

HTC 4061

Chapter 4061

“That’s good, it saves a lot of trouble.”

“Listen, Feng Yiting will stop immediately from today. Open, within three days, clear this place, and those who violate the order will be executed!” As soon as these words came out, Mr. Qin was dumbfounded on the spot.

He felt that he had heard it wrong.

This Fengyi Pavilion is not only one of the landmark buildings in the city, but more importantly, there are many treasures here, and the transaction volume is huge, which is almost the largest treasure trading market in the entire Pei family.

It not only contributes a huge source of economy, but also attracts countless wide-ranging merchants and rare customers to the Pei family.

It can be said that Feng Yiting is simply the pinnacle of the high-end material exchange within the Pei family’s sphere of influence, and there is no such thing as one.

It’s just such a place, let alone the power of the Pei family’s money, but it doesn’t.

Based on its value alone, it’s definitely not something that anyone can shut down.

But it happens that the owner of Pei is the one who can decide whether to switch it on or not, and he just wants to turn it off.

“Patriarch Pei, do you really want to close Fengyi Pavilion? Do you know how much tax Fengyi Pavilion contributes each year? How many jobs are created?”

“This is a whole industrial chain, involving tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of people. My livelihood.”

Mr. Qin didn’t seem to be reconciled, so he hurriedly persuaded Pei Gu.

Beside Pei Gu, some entourage hurriedly said in a low voice, “Patriarch, Feng Yiting is not just an exchange as simple as an exchange. If you move it, many people in the Pei family’s forces will be affected, so please think twice about it.”

Pei Gu frowned slightly: “Do you really think I’m the head of the family for nothing?”

“What Do you think I won’t know?”

“But I ask you, as a The owner of a family, how much loss would it be if his reputation goes bankrupt?”

“George Han is a VIP of my Pei residence, and the owner of the family has already said that seeing him is like seeing me, of course, when he came to visit Fengyi Pavilion, he encountered bullying. And insults, what kind of formality is this?”

“Tell you, Fengyi Pavilion must be closed, and Liu’s family must be punished.” After the words were finished, Pei Gu looked at George Han: "Pei is not good at management, so that you have suffered so much in George Han. It's really not right to be wronged, but now I have severely punished these gangsters and vented my anger for you, I don't know if the three thousand are satisfied? The previous arrogance, thumped and knelt directly in front of George Han: "Han Ye, Han Ye, I was wrong, don't kill me

, don't kill me, I'm still young, I'm old, I'm not married and have children. Ah, if I die, the Liu family will end."

Mr. Qin lost his arrogance, although he didn't beg for mercy like Young Master Liu, he kept his head down, didn't say a word, and didn't dare to look at George Han at all. Even a thousand glances.

"If I had known today, why did I have to do it in the first place?" George Han looked at Young Master Liu, and was speechless for a while: "I gave you many chances when you were young. Even when I knew you were Young Master Liu, Nian, as the family owner Pei and I are familiar with it, let it go. However, do you remember what you said?"

"Zong Yuan is a dog, I can't remember what Zong Yuan said, please, Lord Han, don't kill me. , don't kill." When the words fell, Liu Gongzi made several consecutive noises on the ground.

Han

George Han asked you over and over again, but you kept staring at your face, according to my temper, you have no regrets in death, but your Liu family is a meritorious servant of the Pei family after all. ."

"Patriarch Pei has already been punished, so I don't need to say more. Let's just leave this matter." After the words were finished, Young Master Liu happily kowtowed and apologized: "Thank you, Lord Han, for not killing him. Thank you, Lord Han."

After cleaning up the Liu family , George Han set his eyes on the man named Mr. Qin.

He still bowed his head and didn't say a word, as if begging, his attitude was a little arrogant, but he didn't seem to have it. George Han smiled and walked in front of him a few steps: "You are the supervisor here, right?"

"Qin... No, subordinate, exactly." Mr. Qin replied slightly.

"To be honest, I'm not satisfied with how Pei Patriarch has handled you." George Han smiled and said, "Are you interested in hearing what I want to do with you?"

Chapter 4062

waiting for the person to speak, Pei Gu has already said: "Three thousand, if you feel that I am not satisfied with the handling, then you should deal with it as soon as possible. That's right . In short, everything is based on your happiness as the primary condition."

His son had already done such a thing, and almost drove George Han out of anger, but it still hasn't been settled yet, and Feng Yiting somehow caused an accident.

At this terrifying juncture, Pei Gu certainly wouldn't care so much. If he should withdraw, he should withdraw, and if he should kill, he would kill. He just wanted to calm down this turmoil as soon as possible.

Of course, by punishing these people harshly, it can actually play down his son's side, which is also a little selfishness of Pei Gu.

