

HTC 4021

Chapter 4021

"The owner is back .

" A bunch of executives are obliging and smiling. "This time the Patriarch and others join forces to attack, I believe it will be a good news." "Yes, and Mr. Pei Hu is done, he is out of the gate, this is a double happiness for our Pei family." "Our Pei family is in danger of falling into the city. After being eliminated, Yuan also cooperated with those people in a joint attack. This time, we formed a deep friendship in the siege together. Among them, there is also the outstanding son of Pei Hu. Our Pei family is almost invincible." "That's not true. Well, we are like the rising sun now, with good luck and good luck, how can ordinary people be comparable? The future of the Pei family is boundless." "The future of the Pei family is boundless, but the most promising is our son Pei Hu. , this is the successor of the Pei family, the future helm of the Pei family." "Yes, Mr. Pei Hu, I will do my best to assist you and help my Pei family to flourish." When Pei Hu heard these words, his whole person was stunned. Extremely happy, he nodded again and again with a smile, and the whole person's vanity was greatly satisfied. In addition to complimenting him, these people actually expressed a kind of determination and a kind of loyalty to him. This also means that his position as the future head of the family is becoming more and more secure, so how could Pei Hu be unhappy? ! "The owner is here!" With a shout, Pei Gu's motorcade had arrived in front of the door and slowly stopped. When everyone heard the words, they almost bowed down and saluted collectively, and greeted them in unison: "Congratulations to the Patriarch."

Pei Hu stood in the middle of the crowd. Although he greeted him in the same way, he didn't bend down. Instead, he stood up straight with pride, looking so different.

"Okay!"

Pei Gu's voice sounded faintly while driving.

"Let's be flat

."

"Thank you, Patriarch." Everyone responded in unison.

Pei Gu didn't show up, but continued in the car: "A VIP visited my mansion, but he was in poor health at this time. That's it for you to wait.

Hu'er." "My son is here. "Pei Hu changed his usual perverse behavior, and was very serious at this time. "I order you to invite all the famous doctors of our department to the mansion to heal the wounds of the distinguished guests, and tell them that the body of the honored guests is like the body of the master. You can bring any treasures without delay."

Everyone like the family has not been brought by VIPs for many years. However, although the etiquette of most VIPs is very high, they are definitely not outrageous at the moment.

This thing is already on par with the owner of the house, isn't it high enough?

However, Pei Hu also knew his father's character well, and if he could treat his father with such courtesy, then this VIP must have a high status

He is like this, and so are a group of executives, who have speculated about the identity of the VIP who came here.

"Could it be that the commander over there is not successful?"

"I think it should not be the commander, but at least the second in command of one person and more than ten thousand people. Otherwise, if our Pei family is so powerful, why should the family owner be so polite to others?"

"I understand, it's time to win a big victory, the commanders on both sides are very happy, but he was injured in the battle, so our Patriarch invited him to come to the mansion to treat and recuperate."

"Then we have to step up to find some famous doctors for this VIP's injury, because this is not only related to the face of our Pei family, but the most important thing is that once we can be kind to the VIP, then the external relations of our Pei family will be affected. It's more solid."

"That's right, that's right."

Hearing what the ministers said, Pei Hu smiled slightly.

As the future leader of the family's diplomatic relations, he himself felt that he needed more contact and maintenance by himself, so that he would become more stable after he became the head of the family in the future.

Before he took the seat, his achievements were enough to make his body more gilded.

Thinking of this, Pei Hu bent slightly: "Father, the Qifeng Pavilion where the child lives has always been a quiet and elegant environment, and the birds and flowers are fragrant. Since the VIP needs to recover, it is better to let the VIP collapse to the child's Qifeng Pavilion."

"The Qifeng Pavilion is you . Your childhood dream, you have been building it for almost ten years, and now that it has just been completed, you have to let the VIPs live first before you move in?" Pei Gu was a little surprised.

"The word of honor lies in the noble character, and the boy is willing!" After the words were finished, Pei Hu lowered his head, unable to hide his happiness.

There was no movement in the car, it seemed that Pei Gu was asking for the other party's opinion, and everyone was waiting...

After a while, Pei Gu spoke: "VIP said..."

Chapter 4022

Pei Hu has already erected his ears and waited quietly.

“The distinguished guest said that robbing your house to live is probably not a good thing, and it is still a newly built place, a place of dreams, and this is a thing that grabs people’s favor. He is really not very willing. He is afraid that you will be angry and unhappy.” Pei Gu said.

“Angry? Unhappy?” Pei Hu was cold, and shook his head in the next second: “It is a good thing that Qifeng Pavilion is lucky enough to welcome VIPs to live there. Do you have the above emotions?”

There was another thin voice in the car, and it seemed that Pei Gu was discussing with the VIP again.

After a while, Pei Gu coughed softly: “Hu’er, are you sincere?”

“Baby, there is no lie, you can swear to the sky, if you go against your heart, the sky will strike five thunders.” Pei Hu made an oath And the road.

