

His True Colors Novel Chapter 3170 - 3171

Chapter 3170

“What the hell are you talking about?” Looking at George Han’s eyes, Gu Ye even felt that he had misheard.

The kid in front of him didn’t even fear himself at all. What made him mad is that this kid actually dared to speak such rude words to him.

Not to mention that he is a Central Plains who is just a piglet in his eyes, even the monitoring soldiers in this underground world dare not talk to themselves like this.

“Can’t you hear? Are you deaf?” George Han laughed coldly.

This smile, in Gu Ye’s eyes, was the last straw that finally crushed him. He was furious. On the spot, his other hand was directly condensed into a fist, and he was about to punch George Han.

The pangolin hidden in the house couldn’t help it anymore, and had to rush out on the spot, but at this moment, a sneer suddenly came out.

He furrowed his brows and listened to it. He was surprised to find that this sneer was actually made by Xiao Chunhua.

Over there, the furious Gu Ye couldn’t help but look back, but saw Xiao Chunhua sneer, her eyes full of disdain.

“Small flowers, what are you laughing his mother?” “What are you laughing” small flowers continue to laugh, eyes a cold: “? I laugh at you to the imminent death.”

“Hands-on, beat ah, even though you killed him, he If it’s dead, I’ll have no joy all night, I can bear it. But what about you?”

“The people above were let go, but you were beaten to death. When they have no light on their faces, you can still live well?”

“My loneliness will change your old life for one night, why am I not worth it?” When the words fell, Xiao Chunhua turned her face away, even full of provocations: “Do it, better hurry up.” After the words fell, Xiao Chunhua returned. I really don't even look at it anymore.

“You!” The lonely master suddenly became anxious and clenched his fist tighter, but in any case, he couldn't slap this fist at this time.

Yes, Xiaochunhua's words were not groundless. No matter what dirty methods the stinky girl used, it is an indisputable fact that this little white-faced slut was indeed brought down by someone from above.

If you die by your own hands, you will inevitably cause trouble.

The post of assistant manager in the East of the Underground World, there are so many coveted people who are a little lost, and lose their place and lose their lives. It is really impossible to think about it. It seems worthless to make yourself like this for a bitch.

Although Xiaochunhua is indeed a woman she has always wanted but can't get, as long as she is in this position, why is she afraid of not having a woman?

Thinking of this, even though he was very unwilling to let George Han go, he let go and put George Han directly on the ground with a cold smile: “A couple of dog men and women almost fucked your way. At the end of the speech, he looked at Xiao Chunhua coldly: “But, you stinky bitch, don't be fucking proud for too long.”

After speaking, he gave George Han a cold stare, turned and fell. Go away.

Xiaochunhua kept turning her face away, and when she was sure that the lonely master had indeed gone far, she hurriedly ran to George Han's side, hurriedly helped George Han up, and said with concern: “Are you okay?”

George Han shook his head and smiled lightly. It's okay for him.

Go back to the house first.” While supporting George Han, the two returned to the mound hut. When they saw the two entering the house safely, the pangolin was relieved and said dissatisfied: “, who was that guy just now?” It’s too arrogant. If it wasn’t for Three Thousand to stop me, I would kill him in three strokes.”

“One more thing is better than one less thing. If you fight, it must be okay?” George Han smiled lightly.

“If there is a fight, more people will inevitably be alarmed. By then, a relatively safe place will become extremely insecure.” Xiaochunhua agreed, but looking at George Han, she was a little touched: “However, although you just rushed out to help me and I am very grateful to you, did you know? That would be dangerous for you?”

“Since we are all in the same boat, everyone is a friend. Isn’t it right to help each other? Besides, I Believe in your acting skills.”

Upon hearing this, Xiaochunhua’s heart warmed slightly: “Friend?”

But at this moment, on the side of Gu Ye who was leaving in a hurry, he suddenly stopped, and then looked back at the room of the Xiaochunhua Tuwu in the distance, revealing a gloomy sneer, it seems that he suddenly thought of something...

Chapter 3171

the little spring flowers in the house are still warm and ignorant.

Since childhood, she didn’t even know what a friend is, or that she knew, but never experienced it.

Because here has always been full of intrigue, everyone is trying to survive for their lives, even without any means.

Therefore, she has always been the same as those outside, thinking about how other people die and how she lives. As for other things, they are not in their dictionary and can’t be used.

It can even be said that there is no emotion here.

Everything, there are only two words, survive.

“Speaking of acting skills, it is really dangerous, but it really depends on Xiaochunhua. To be honest, although I was hiding in the house and couldn’t see the expression on her face, from her tone of voice, if I replaced it with that lone dog, and I’m so fucking damn that I won’t doubt the authenticity of what Xiaochunhua said.” The pangolin also admired aloud at this time.

Small flowers, indifferent smile: “Here, there is no layer mask, I am afraid I am already dead do not know how many times the”

“Oh, I had been lied to you, and now it seems I’m not really stupid, but you The acting is really good.” Until this time, the pangolin has somewhat recovered some face for his original stupidity.

“The smartest thing about Xiaochunhua is not only because of her acting, but also because she is smart enough. She can actually fabricate such a perfect lie at such a critical moment.” Xia Wei also laughed softly.

“I’m afraid that guy would never think of it until he died, Lao Han didn’t put them down at all, but Lao Han overturned them and came down by himself.” The pangolin also laughed.

George Han smiled, but didn’t really smile happily, because he found that Xiao Chunhua had also been smiling and unhappy at this time.

The old man got up gently and walked to George Han’s side. The veteran patted Xiao Chunhua’s back lightly. He seemed to see George Han’s worries. He smiled: “Don’t worry, Xiao Chunhua is like me. , I’m just used to living alone to survive, and suddenly I’m not used to having friends around me, I’ll get used to it slowly.”Xiao Chunhua raised her head slightly when she heard the old man’s words. Seeing the old man’s kind eyes, she nodded after hesitating for a while.

Maybe, it is true.

“By the way, now that the danger has disappeared, Brother George Han, should you take the opportunity to make up some food?” Xia Wei asked at this time.

George Han was a little embarrassed. Although the seal of the earth did appear, he also prepared a moonlight ghost fish to prevent accidents. But at this time, it was really necessary for Xia Wei to donate blood. George Han really had a hard time... ..

Seems to see George Han's doubts, Xia Wei smiled sweetly, and even Xiaochunhua looked a little silly: "Without my escort, how can Brother George Han take us out of here?"

"It's dirty and messy here, don't you plan to throw me here?"

Hearing her naughty comfort, George Han's heart warmed, nodded, and agreed.

The old man smiled slightly: "It seems that I am busy." When the words fell, he took out some grass-like dried fish balls, and started his sorrow operation again... The house was harmonious, and outside, with a sneer on his face. But the lonely master had already reached the big blast furnace. He walked slowly to a high platform, and then clapped his hands: "Stop it all."

A group of busy people and those with whips in their hands collectively put down their hands. Zhihuo, looking at him, I don't know what this guy is going to do.

The lonely master smiled, glanced at the crowd, and then he waved his hand and called a person with a whip next to him. After whispering a few words in his ear, the lonely master smiled with satisfaction and walked off the high platform, leaving the man alone. Standing on the high platform, nodded at him: "Subordinates understand."

Then, the man raised his head, his face was already full of anger and glanced at everyone present...
