Chapter 4071

George Han frowned, this name sounds so wrong?

However, just thinking about it, George Han was somewhat relieved that he had been told that it was not a medicine for women.

But when I looked back, I saw that Mr. Qin was always smiling.

Grandma's, for some unknown reason, George Han suddenly felt a chill behind his back.

"Mr. Qin, what is loneliness grass?" George Han couldn't help asking.

"Lonely grass is the medicine for real men." Mr. Qin smiled slightly: "It has always been only used by men."

"Three thousand, it seems that you can finally breathe a sigh of relief." Amelia Su smiled.

George Han nodded, but quickly shook his head.

For some reason, the name of this grass always gave him an ominous premonition.

Thinking of this, George Han continued to be vigilant and asked: "Then I would like to ask , what is the effect of this loneliness grass?"

Mr. Qin thought about it for a while and smiled: "Actually, the so-called loneliness grass, hence the name Siyi, has its special characteristics. Mr. Han, you also know that when people are born, there are males and females, just like the beginning of the heaven and the earth, there are Yin and Yang."

"But everything is by no means black and white, and some places may be gray. Naturally, The relationship between this man and woman is not entirely just a man and a woman, it is also possible..."

Hearing this, the corners of George Han's eyes were already shrinking.

Grass, isn't it his motherfer?

this fing...

"Go ahead." George Han resisted the urge to spurt blood, looked at Mr. Qin, and waited for his next words.

"Hey, there are men and women, women and men. Some women were raised as boys since childhood, so they tend to be masculine, but on the other hand, there are naturally some men who think they are daughters since they were young, so they act coquettishly .

This is a normal phenomenon. However... there are also some people with too strong self-awareness, so it is inevitable that the urge to  is stronger, and they will eagerly hope that their gender can be changed. , their hearts are lonely, so the lonely grass..."

“Pfft hahahaha!”

“Hahahaha!”

Before Mr. Qin could finish speaking, the two women were already clutching their stomachs and laughing, leaning back and forth. turn.

Even Pei Gu, who has always been steady, couldn't help but feel amused, he turned his head to the side, and couldn't help laughing wildly.

George Han was very embarrassed, very embarrassed.

He was full of joy and thought that he finally had something that was not a medicine for women to save himself, but how could he know in the end, what the heck was there to save himself, this was clearly aimed directly at the miserable enough On the doorstep, he ruthlessly kicked him ruthlessly.

Relying on his mother's father.

Are you not miserable enough?

Do you still have to face a thing that requires you to go to the palace first to practice this skill?

George Han silently set his eyes on the little black stick, f, I have a lot of experience, and I have never been laughed at like this.

However, today, this guy gave you a ruthless slap in the face.

Thinking of this, George Han stood up slowly, and then tried to put away the little black stick. At the same time, he gave a sloppy look and smiled: “Understood. I also know that the air in this room is rather stuffy, so come to the plant, smell it, and soothe your mood.”

After that, George Han was about to leave, but the little black stick not only ran away again. When he came out, he pulled George Han toward the plant again.

While George Han was dumbfounded , he was also extremely depressed.

What the hell is he doing, isn't it shameful enough?

“Three thousand, it seems that your things know your heart very well, and they won't let you go at all.”

“Well, you said just now that this stick probably knows what you are thinking about. , it pulls you to death and won't let you go, in fact, in other words, you don't want to go.”

“It's not an outsider, Brother George Han, don't act, if you want, just take it.”

Amelia Su and He Ziqing had obviously laughed too hard. While teasing George Han, she couldn't help wiping the tears from the corner of her eyes.

George Han rolled his eyes and glanced back at the little black stick, his heart was bitter, Daguo, what are you doing?

It seems that it heard George Han's question. The next second, it suddenly broke away from George Han's hand, and then quickly attacked three plants...

Chapter 4072

All three plants were cut in half.

On the blade of the small black stick, the top of the three plants has been obediently brought to George Han.

George Han was completely dumbfounded.

What is this for?

He directly chopped off all three plants for others. This time, he had to ask for it.

"Are you poisonous?" Looking at the little black stick, George Han couldn't help but complain.

"Hahaha!" Amelia Su laughed even harder: "It means that George Han will let you fuse all three medicinal materials together."

Nonsense, can George Han not understand?

If he didn't understand, he wouldn't complain about the little black stick.

"Two kinds of medicine for women plus one medicine to change that. This is a medicine that needs to be fused together. I'm afraid... It will fly to the sky after eating it ?" After joking, Zi Qing really showed her face when she thought of this question. worry.

It's funny, but if you think about it carefully, if George Han eats this, I'm afraid...

"Even if it's a giant stone elephant, I'm afraid, in a mighty male, it will be a little bird from now on." Mr. Qin also nodded, Then he said: "Mr. Han, I'm sorry to ask you one more question, are you treating your treasure badly, and it is revenge on you here?"