If the VIP resides in Xifeng Pavilion, he can get the moon first and build a good emotional foundation with the VIP.

Of course, Pei Hu was willing to do this, and he couldn’t even ask for it.

“Okay, since that’s the case, then you immediately order someone to prepare and drive to Qifeng Pavilion.” As soon as the voice fell, Pei Hu was full of joy, and hurriedly went to find a famous doctor, while a group of executives also followed the vehicle obediently, slowly heading towards Go to Qifeng Pavilion.

Qifeng Pavilion is located in the southeast of the City Lord’s Mansion, only a mile and a half away from the City Lord’s Mansion.

However, although it is only a foreign palace, it is extremely large in scale. It sits on the huge lake and is surrounded by green trees, like a place where immortals live.

It is both atmospheric and brilliant, both brilliant and entrained with the tranquility and peace .

It is indeed the pavilion of the phoenix where the phoenix comes to live.

Entering along with the car, he stopped at the entrance of the main hall of Qifeng Pavilion, and Pei Gu helped George Han and walked down slowly.

Knowing that George Han was not feeling well, and now he was exhausted, he helped George Han without even bothering to say hello to the people behind him, and went straight to the bedroom.

Everyone pushes and pushes me, all wanting to see the appearance of the VIP.

It is a pity that they did not turn their heads, naturally it was difficult to see the shape, and the VIP stature could only be vaguely seen through the back, like a human being, and relatively young, a man.

However, even though they didn’t see what the VIP looked like, as Amelia Su and Ziqing from the second car got off the bus, everyone recovered a little bit of what they saw.

The two women looked like angels, and their temperament was excellent, obviously not something that ordinary people could feast their eyes on.

“These two women really should only exist in the sky, not in the mortal world. Come on, one is more beautiful than the other.”

“That’s right, I have seen countless people, but such a beautiful woman is already rare. See, not to mention that there are two of them at the same time.”

“It seems that the status of VIP is really not easy. Think about it, men who can have these two beauties at the same time must be the dragon and the phoenix.”

“Yes . Ah, yes, it’s a pity that we didn’t get to see the real face of the VIP, it’s really a pity.”

When everyone said this, they shook their heads and sighed, full of helplessness.

The two women didn’t make any eye contact with the Pei family. After getting off the car, they followed George Han and Pei Gu closely all the way to the inside.

Zi Qing runs energy around her body at any time and acts as a good guard.

For her, when she was at her weakest, George Han was always protecting her. Naturally, when George Han needed the protection most, she should also be the one who did her part.

Soon, a group of four came to the master bedroom of Qifeng Pavilion, and almost at the same time, Pei Hu moved extremely fast, and dispatched his subordinates to almost the whole city, so that all the doctors and various recuperation experts could speed up the city lord. Assemble in front of the palace.

With the whole city moving, Pei Hu himself was not idle, and suddenly thought that his rare treasure might be useful, so he hurriedly rushed to the west side room in the city lord’s mansion that belonged to him...

Chapter 4023

In the west wing, a woman is sitting on the window sill of the master bedroom in the west wing, playing with the exquisite ring in her hand.

This ring, with fine workmanship and a gemstone in the center, is priceless at first glance.

The woman is also very happy, looking at the ring completely in love with it, she knows that this ring is enough for her to show off in front of any woman.

Not only because it is a rare treasure, but more importantly, the meaning behind it.

Her name is Yin Su.

Although it is not an absolute overlord like the Pei family, it is also a long-established family with some wealth and some power.

It is Feng Jun with a dragon, and the most accomplished Pei Hu of the Pei family is naturally the future dragon-in-law that these not-so-small power families want to seize, but most of them are like this, so the competition is fierce.

There are countless families who want to marry the Pei family. Naturally, there are so many family ladies like her.

Everyone fought openly and secretly, not only for their own face, but also for the glory of the family, but now, the ring sent by Pei Hu has already declared her victory in this kind of war.

She can tell everyone that Yin Su is the real outstanding woman who won this “war”.

Although, in fact, she also knew that even if she won, it did not mean that she really won. What Pei Hu promised was to accept her as a concubine, and he always had a woman in his heart that he could not get.

The fairy of the unicorn saint clan.

However, it is enough to be able to climb the Pei family, and it is enough to gain the heart of Pei Hu among the ten thousand women.

However, in addition to being happy, she was also a little sad.

Because, she doesn't like Pei Hu at all, and she doesn't want to be the concubine of the Pei family. Although she likes the kind of people who are dragons and phoenixes, it doesn't mean that such people must be Pei Hu.

It's just that although everyone has an enviable life, there are also helpless political factors behind it.

Now, she can only find something from behind that false vanity, at least not so negative to make herself less dull.

At this moment, Pei Hu rushed back in a hurry. She got up slightly and opened the door.

No matter how unwilling he is, he is also her future husband and the son-in-law of her Yin family, so she must greet him on the surface.