When Mr. Qin heard Pei Gu's words, he knew that he had nowhere to go.

It's just that the silence over the years has given him a lot of improvement, so even though he knew that he would die, he didn't show the panic of Young Master Liu.

"Qin has eyes but doesn't know Mount Tai, so damn it, VIP, please order."

"As the manager of Fengyi Pavilion, what you should do is to serve every guest here, even if there are frictions and incidents. From the beginning, you should also try to dissuade and reconcile the first time. However, what you do is to help the strong and bully the weak. To be honest, if Feng Yiting is handed over to someone like you, it is indeed better to quit the business. It's good to close the door."

"However, Feng Yiting has indeed been in business for many years before it became the scale it is today. With today's reputation, it is really a pity to close it like this."

"I don't think you deserve any credit. There is also hard work, so be it."

"Fengyi Pavilion continues to operate, manage

The management position is still handed over to you, but the ugly words are ahead. If there is a similar oppression next time, you will end it by yourself, and there is no need for others to judge. What do you think?

Hearing George Han's words, Mr. Qin was stunned for a moment, as if he never thought things would enter such a situation. Not only did he not die, but he returned to his post in confusion, which was really surprising. At the same time, it is quite puzzling.

"I treat VIPs like this, but VIPs can give me a chance to start all over again?"

George Han smiled and looked at Pei Gu. Of course it was easy to kill him, but what's the point of killing him and shutting down Fengyi Pavilion? It's just a little. But for the Pei family, it must have a profound impact. After all, the Pei family On the contrary, the more prosperous they are, George Han benefited more. Although Pei Gu said it nicely, but if he really wanted to do something, wouldn't he feel pain? George Han is not a person who stares at his face, since Pei Gu has given himself enough In order to save face, I should go down the steps instead of holding it high. "Patriarch Pei, are you satisfied with George Han's way of doing things like this?" George Han said. As George Han thought, Pei Gu was more to prove his sincerity in front of George Han, and he was reluctant to cut down such a large exchange. Pei Gu smiled slightly: "Pei Mou has already said, how to deal with this matter is entirely up to you, 3000. Since you have decided to arrange this way, then arrange it this way.” “Qin, don’t you thank Mr. Han?” “ ” Qin Dou thanked Mr. Han. “Qin Dou bowed his head slightly and said gratefully.

“Is it enough just to thank your mother?” Pei Gu waved his hand dissatisfied: “The surname is Qin, Mr. Han not only saved your job, but also your life, he is here today at Fengyi Pavilion. Don’t you understand the one who bought something in the middle?”

Hearing this, Qin Dou raised his head slightly, and was naturally awakened by Pei Gu’s words based on his experience, and immediately said: “Mr. Han, do you know why this place is called? Fengyi Pavilion?”

George Han shook his head.

“It has a name, and it must have a mystery. Originally, no one should know this secret, but I think you can give it a try. Are you interested in coming with me?”

Chapter 4063

George Han did not speak immediately, but put his eyes on Pei Gu.

This is always Pei Gu’s place, and it is definitely not what George Han wants.

Pei Gu was naturally also pleased with George Han’s rude behavior, nodded slightly, and said with a smile, “Since they have warmly invited you, George Han, if you are okay, it’s okay to go and have a look.”

George Han He also smiled knowingly: “Patriarch Pei speaks, George Han can only obey his orders.”
When the words fell, he looked at Mr. Qin: “Then there is Mr. Qin.”

“You are welcome. Guests, come with me.”

George Han did not In a hurry to follow, instead, he bowed politely and gestured towards Pei Gubi.

Pei Gu was stunned for a moment, then smiled: “Three thousand, are you inviting me to come in too?”

“In this Pei family, the world is huge, and it The master of 3000 is also a precious friend of 3000. If you have a place to go, how could 3000 not invite you.” George Han said politely.

Pei Gu was in a better mood. He gave George Han enough face, and George Han knew that he did not cross the line. Instead, he raised his position when the time was right. Doing so made Pei Gu remain majestic. , without any loss.

“Okay, since you invited George Han, don’t say go to a secret place, even if it is a sea of swords and flames, Pei will not hesitate.” After the words were finished, Pei Gu immediately shook his head at all his men and ordered them to wait there, alone, He accompanied George Han and the two daughters, and followed Mr. Qin to the inside.

“There is actually a secret place in the Pavilion of Fengyi, called the Forbidden Phoenix Pavilion.”

“In general, the inside is the main thing, and the outside is the supplement. That’s why Feng Yi Ting’s name came from. The so-called internal forbidden phoenix, and the external weeping and phoenix trapping.” Mr. Qin walked all the way inside, explaining all the way.