Pei Gu also nodded: "Although I don't understand medical theory, but three thousand Ah, what Mr. Qin said is not unreasonable. Some things are scary when you think about them. I don't think you need to try. "

George Han was also speechless, knowing that after they laughed at him, they began to worry about him, but even so, why did he always feel that he cared about him, and he was still full of ridicule from his heart.

Before George Han could speak, the little black stick was already posing, as if telling George Han not to listen to their nonsense, and then he shook the three plants on his body, signaling George Han to take it away quickly.

George Han's brows were furrowed, and when it came to revenge, there was indeed such a possibility for the little black stick.

This guy had already started a fight when he met him.

But if you think about it carefully, it seems that it may not be big.

After all, this guy was also in the middle of the battle, and he sacrificed himself to save himself. If he wanted to play with himself, it seemed that the reason was not valid.

Thinking of this, George Han subconsciously stretched out his right hand and took three plants.

Looking at the three plants in his hand, George Han did not speak, but was thinking carefully, using some medical knowledge he had learned, trying to understand the meaning of the little black stick as much as possible.

Could it be fighting poison with poison?

The so-called, positive and positive become negative, and naturally negative and negative become positive. The two flavors of extremely yin medicine plus a relatively neutral yang-to-yin medicine can make the medicinal properties reach an extremely yin state.

Therefore, when something extremely yin enters one's body, it can complement and even interact with the yang energy in one's own body, and finally the yin and yang are reconciled and re-run.

In this way, the movement of yin and yang will begin to appear in your body? !

It seems that thinking so, the behavior of the little black stick is somewhat clear, he is trying to find a way to treat himself.

However, this is only a conjecture of George Han.

Once the guess is wrong, the result will be unusually cold.

Once the three flavors of extremely yin medicine enter the body, the mildest result is the entry of cold energy into the body, and if not dead, it is at most half-alive, and if it is more serious, it is not impossible for him to be unbalanced from now on, and it is not impossible to be neither male nor female.

George Han was a little confused for a while.

Seeing that George Han was so serious, Amelia Su stopped smiling, walked over a few steps, and said softly, "George Han, what's wrong."

George Han suddenly woke up and shook his head: "I was thinking about what would happen if I became a woman. What does it look like?" In a word, the atmosphere was relieved, and everyone smiled again.

On the other hand, George Han still had a lot of thoughts inside.

"Are we going to Pei's forbidden area tomorrow?" George Han asked.

Amelia Su nodded slightly: "Yes, but, don't you already know?"

George Han smiled lightly: "Then it seems that there is really some fun tonight."

Amelia Su looked at George Han strangely, not knowing what he means.

Her intuition told her that George Han seemed to have made up her mind to do something. Following him, Amelia Su's eyes stopped on the three plants in his hand.

No, maybe he thinks...

Chapter 4073

George Han did not answer, just responded with a smile, but this smile, for Amelia Su, is already a positive answer.

She should have guessed correctly.

George Han is going to do something tonight.

Of course Amelia Su was worried. After all, the mockery just now was a mockery, but if it really happened, how could Amelia Su's heart be relieved?

Those three medicines, but none of them are good things. If a woman took it, it would be fine. If it was a man, and George Han was currently recovering from a serious illness and had no self-cultivation, he ate it...

Then, The whole game is a game of life at stake.

There is no chance of a comeback.

There is no room for redemption.

Why isn't Amelia Su worried?

However, she can also understand George Han's mood.

Suddenly falling from the highest point to the lowest point, even if the life is saved, but for many people, it is actually better to die directly.

Because of that kind of depression, even people who haven't experienced it should be able to understand and think about it.

George Han is still determined to get up now. In fact, the quality in his heart is far stronger than many people.

But no matter what, he will never miss any of the opportunities.

Therefore, the opportunity is right in front of him. Even if the fame and fortune outweigh the death, he will never miss such an opportunity at this time.

Amelia Su knew George Han's personality, so it was better to persuade him to support him at this time.

Therefore, Amelia Su didn't say much, just said: "After all, your body is like this right now. Although I understand your approach, I still need to be on the safe side."

"Let's buy some medicinal materials in case of emergency, okay?"

Hearing Amelia Su's words, Pei Gu also nodded and persuaded: "Yeah, three thousand , take some medicine to make up your body, firstly, you have the physical strength to deal with it, secondly, prepare some heat medicine, if there is any problem, We can save you in time.”

Hearing what Pei Gu said made sense, and seeing Amelia Su’s attitude, George Han nodded.

“Okay, then let’s choose some herbs.”

With the goal, after George Han agreed, the next thing became easier.

After a group of five people made a selection in the house, they took the herbs with five flavors, mainly strong ones.

In fact, many of these herbs are not necessary for George Han to use. To a certain extent, they are more in line with George Han’s strong choices after passing.

Of course, with so many golden soldiers, this kind of money doesn’t even need George Han to touch it. Pei Gu has already enthusiastically asked Mr. Qin to record it in his account.