“You're back?” She forced a smile.

Pei Hu was actually very satisfied with Yin Su, with a beautiful appearance and an extreme figure, but Xiao Xian'er was a thorn in his heart.

“Where's my revolving magic pill?” Pei Hu asked.

“Returning the Divine Pill?” Yin Su was stunned for a second, and the next second, she replied, “I put it away, my father is not in good health, didn't you tell me to put it away, take it to my father, and let him heal? “

Give it to me first, I need it urgently.” Pei Hu said.

Hearing this, Yin Su shook his head slightly: "You said that there is only one revolving pill, and only that pill can make my father feel better, if..."

Yin Suqi's father is already weak, and the Yin family Although it is considered wealthy, it is heading towards its final decline, especially since Yin Suqi's father has been in poor health in recent years, the Yin family will be in danger of bankruptcy and separation at any time.

It was precisely because of such political factors that Yin Su reluctantly accepted this man who she didn't like very much, but who seemed to be okay overall.

But at the moment, if Pei Hu wants to take back the Divine Revolving Pill, then Yin Su is naturally not very happy.

"I know, but now I have a more important place to use the magic pill." Pei Hu said anxiously, "I will try to find a way to do it again with your father."

"Is there someone more important ? I don't believe it, I'm afraid it's your confidante." Yin Su said coldly.

"What kind of confidante is this, it's a VIP, give it to me quickly."

"No!" Yin Su refused.

"Crack!"

With a crisp sound, Pei Hu slapped Yin Su's face and shouted angrily: "Yin Su, don't be ashamed, don't think I don't know why you are willing to marry me as a concubine, I I don't want to break it, but I can only tell you, you need to climb the dragon and follow the phoenix, and so do my Pei family."

"Everyone is on the same boat, so naturally one is honored and one is honored, and if I'm fine, you can follow me, it's about me. Whether I can sit on the position of future head of the family more firmly is also related to whether the power of my Pei family can become bigger in the future, so I can take it out quickly."

Yin Su covered her aching face and looked at Pei Hu hatefully: " Well, I can give you the magic pill, but I have a request."

Chapter 4024

"What is the request."

"The medicine is to save your future father-in-law's life, now, you can force it regardless of his life or death. If I want to go back, I want to see what kind of noble person can make you like this. I want to go with you." Yin Su said firmly.

Pei Hu thought for a while, although this request is a bit of a nuisance, but after all, there is no cross-border behavior. Besides, if he can get back the magic pill, Pei Hu also wants to do more than one less thing: "Alright, let's go together, let's go together. ."

Hearing Pei Hu's affirmative answer, Yin Su nodded: "Wait a moment, and I'll get it for you." After the words were finished, Yin Su turned around and entered the room, but what Pei Hu did not notice was that Yin Su's eyes suddenly became extremely vicious, and even filled with a hint of cold light that was difficult to detect.

After a while, while Pei Hu was waiting anxiously, Yin Su walked out slowly with a small box in his hand.

"Then let's go now." Yin Su said lightly.

Pei Hu nodded. As a result, the box in Yin Su's hand was slightly opened, and when he saw that there was indeed a magic pill in it, he smiled: "Okay." After leaving the west courtyard, he came to the gate of the city lord's mansion. At the gate, a group of famous doctors were already waiting. For a long time, seeing Pei Hu coming out, they all prayed.

"I've seen Mr. Pei."

Pei Hu nodded and glanced around, only to see that there were hundreds of doctors around, and everyone was holding a medicine box in their hands. Obviously, these guys came prepared.

"I want to come, you have already learned from my soldiers that today, my Pei family has a distinguished guest. However, he is seriously injured and needs urgent treatment."

"My father has an order. If any doctor can heal a distinguished guest, he will be a benefactor of my Pei family, and he will definitely thank him. In addition, my father also has an order to greet me with any precious medicinal materials, and my family will pay for everything. Did you hear it clearly?"

At one point, everyone nodded: "I will understand, please rest assured, I will do my best to treat the distinguished guests."

"Very good, then let's go." After the words were finished, Pei Hu The horse took the lead and led the crowd towards Qifeng Pavilion.

When he arrived at Qifeng Pavilion, Yin Su was obviously surprised.

Although she has yet to marry Pei Hu, or even hold a basic engagement, she still has done some homework to Pei Hu, and she knows the significance of this Fengfeng Pavilion to Pei Hu.

It can be said that Qifeng Pavilion is one of Pei Hu's life visions.

Of course, it is such a place that Pei Hu himself has not lived in yet, but he first arranged the so-called honored guest in his mouth. It seems that this honored guest is really, as Pei Hu said, extremely important.

It seems that this trip has really come to the right.

A group of people walked all the way, went deep into the courtyard of the master bedroom, and stopped at the small courtyard in front of the door.

Pei Gu was standing at the door, co-authoring a group of executives waiting anxiously.

Seeing Pei Hu leading people to come, he was very happy.