“What we’re going to today is the Forbidden Phoenix Pavilion.” Mr. Qin continued: “Originally, the Forbidden Phoenix Pavilion was intended to be specially created for the three most expensive VIPs to enjoy after the 100th anniversary of the store’s operation.

” But for Qin Mou, today was supposed to be the day when Fengyi Pavilion closed down and disappeared, but it was resurrected miraculously. In a sense, it is better not to be reborn from the ashes during the 100th anniversary, and in terms of love, there is nothing more suitable for giving back. Mr. Han is kind.”

“However, I have to say that things in the Fengfeng Pavilion also need to be paid for. Qin is just a manager, and there are countless owners behind him to provide financial support. So...”

George Han smiled and said. Understand, just as he was about to speak, Pei Gu had already opened his mouth: “As long as there are good things selected by three thousand, money is not a problem, it will be counted in my Pei family’s account.”

Mr. Qin smiled: ” I understand.”

, the group has passed through the layers of dark passages, all the way to the depth of about 100 meters, and finally stopped at a wall.

“In order to ensure safety, the agency will automatically extinguish all candles, usually for about thirty seconds.” Mr. Qin said softly.

Everyone nodded, and Mr. Qin didn’t know where he reached out and touched something. Suddenly, the fire on the surrounding walls went out, and after that, there were bursts of rumblings around.

It seems to be moving, and the wall is also moving.

Amelia Su meditated in her mind for about thirty seconds, and sure enough, after the hour, the candles lit up again on time.

However, although the wall in front of him is still a wall, if you look closely, you can already see that the wall is a little different.

Can’t say exactly what the difference is, but it does give you that feeling.

Mr. Qin smiled slightly, then bent over again. I didn’t know what button was pressed.

After a while, the wall that was more than one meter in the wall suddenly disappeared, leaving a concave space.

“Four, please.” Mr. Qin bowed respectfully and asked.

The four looked at each other and walked into the recesses one after another.

There is not much space in the recess, and five people stand in it. It is not crowded, but it is definitely not ample.

After the five people stood up and stabilized, the wall was closed again. After that, the place where the five people were located began to move slowly.

George Han immediately understood that it was like a tunnel opened in the wall, and the concave they were standing on was more like a tourist bus in the aisle.

Thinking of this, George Han waited quietly.

After traveling for about a minute, it slowly stopped, and then the wall behind everyone slowly opened again.

And as this wall opened, a space that made people fall in love appeared in front of everyone...

Chapter 4064

Have you ever seen the treasure pavilion of the great treasure immortal in Wonderland?

In fact, this is the case here to a certain extent.

The bursts of divine light inherent in a large number of treasures, when they are organized and merged together, bring a great sense of immortal energy to this place.

Just smelling the air here makes people feel refreshed and refreshed.

“There are thousands of treasures traded in Fengyi Pavilion every day. Naturally, there are many treasures. These treasures are good and bad, and they need to be screened. However, Qin will deliberately keep some top-quality treasures, hide them, and put them away. It’s in Jinfeng Pavilion.”

“Mr. Han, Patriarch Pei, and two distinguished ladies, Qin did not say much, so as not to disturb everyone’s mood to pick treasures, please.”

Mr. Qin finished his words and gave up. There is a road for four guests to enter and watch by themselves.

George Han came down from the recess and went straight to the stone platform in the center.

The stone platform is about one meter high, and a white sparkling bead is placed on the top. Although it is covered by a transparent cover, it still cannot hide its pure and dazzling white light like jade.

“This is Han Tianzhu.” Mr. Qin followed and explained softly.

“Han Tianzhu?” George Han frowned, this name was unheard of.

Pei Gu also walked over slowly. In terms of his seniority, he had never heard of the name, so he couldn’t help but wonder, “What is Han Tianzhu?”

“Hehe, it was the name I took down. Actually, Qin did not know what it was, but when he received the goods that day, Qin saw it was extraordinary, so he stayed.” Mr. Qin said: “Then when I researched it privately, it became more and more I found this thing to be unusual, so I gave it a name and put it in the pavilion.”

Gu nodded: “Don’t ask what it is, just by looking at its appearance, you can detect it. When it is faintly revealed, it is definitely not an ordinary thing.”

George Han naturally agreed with Pei Gu’s opinion.

But the strange thing is that although this thing seems to be full of divine light, it looks like a white pebble on the outside.

George Han was a little interested, so he simply picked up the beads and observed them carefully.

It’s a pity that he has no meridians now, otherwise, he really wants to release a breath of spirit to take a good look.

Pei Gu smiled, patted George Han on the shoulder, and said, “I know what you’re thinking, brother, but I can tell you clearly that I have already probed the inside of this stone with my inner breath.

” Oh?” George Han asked.

