

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3126 - 3127

Chapter 3126

giant fish stopped, which also meant that the loud noise he made by twisting also stopped.

The entire lake suddenly became abnormally quiet, and the three of them could even hear each other's breathing and heartbeats in the energy circle.

"Wow!"

Suddenly, at this moment, there was a sudden explosion on the top of the giant fish, and the blood and flesh rose to the sky several meters high, and as they rushed up, a figure suddenly emerged from it.

"Brother George Han, Brother George Han." Almost at the same time, Xia Wei excitedly pulled the pangolin's arm and shouted loudly.

The pangolin was being pulled in pain, but at this time it was completely ignored, and the whole face was full of smiles.

That's right, it's George Han!

At this moment, George Han was holding a black long sword and shot it straight out, then stood slightly in the air, with a brave posture like a god and Buddha.

"Unbelievable, simply unbelievable. The giant fish's skin is like steel, and its body is as huge as a mountain. The flesh under the skin is naturally thick and thick. How did he...how could he penetrate through the body of the fish?" Also reluctantly passed God from the astonishment.

"I've said it a long time ago, then he is George Han, now, are you willing to accept it?" The pangolin clenched his fists in excitement, and let out a vicious breath.

Let you say that I am bragging, now, the facts are in front of you!

The two did not speak, but it was clear that the smile on their faces and the exclamation in their eyes were the best answers.

Apart from being convinced, what else? !

The old man smiled and smiled leisurely. If the abyss was just before his eyes, then now, with the appearance of George Han, they seemed to be walking on the ground again.

“Brother George Han, come on!” Xia Wei was also very excited, waving at George Han.

Hearing Xia Wei’s shout, George Han glanced back at Xia Wei. He wanted to squeeze a smile to indicate that she was okay, but when he raised his eyes, he saw that the three of them were getting closer and closer. Like a crowd of stars in black.

George Han’s eyebrows frowned, obviously, the person who came was definitely not kind.

“Do me a favor!” George Han didn’t dare to think too much, thanked the little black stick, and when he moved his hand, the little black stick instantly turned into a big axe.

Axe is cold and domineering.

George Han raised his axe, aimed at the body of the huge strange fish, slashed off suddenly, and then started again...In just a few rounds, the huge strange fish was chopped into several segments by the huge axe in an instant.

“Thanks” with a soft smile, the little black stick turned into a blue smoke and penetrated between George Han’s sleeves. The next second, George Han moved it manually, and a piece that could really cover the giant fish directly, and then stored a ring. Open, the giant fish like a mountain was taken into the storage cutoff by George Han’s coefficient.

Apart from the broken ice cubes, there was only blood and flesh on the ground.

After collecting a few dead ghost fish, George Han, who completely cleaned the battlefield, flew to the pangolin trio and glanced at the three of them: "Fortunately, it was in time." The words fell, George Han. A light beam of energy re-distributed in front of the three of them, and the energy circle that was nearly broken was completely repaired.

"Brother George Han, are you okay?" Xia Wei said with joy and concern.

George Han nodded, looked at the black-clothed crowd not far behind him, and smiled bitterly: "It should be fine now, but I won't know when there is nothing to do." The pangolin looked back and said, "It seems, as you expected. , That group of people did send a lot of people."

Xia Wei said anxiously: "Then let's leave here, otherwise, we will be in danger when they catch up." It

's not only dangerous, it's a desperate situation, if it's that. Once the gang approaches, let alone the cultivation level of those people, just the number of people will inevitably be a fierce battle.

It's nothing more than changing to other places. In this extremely snowy land, the cost is almost nothing to say. At the same time, how the three of them should protect is also a big problem.

Therefore, once surrounded, there is no possibility of parrying.

"What shall we do?" The pangolin looked at George Han.

George Han did not speak, raised his eyes and looked around, but his brows were frowned for a while.

"What's wrong?" George Han muttered suddenly.

Chapter 3127

"What's wrong?" The pangolin was puzzled.

The encirclement soldiers came mainly from the front at this time, and presented a fan-shaped pattern.

If you go back, it is the way you came. Although the rear is very wide, it is very likely that there will be chasing soldiers after George Han's guess. Once you go back, you will fall into the trap of being made dumplings. Bureau.

"So, only left and right are feasible?" The pangolin said strangely.

Therefore, in this way, it can only be destined to have chasing troops on the left and right as well as in the rear.

Moreover, there is also deviated from its destination, and the ghost knows where to rush even if it breaks through.

"Damn, you don't want to..." The pangolin followed George Han for a long time, knowing that this guy always likes strange tricks, so he quickly knew his general idea.

But this idea is too risky, right? !

"Yes." George Han nodded: "Weapon is expensive, and law is wonderful."

"Knowing that there are tigers in the mountains, we tend to travel to the mountains and the art of war is clear. When they are unsteady, they are caught off guard. The best strategy." George Han said coldly.

"After breaking through them, there should be no chasing behind them. We will be able to break through, but will it be too risky?" Xia Wei was so smart, almost transparent, and questioned at this time.

"The so-called odd is that they also expected us not to dare." George Han finished. Moreover, how long George Han's body can last is unknown. If the road to be chased is sealed by the earth, it will not last long. Ji, I wanted to look at the three of them: "Dare to play with me?"

“Oh, I have been with you for so long. I’m afraid I will die too soon. I won’t play with you.” The pangolin smiled disdainfully.

Xia Wei is a girl, but unexpectedly, her answer is no worse than the pangolin, and nodded: “As long as there are three thousand brothers, you can do anything .” All three of them made up their minds, and then all looked at the old man. .

The old man smiled bitterly: “Look at what I am doing. Everyone is in the same boat. Do I have a choice? Besides, as the saying goes, it’s a good thing if you don’t die.”

“I also live a big life .” It’s a good thing to be able to survive life and death and get rich and honor when you get older. If you can’t resist it, you will die if you die. Anyway, this bitter life has long been fucking enough.”

Hearing this Answered, the four of them smiled at the same time.

“Since you all believe me, then I have nothing to say, I will try my best to send you out safely.” When the words fell, George Han’s hand moved, and a cloud suddenly appeared in his hand.

“Cloud?” The three of them were suddenly puzzled when they saw what George Han had brought out.

“You are all sitting on this.” George Han said, and the cloud in his hand became big enough to allow four people to sit inside safely.

“When will you still call clouds?” The pangolin walked up to the clouds and stepped on it a few times. It was very strong, and couldn’t help asking.

“This is not a cloud.” George Han answered with a wry smile, seeming to think of something again: “Or, it is a cloud.”

“You have a fever?” The pangolin looked at George Han depressedly, and said something. Ah, listening to the Lord’s words is like listening to the Lord’s words, as if he said nothing.

“Brother George Han, it’s not a cloud or a cloud, then what is this?”
Xia Wei was simple, still wondering.

“Hehe, I’ll talk to you again later, anyway, it was this guy who helped me to get out of the fish maw so quickly, am I still stable?” George Han asked.

The three of you looked at me, I looked at you, and nodded to each other.

“Then let’s set off.”

When George Han finished speaking, he was really able to motivate him, and he drove directly to the front with the cloud.

At this moment, the tens of thousands of people in black had already rushed to the very edge of the Extreme Snow Land. With the envoy waved a big hand, the whole team collectively stopped.

“Encircle me to death, even a fly is not allowed to fly out, leaving some elite masters with me, I will put down an energy shield to protect you.” As soon as the special envoy’s words fell, Pei Shiyuan was also preparing to respond. , Suddenly, everyone collectively looked forward.

Because a person is dragging a cloud and is quickly coming here...
