

HTC 4081

Chapter 4081

Even George Han has been through a hundred battles, but at this moment, he can't help frowning and feeling full of tension .

Although there is nothing outside and there are so many of them now, for some reason, just a gust of wind blowing in, can still make George Han look like this.

Intuition tells George Han that this place is indeed not just talking about it, but in fact, as its name is, it is a forbidden place.

George Han can clearly feel the gloom and chill here!

Whoa!

After walking for another ten minutes, the convoy stopped abruptly, and the soldiers around the convoy also suddenly raised their weapons, raised their spirits, and were vigilantly vigilant around them.

"We're here."

Pei Gu said lightly, with a serious expression, and got out of the car first.

Even though it was dawn, being in this forest was still as bleak and gloomy as it was in the middle of the night. In addition, the mist that swept away from time to time made the whole forest even more terrifying and mysterious.

Directly in front of the group of people, the fog was the thickest in the dark woods, and it was completely engulfed by darkness without seeing a distance of a few meters.

"This is the forbidden area of the Pei family." Pei Gu finished his words, and then pointed to an old tree on the left side in front of him.

The tree is thick and thick, and it is old. There is an old plaque hanging on the waist of the tree. After years of corrosion, it has become old. Only under careful and careful identification, it can be seen that the four characters of the forbidden area of death are written on it. .

"After entering, everyone walks closely together, don't speak loudly, and don't lose the team." Pei Gu glanced at everyone and instructed softly.

Everyone nodded silently

After the words fell, Pei Gu waved his hand, and the group of people officially moved slowly towards the fog.

After entering it, in fact, nothing else seemed to happen at first, and it was no different from the forest outside.

But as time passed, and gradually, George Han felt that the surroundings seemed to be very wrong.

Along the way, in this foggy jungle, except for the footsteps and breathing sounds of a few people, there is no other sound. It seems that in such a large jungle, there is not even a living creature.

It's just that there is green grass on the ground and big trees next to it. How can there be no creatures in such a lush environment?

"It's a little strange." Amelia Su stared at her surroundings, with energy in her hands at all times.

Ziqing also nodded, the surroundings were a bit too unbelievable: "It's so quiet that people feel that this place is not normal."

Just when George Han was about to answer, suddenly, an inexplicable cold wind came from the front. scraped over.

Immediately afterwards, a loud shout that seemed to be in the ear but also seemed to be in the distance suddenly hit.

"Who dares to break into the forbidden area!"

Although the sentence was so vague that no one could understand what he was saying, just this sentence alone made the more than 40 people present immediately tense. Get up, set up the battle one by one, as if facing the enemy.

The two women, Amelia Su and Zi Qing, who were divided into about George Han, did not dare to neglect at all, and guarded George Han in the center.

"Where is the monster, show up quickly, we are members of the Pei family."

Someone bravely shouted forward.

Everyone quietly waited for the response from the front.

However, a few seconds later, the front is still in

In dead silence.

The person who shouted looked back at Pei Gu. Pei Gu wanted him to continue shouting, but suddenly, his brows furrowed sharply, and his big hand was raised slightly, as if he had sensed something wrong.

George Han's eyes were also staring at the green leaves at the end of the treetops in front of them. At this time, they were shaking rapidly at an extremely fast but subtle frequency.

Although he lost his consciousness and his true energy, George Han immediately understood that something was wrong with his years of experience and intuition.

"Not good!"

George Han shouted subconsciously.

Before everyone returned to their senses, suddenly, they heard strange screams of killing from all directions.

Looking around again, I couldn't help but be very surprised.

I don't know when, on all sides, a large group of black people are holding guns and knives, galloping across the horses to kill...

Chapter 4082

"What?"

When they saw this group of people, the group of people were not only confused and shocked, but also deeply in their hearts of fear.

There are tens of thousands of people in this group, and the dense crowd is daunting.

However, what is even more terrifying is the appearance of these people themselves.

Almost all of them had black armor to protect themselves, but under that black armor were not fleshy iron arms, but white bones that did not match them at all.