Hehe, there is nothing special inside, it can even be said to be mediocre.” Pei Gu shook his head and said, “The inside is a stone structure, and no breath has been detected.”

“That’s strange, since there is no breath inside, then it is now Where does the divine light outside come from?” George Han asked suspiciously.

“I don’t know. Maybe, the material of the stone itself can produce divine light.” Pei Gu shook his head, but in any case, at least from the current point of view, it is more likely that the stone has its own appearance.

George Han nodded. He also knew Pei Gu’s cultivation, so he naturally knew what he had detected, and it was generally necessary to fake it.

But for some reason, George Han had a different feeling about it.

Maybe I made more stones when I was working on the Five Elements God Stone, so it is inevitable that I have different feelings for these stones.

“We don’t have much money, and the things here are not cheap. Although the Pei family has said that the Pei family pays the bill, we can’t go too far. After all, the cost is not small.” Amelia Su reminded George Han softly.

When George Han heard the sound, he was slightly taken aback and nodded.

Although Silong's treasures are indeed enough, George Han has not restrained in using it at all, and his old foundation is almost gone.

Amelia Su's words are not unreasonable.

Thinking of this, even though George Han was a little reluctant, he had no choice but to accept the reality and turned his attention elsewhere.

"Let's go and look at things related to medicinal pills." George Han finished his words, and with the two women, slowly moved towards other places beside him.

However, he didn't know, even Pei Gu and Mr. Qin didn't notice that something suddenly slipped out of George Han's body and flew towards the white stone quickly...

Chapter 4065

No one noticed, still slowly walking towards the location of the medicinal pill.

And finally stopped in front of several medicinal pills.

A few people, you pick me, and talk softly.

And that thing has already climbed up in front of the "white marble" at this time.

If George Han took a closer look, he would definitely find out that this thing is nothing else, it is the little black stick who has been drowning for a long time.

At this time, it flew to the front of the white marble, winding its body like a snake, as if staring and observing.

After a while, it suddenly shrouded its body on top of the white marble spider.

This time, it is like a long dragon wrapping a pearl, and it is like a snake wrapping an egg, which is quite strange.

"Three thousand, why don't you buy this Bai Ning grass. Bai Ning grass is suitable for all medicines and diseases. It is also good to buy it for medicine introduction." Amelia Su was holding a grass and asked softly.

George Han nodded, and just wanted to reach for it, but suddenly heard a buzzing sound behind him.

He looked back subconsciously, only to see the white white jade beads that had just been waiting behind him bursting with white light.

George Han was like this, and the crowd followed closely, and when they saw the strangeness behind them, they couldn't help but stunned.

This was all good just now, but why did the beads suddenly change so suddenly in the blink of an eye? !
boom!

Another huge explosion sounded, and the beautiful white marble suddenly exploded, and the huge whole was separated into countless pieces, and scattered frantically towards the surroundings.

“Be careful.”

Pei Gu shouted loudly, guarded in front of everyone, and directly transformed into a stream of energy in his hands, blocking them in front of everyone.

However, although the aftermath of the explosion is diffuse, it is quite surprising that it seems to have a distance.

In other words, the explosion only occurred within a two-meter range with the white marble as the center, as if there was something stubbornly restraining it.

“Three thousand, what do you think that is?”

Amelia Su suddenly pointed to the top of the explosion center and said in surprise.

Following Amelia Su’s gaze, at the top of the white white jade bead explosion, a small black stick was flying at the top. is gathering towards it.

The whole scene looks like a black dragon gathering its top in the water, which is both magical and astonishing.

“Damn, isn’t that a little black stick?”

But to George Han, the most important thing is of course not how amazing the scene is, but how bizarre and bullshit the protagonist is.

George Han hurriedly opened his storage ring, and his mouth opened slightly in surprise.

Damn, the little black stick is really not in it.

But this shouldn’t be the case. Naturally, his storage ring can be opened and closed by himself. How can he come out of this thing stored in the ring without his own orders?

It’s as if the things in your safe came out by themselves when you locked them in a password.

“What the hell?”

George Han’s eyes were straightened, but after thinking about it, George Han seemed to understand why the little black stick was not affected by his storage ring.

This guy is not in the Three Realms, not in the Five Elements, so it seems that he is naturally not affected by ordinary things.

Come and go freely, it seems to understand.

However, when this guy helped him last time, he was seriously damaged, and he has not moved at all for a long time, why did he suddenly run out now.

Moreover, it also exploded the white marble, what is this for?

Thinking of this, George Han slightly blocked Pei Gu, who was at the front, and said softly, "Patriarch Pei, don't be nervous. It seems that it is my thing that caused the riot."