"I have seen my father." Pei Hu said respectfully.

"Okay."

"The boy has ordered the soldiers to call all the famous doctors in the city. In addition, I also have people widely distributed hero posts, which will be posted to major cities within the sphere of influence of my Pei family. I believe that in the next few days, there must be an endless stream of doctors coming." Pei Hu said.

"I don't worry about your work." Pei Gu smiled slightly, turned around and knocked on the door softly, saying politely, "The doctor has arrived."

The words fell, footsteps sounded in the room, the door opened slightly, and a woman walked out slowly.

When everyone saw the appearance of this woman, they couldn't help being shocked.

Pei Hu, who was originally smiling, looked at her blankly and almost forgot to breathe.

"My master has an order. I'm sorry to bother you all. Please leave in batches."

Who else could this woman be besides Ziqing.

A group of doctors quickly lined up to enter.

"Father, this... this woman..." Pei Gu's heart flew up.

How could Pei Gu not know his child's thoughts, looked at Yin Su next to him, and shook his head at Pei Hu: "Some people's women can't be touched."

Pei Hu was very disappointed, but he understood what his father said, so he could only sigh secretly. , Why do you arouse your heart to understand women, but they don't belong to you at all?

However, just when Pei Hu secretly sighed and lost, Yin Su on the side made a move that shocked Pei Gu and Pei Hu almost at the same time.

"This..." Pei Gu said in shock.

Pei Hu was also completely confused, so he said, "Yin Su...you...you...what are you doing?"

Chapter 4025

Yin Su stopped, turned back slightly, and looked at the two of them: "Su Er just wanted to see if she could help. VIP."

Yin Su had already walked into the group of doctors at this time, which really confused the two of them.

“You know how to heal people?” Pei Hu asked with a frown.

Regarding some basic information about Yin Su, Pei Hu actually has some grasp of it. However, he has never heard of Yin Su’s medical skills.

Yin Su smiled slightly: “My father has been ill for a long time, and Yin Su has been taking care of it for a long time. It is so-called long-term illness that he became a doctor. In addition, Yin Su has supplemented some knowledge for his father’s treatment, but he knows a little bit.

” It’s just a little effort. This patient has been treated by various doctors, perhaps, Yin Su’s technique can just be helpful to the distinguished guests, so it’s okay to try it.”

Hearing Yin Su’s words, Pei Gu nodded with great satisfaction.

What Yin Su said is indeed true. The patient’s body is different, and the natural conditions of the medicine are different, and each doctor’s dosage of medicine is different, and the natural medical effect on the patient is different.

It can be seen that Yin Su really understands some medical theory.

At the same time, being able to stand up and share the worries for his Pei family at this time is enough to prove that Yin Su, a daughter-in-law who has never been there, has a heart, even though this power may indeed be extremely meager.

But small things are big. From this point of view, Pei Gu is still very sure of Yin Su’s performance.

Seeing the smile on his father’s face, Pei Hu, who was still a little worried at this time, also suppressed these worries, nodded, and said to Yin Su: “Susu, you go and try.”

Yin Su nodded . , squeezed into the team of doctors, and slowly moved towards George Han’s house.

Wave after wave of doctors entered the room, but most of the minutes later, they were helpless and exited.

For most of them, there are not many ways to deal with George Han’s current injury.

To regulate his body, in fact, the problem is not big, but according to the internal requirements, to treat his meridians, there is nothing to do.

It was almost time for Yin Su, but compared to the others, Yin Su was actually not nervous at all.

Because obviously, she didn’t mean to drink alcohol.

Soon, it was Yin Su’s turn.

The group quickly entered the house.

In the room, there was a man lying down, his eyes closed slightly, very handsome.

His form and momentum, even if he is a patient at this time, is enough to give people a sense of oppression. If he is a hero, he fits most of the heroic temperament in Yin Su's imagination.

The only thing lacking is that he is like a cripple at this time, his muscles are broken, which also shows that he does not have the strength to belong to a hero at this time.

Glancing at

Amelia Su next to her, Yin Su sighed helplessly, she really is a beauty who loves a hero, and the world she sees is definitely not her own, at least these two stunning women have explained everything.

It's her turn.

She sat down slightly and checked George Han's pulse.

For a moment, she put away her hand: "It seems that there is no solution, it can only be destroyed, but it is not that there is no way."

As soon as these words came out, everyone was immediately stunned, even George Han suddenly opened his eyes at this moment, looking at Yin Su.

When everyone was helpless, Yin Su's words naturally caused waves like a blockbuster.

Amelia Su was obviously a little excited and looked at Yin Su: "Girl, do you have a solution?"

Yin Su nodded slightly: "I don't dare to say 100%, but there are some ways, you can try it."

Looking at the white and beautiful woman in front of her, her appearance is not inferior to the fairy, George Han gradually saw from her eyes Confident, he couldn't help asking: "Really?"

"Yin Su never lies." Yin Su smiled.

