

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3120 - 3121

Chapter 3120

It accelerated and rushed towards George Han. George Han subconsciously stretched out his hand to resist, but suddenly found that when the stick rushed to his side, it was not like just now. Attack yourself like that.

Instead, he slowly revolved around his body in a circle...

George Han lowered his hand and looked at the little black stick faintly. At this time, his body was emitting a faint red light, and the red light was faint. Somewhat black.

When you surround yourself, it's like a puppy you raised, wagging its tail to show good.

George Han stretched out his hand suspiciously. Sure enough, after a slight spin, the little black stick slowly landed on George Han's palm, even bending the head of the club slightly, rubbing against George Han's palm. Full of docile appearance.

George Han was a little confused, but also a little happy. The guess was correct and the results obtained were gratifying. It was just that...

witnessing this change with his own eyes, he couldn't help but be surprised.

But when George Han felt miraculous, it suddenly softened its stick body, like a long snake. It followed the palm of George Han's hand and climbed all the way until it reached George Han's neck, and then from the neck. Slid down from time to time, entangled all the way to the other hand.

After that, the guy returned again and quickly walked around George Han's body again.

Immediately afterwards, George Han frowned suddenly. Is this guy missing? !

It just disappeared so directly and cleanly!

But when George Han was suddenly surprised, he suddenly felt something suddenly appearing on his body, and then fixed his eyes to see that no matter on his feet, hands, or body, a black and red thing was appearing and slowing it down. Slow package.

“Wow!”

“Om!”

“Boom!”

With the completion of the packages and a loud noise, George Han took a look again at this time, and he was already covered with a mighty armor.

Black and red are like a demon moon, and their armor is extremely hard and powerful. Just by looking at its appearance, it is known that it is strong and indestructible.

Just when George Han was surprised, those armors suddenly turned into mercury and melted from George Han's body. Then they disappeared completely as if absorbed by George Han's skin, and George Han's body also blinked. The original shape was restored.

George Han was stunned, this is too amazing, too fun, right?

“Roar!” But

almost at this moment, a fierce roar came, and George Han subconsciously thought whether the monster fish had caused a monster to come in. When he was about to resist vigilantly, he suddenly found himself beside him. At this time, a black and red dragon and tiger beast was squatting.

The tiger's body and dragon head are blood-red all over, like a beast of hell, with a pair of black wings born on the back.

“This guy...” George Han looked at the dragon and tiger beast strangely. Although he was really taken aback, when George Han saw the color of the dragon and tiger beast, he was completely surprised. Surprise replaced.

He knew very well that this blood and black color had been transformed by that little black stick.

“Wow!”

Suddenly, the huge dragon and tiger beast moved suddenly.

The huge body suddenly twisted, then turned into a ball, and finally condensed into a black spot and disappeared in front of George Han.

George Han couldn't help but slightly moved his throat and swallowed his saliva. Some impatient eyes rolled around, looking forward to what would happen next.

Soon, where the black dot disappeared, the black dot reappeared and grew bigger and bigger. Eventually, it began to spread, like a paint sprinkled in the air.

After that, it suddenly began to pull and change, and finally, it slowly condensed into a huge black and red gourd, with a delicate appearance and a domineering figure. It would not be an exaggeration to say that the fairy clan warrior.

“Interesting!” George Han looked at it and couldn't help sighing slightly.

Just when George Han's words fell, the gourd flew fiercely, and the next second hovered and landed on the palm of George Han's palm.

George Han frowned and dragged it lightly. Not to mention, even though he knew it was transfigured, its weight after transmogrification was very worthy of the gourd.

“It looks decent,” George Han said involuntarily.

When the words were over, the gourd at this time slightly squeezed George Han, as if to signal him something.

“You want me to try?” George Han frowned slightly.

The gourd moved again, seeming to be sure.

George Han smiled disdainfully, isn't this making trouble? It doesn't matter if you look like, can you still be a gourd to breathe fire? !

However, unable to hold the gourd from moving, he nodded and lifted his hand slightly...

Chapter 3121

Boom! !

As George Han raised his hand, the entire blood red gourd suddenly spewed a fiery flame.

Its fierce fire and its strength are directly like a long dragon, swallowing tens of meters, and the entire space is instantly illuminated.

"Damn!" Even George Han at this time couldn't help but cried out in shock when he saw this situation.

Although this flame is naturally not as powerful as the sky fire, judging from George Han's insight, it is at least a fierce fire that he has rarely seen.

Its power can even be compared with the so-called Supreme Fire of the Lu Family.

This is simply amazing.

It would be fine if this little black stick turned into a gourd, but who would have thought that the shape it transforms could emit fire like a real gourd?

And the fire is so fierce? !

This is too ridiculous, right? !

Suddenly, when George Han was surprised, he suddenly thought of something.

will it? !

Thinking of this, George Han was a little excited. Although this idea was bold, after thinking about it carefully, why not?

This little black stick won't let himself have a try suddenly for no reason, this is one of them.

The second and most important thing is the words of the magic dragon. The so-called magical weapon is a weapon and not a weapon, armor and armor, treasure and not treasure, it is you rather than you, and the wonder is weird and weird, in the form of the five elements. Body is not within the five elements.

I didn't understand the meaning of this at first, but now after seeing the continuous changes of this little black stick, don't some things come out?

Is it possible?

Can this so-called heavenly secret artifact be transformed into everything? !

Therefore, it is an armor, a weapon, and a treasure. It can be transformed into a five-element body?

But because it always has a body, it seems to be them, but not them.

As for the last words that are not in the five elements, should it be the material of its body?

Thinking of this, George Han moved his hand, glanced at the gourd in his hand, and whispered: "Little black stick, show me the sword."
When the words fell, George Han waited expectantly.

However, after waiting for a few seconds, George Han's enthusiasm was like being splashed with water in an instant. The gourd in his hand was still that gourd, not to mention a sword, even if it changed.

"Damn? You made a mistake?" George Han touched his head depressed, didn't he?

It shouldn't be wrong, the other fronts are all right.

George Han was so painful that he couldn't understand it.

He really didn't know which link went wrong.

"Couldn't it be the sword?"

"Or, are you trying to change into an armor?" "Or the dragon and tiger beast just now?"

George Han shouted repeatedly, but what confused him was that the gourd was still the prototype. , If it weren't for it to keep this shape, George Han even wondered if his mother's little black stick had died again.

It has no reflection at all.

"Damn, is it because it has changed before, so it can't be changed anymore?" George Han adjusted his thoughts in time.

This seems to be the relatively greatest possibility for now.

Otherwise, why this little black stick is okay, but suddenly it doesn't change? !

Therefore, if you want it to change, you can only think about new changes.

But what has changed?

George Han thinks hard, thinks about it, or becomes a sword? Or change into an axe? Or change into a suit?

George Han was thinking, thinking very deeply, but didn't realize that the gourd in his hand was changing rapidly at this time...

or a knife, or an axe, or a suit...

and at the other end at this time.

The black cloud pressed on top, and tens of thousands of black shadows gathered quickly in a certain direction.

After a while, the black shadows moved closer and closer, and a black shadow flew out in front of those black shadows, a total of twenty-seven people. After that, they surpassed the large army and quickly gathered forward.

When the twenty-seven people got closer to the center of the gathering, at this time, the black qi suddenly rose from the ground...In the black qi, seven or eight figures gradually appeared, and the head of the person was surrounded by the black qi. Just looking at it, it already makes people shudder...