And the horse under the crotch is more than an ordinary fierce horse, but a mutated horse that is as black as charcoal, like a horse but not a horse.

"Kill!"

With a shout of kill, all of a sudden!

"The Pei family forms a square team to protect the three thousand!"

Pei Gu shouted loudly, took the lead with the spear in his hand, and led two people to meet the attacking troops head-on.

As soon as he moved, the entire team of thirty-eight people also moved suddenly.

They are automatically divided into four teams to defend all sides.

"Three thousand VIPs, please come with us."

While resisting the four sides, the group of people also quickly moved forward.

Amelia Su and Ziqing didn't dare to be careless, they pulled George Han, and under the cover of all sides, they quickly ran towards the front.

The masters of the Pei family are indeed masters. Even if there are no more than ten people on each of the four sides, they have built a solid iron wall on all four sides.

No matter how the other side fights, they are still as stable as Mount Tai.

That's why, when Pei Gu opened the road ahead, a group of people and horses moved forward quickly like a square car.

"Go away!"

With a loud shout, suddenly the jungle in front of the ground cracked and the tree fell, and then with a bang

, a behemoth burst into the ground like a continuous mountain.

When he stabilized and looked at it, it was actually a half-sized Buddha statue that came out of the ground.

The Buddha statue has hands, and between the roaring roar, the huge hands slapped over like two mountains.

George Han frowned, and immediately shouted at Pei Gu: "Don't be wary, be careful with bergamot."

Although he was not qualified to participate in the battle, George Han was not idle all the way. He was surprised to find that These rushing soldiers are actually not as simple as they seem.

Although the masters are indeed very powerful, they can always kill each other every few times, but just like the ghost cavalry team that Mingyu brought last time, they died but could be resurrected quickly.

Therefore, George Han didn't want Pei Gu to focus on this and ignore the big Buddha's hand that came out of the ground.

With George Han's support, Pei Gu shook the soldiers around him almost without thinking. With a move of his hands, a dark light was released directly from his hands, hitting the door of the Buddha statue.

The people next to him were not idle, and after each of them followed the example of shaking the soldiers back, they worked together to support the two energies, and bowed left and right to directly resist the Buddha image that was photographed.

"Everyone, sprint forward, the rear troops will become the vanguard, and we will become the rear!" Pei Gu shouted loudly.

"Yes!"

Following Pei Gu's command, the entire troop immediately shifted their formation and sprinted forward without any influence.

boom!

Pei Gu's dark light has hit the door of the Buddha's image, and after George Han and the others have evacuated, the left and right sides of the Buddha's hands,

A group of people also immediately received their energy and followed the troops.

Accompanied by another loud bang, the left and right bergamot hands slammed together suddenly, and immediately, the ground on the left and right of both hands exploded directly.

"F, so Fing fierce? Fortunately, 3000 let Lao Tzu take care of the bergamot, not the soldiers." Pei Gu spit on the ground, ran forward quickly, and cursed speechlessly.

"It's almost in front of the Buddha statue, Ziqing, welcome the summer!"

“Yes!”

“Help the Pei family to knock down the Buddha statue.”

“But only half of the Buddha statue is outside, and the other half is in the soil, so Huge, I want to knock it down...” Amelia Su said anxiously.

“Boom!” George Han shouted loudly.

Almost at the same time, more than 40 people stopped at the same time, and then together they blasted towards the big Buddha in front of them...

Chapter 4083

Boom!!!

With a huge explosion, the huge attacks fused together and detonated directly above the Buddha image.

The huge impact force directly lifted the entire ground.

“Oops, the Buddha statue didn’t fall.” Zi Qing hurriedly drank.

During the explosion, even though the Buddha statue received a huge impact, its body just swayed in the explosion and did not collapse.

“Three thousand, find a way, otherwise, we will enter a dead end.” Amelia Su said anxiously.

Once rushed in front of the Buddha statue, the death army on all sides will immediately chase after themselves and the others and surround them in groups. The Buddha statue will also attack at any time at close range, and the situation will become extremely difficult for the crowd. .

