Chapter 3156

“Just relying on you as a waste?” The Pigman screamed, and almost before the Bearman made a move, he had already attacked George Han suddenly. The huge machete in his hand was like a huge one. The door panel is average, and it will be split directly into the sky.

Although this knife may seem simple, the power contained in it is surprisingly terrifying. Only the incomparable wind force makes people feel its hugeness several meters away.

“Haha, Brother Pig really deserves to be Brother Pig

, you know if you have one as soon as you make a move.” “That’s not it, are you really playing around when you are Brother Pig?”

” Brother Xiong is the most aggressive. General, how can this kind of younger generation can match it? If there are three tricks, this kid can become the dead soul of Brother Pig.”

“It’s a pity that he died first.” A group of people followed the pig. As soon as he started his hand, he was just talking about it for a while, and the joking and disdain in his brows could be said to have been urged to the extreme.

Also, Brother Pig’s performance is still so stable and strong, maintaining their consistent image in their hearts, so their arrogance is not unreasonable.

“Brother George Han, be careful.” Xia Wei looked at the wicked people so relaxed. Although she believed in George Han’s strength, she still reminded her gently and softly.

George Han chuckled lightly, dismissing the pigman’s thunderous blow at all.

“Some things seem to be powerful, but they are not...” While speaking, George Han had already rushed, and then dodged the pigman’s knife in an extremely difficult posture, and his hands were slightly together: “Foreign power, do it!

” Snap!”

A very crisp voice sounded, but soon, it completely disappeared in the huge rumbling of the pigman’s knife slamming on the ground.

No one noticed this detail, even the pigman at this time also didn’t realize it.

“Hmph, brat, you’re pretty good at hiding.” Seeing George Han evade his own attack, the pigman smiled coldly and looked at George Han disdainfully.

George Han smiled slightly, and Yu Jian received: “It’s easy to say.”

“But, do you think that you can dominate in front of Grandpa Pig with just two strokes of your fist and embroidered legs?”

“Don’t be afraid to tell you, you fucking It’s still a bit too tender.” When the words fell, the Pigman smiled triumphantly, and when he was about to drag the knife to attack again, he suddenly remained motionless, and then the whole fatty face was full of confusion. . is a bit of a fucking weirdness, this hand seems to be suddenly disobedient, and can’t even lift the knife.

“Why? Just this one? You can’t lift the knife because you’re tired?” George Han smiled softly at the pigman, and said calmly.

Pigman was furious, joke, he can’t afford a mere big knife?

There are only ten, what fear does he pig man have?

He gritted his teeth and tried to force again, but there was nothing else but a awkward sound of dry force in his mouth.

Originally, the group of monsters behind him didn’t notice the strangeness, and it wasn’t until this time that the pigman’s forceful sound and George Han's laughter made the group of people pay attention to the pigman's side.

"Old pig, what are you fucking doing, doing acrobatics? Fuck him!"

"Yeah, this kid's mouth is so fucking , he must be taught and taught to let him know how many eyes Lord Ma has. . " "

right, gentlemen, get him, get him. "

gang urgent voice urged.

Hearing these urges, the pigman was obviously anxious, especially looking at George Han at this time, the guy was looking at himself lightly with a faint smile.

For the Pigman, it was a shame to be so provocative.

"Ah!" The

Pigman yelled angrily, reuniting his efforts.

But today's knife is as if it is covered, no matter how hard he puts it, it will be like Taishan, and it won't move.

His forehead was already full of sweat, and his eyes were full of confusion.

I usually hold things that look like a play, but how can it be like this today?

He wondered if George Han moved something, but when he looked closely, George Han was quite a bit away from his knife, and his hands were clean, not as if he did something secretly.

So what's going on?

When he was very puzzled, George Han suddenly snarled at him at this time, as if motioning him to look under his arm.

Almost just when he was about to look towards his hand, suddenly, he seemed to feel a slight pain suddenly coming from his hand, and immediately after that, it was very heartbreaking.

When he turned his hand over slightly, he couldn't help being dumbfounded! ! !

Chapter 3157

when the pighead looked down, he was completely dumbfounded.

I don't know when, there was a small blood hole on his wrist.

The hole is not big, so almost no blood shed, but just such a small hole, it abruptly made the pigman's face pale at this time.

Even...

even at this moment, he was still a little panicked.

Pain, it was almost a heart-wrenching pain now, but what was more terrifying than the pain was the thing that appeared in his little hole at this time.

Those are two, or simply a broken hand muscle, just at the center of the wound, just breaking.

His Tejin was cut off by someone unexpectedly.

He now finally understands why no matter how hard he tried, his hand could never lift his big sword.

But, when did this guy hurt himself?

Could it be that when the sword was picked? !

But, why didn't you feel the slightest pain at that time? !

"Could it be that this guy's sword..." The pigman suddenly looked at George Han, and a hint of surprise flashed in his eyes: "It's so fast? That he didn't even reflect his body?"

But...but He is just a little ant, he...how can he do it?

"That's right, my skin is too strong, so when this guy hurts himself, it's like hurting his fur, but this grandson is lucky and just hurt his important point."

“It must be so.”

Thinking of this, the pigman regained his confidence, and anger followed: “You fucking little ant, you dare to hurt me, I want you to walk around without eating .” “Ahhhhhhh!” There was another roar. , In the next second, Pigman directly changed his hand to a knife, and suddenly furiously attacked George Han, and he was bound to smash George Han.

It’s just that the opposite George Han didn’t panic in his heart, and even stood there slowly.

“Trash!”

Almost as soon as the pigman rushed forward, the guy saw the big knife and was about to cut George Han successfully. Suddenly, George Han, who had not been touched, suddenly turned into a corpse. film.

The Pigman has not had time to react, and immediately...

“Bang!” his big knife slashed directly on the ground, as if it was hacking into the air, his body suddenly pounced forward strangely, and with a loud bang, the huge body was directly heavy. Hit the ground!

Everyone was stunned by the powerful ground shaking, and when they looked back, they saw the pigman facing the ground with his hands curled up.

But compared to the previous wrist with a blood hole, he added another hand at this time, and it looked a little bit oozing.

“Come again.”

George Han turned around indifferently, not even the slightest touch of blood on the jade sword.

For George Han, these beasts were not even qualified to dirty their swords.

Just a cold voice, the pigman was angry again, but his hands were completely abolished, and it was extremely difficult to get up, let alone fight with George Han.

At this moment, the smiles of the monsters onlookers all solidified.

Before, how fierce they laughed, how embarrassing they were now.

Just in the blink of an eye, the pigman's hands were instantly scrapped, even if they were arrogant, they couldn't help but feel cold in their wrists at this time, and quickly pretended to change their positions, but actually hid their wrists.

"Why? Wasn't it crazy before? Now, the waste is lying on the ground and can't get up, and you rubbish, don't dare to say anything?" When the words fell, George Han slowly turned his head back.

Originally, in terms of aura and body, George Han looked back at them as if they were children and adults, but at this time, a group of monsters did not know why, and was abruptly shocked by George Han and couldn't help taking a step back. Keep a certain distance.

An invisible deterrent even made their backs cold.

After changing his eyes to glance at these monsters, George Han sneered slightly: "If you don't dare to talk nonsense, just let it go."

As soon as the words fell, a few monsters really unconsciously turned their bodies sideways, trying to make a way out.

However, at this moment, the bear man glared at the person beside him, and suddenly, a tauren beside him shouted coldly: "Your damn thing is that sword is powerful. There is a kind of sword. Take the sword and your grandfather cow. Fight!"

George Han smiled upon hearing this...