George Han nodded: "Yin Su? Well, since Miss Yin has a solution, then there is Miss Lao Yin. If you can help me heal, no matter what the effect is, I will be very grateful."

Yin Su smiled slightly: "Yin Suzi should do her best." After the words were finished, Yin Su slowly got up and looked at the doctors present: "Everyone, please go out for a while, so that Yin Su can treat the VIP alone with some time and space.

" Zhiqu chose to leave.

Amelia Su and Ziqing looked at each other, and finally saw Yin Su still nodding, and the two women also obediently backed out.

Physicians should not be distracted when treating people. Naturally, most of them are treated alone, which is reasonable.

After everyone went out, only Yin Su and George Han were left in the room...

Chapter 4026

Yin Su smiled slightly, then took out a small wooden box from her hand and opened it gently, there was a pill inside, she lightly handed it to George Han's hand: "I also ask your customer service."

George Han took the pill and put it in his hand to look at it slightly. Usually, it must be condensed by the treasures of heaven and earth.

"This is Yuqingdan." She smiled.

"Yuqing Dan?"

"It's for concentrating and concentrating. It's not that it will improve immediately after taking it, it's just laying a foundation for you." She said.

George Han nodded, raised his head and swallowed Dan.

Yin Su didn't speak, just looked at George Han with a light smile.

This made George Han greatly confused, and he said with some surprise: "What should Yin Su do next? I mean..."

"Actually,

I don't know how to treat diseases like yours." Yin Su smiled and shook his head.

George Han frowned slightly and looked at Yin Su, wondering what she meant.

"However, I do know who can heal you." Yin Su smiled.

"Oh?" George Han asked suspiciously.

"Don't worry, I have arranged everything myself, what I can guarantee is that you will definitely be much better." Yin Su smiled.

If someone else said this, George Han really wanted to open his mouth. After all, what he wanted right now was a doctor, not a fortune teller in the arena.

What kind of treatment is this for her?

It's clear he's kidding himself.

But looking at Yin Susi's gentleness, his eyes were full of confidence, and George Han really didn't know what to say for a while.

In the dark, he actually believed what she said.

"Your honored guest is too nervous." After the words were finished, Yin Su got up and went to George Han's bedside. She lifted her hand and gently rubbed her shoulders.

George Han wanted to refuse, but Yin Su smiled and said, "The exclusive method can help you recover."

Seeing that, George Han could only follow her.

The two were speechless. After a while, Yin Su smiled and said, "My father has been ill for a long time. This method is also a method that Yin Su has been groping for years, combined with medical theory and created by himself. For the human body, it can open the tendons and activate the blood. But the blood in your body is still intact, and it can help you restore your blood."

George Han did not hear the word "blood", Yin Su emphasized her extremely obscure tone. difference between these two words.

Seeing that George Han did not respond, Yin Su smiled slightly: "The Pei family has a magic pill that can turn the dead back to life, they will give it to you later, and after you take it, combined with my massage, it will definitely make you feel better. Your health is much better."

"Returning Divine Pill?" George Han frowned slightly: "By the way, how does the girl know about the Pei family?"

"Yin Su is also considered to be related to the Pei family. It was originally given to my Yin family by the Pei family."

"Oh?" George Han looked back at Yin Su.

Yin Su smiled: "Originally, Yin Su was puzzled, after all, for Yin Su, this pill was a life-saving thing for Yin Su's father, so Yin Su had to succumb to the Pei family because of this, but at this time it was halfway through. Being transferred to others, Yin Su..."

At this point, although Yin Su smiled, everyone could taste her bitterness and sadness from her smile. which is Even George Han was full of guilt at this time. After all, although he didn't do it by accident, the matter started because of him.

A pill, on the one hand, restores one's own injury, on the other hand, is related to the lives of others.

"So, you came in with the doctors, not because you wanted to heal me, but because you wanted me to return the pill to you?" George Han asked, "Actually, I am only treating injuries, not saving lives, but you are saving lives. , if you are telling the truth, turn the magic pill, and I can give it to you."

Hearing this, Yin Su put down the massage, walked a few steps to George Han, turned slightly sideways, and saluted George Han one by one.

After that, she raised her peerless face and shook her head at George Han: "Yin Su does not dare to cross the line like this, Yin Su came, not to turn the magic pill."

"Oh?" George Han was stunned. ...

Chapter 4027

Yin Su smiled bitterly: "Yin Su is indeed here simply to treat a distinguished guest, without any unreasonable thoughts. "

Besides, how long can the VIP help Yin Su for a while?"

“Today, the VIP can ask the Pei’s family for the God-returning Pill, which is the face of the VIP. What’s the point? The Pei family was annoyed that the gift was not delivered to the distinguished guests. After that, they will definitely turn their anger on Yin Su. Yin Su is only a female, how can she resist?”

“Yin Su is wronged and seeks perfection. Life, I am not afraid of death, but Yin Su has family members and relatives behind him.”