George Han frowned. Of course, he knew the danger, and he was always thinking of ways to deal with it.

However, what can be done?

Everyone ca n’t knock him down, so what should he do? !

Suddenly, George Han had an epiphany.

“Let everyone accelerate with all their strength and move forward directly.” George Han said coldly.

“What?” Amelia Su was stunned for a moment. If such a huge Buddha statue in front of him was not knocked down, all the people would speed up and go away, and wouldn’t it be broken into pieces?

Isn’t this purely seeking death? !

“Listen to my order, come on!” George Han said urgently.

Amelia Su had no other choice, glanced at Pei Gu, and shouted in a hurry, “Patriarch Pei, I believe in George Han.”

“Then rush forward.” Pei Gu responded, and as soon as his voice fell, he only heard him shout loudly: “All the generals obey the order, run the body method, and move forward at full speed.”

“But Patriarch, ahead...”

“Run!” Pei Gu drank angrily.

“Yes!”

Everyone took the order, and in the next second, almost everyone turned the real energy in their bodies to the extreme. After that, they closed their eyes and rushed towards the Buddha statue at full speed.

It’s getting closer, it’s getting closer.

The distance of the crowd waiting has begun to approach the Buddha statue.

Although the Buddha statue was made of stone, its huge body made it look like an iron wall. It seemed inevitable that it would be smashed into pieces when it hit it.

“Wow!”

But just when everyone was ready to accept the impact, the moment they came into contact with the Buddha statue, they only felt that the body was preventing the Buddha from rushing into something similar to a water circle.

Then he rushed out of the water circle in the next second, and when he looked back, there was a foggy and peaceful new realm in front of everyone. It seemed that the scene of talent just now was just a dream.

“How...how could this be?”

“What about the Buddha statues?”

“What about those chasing soldiers?” Looking back, there was nothing but an endless jungle.

Amelia Su looked at George Han, she knew that George Han should know the answers.

George Han smiled slightly, “Do n’t you think the scene just now is very strange?”

“Those skeleton soldiers are not alive or dead at all, they are obviously like soldiers of ghosts and demons, but they also have the appearance of majestic Buddha. An extreme.” Pei Gu also said.

“Yes.” George Han nodded: “The Buddha will not fall, and the ghost soldiers will not die. Such a paradox must be the realm of great murder. In the realm of great murder, the gate of death is often the gate of life.”

“Therefore, I think that the Buddha statue that attacks more fiercely should be the Shengmen.”

“But just now we clearly attacked the Buddha statue with all our strength, and it still does not fall, why do we...”

“Those who are afraid of the truth, the two are both mutually reinforcing and mutually reinforcing.” George Han said, looking around at this time, his brows slightly wrinkled: “This is so strange.”

Hearing George Han’s words, everyone also focused their eyes on this place. in the surrounding jungle.

“Yin qi is very heavy.” Zi Qing replied.

“Like yin, but it shouldn’t be yin.

” George Han shook his head and looked at Pei Gu: “It’s really only the Pei family who have entered here? I mean... this place gives me the feeling... It’s like, Not only a few people died.”

Amelia Su nodded: “I feel very depressed here.”

Pei Gu nodded with certainty: “The number of people from the Pei family who have entered here will never exceed a hundred people.”

“One hundred people?” George Han frowned, and he suddenly smiled.

Seeing that George Han suddenly smiled at this time, Pei Gu and the others really didn’t understand the meaning of George Han’s smile.

Pei Gu couldn’t help it anymore, looked at George Han, and said: “Pei Mou took the liberty to ask, why are you laughing at George Han? Is it possible that you question Pei?”

George Han shook his head: “No.” When the words fell, George Han sighed deeply: “But the truth is, there have been at least 10,000 people who have died here, and...”

Chapter 4084

“And what?”

Everyone was even more curious, not knowing what George Han said next.

“Moreover, I seriously believe that the people who died here are by no means ordinary people. It can even be said that they are at least overlord-level characters who once shocked one side.”