Moreover, that attitude is simply a living person who wants to rush with him to pay the bill, and who is he in a hurry with.

After shopping, a group of people walked out from the back door of Jinfeng Pavilion. Here, the connection is the green mountains and green waters outside. In a trance, what Fangfo had just been in Fengyi Pavilion was just a dream by the river.

You can only sigh, Fengyi Pavilion is also very beautiful, but compared with the beautiful scenery outside, it seems to be completely two worlds, so when you travel through it, there is always a feeling like a dream.

“Three thousand, you all go back to Qifeng Pavilion first, and I’ll go back to the house to make arrangements.” Pei Gu laughed as soon as he came out.

George Han was puzzled: “What else does Patriarch Pei have to arrange?”

Pei Gu smiled: “Don’t worry, 3000, not a child. I have already told anyone in Xifeng Pavilion that they are not allowed to approach without your order. I am going back to the house to prepare some good alchemists and famous doctors for you. “

They will be in charge of your medicine refining work, and will also observe your condition as soon as you take the medicine, and provide necessary help.”

George Han waved his hands: “Patriarch Pei, you don’t have to worry so much.” Seeing

Pei Gu puzzled, Amelia Su said, “Patriarch Pei, I believe you can’t find a better alchemist tGeorge Han.”

“Oh? George Han can still make alchemy?”

“Although most of them are mainly funny and funny. , but sometimes it is still possible to create magic pills that are difficult for others to surpass.” Amelia Su smiled. Pei Gu smiled bitterly: “I didn’t expect

George Han to have such a skill. I really admire Pei. Okay, I'll just call some famous doctors. After half an hour, we'll see you at Qifeng Pavilion."

Pei Gu got up to say goodbye, and George Han and the two women also looked at each other and walked towards Qifeng Pavilion.

A night of alchemy that is either a woman or something is coming...

Chapter 4074

half an hour later, Qifeng Pavilion.

The lights in the house are already on, but they are only for lighting, but the usual lights that are superfluous for beauty have been cancelled.

But even so, the entire Qifeng Pavilion is still quite bright.

Hundreds of guards, after returning from George Han, changed their previous attitudes, and did their jobs seriously and strictly guarded the surrounding area, not daring to slack off.

After all, even though he was covered in cowhide, he still had only one head on his shoulders.

It was only in the afternoon that trouble was caused by the matter of the young master of the Pei family. Fortunately, the head of the Pei family didn't take it seriously. Otherwise, if they were held accountable, none of the guards of Qifeng Pavilion would be able to escape their involvement.

Therefore, if you know something wrong, you must correct it, otherwise you may suffer a big disaster.

Sure enough, not long after a group of people were seriously guarding the post, Pei Gu had already rushed over there with a large group of sub-medics.

Almost all of these doctors carry a large medicine box on their backs. The Pei family has orders. All Chinese medicine practitioners in Fancheng, no matter how big or small, must bring all their medicines with them, and deal with them urgently. Anyone who dares to delay will be asked to be executed.

Seeing this, these doctors didn't dare to neglect, they responded one after another and came to support.

Pei Gu also looked dignified. Although it was none of his business tonight, it was his own bet after all. He had never made such a big bet in his life, so you can imagine how nervous he was.

Although the group was powerful, they were very low-key when they arrived at Qifeng Pavilion. They all entered the pavilion without making a sound, and waited quietly outside the main hall.

Pei Gu entered the hall alone.

The light in the hall is not too bright, but it is not too dark, and the light is moderate.

George Han had already placed the double dragon tripod in the hall at this time.

Because there is no real ability in the body, Amelia Su and Ziqing became his right and left hands.

In fact, Pei Gu was surprised when he heard that George Han knew how to make alchemy, even though George Han had given Pei Gu the impression of being omnipotent countless times.

But Almighty is like this, he is still somewhat disbelieving.

In other words, even if it is a letter, most of the people who believe it just think that George Han knows a little bit.

But when he came to the temple and saw the pair of dragon cauldrons, this thought was immediately dispelled.

As the saying goes, experts will know if they have it as soon as they make a move. Based on the material and atmosphere of this tripod alone, Pei Gu concluded that this thing is absolutely extraordinary.

It can even be said that after seeing so many alchemy, even his Pei family has a top-level alchemy room, but he has never seen George Han's double dragon cauldrons as domineering and invincible.

Damn, if he hadn't seen him with his own eyes, even if he killed him, he wouldn't believe that George Han, who looked ordinary and ordinary, just took something casually, it was incredible.

However, in addition to being shocked, he was more happy.

After all, the more George Han is outrageously strong, the more he can at least prove that his bet is right.

"Three thousand, hundreds of doctors have brought all kinds of medicines to wait outside the hall. Tonight, they will be on duty all night. After you finish alchemy and test the medicine, if there is any discomfort, they will immediately enter the hall to serve." Pei Gu said

George Han nodded: "There is a laborer Pei."