"Your thing?" Pei Gu naturally found out When I saw the long black thing at the top of the explosion, I couldn't help but wonder.

George Han nodded: "That's right."

Then, he walked to the front of the group a few steps, looked at the little black stick, and tried to approach him step by step, but halfway through, George Han stopped. Suddenly stopped.

Because, at this time, the place where the white marble beads exploded suddenly seemed to be extremely abnormal.

In other words, there, something even stranger is suddenly happening...

Chapter 4066

is like a sand bottle.

Countless white marble stone fragments that exploded into pieces, mixed with white aura, moved slowly in that space in a mixed posture, with a countercurrent appearance.

And the little black stick is at the top, letting the white breath pass through, letting the fragments flow through, like a heart, not only purifying them, but also relying on them to squirm themselves.

After that, everything stopped suddenly, and after that, the white light began to explode wildly.

At that moment, the entire space was directly ignited by white light.

The dazzling light made everyone almost unable to open their eyes at that moment.

"Wow!"

After that, a burst of light sounded again.

The scene entered a state of tranquility.

Quiet, the five people's breathing can clearly hear each other.

The five of them opened their eyes again, and there was no trace of white light in the room, and it completely returned to its original appearance.

It's just that on the stone platform on which the white marble spider was placed, it no longer exists. Instead, it is a black and white stick...

It's just that this stick, compared with the previous black body, is not only a little more. The white, more strange atmosphere.

There is some divine light similar to the white marble, but it is not at all, and it seems to have a little bit of light.

Extremely contradictory, but an indisputable fact.

“Little black stick?” George Han shouted softly.

No movement!

But just as George Han was about to pass, suddenly, the little black stick flew slowly and gently, as if responding to George Han’s call.

“Are...are you okay?” George Han asked with concern.

Although it seems that it should be fine, as its “friend”, George Han still needs to ask a question.

It moved slightly, stood up, and then suddenly flashed white light on its body.

At that time, George Han only felt a dazzling light hit, accompanied by gusts of strong wind.

When he closed his eyes, he hurriedly stabilized his body. However, even so, his entire body was blown away frantically.

However, just when George Han was about to lose control and was completely overturned, a force suddenly resisted him behind him.

The glare dissipated and the wind receded.

When George Han looked back, there was no one else behind him, but what looked like a human hand turned into a little black stick, gently pressing against his back.

Affected by the white light and strong wind, although Pei Gu and others didn’t have to be blown away directly like George Han, they still closed their eyes.

When he opened his eyes and saw the weird thing behind George Han, he couldn’t help but be stunned.

“What is this?”

“Is this the thing that made the white marble bead explode?”

“Isn’t it? It was just a stick just now, why has it changed again?”

“But you want to say it’s not, Look carefully at the pattern on its body, isn’t the black and white one the same color as the stick just now?” The four of you were very strange when you spoke to me.

George Han glanced at the four of them, then looked at the little black stick, and smiled bitterly: “Some of you are right, it is indeed the stick just now, and the culprit that made the white marble bead explode just now. The culprit.”

Amelia Su frowned

slightly : “But, it’s obviously a stick, why...”

George Han was helpless: “This thing can be changed into any object at will, not to mention these things, that is, things that become our earth. Yes.”

“Really?” Amelia Su asked curiously.

George Han thought about it, and sure enough, the little black stick suddenly turned into an AK that should only appear on earth...

Amelia Su was stunned, and George Han was speechless. Some things are so bizarre. It's just so absurd.

Even George Han can make it turn into a beauty, although it feels a little inflated...

The more I think about it, the more disgusting George Han feels, so I quickly make it back to its original body, but just after it changed back to its original body At that time, George Han at this time discovered that it was completely different...

Chapter 4067

Because the little black stick has followed him for a while, so George Han knows some of its situations very well.

At the moment, the little black stick that has changed back to its main body, at this time, not only the color of the body has changed, but also the breath, and the most important thing is that the whole stick begins to have a faint streamer lightly surrounding it.

Although this streamer is very faint, it is real, and its existence means a lot.

In terms of magic weapons alone, there are two levels of magic weapons with or without streamers.

This is like, in terms of people, whether there is a cultivation base is completely the same as the two grades.

The previous little black stick, although strange and very unique, also had some unique things, but it did not have a real streamer.

But now, after merging with that "stone", it has it.

This can't help but make George Han very confused, what exactly is that Han white pearl?

What kind of connection does it have with the little black stick? !

"George Han, what's the matter?" Amelia Su walked over slowly. The husband and wife had been in a tacit understanding for many years. Even if George Han didn't speak, Amelia Su could probably know what happened to George Han.

"Is this any different?" she asked.

George Han nodded: "The origin of this little black stick is unknown, and it is extremely unique. Since it helped me last time and it was damaged, I have not known how to repair it.

