed by the giant fish...

even neither of them. Should be here.

She knew that George Han wanted to come here to catch fish because of the effect of adding fish meat and fish eggs, so as to reduce the output of his Phoenix's blood.

However, if she wanted to reduce it in such a dangerous way, then she would rather lose more Phoenix blood to him.

She can bear that kind of danger, and there is no need for George Han to bear this kind of danger.

“Blam me, blame me, it’s old and useless.” The old man smiled bitterly and shook his head helplessly: “I am a weak person, so how can I have a face in the world? I should have died a long time ago.”

“Decades ago, Even, just now.”

“I should lie in that pothole.”

“People are right. The weak can only self-destruct. Otherwise, even if they are alive, they will only be a hindrance to others.”

Seeing the two of them feel so depressed, the pangolin snapped their teeth and said anxiously: “You two are talking nonsense. What are the eight Dao? How? Does George Han die if it is swallowed by the giant fish?” “If you think so, then I can only say that you are too superficial, and you know George Han too. Too one-sided. Since I know this guy, this guy has been synonymous with miracles in my heart.”

” This guy is flying in the sky, omnipotent. How many times have I, like you, thought this guy was playing with this guy? When it’s over, it turns out that this product is not only safe and sound, but also shows a dog-like extreme anti-kill.” “Isn’t it the same for the Bloodworm Revenge just now?”

“It used to be, and it is the same now.” The pangolin’s words were very passionate and inspiring, but the old man and Xia Wei did not listen to it. There is the slightest mood swing, in their eyes, these words of pangolin may be said at other times, and they must be useful.

But obviously...

“Can you stop talking?” Xia Wei looked at the pangolin, tears in her eyes crystal clear, she looked pitiful: “Brother Three Thousand already...” “He was swallowed by the giant fish. , How... also...”

She couldn't say anymore, hiding her face and wept bitterly.

When the old man saw this, he looked at the pangolin with disappointment: "Young man, you just used to play the yellow accent before, but now Young Master Han is unsure about his life or death. It will inevitably be annoying if you want to talk these big things again. I advise you to accept it. "

"What I said is true, why don't you believe it?" The pangolin said aggrievedly.

The old man with a wry smile: "That fish teeth like a hacksaw, skin is more like an impregnable fortress, previously you can see, Han Gongzi to the sword attack, and its skin pattern silk is simply not move."

"Today, even the whole Han Gongzi directly Swallowed into the belly of the fish, the body of the fish just under the skin is as thick as a mountain. Let me ask you, how does he come out?"

After speaking, the old man turned his head helplessly and sighed.

The pangolin's words were so blocked, he wanted to explain but didn't know how to say it. Obviously, he had to admit that the old man's words were not unreasonable.

From the outside to the inside, even the skin can't be broken, so from the inside to the outside, in a place with a narrower space, it is obviously more difficult to break.

Besides, there is such a thick fish tissue in the middle.

If it's hard meat, it's naturally more difficult, but if it's soft meat, it's just as difficult as climbing.

Therefore, no matter how you look at it, the old man's words have profound truths. Secondly, he knows this and is familiar with Moonlight Ghostfish far better than himself.

Thinking about it, even the only pangolin who believes in it can't help feeling sad and desperate at this time.

And at this time George Han...

Chapter 3109

even after hitting his steel teeth, the energy shield was directly destroyed.

But fortunately, the protection of the energy shield at least made George Han not injured at this time.

As soon as the whole person came in, he barely reflected it, and felt that he had fallen into an extremely slippery pit. As a force pushed him, his whole body was completely uncontrollable and all the way down.

He tried to grab everything he could grab around to stop his body, but the viscous liquid was all around him, and he couldn't help him at all.

In addition, although the ice on his feet was bitten off, there was still a section of his feet that was still tightly confined to make it difficult for George Han to move. At this time, he could only follow this force all the way down.

The air around him was full of rotten stench, which not only made people unable to breathe, but even the eyes were crying.

He hurriedly used his real power to intensify an energy and open up a fire, and everything around him suddenly became clearer for a while.

There are extremely hard flesh walls all around, and there is extremely hard armor on the flesh walls, and then the outermost layer is extremely sticky mucus.

“Bang!” With

a loud noise, George Han's whole body finally landed, and the huge impact directly smashed George Han, and the ice on his feet instantly exploded and scattered to the ground.

George Han endured the pain, supported his body, and illuminated the surrounding with the fire in his hand.

This is an incomparably huge space. It is different from the previous flesh walls. The flesh walls here are almost all stone walls like lapis lazuli. Just by looking at the exterior, you will know that it is hard and indestructible.

On the lapis lazuli, there are countless green viscous liquids.

“Zi!”

A drop of liquid fell to the ground and happened to fall on George Han’s scattered ice cubes. All of a sudden, there was only a sound. The ice cubes emitted a burst of blue smoke and turned into a pool of boiling water.

George Han frowned and subconsciously reflected it.

This is in the stomach of the giant fish, and the green juice must be the gastric juice for corrosion and digestion.

Thinking of this, George Han hurriedly picked up his anger.

At almost the same time, a lot of green juice suddenly oozes out of the entire ground.

While George Han was careful to drop the juice from the top, a flying body directly hovered in the air and looked down at his feet. At this time, his feet were already full of green ocean, and there was no way to step down.

“Damn!” George Han cursed in a low voice, then raised his eyes, the top of his head was also full of green juice hanging, and it might fall down at any time. this is difficult.

If you can’t go up, you can’t go down, so staying in the air is obviously not a solution.

Moreover, with the appearance of these green juices, an unpleasant gas began to fill the entire space.

Although the toxicity of these gases was nothing to George Han at all, it smelled until it was endless and it still made George Han feel tumbling in his stomach.

Moreover, if George Han guessed correctly, these gases should also be the same as those liquids, full of corrosiveness.

Get out of here as soon as possible.

Otherwise, George Han didn't know whether he would be smothered or corroded completely over time.

However, the opening in the front was almost closed, and the outlet below was completely covered by green liquid, and it was not known whether it was directly closed as in the front. Therefore, these two places were almost sealed.

The only possibility is to break the wall.

Thinking of this, George Han flew to the side of the fleshy wall and carefully observed the blue-gray fleshy wall. There was no need to try it. Only a close observation, George Han almost completely gave up the idea. .

This is completely steel stone, and through the gaps above it is vaguely visible that its thickness is also very large. This broken thing, it is said that it is an iron mountain steel stone blocked in front of George Han, and George Han is absolutely absolutely No doubt.

To make matters worse, Jade Sword had been sacrificed to save the old man. Before being swallowed, George Han had no time to take it back. Right now, he had no tools to try the strength of the flesh wall.

With a depressed sigh, George Han's spiritual sense entered the storage space, trying to find a weapon in the original treasure of the four dragons.

To be honest, if you are used to swords, things like broadswords are no longer suitable, and various heavy weapons such as hammers are not even considered.

Short soldiers such as daggers are not considered at all. The thing is too short, and it feels trivial to make it out.

But other than that, there seemed to be no weapons that could fit together. They were all shining gold for a while, and there were a lot of jade, so I didn't know what to choose.

Suddenly, George Han's eyes fixed slightly, and his eyes were placed on a strange thing...