George Han nodded, seeing Yin Su’s sincerity, he could understand her mood at this time.

“How about this, wait for me to accept the medicinal pill, and then I will quietly transfer it to you, what do you think?” George Han asked.

“VIP...VIP, this is your magic medicine for healing. You sent it to me like this, this...” Yin Su was a little moved, but looked at George Han in disbelief.

George Han smiled slightly: “I said, no medicine would kill me, but your father’s life will be ruined without the medicine. That being the case, things are also prioritized, you can take it.”

George Han is now aware of his physical condition. A revolving magic pill may not bring much healing effect to his body, and it is more wasteful to use it.

What’s more, even if it works, is George Han the one who sees death and refuses to be saved?

He can’t do it.

Yin Su heard the words, with tears in her eyes, she knelt heavily in front of George Han, and was about to kowtow, but was gently lifted up by George Han.

“It’s just a pill, Miss Yin Su doesn’t have to bow like this.” George Han smiled.

“By the way, the honored guest has the grace of saving his father to Yin, and it is like remaking the Yin family. I haven’t asked the benefactor’s name yet.

” “My name is George Han.”

“It’s a simple name, but it’s easy to remember. These three words will be engraved in Yin Su’s heart for a lifetime and will never be forgotten.” Yin Su saluted again.

George Han smiled, shook his head, and went back to the bed to sit down: “It’s all trivial matters, nothing to worry about.”

“If there is nothing else, Miss Yin can leave first. Today, a group of doctors treat me as a zoo. From the point of view of the animals in the middle, the spirit is not good, and I want to rest.”

“Well, tomorrow morning, you come to my house in the name of practicing medicine, and I will give you that magic pill.

” George Han waved his hand slightly, indicating that she could go down.

However, Yin Su did not leave immediately, but stayed where he was.

Noticing that she hadn't left, George Han couldn't help but wonder, and asked, "Is there anything else?"

"Master Han, do you think Yin Su is too scheming?" she asked.

"Not at all." George Han shook his head.

"Yin Su's move is also helpless. My father is seriously ill and urgently needs treatment, so he has to listen to Pei Hu's change of medicine. Originally, Yin Su has already accepted the destiny and can save his father's life. Is Yin Su innocent or not? It doesn't matter. But I don't know that Yin Su can't do anything about killing you in the middle of the way."

"If there is something that annoys you, Yin Su will apologize here. The family is in the middle of the road, so the little girl has to shoulder her shoulders. Stand tall."

After the words were finished, Yin Su bowed to George Han one more time, and quickly retreated.

George Han gave a wry smile. He didn't have any prejudice against Yin Su. He might have looked at Yin Su too seriously, but it wasn't because he was dissatisfied. Eyes and other subtle movements to determine whether Yin Su is lying.

Or, have no purpose.

Facts have proved that Yin Su is sincere and has no flaws. Therefore, George Han's attitude has already changed after confirming that the matter is true.

In George Han's place, Yin Su's actions are actually a very clever one, and this matter also proves her independence and maturity.

George Han admired her more, but she didn't think she had any scheming.

The biggest difference between planning and scheming is that the former is not ill-intentioned, while the latter is often mercenary.

She obviously belongs to the front, at least in George Han.

What George Han didn't know was that almost the moment Yin Su walked out of the door, a cold smile appeared on the corner of her mouth...

Chapter 4028

"How is it?"

Seeing Yin Su coming out, the first and most excited were Pei Gu and Pei Hu.

After all, for the two of them, it is the best thing to take this opportunity to let their own people cure George Han. Therefore, this result is naturally the best for the two of them.

Amelia Su and Ziqing were the first, not because they didn't care about George Han, but because the father and son were too excited. Yin Su smiled lightly: "Whether the result of the treatment is good or bad, it

's not what the doctor said. Shouldn't you ask the patient?"

The confident smile showed at least to some extent that she was satisfied with the results of the treatment.

That is to say, the ending must be good.

The two fathers and two daughters couldn't help talking, and they all rushed into the house.

However, just as he was about to leave, Yin Su shook his head:

"The distinguished guest said that he was tired after dealing with so many doctors, and wanted to sleep and rest. I think you should not disturb." The father and son of the Pei family were impatient and thought We have to go and see, but Yin Su's words do have some truth, especially Pei Gu, who knows that Han 3,000 boats are exhausted, and he has to deal with so many doctors. Going around again is really uncomfortable.

After thinking for a while, Pei Gu nodded and looked at Amelia Su: "Then we won't be bothered too much. If there is anything, Amelia Su, you can just say it, and the Pei family will try their best to meet your needs."

Amelia Su nodded: " Many thanks to Patriarch Pei."

"Pei Hu!"

"Baby is here."

"You have ordered people to strengthen the security around Qifeng Pavilion. If the VIP is in any danger, I will ask you."

"Baby understands that the boy has asked the Tigers to guard the attic at any time."

"Also, let me know as soon as possible .