"Next, it swallowed the Han Tianzhu, and it seemed to return to its previous appearance, no, to be precise, it was several times stronger than before."

"From the point of view of weapons, the so-called Han Tianzhu is not some kind of divine object in our imagination, but more like..."

some kind of forged stone for practicing magic weapons...” Amelia Su said.

Hearing this, George Han suddenly frowned.

Makes sense.

“But if this is the case, wouldn’t it involve a bigger problem?” George Han raised his head and asked.

“How do you say it?”

“You think, the little black stick does not exist in the Three Realms and does not exist in the Five Elements. If this is the case, what kind of things can complement it, and even be absorbed and utilized by it?”

Since it is out of this world, how can things in this world be closely connected with it?

Amelia Su looked back and hurriedly looked at Mr. Qin: “Mr. Qin, do you remember where the Han Tianzhu came from?”

Mr. Qin shook his head: “Most of the things sent to Fengyi Pavilion come from all directions, and they are handed over to the bottom. After the exchanges, they will be handed over to us in a unified manner, and we will screen .”

“So, this Han Tianzhu co-authored many things and sent it to us together. You want to know the details of it. Where does it come from, it is indeed a bit difficult.”

Pei Gu raised his hand: “Mr. Qin, the matter is very important, if we have to investigate it?”

“I can’t guarantee that I can find out the origin, but I will do my best. Do your best, this Han Tianzhu has been in Fengyi Pavilion for some time after all, and I want to check it out...”

Everyone understood that the large-scale purchase was a long time ago, and they wanted to find out where one of the items came from. Quite difficult.

What’s more, Han Tianzhu was found to be of no ordinary quality in Mr. Qin’s place. In other words, in the small exchanges that received it in the first place, it may be a waste, so for ordinary waste, Of course no one remembers it, nor

People will record where it came from.

But in any case, if the origin of this stone can be found, then for George Han, this may be an extremely important matter.

It can not only help you figure out the origin of the little black stick, but more importantly, it can even help you maximize the promotion of the little black stick.

The Pangu Axe was sealed, and although the Jade Sword was easy to use, it was always difficult to keep up with the quality. Therefore, George Han did not have an offensive weapon that he could take advantage of.

If the little black stick can be perfected, to have such a weird but extremely ferocious artifact with good offense and defense, it would be like a tiger with wings for George Han.

Thinking of this, George Han smiled lightly, and then walked a few steps to Mr. Qin.

After a little hesitation, George Han made up his mind, and then, he suddenly moved his hand...

Chapter 4068

second, only to hear the sound of ping ping ping pong rang one after another.

At this time, a large number of various weapons kept falling at George Han's feet.

Even Pei Gu, who is the leader of everyone, should have seen all kinds of big scenes, but when he saw the pile of magic soldiers thrown by George Han, he was dumbfounded and dumbfounded.

Good guy, although the number is not extremely large, its quality is almost the same as his Pei family's elite arsenal.

You can't say that you are a pervert, you can only say that you are rich enough to be oily.

"These divine soldiers are counted as the reward for finding the source of this Han Tianzhu, so I will invite two of you to receive half of each." George Han said.

Hearing this, both Mr. Qin and Pei Gu were stunned.

"Three thousand, what are you talking about? You want to give these things to the two of us?"

"Yes, Mr. Han, any weapon here is of great value. You directly give so much to the two of us. This... George Han smiled and said, "

I know that this pile of weapons can be exchanged even by changing cities. However, Han has always said that he is the only one who treats them as rewards, then they are rewards."

"This Han Tianzhu For George Han, it may be extremely important, so I also know that this matter is particularly troublesome for the two of you, so I give gifts to comfort the hard work."

Under the heavy gold, there must be a brave man, how could George Han not understand this truth?

Even if there is a relationship at the moment, they will find the whereabouts of this stone for themselves, but it is difficult to figure out how much effort they put into it.

You need to know that it is not your own business, and no matter how helpful others are, it is impossible to go all out.

But if there is interest, it is completely different.

As for why it was distributed to Pei Gu, it was because Pei Gu was the supreme ruler here. It would be inappropriate to send Mr. Qin alone.

Instead, it would be sent together with Pei Gu.

The meaning is different.

Pei Gu will give his full support, and even take the initiative to put pressure on Mr. Qin. In this way, under the double insurance, George Han does not believe that Mr. Qin will not use his full strength.

And once you've done your best, then finding the whereabouts of the stone will really become possible.

"Your business is my business. Why do you need to use these magical soldiers as a reward? You can take it back. I will do my best to let Feng Yiting and the people in the city find out about him." Pei Gu said.