"You're welcome, this is what Pei should do, and Pei also hopes that you won't need them for George Han." Pei Gu smiled bitterly.

George Han said, "George Han doesn't want to use them either."

"Come on, once it's over tonight, it means that your body will be much better, and Pei will be more confident about taking you into the forbidden area of Pei's house." Pei Gu finished his words and added encouragement: "The Pei family is forbidden, you must give it a try."

George Han nodded: "Don't worry, Patriarch Pei, I am also very interested in this, so I will not fall, and I will not become a woman. When the words were over, George Han looked at Amelia Su and Ziqing. Seeing the two women nodded, George Han drank softly: "Shuanglong Dingzhuan, alchemy, start!"

Chapter 4075

Boom!

With the intrusion of two energies, the Double Dragon Cauldron slowly turned.

George Han was not idle, and kept an eye on Ding's steering and rotational speed at all times.

George Han understands very well that this is the intuitive surface of Huohou, and this is the only thing he can control.

For the next half an hour, George Han did not dare to neglect him at all, because he was not motivated by his left and right hands, so he could control the strength. Therefore, George Han must constantly remind the two women, who should use less force and who should use more force.

Half an hour later, Shuanglongding slowly stopped, and George Han and Pei Gu, who was watching, couldn't help but breathe.

Over there, after Amelia Su and the two women took their breath, they also commented tightly.

With a muffled bang, Shuanglongding finally stopped.

The four of you look at me, I look at you, and they walked towards Ding in unison.

When the smoke in the tripod dissipated, the most central thing also slowly surfaced.

This is the first time that the two women have worked together to refine the pill, but the color seems to be full of embarrassment...

It's not as humiliating as the last time when it was directly dark and not slippery, but the appearance of a dog that is not gray is still the same. Very depressing.

"Failed?" Amelia Su whispered suspiciously.

No one spoke, George Han reached out and took out the medicine pill in the tripod.

It's not big, about the size of a thumb, but it's covered in black gray, making it look like some kind of poison pill.

this thing...

Looking at what is not.

"Three thousand, do you think it looks like something?" Amelia Su said.

Hearing Amelia Su's words, George Han frowned: "What did you find?"

Amelia Su shook her head and said sternly: "Do you remember when we were on Earth? At that time, when we watched TV, was there a product? It's called Wuji Baifeng Pill, look, does it look like it?"

If Amelia Su's serious nonsense had already made George Han feel a little crazy after knowing it at this time.

Then, a word of Wuji Baifeng Pill really completely broke George Han's defense.

He really wanted to vent, but the next second he was dumbfounded, because although Amelia Su's words were full of ridicule, they did point out a clear path to George Han.

That is, it is indeed a whole black chicken white phoenix pill.

"That's right, three thousand, no matter what, there is still a finished product, and it actually conforms to the medicinal properties." Amelia Su said.

"Three plants, and so many high-quality goods are added, and in the end, is there such a small one?" Zi Qing asked in confusion, who did not understand the technique of alchemy.

Amelia Su smiled and said, "

This is not bad. If you want to change it to the usual, maybe I will give you a hot pot, or it's a paste."

Zi Qingyan was helpless and gave a bitter smile.

Pei Gu came over at this time, looked at George Han, and said, "Would you like to have a few doctors come over now to check the properties of this medicine? Anyway, there is still one night. After they have analyzed it, we will decide whether to Take it."

Pei Gu's method is indeed stable and stable.

However, this also has a disadvantage.

The finished medicinal pill is the size of a thumb. If you want to analyze it, you will have to deduct more than half of it. If the medicine can be used, the effect of the medicine is not much after such a large volume.

Moreover, although the night is long, it is unknown what the consequences or other side effects of taking this medicine will be.

Therefore, theoretically speaking, Han 3000's time is actually not much.

Thinking of this, George Han glanced at the little black stick in his hand and shook his head: "Forget it, it takes a lot of time to analyze the medicinal properties, and even if it is analyzed, it may not be of much help to me.

" Even if you cry, you have to finish the elixir that you made by yourself." After saying that, George Han put the elixir into his mouth and swallowed it.

Neither of the two women and Pei Gu dared to take a breath, and they all seriously waited for George Han's feedback after taking the medicine.

Seeing that the three of them were so nervous, George Han smiled and said, "You think I'm a panacea, how could it have such a quick effect." After speaking, George Han walked a few steps to the chair in the hall, and then sat down. After coming down, it is impossible to say that there is no reflection, but George Han seems to be only gradually sensing, and he is not sure.

Suddenly, George Han frowned fiercely...

Chapter 4076

“Three thousand, what happened to you?” Amelia Su quickly greeted him.

Zi Qing and Pei Gu also stood on both sides, looking at each other with concern.