All cities, let them urge the doctors to come here. In addition, they can also widely collect the medicines that treat the meridians and gather the elixir to help the VIPs recover. As for the price, tell anyone that my Pei family is never short of money."

"Yes. After the words were finished, Pei Gu bowed his hands to Amelia Su: "Then Pei Gu will be excused first."

Amelia Su nodded: "Congratulations."

Pei Gu waved his hand and led everyone present to exit the master bedroom courtyard, Yin Suduo Glancing at Amelia Su and Ziqing, they also turned around and left with the Pei family.

After the group left, Amelia Su and Ziqing hurried back to the house to visit George Han.

“All gone?” George Han laughed.

Amelia Su nodded and hurriedly asked, “How is the treatment for that woman just now? Can it help you?”

“Yes, Brother George Han, the woman didn’t say the result, but let us ask you. It’s not good that you shouldn’t ask the doctor, but the patient, because the patient knows their physical condition better.” Ziqing also agreed.

George Han gave a wry smile, saying that the more beautiful a woman is, the more brainless she is. Coincidentally, how come the women he meets are not only beautiful, but also smarter than the other?

Yin Su’s move, neither admitting her true purpose nor making it unreal, but throwing the problem to herself with clever reasons.

It’s really interesting.

“I think it’s okay.” George Han smiled.

Just when George Han wanted to say more, there was another knock on the door.

The three of them looked back at the same time, and Zi Qing was the first to speak: “Who?”

Zi Qing frowned: “Didn’t Mr. Pei leave with Patriarch Pei? Why did you go back?”

“That’s right, there is a secret treasure below, which was originally a treasure, but I heard that the VIP was injured, so I reluctantly gave up my love and specially offered it to me. This treasure, I hope it will help the distinguished guests.”

“Before there were many people, I was afraid that it would be inconvenient, so ... so I specially returned it and wanted to give it to the distinguished guests by myself.

” To George Han.

George Han shook his head slightly.

Zi Qing nodded and said, “He has already fallen asleep. If there is anything left at the door, I will take it after a while.”

“But...” Pei Hu was obviously a little unwilling. Wouldn’t it be in vain if we couldn’t see each other?

“What else is there to do, son?”

“But there is one thing. The distinguished guests came from afar. I don’t know if we can have a meal together in the evening. I ordered someone to prepare some specialties of the Pei family...”

George Han nodded, Zi Qing He opened his mouth and said, “Young Master, we will definitely admire your face. See you in the evening...”

Hearing this, Pei Hu was overjoyed: “Okay, I will send someone to pick up the VIP in person later that day.”

Chapter 4029

Although I have not seen the VIP, but when I think of being able to drink with the VIP in the evening, Pei Hu is in a good mood, and he did not face it directly. Harvest, but indirect labor is also good.

Seeing Pei Hu leaving, George Han shook his head helplessly.

I really don't know what he is so eager to see himself doing.

Sometimes, it's better to see than not to see. At least, in such a situation, he will not do anything about it, but once he sees his face, I am afraid that he will not be calm from now on.

George Han smiled lightly, looked at the two women, and then told them everything that happened with Pei Hu in the Qilin Holy Land.

Even in the land of the demons, it was so bad that the people of the Pei family were hunted and killed, and they all made it clear to the two girls.

After listening to these words, Amelia Su frowned immediately:

"You still want to go to the dinner party? This young master of the Pei family has such a conflict with you, if you go..."

"Isn't this Pei Gu?" George Han He smiled and said, "His father isn't dead, how could he be so messed up?"

"Besides, since we arrived at Pei's house, since the master invited us, how could we not go as guests? I don't know, I thought we were arrogant. Incomparable, don't take others seriously!"

The power of the Pei family is right next to the fallen city, and being able to make friends with them is naturally beneficial and harmless to George Han.

Moreover, due to the situation of the war, George Han had no choice at all.

The Pei family helped him at a critical moment. No matter what their purpose was, it was a fact. Since he had agreed to cooperate with them, it was natural that Jin Cheng would come.

Amelia Su nodded: "That's true."

"I

Rest. George Han finished his words and looked at Amelia Su: "If you have nothing to do, you can take Ziqing out for a walk." The Pei family area is also considered another customs. As for me, my body is stiff, and I haven't reached the point where I need food and water. Hearing George Han's words, Amelia Su smiled slightly. She knew that George Han was caring about her. After thinking about it, Amelia Su nodded: "Okay, then let's go out for a walk, you have a good rest. "

George Han nodded, pointed to his face, and signaled Amelia Su to give a goodbye kiss.

Amelia Su's face was a little red, and Ziqing was still here.

Although Ziqing is *, she still understands this, and got up slightly: "Sister Amelia Su, I'll wait for you outside the door. When the words were over, Zi Qing walked out of the room quickly. Amelia Su took advantage of this gap, and quickly slipped away after a little water

, the Pei family mansion has already been busy, the servants are busy arranging the decorations in the mansion and preparing for the dinner party, and the nobles in the mansion are not idle. The men are naturally changing their clothes and shaving, while the women are wearing makeup, trying their best to make themselves comfortable. The best state has appeared.