George Han smiled: "What is sent out is like water that is poured out, how can there be a gift to take it back? Besides, don't forget that the whereabouts of this dzi bead are really hard to find, and once you go to find it, it will naturally cost a lot of manpower. And material and financial resources, how can 3000 not express some thoughts?"

"Let's take it as a gift from 3000 to the Pei family."

Hearing George Han's words, Pei Gu was naturally very

You have to ask him if he wants it, of course he wants it, but due to etiquette and affection, he has to pretend to decline it.

This half pile of magic soldiers was enough for Pei Gu to form an elite squad.

Or, it's enough to reward the younger generation of his Pei family and help them grow.

Thinking of this, Pei Gu smiled lightly: "Okay, since you have said that at 3000, if Pei Mou wants to refuse again, it will seem that Pei Mou is really not interested."

"I accept the things, but, Pei also doesn't plan to return it to you."

George Han smiled, of course it is best not to return it, because at least it means that the whereabouts of stones like dzi beads will inevitably be found.

"Mr. Qin." Pei Gu shouted loudly.

Mr. Qin hurriedly leaned over: "My subordinate is here." "I order you, no matter what method you use, you must find the whereabouts of this so-called dzi bead for George Han regardless of the cost.

Understood?"

Mr. Qin immediately took the order: "I understand, my subordinates will try their best to launch all exchanges within the sphere of influence and find out the source."

"Tell them, if they can't find out, they will all Wait for me to close the door."

"Yes."

At this point, Pei Gu sighed: "Mr. Han is a VIP to me, this thing is so important to him, but this thing comes from my department, so Pei does not want to have it. Any disappointment happens. Pei does not want to shut them down, but if things get to that point, then Pei will do what he says."

Mr. Qin nodded: "I understand."

Hearing Pei Gu's conversation, George Han finally smiled in satisfaction and patted the little black stick. The guy seemed to sense George Han's concern for him, and an avatar suddenly pulled George Han and moved quickly in a certain direction...

Chapter 4069

George Han wants to struggle, but at this time George Han is simply a leaf in the wind, and there is no struggle at all. The power can only be blown at will by the wind.

After several consecutive pulls, the poor George Han was directly dragged by the little black stick, rather than dragged, and flew away quickly...

Finally, at the corner to the west of the house, he finally stopped. down.

In the west corner, in fact, from the perspective of feng shui layout, because the east is the leading head, there is not much decoration in the west corner. On the contrary, it is more barren.

There are only three pillars, and, in terms of shape and size, these three pillars are no more than fifty centimeters high. Compared with the others, they are extremely crude.

George Han killed him here, and over there, Mr. Qin and others hurriedly followed.

Seeing one person and one thing parked in this place can't help but feel very strange.

"Because it is a hall of forbidden treasures, the interior is placed according to Feng Shui metaphysics. The east is the dragon's head, and the west is the tiger's claws. It is the fierce place. Therefore, the Fengshui master only asks us to put some ordinary things in the west to block evil spirits. ." Mr. Qin finished his words, looked at Pei Gu and Amelia Su, and continued: "These three things are actually not treasures."

Amelia Su smiled lightly: "If I am not wrong, here are the three things. , they should be all plants, right?"

Mr. Qin was stunned for a moment, then smiled: "How could the girl know?"

"Since it is a fierce position, then according to Feng Shui, most of these fierce positions are used to block the evil, and most of them are based on vitality. Vigorous plants are the main thing."

Mr. Qin suddenly smiled: "So the girl also understands numerology and Feng Shui."

"George Han understands, I've just been with him for a long time, and I've been immersed in my eyes and ears and understand a little bit of reason recently."

Pei Gu shook his head: "

It's really like having a child like George Han, at this young age, he knows astronomy and geography, The tactics and tricks that I understand are capable of blocking all armies, perfect, perfect, if there is such a son, I will have no worries in this life."

Mr. Qin nodded slightly when he heard the words: "Indeed, George Han is very knowledgeable. At first glance, it's extraordinary." Su Amelia Su smiled bitterly: "You two don't praise him, he can't stand praise, his tail is about to go up."

Naturally, he didn't raise his tail. Instead, he was staring at the table in front of him and frowned.

In fact, without Amelia Su saying it, George Han, who is "authentic in Feng Shui", can also guess what treasures are in these three tables.

Yes, it's a plant.

Moreover, from outside their lids, George Han could smell the smell of plants.

It's just that George Han doesn't quite understand, why did this little black stick bring himself here?

Since it is a plant, it is naturally a thing of this world, so it should have nothing to do with the little black stick.

What does he mean?

Do you want to tell yourself that these things are useful to you?

I am more or less half a person from Xianling Island, don't I know what to find more suitable for me?

However, as soon as it comes, it is safe.