George Han frowned: “The medicine seems to have reacted. However, I feel that my whole body is starting to get cold.”

“The medicine is yin in nature, so the cold is somewhat normal. Otherwise, why not ask the doctor to come in and take a look?” When Amelia Su finished speaking, she was about to turn around and call someone.

George Han hurriedly grabbed her: “It’s okay, I can still bear it.” After the words were finished, George Han closed his eyes and continued to feel the changes in his body.

The three guarded silently.

About a few minutes later, George Han’s body had obviously started to tremble, and his forehead and other parts were also obviously sweating constantly.

Ziqing hurriedly said: “Looking at the appearance of Big Brother George Han, it seems very uncomfortable. Otherwise, why don’t you call the doctors in?”

Amelia Su didn’t say anything. Since George Han didn’t want to call the doctor easily, he had already explained that he had his own plan, so as a wife, I should understand that George Han will not call someone if it is not a last resort.

Therefore, she is observing whether George Han’s body has reached the limit.

After a few seconds, she nodded, and she knew that George Han might have really been unable to stand it anymore: “I’m sorry to trouble Pei’s family.”

Pei Gu didn’t say a word, and quickly turned around and walked out of the hall.

He had barely walked a few steps when there was a muffled thud behind him. George Han had already fallen off his chair. Amelia Su and the two women tried to wake him up, but apparently he had no response.

Pei Gu didn’t have time to look at the specific situation behind him, so the immediate emergency was to run outside the hall and call the doctors into the hall.

After a large group of doctors received the order, they followed the deployment and rushed towards the main hall in groups.

Although there are hundreds of people, everyone is not confused with each other. The oldest doctor is the first emergency team, and then the more famous doctors from all walks of life are the escort groups, responsible for making suggestions.

As for the lower-level ones, they are mainly responsible for post-fill work.

A large group of people soon surrounded George Han directly. Some people called the pulse, and some people were responsible for measuring his body temperature with their hands. They came to a large consultation at 360 degrees in all directions.

I don't know, I thought it was some kind of disease in the emperor.

"VIP's body is cold and cold, like an ice cellar. If he hadn't been alive and kicking, I would have thought he had been dead for a long time."

"There is no pulse or even breathing. Even if he has not been dead for a long time, it is like death at this time."

A group of doctors While informing each other of the information they have found, they gather and synthesize the letters of others.

"You guys are chatting endlessly, and the result, I want the result." Pei Gu urged impatiently.

Among the hundreds of doctors, the old doctor with the number 3,000 of Han should be the most authoritative person among them. At this time, he stood up, cupped his hands at Pei Gu, and said urgently: "Report to the head of the family, the body of a distinguished guest, it seems... it seems... It's not right."

"What do you mean?"

"Without breathing and without pulse, it means..." The old doctor didn't say more, but shook his head to express his meaning.

"Damn, when I came out to call you, he was still alive, how could he suddenly die in such a short period of time, he is not a hundred-year-old old man, and he is not seriously ill, how could he be so easy to be recruited? "... Pei Gu said angrily.

"But the head of the family, he is an ordinary person now." The old doctor said bitterly: "

Although young, the medicine he uses is the most common and the most cultivated people in the world, but he..."

Pei Gu did not say any more. .

At this point, the four people including him didn't seem to have thought about this issue. Yes, the four people ignored the most important point, which is the fundamental nature of medicine.

They only considered the yin and yang of medicinal properties, but never considered it. In fact, for George Han, any kind of medicine is a great tonic among the great tonics.

George Han is an ordinary person who has no cultivation, and can even be said to be the lowest kind of person.

And this kind of person, taking good medicine tonic, regardless of the consequences, just thinking about the medicine, can George Han stand it?

It's not unreasonable to say that the void is not compensated.

"Oops!"

Amelia Su and Ziqing felt a throbbing in their hearts almost at the same time after being reminded by the old doctor...

Chapter 4077

"Old doctor, is there any way to save him quickly, no matter what the cost is, we can do it." Amelia Su Hurry up.

Zi Qing also nodded fiercely: "Yes, I beg the old doctor for your help." The old doctor bowed slightly: "When I came, Patriarch Pei had already ordered me to wait regardless of the consequences to ensure the safety of the distinguished guests, so, We will do our best without the two girls' orders." After the words were finished, the old doctor glanced at each other around several doctors, and in the next second, all the doctors performed their own techniques and began to make their own beside George Han. First aid method.

There are those who apply needles and those who pinch acupoints. For a time, it seems to be chaotic, but also very orderly.

The two women looked in their eyes, anxious in their hearts, not knowing what to do for a while.

Time passed quickly, and the frequency of rescue by the doctors was also slowing down madly. More and more people shook their heads and got up in disappointment. No one's head.

Obviously, for them, they failed, and naturally they were speechless to face the head of the Pei family and friends of VIPs.