The head of the Pei family has already ordered. Tonight is an important moment for the banquet of the Pei family. Because the Seventh Princess who was the least valued in the past, was named by the Patriarch of the Pei family today, and the Seventh Princess must be selected carefully, dressed up well, and even released the Pei  library for her to choose. Just so that the seventh princess of the Pei family will be in her best state.

The young women of the Pei family are naturally talented, and from this point of view, you can see some clues. Although the specific facts are unknown, it is always right to draw a gourd. Therefore, the women take the whole afternoon to do their own work. own makeup.

Finally, evening has come.

With the lighting of various lanterns in the mansion and the sound of music slowly, tonight's family banquet in the Pei family has already kicked off.

The people of the Pei family were all dressed up and looked extremely formal. After Pei Hu sent an exquisite motorcade to Xifeng Pavilion to pick up the people, Pei Gu, as the head of the family, personally led the children of the Pei family to stand in front of the gate of the Pei family mansion, waiting patiently.

In front of Qifeng Pavilion, George Han also took two daughters and slowly went out...

Chapter 4030

When Amelia Su and the two women saw the pickup parked in front of the door, they couldn't help but be stunned.

What kind of car is that, it is clearly three movable gold...

Except for the wheels wrapped in a special soft material, the whole car is made of gold, even in the night, the lights are dazzling.

“Is this too exaggerated?” Amelia Su said slightly.

Zi Qing was so dumbfounded that she couldn’t even speak. She had seen rich people, but it was the first time she had seen them like this.

George Han gave a wry smile, looked at Amelia Su and said with a smile: “Did you see? Normally, I’m still too low-key. I’m afraid I won’t be able to reach this level in my whole life to show off my wealth.

” When they got in the car, the servants had already rushed to the front of the three of them, laying a carpet made of top-quality fur on the feet of the three of them.

That feeling is like stepping on a carpet made of mink coats on the earth...

This kind of specification is not too high.

“Three VIPs, please get in the car!” When the words fell, the servants bowed down together, showing great respect.

The three looked at each other and boarded the golden car respectively.

Afterwards, as the servants started shouting, the convoy moved slowly, and the ceremonial team that followed the car also sprinkled flowers and played music appropriately, which filled the atmosphere and pressure for a while.

Ten minutes later, the convoy was approaching Pei’s house.

Looking at the slowly approaching convoy, looking forward to it, Pei Gu and the others who had been waiting for a long time were also refreshed with a smile on their faces.

“The distinguished guests are here.” As the servants shouted again, the convoy slowly stopped.

“Pei Gu leads the Pei family up and down, and welcomes the distinguished guests

.” Pei Gu was in a good mood and said loudly into the car.

“Patriarch Pei is really polite, and this kind of courtesy makes someone Han really flattered.” In the car, a chuckle sounded at the same time.

Immediately afterwards, the three cars opened their curtains one by one and walked out slowly.

When they saw the three of them, the people of the Pei family were shocked and at the same time, they finally understood why the family asked them to dress up carefully.

This is simply the three people with the ceiling of Yan Zhi.

The two women are as beautiful as angels, and each has its own special temperament, and the man is also dignified in appearance and quite heroic. Although it is only the first contact, his temperament is also extremely extraordinary, so many women from the Pei family are present. All are enthusiastic.

The seventh princess of the Pei family stood still at the scene. Although she knew that her father had a purpose in putting her makeup on

, she would never have imagined that this purpose was used on George Han.

After all, her father's trip was originally to attack the city that should fall and George Han, how could she have thought that in the blink of an eye, the "enemy" became her father's guest of honor?

But after thinking about it again, it seems that he can understand that his father should have seen George Han's ability. Naturally, he carefully considered what he said, and finally recognized this statement.

No wonder his father's attitude towards himself was obviously more than twice as good as before when he came back.

She was very happy to see George Han again.

But some people are happy, which means that some people will be unhappy.

At least, the smile on Pei Hu's face at this time has already solidified, like the extreme cold winter.

Pei Hu was completely petrified in place, he didn't understand,

He also didn't understand that the guest of his Pei family, how... how could it be George Han?

This is his own f* enemy, and he is the kind of enemy that he can't wait to kill. Even if my father sent troops this time, it was only to fight his own enemy.

Why... how did this guy become the VIP of the Pei family in a blink of an eye?

"Father, why is this fellow... why is he here?" Reflecting it, Pei Hu hurriedly looked at Pei Gu: "This guy is George Han, he is our enemy, he... did he take us Your VIP was kidnapped?"

"Someone, someone here."

When Pei Hu shouted, the guards immediately gathered here.

However, Pei Gu roared angrily at this time: "Retreat! George Han is the VIP of my Pei family, who dares to touch him? How many heads do you have?"

"What?!"