George Han didn't talk nonsense, got up slightly, tightened, and lifted all the small lids on the three platforms.

Under the three lids, each is covered with a green plant.

Each is different.

"Horseweed."

"Dogtail."

Mr. Qin explained the green plants on both sides of George Han.

"The horse intestine grass is like the horse intestine. However, in the land of the demons, the vitality of this grass is very strong, so there is a tendency that the wildfire will not burn out, and the spring wind will blow again."

"The effect of horse intestine grass is to stop bleeding and change the In other words ...actually...it's actually a drug for women to take medicine." Mr. Qin said, feeling embarrassed.

George Han was also full of black lines. After searching for a long time, he came across a female drug?

Isn't that what he's talking about?

Is this so outrageous?

“As for this dogtail flower.” Mr. Qin was hesitating for a long time, and then he continued to explain: “It can bloom when it encounters water, but if it encounters a severe drought, it can die within a few years. Waiting for the water to come, the vitality is also quite strong, as for its effect...”

Mr. Qin did not say any more.

However, this made Amelia Su and Ziqing anxious. Amelia Su couldn't help but say, “How does it work?”

Mr. Qin just didn't know how to speak, but Pei Gu sighed: “This effect, in fact, the old man knows...”

After finishing his words, he looked at George Han, Then, I opened my mouth...

Chapter 4070

“It is sometimes difficult for a mother to give birth to a child, especially the young children in the land of demons. You also know that the environment here is Harsh, it pays more attention to the survival of the fittest, so the size or strength of the children born is often many times greater than that of your ordinary human race.”

“This makes the child fully competitive when it is born, but at the same time, it also means increasing the number of mothers. Inexplicable pressure and difficulties.”

“This dogtail flower is actually for mothers to help others to give birth smoothly when giving birth to a child.”

Pei Gu said, even though the two women are the closest people to George Han, but at this time, he couldn't help covering his mouth and laughing out loud.

This means that, of the three grasses, two are already friends of women.

How can this not be funny?

If you don't know this, you also know that George Han was forcibly brought here with a stick. If you don't know this, you think George Han has some special hobby.

It's not easy to choose anything, but I have to choose a woman's friend...

George Han is also very depressed after hearing this. f, this little black stick can't change his playful personality even now?

His grandmother's, I don't talk about it at other times, how can I make myself ugly at such a time?

This is so special, it's too much, isn't it?

“Then this is in the middle?” George Han looked at the grass in the center.

Perhaps, only this guy is the last straw for his dignity.

Success or failure, glory, also in one fell swoop.

“This last grass is

It is the most central grass. Mr. Qin opened his mouth.

Pei Gu looked at the grass and replied, "Naturally, the vitality should be the most vigorous grass. After all, it is the most evil in Fengshui." "

"First of all, let me tell you a word of conscience, this grass is indeed very rare. Pei Gu said: "If you estimate it at the current market price, then the value of this grass can be at least more than 100,000 amethysts. "

"Of course, there is a price but no market. Mr.

Qin also nodded: "Yes, if it is not so scarce, at its selling price, it will never appear on the Forbidden Phoenix Pavilion. "

George Han expressed his understanding. After all, when I shoot something with Young Master Liu outside, the asking price is also 300,000 yuan. This 100,000 yuan thing does seem so cheap and unattractive.

Therefore, it can stay here, The only possibility is that it is so scarce that it has no market price.

"However, if you are talking about such high-end, then I would like to know what is the use of this medicine? Shouldn't it be some kind of medicine for women's friends? ? "George Han asked cautiously.

Hearing this, Mr. Qin and Pei Gu couldn't help but look at each other and smile.

Mr. Qin was the first to speak: "This point, Mr. Han doesn't have to be too burdened, this thing is really not a woman's thing. . Pei Gu also smiled and nodded: "

It seems that this place is really terrible, and my family's 3,000 people directly generated fear. "

George Han wiped the sweat from his forehead embarrassedly. Although Pei Gu was just joking, who would say that what he said was not accurate enough?

George Han looked at these plants now, and his heart was really hairy. If you want to increase a woman's friend's herb, he will really be numb.

"Since it's not a woman's medicine, what is it? "Zi Qing asked.

Amelia Su also nodded and said with a smile, "Yeah, you guys, don't be rude and tell George Han immediately. Some people are in a very embarrassing situation and need help urgently."

Pei Gu and Mr. Qin looked at each other again. At a glance, Pei Gu smiled and said: "Since this is your place, then it's up to you to explain to the more than three thousand people."

Mr. Qin smiled bitterly, nodded, and then slowly walked a few steps. He arrived at George Han's side.

"This grass is called Lonely Grass!"

"Lonely Grass?"