Although the old doctor was the oldest, he was the one who had been busy the longest. The twelve silver needles in his hand were playing like clouds and flowing water, and each point was stabbed almost once in a row.

His wrinkled forehead was slowly covered with sweat at this time, however, he didn't care to wipe it off at all, just looked at George Han lying in front of him and sighed heavily.

He has exhausted almost all his abilities, and the unique skills of housekeeping are also applied over and over again without reservation.

But the results were disappointing.

The patient George Han did not have any reaction at all.

"I'm sorry." After sighing, the old doctor slowly got up, his face full of guilt.

Although Amelia Su and Ziqing watched nervously by the side the whole time, they knew that George Han's hope was getting slimmer, but when the last old doctor stood up and said these words, it was still the last line of defense in their hearts that collapsed. Everyone couldn't help but feel soft under his feet, and fell on the chair, and he couldn't stand up again.

Pei Gu also stared at George Han lying on the ground, his expression extremely complicated for a while.

It was his bet, it was the biggest risk he had ever taken in his life, and as a result, he lost everything because of this little thing tonight.

How could he accept this reality at once?

The head of the Pei family didn't answer, and all the doctors could only wait quietly with their heads lowered, with guilt on their faces.

After a few minutes passed, Pei Gu took a deep breath, glanced at all the doctors present, and waved his hand lightly: "You... all go down."

"Yes!"

Back off slowly.

When everyone left, the empty hall became even more deserted, and none of the three said a word, just looking at George Han lying on the ground, each of them was sad for a while.

Another few minutes passed.

Zi Qing suddenly stood up, and then walked towards George Han's "corpse" in a few steps.

Under the doubtful eyes of the two, Zi Qing raised her hands and helped George Han sit on the ground. After that, she patted George Han directly on the shoulder.

The holy power in the body immediately poured directly into George Han's body.

Seeing this, Pei Gu wanted to stop, but was stopped by Amelia Su.

"Let her try." Amelia Su said.

"But 3000 is already...there are so many doctors just now, and it is absolutely impossible to misdiagnose.

mean...the deceased has passed away, we should respect 3000 and let him leave here decently.” Pei Gu said anxiously.

For Pei Gu, disturbing the deceased is a disrespectful act. Even if George Han’s death means that his bet has failed, Pei Gu is not the kind of person who turns his face and doesn’t recognize people.

For him, in any case, the history that George Han once created in front of him deserves his final respect for George Han.

Amelia Su smiled bleakly and reluctantly: “Let a dead horse become a living horse doctor. Although this girl Ziqing is not a doctor, her body is different from ordinary people, maybe.”

Hearing Amelia Su’s words, Pei Gu nodded, but naturally he was not in the right place. one thing.

Of course, just a few minutes later, things suddenly took a different turn.

George Han, who was recuperated by Zi Qingzheng Luck, suddenly coughed violently at this time...

Chapter 4078

A cough may be nothing to others, but for Amelia Su and Pei Gu, it is life sound.

The three were instantly delighted, Pei Gu and Amelia Su both rushed to George Han’s side to check on his situation.

On the other hand, Zi Qing did not dare to be careless, and continued to increase her strength and pour it into George Han’s body.

“Doctor, doctor, call me all the doctors back.” Pei Gu shouted loudly outside the hall.

But as soon as he made a sound, George Han clapped Pei Gu’s hand and shook his head: “No need, I’m fine.”

“No problem? Damn, you died just now, you know?” Pei Gu shouted.

Amelia Su also hurriedly nodded: “Yeah, three thousand, just now you have no meridians and your body is extremely cold. Many doctors have taken turns to rescue you, but they have failed . You are basically declared dead, but Ziqing refused to give up

. George Han shook his head with a wry smile: “Have I ever been to the gate of hell, don’t I know myself?” After the words were finished, George Hanchong said behind Ziqing: “You stop, many of my meridians are No matter how much infuriating you get, it means nothing to me, it’s just a waste, I’m fine.”

Hearing George Han’s words, Ziqing glanced at Amelia Su, confirmed that Amelia Su also agreed, and then took it back. After getting her hands on it, she added: “Brother George Han, you were really dangerous just now.”

“The medicine is too cold.” George Han shook his head and looked at the three of them: “The medicine is too yin, after I take it, The yin qi almost froze my whole body, making me look like I was dead.”

“Wait for the medicine .

After the s3x disbanded, I also recovered. George Han smiled bitterly.

“Then what do you mean...” Zi Qing asked suspiciously, didn’t she save him by herself?

“My meridians are blocked right now, no matter how much you pour in, it doesn’t make much sense to be able to enter. The paper wants to hold water, can this hold it? It’s just that the medicinal properties have passed, and it just so happens that you are saving me. After George Han finished speaking, he slowly tried to get up.

