Chapter 4000

“Compared with Pangu axe?”

Pei Gu obviously did not expect Mingyu to ask such a question.

However, after thinking about it carefully, it is not impossible to answer: “I have never seen the two great gods appear at the same time. However, if you want to compare, according to the legend, the Five Elements Divine Stone can’t be compared with the Pangu Axe, let alone the same day. “

But the Five Elements Divine Stone is also a congenital divine object, and its power cannot be underestimated.”

“Then if the Pangu Axe is a very perfect artifact, then what about the Five Elements Divine Stone?” Ming Yu asked.

Pei Gu almost didn’t think about it: “At least nine points.”

When Ming Yu heard this, he couldn’t help but gasp.

Seeing that Mingyu’s situation was not right, Pei Gu was a little puzzled: “Elder Shenlong, what’s wrong?”

Mingyu answered nonchalantly, and continued: “If a person has both the Pangu Axe and the Five Elements Divine Stone, what will happen to this person? “

This is absolutely impossible.

” Pei Gu shook his head resolutely: “The difficulty of Pangu’s axe, how many people in the world have spent their entire lives, even if they have paid for it for generations, it is difficult to find its trace.”

“It is destiny for a person to find it .” “

As for the Five Elements Divine Stone, Pei has already said that the Stone of the Five Elements is scattered in the world, and it is difficult to trace it. Moreover, there is another point that the Stone of Destiny has never appeared in the world.”

“So , to gather together the five scattered stones in the legend and the Stone of Destiny, which has never been heard of any whereabouts, is even more difficult than the Pangu Axe, at least the latter has some clues. “

“And one person has to get the Pangu Axe, and at the same time, there is another destiny opportunity to gather the Five Elements Divine Stone, which is simply nonsense.

Hearing Pei Gu’s

resolute words, Ming Yu’s emotions were not shaken in the slightest, and she even seemed more hesitant.

“Patriarch Pei probably doesn’t know, this George Han is precisely the person who owns the Pangu Axe.”

“What?” Pei Gu was shocked, and he couldn’t even speak for a while: “You...you mean , This Han... George Han has a Pangu axe in his hand? How is this possible?”

“This is not a possibility, but a fact.” Ming Yu said in a low voice: “Many people in the Bafang world know it, and many people have even experienced it. The Pangu Axe is powerful.”

“It’s just that he doesn’t know how to use the Pangu Axe, so naturally he can’t use his strength right now.”

“Besides, the Holy Master of my family has already suppressed the Pangu Axe with a secret method, and he... just didn’t use it much. “

Is this true?” Pei Gu asked in shock.

Mingyu nodded.

Seeing Mingyu’s affirmation, Pei Gu couldn’t help gasping. Naturally

, he never imagined that George Han, such a young man, would have such a king of all weapons. The words of Xiao Qi in his mind resurfaced even more unconsciously at this time, and he couldn’t help but secretly said: “Could it be that I have lived my entire life, but today, I have completely lost sight of it. Have you done it once?” Judging from the increasing facts now, it seems that he is really getting old. If you listen to Xiao Qi’s words, gather George Han, think about George Han’s Pangu axe, plus excellent dispatch and command, what will your Pei family army look like? It must be a big kill in all directions, unstoppable.

At that time, the power of his Pei family will show a terrifying strength, and the grand plan and dominance will be right in front of you.

His temporarily changed heart had obviously changed at this time.

The idea of wanting to conquer George Han and the fall city also became stronger at this time

However, Pei Gu soon had a new question, because it seems that it is not simple to say that the Holy Master Mingyu sealed the Pangu Axe.

Therefore, Pei Gu smiled, tried to cover up what he was thinking, and looked at Ming Yu: “George Han really looks ordinary, but he is actually so unusual. I would never have thought that this guy actually...”

“No!” Ming Yu shook his head: “The Pangu axe mentioned by Ming Yu, George Han is now limited, and Ming Yu is not worried. Of course, it is precisely Patriarch Pei’s words really reminded Ming Yu and made Ming Yu tremble with fear.”

“What does the elder say?” Pei Gu frowned, quite puzzled.

Ming Yu shook his head helplessly: “I suspect that the stone in George Han’s hand is exactly the Stone of Destiny awakened in your mouth, that is, the real Stone of Five Elements!”

“What?”