Amelia Su hurried to help, but George Han didn’t want to help, insisting that he stood up slowly. After that, he took a few steps to the chair and sat down: “However, it doesn’t matter how you say it, it’s troublesome for you. “

Amelia Su asked nervously, “Then how do you feel now?” “

The pill made by the grass of the three negatives is indeed a bit evil. Even now, I feel abnormal the body, and the cold is constantly leaking from the bones, and it is pressing to the forehead.” “George Han said.

“Then call the doctor again?” “

George Han shook his head: “The doctor treats the disease, and I am not sick, so what’s the point of seeing it?” Even if I am half a doctor myself, and my body is my own, my intuitive feeling is more real. “

Well, there’s still a long time tonight, I’ll do my own research after I go back to my room.” “

“Is that possible?” Ziqing said worriedly, obviously not too sure about George Han’s approach.

George Han smiled at her: “What? You can’t even hear me? “

“I’m just worried about Brother Three Thousand. Ziqing said aggrieved.

“Okay, it’s not too early, let’s rest early, I don’t want to cause any inconvenience or unpleasantness to my trip to the Forbidden Land tomorrow because the two of you don’t rest well .” “George Han smiled.

Seeing George Han like this, Pei Gu and Zi Qing looked at each other and could only give up.

“If that’s the case, then the old man will go back to the house to rest. I hope that you can surprise me when we meet tomorrow.” Pei Mou finished, smiled slightly, and turned to leave.

When Pei Gu left, George Han returned to his bedroom with the help of Amelia Su. Although Ziqing was worried, she had no choice but to return to her room obediently.

At this time, George Han and his wife, who were in the master bedroom, just closed the door when George Han suddenly frowned and said worriedly, “Amelia Su, maybe... maybe you’re right!”

“What?” Amelia Su was taken aback, but suddenly she thought of something: “No?”

Chapter 4079

George Han swallowed: "It seems... It seems like this." For some reason

, in the extremely cold body, George Han felt an extreme disorder in his body, and this disorder brought a strange feeling in his heart and eventually led to a strange impulse in his body.

If you want to refine it, it is that George Han has the urge to pinch the orchid finger.

"There are so many people just now, I'm too embarrassed to say so, so I sent them back quickly."

George Han looked at Amelia Su eagerly.

Amelia Su looked at George Han worriedly: "Three thousand, what should I do?"

"I don't know, we may become sisters from husband and wife in the future!" George Han said in distress.

Seeing George Han's appearance, Amelia Su felt more distressed, walked to the bed a few steps, sat down with George Han, hugged him gently, and comforted her.

"No matter what you become, you are my George Han, my husband."

"Really?" George Han asked innocently, leaning on Amelia Su's shoulder.

Amelia Su nodded.

"Then I want to wear your clothes." George Han said again.

Hearing this, Amelia Su was shocked and obviously petrified in place.

Although George Han had just mentioned the changes in his body, Amelia Su was generally mentally prepared. However, when George Han made this "excessive" request, Amelia Su was obviously a little unacceptable.

Looking at the poor George Han, Amelia Su nodded despite being awkward.

The women's clothing boss is also the women's clothing boss, as long as he is happy with 3,000.

Having said this, Amelia Su slowly took off her clothes, but when she handed it to George Han, George Han did not reach out to pick up the clothes at all.

"What are you doing?"

Amelia Su panicked.

"I'm about to become a woman, so I won't be the last man yet?" George Han smiled.

"George Han, you're bashing me!" Amelia Su was not an idiot and immediately reflected.

"Hey!"

However, this is already the case, what's the difference between not being reflected and not being reflected? !

The moon is short and the moon is full, but I don't hear the werewolf's roar, but I hear the sound in the house.

Early the next morning, the sky was slightly brighter.

Pei Gu has already led 40 elites, including a super-strong team of 6 elders, to be fully assembled in the Pei Mansion.

Forty elites, thirty-four of them are extremely well equipped, with long swords and short daggers, light armor and soft hedgehogs, helmets and foot guards, all of which they should have.

As for the six elders compared to them, although it is not so exaggerated, each of them also holds two weapons and is fully prepared.

"The Pei family is forbidden, there is death and no life. We are not allowed to enter because of the ancestors' training

." Pei Gu ordered: "Although the rules are set by people, there must be a reason for them.

" Follow me, don't move at will, to avoid danger."

"Our task is to escort him to the entrance, understand?"

"Yes!" Everyone took the order.

Pei Gu nodded, shouted and set off, with a team of forty people, quickly heading towards Qifeng Pavilion.

In Xifeng Pavilion, the first lamp was lit at this time, Ziqing also got up early, warmed up, woke up, ****.

Only the two couples in the master bedroom...

As the parties, the two of them were not as nervous as the others. On the contrary, when the night battle between the two ended, if Amelia Su hadn't woken up suddenly, maybe they would still be still slumbering.

"Stinky hooligan, aren't you going to become a woman?" Amelia Su scolded George Hanyiye and handed him the clothes.

George Han got up, quite disappointed, shook his head: "God is so unfair."

"Grandma, why did you improve your cultivation in this way when I was fine, but now I can't, and I want to ask you Stuck in some oil, but nothing at all?"

Amelia Su pouted softly: "It seems that you didn't take advantage of it."

"Of course, it was me who worked hard this night, hey, this physical effort. Operation, last night's medicine pill was in vain." George Han said.

Seeing that Amelia Su was about to call, George Han hurriedly smiled: "Madam, just kidding, kidding, it's almost time, let's go out, it is estimated that Pei's family master has already brought someone."

Amelia Su snorted , picked up the jade sword for George Han, and the couple opened the door and walked towards the gate of Qifeng Pavilion.

At this time, Pei Gu and his party also arrived at the door of Qifeng Pavilion...

Chapter 4080

Zi Qing has already welcomed Pei Gu at the door for George Hanliang and his wife.

Just when Pei Gu was about to ask more questions, George Han had already led Amelia Su out slowly.

“The forbidden area will automatically close when the sun rises, so we don’t have much time. Let’s go there and talk to you all along the way.” After the words were finished, Pei Gu waved his hand, and a few fights The car hurried to the door.

The group got into the car one after another, and the team went all the way to the north of the city.

“The forbidden area of the Pei family is actually a mysterious death zone within our Pei family. This death zone has been with the Pei family since they came out. Legend has it that the first ancestor of our Pei family came out of it. People.”

“However, once you come out, you can’t get in again.”

“For many years, it’s not that the Pei family didn’t want to explore this dead zone. After all, it and our Pei family go hand in hand. However, it is a pity that no matter who walks into this mysterious area, the final result is often not investigated.”

“My ancestors, the third, seventh, and eleventh and fourteenth generations, used to be There are many talented people, and there are many masters among them. Naturally, this forbidden area also wants to challenge one or two.”

“However, of the total of forty-nine people, only two survived, and the others were all buried in them, and the two who survived, He is also insane, crazy and violent, and it is difficult to wake up.”

“However, it is not that I have achieved nothing.” Pei Gu stopped slightly when he arrived here.

Amelia Su frowned and asked, “Is there something in there?”

“What is unclear, but the ancestors got some one-sided and broken information from the words of these two crazy people. It is this information that makes me want to let Mr. Han try it now. The root cause of the test.” Pei Gu said.

“What’s wrong with this.” Zi Qing said.

“According to what the two of them said, there is a lot of fog in the forbidden area of death, surrounded by the breath of death everywhere. There are mountains of corpses and piles of bones, which is extremely eerie.”

“And there are various monsters hidden in the fog, especially the red-eyed monster. It is the most bloody and terrifying.”

“However, there is a gossip place in the fog, called the realm of heaven and earth. If you can be one of them, you can obtain the secret of immortality, but those red-eyed monsters are hidden in the realm of heaven and earth, and the two living Everyone was attacked by the red-eyed monster in it, and they were lucky to escape without knowing its true secret.”

“I saw that outside the gate of heaven and earth, there is a double book of life and death, entering the heaven and earth, reversing the yin and yang, turning the world upside down, to become a nine-level sky.

” The heaven and the earth, reverse the yin and yang, turn the earth upside down, and make it into the sky!” Amelia Su frowned slightly: “It seems that this situation may really help George Han.”

Ziqing also nodded: “Then we Be sure to enter this realm of heaven and earth.”

“I also hope you can enter.” Pei Gu said this and was a little worried: “The forbidden area of death is divided into two circles, the outer circle and the inner circle.”

“Although the inner circle is the real one. However, the outer circle is also murdered by the fog. According to the training of our ancestors, my family members are not allowed to enter the inner circle. Therefore, we can only stop in the outer circle. In order to maximize your combat effectiveness, we will be in the outer circle for a while When you arrive, try to keep your physical strength and let me escort me. When you reach the inner circle, you are...”

At this point, Pei Gu didn’t say any more.

George Han smiled: “Patriarch Pei doesn’t need to feel so guilty, in fact, the forbidden area of Pei’s family allows three thousand people to enter, so you must have broken the family rules.

If you want to lead someone into the inner circle of the forbidden area of death, it will make you even more unruly as the head of the family. “

Yes, Patriarch Pei, we can understand your difficulty. Moreover, this is his own business. The so-called life and death have fate, wealth is in the sky, and everything has to depend on him. Amelia Su also said.

Pei Gu heard the words and smiled slightly: “The two of you can understand Pei’s difficulties, but Pei is not very grateful. After the words were finished, Pei Gu lifted the curtain of the driving car, glanced outside the car, and sat back again: “We have left the north of the city and officially entered the forest of mystery. “

At the same time, it also means that we will soon arrive at the land of death.” “

“Everyone, get ready to get off.” “

As soon as the words fell, the entire convoy suddenly heard the sound of weapons, and everyone seemed to have picked up their weapons.

An ominous smell also floated in from the window...