“Overlord-level characters?” Pei Gu frowned. A little puzzled: “Although the surrounding atmosphere is indeed as George Han you said, but the forbidden area of death has always been within the sphere of influence of the Pei family, and whoever wants to enter and leave, must be recorded in the book of the Pei family.

” I have checked everything in the Pei family register, but there is no record, let alone a big man, even someone outside the family with the surname Pei has never had one. So George Han, why do you understand this.”

George Han smiled lightly . , Seeing everyone’s suspicious faces, he couldn’t help but say: “If I remember correctly, Patriarch Pei should have said that the Pei family came out of the forbidden land of death, right?”

“That’s right.”

” In other words, it can also be said that the forbidden land of death seems to be born in the Pei family, but it may also be born in the Pei family earlier, right?” The Pei family walked out of it, but it does not mean that the Pei family existed earlier than the death forbidden land, only it may be that the forbidden place of death existed before the Pei family.

“Three thousand, what do you mean...”

“I’ll tell a story, or suppose a possibility.” George Han said: “This place used to be a certain battlefield. When the war broke out, there were countless casualties, so this place was formed. “

However, in this war, it is not that there are no survivors. At least, the scorpion may have survived. For the continuation of the bloodline, it dripped blood into adults, and these surviving people slowly developed and eventually walked out. This forbidden area of death has formed the current Pei family words, Pei Gu thought about it carefully, and there is indeed such a possibility: “However, it is purely speculation based on these alone? “

? Hearing George Han ‘s

“Some pretense. However, it might just explain it. “George Han continued: “If this is the case, I also know why this place is dangerous. “

In Xuanyuan World, he and Linlong have also explored the lost land after the war, and naturally they have some understanding of the dangers of such places.

George Han also knows that this is Bafang World, even far more than Xuanyuan World. The battlefield is much more terrifying, but they do have some similarities.

“If it is according to what you said, then the inner circle of the forbidden area of death may be the place where countless real bosses have fallen, where the atmosphere is messy, and the resentment is more ferocious. How can people resist entering it?” Amelia Su said with some concern.

Han

George Han didn’t speak, he squatted down, and lightly touched the ground at this time. The moss on it was wet and fertile, and it was very dense.

After removing the moss, George Han could see the fertile land below. “ Patriarch Pei, can you help me? I want to remove this piece of moss, and then dig three feet into the ground to see its appearance. “George Han said.

“But...” Pei Gu was obviously worried that this would waste unnecessary time.

“Patriarch Pei, please believe me, someone Han is definitely not willing to waste any time, I know better than you .” Staying here for one more second is more dangerous. George Han finished his words and looked around: "But this matter is related to the safety of all of us, and it is more related to our success or failure after entering the inner circle, so..."

Pei Gu looked at George Han quietly. , seeing his very sincere expression, nodded: "Everyone, let's do it. "The words fell, and everyone took the order. Although they were puzzled, they still followed George Han's instructions and began to clean up the moss and dig the ground.

Amelia Su and Ziqing were not idle either, they were busy with everyone.

George Han was wandering among the crowd. Although he seemed to be idle, he was actually keeping his eyes on the four corners, so as not to miss something he didn't want to miss.

About half an hour later, the excavation work continued, but the work in the hands of everyone was getting slower and slower.

Because it is obvious that everyone's attention is no longer focused on digging at this time, but their respective surroundings at this time...

"How could this be?"

"This... What the hell is going on?"

The crowd exclaimed one after another, and at the same time, they looked around in horror.

I don't know when, the white fog has completely filled the air...

Chapter 4085

white mist drifts in all directions, and the confusion is endless. Not only could they not see each other at all, even if their palms were stretched out in front of their eyes, they couldn't see clearly.

" , what's going on? Why is there such a big fog all of a sudden?"

"Are you all by my side? I can't see you at all."

"I'm where I am." " I am where I am."

A large group of people can't see each other at all, and can only use their voices to identify each other's positions.

Amelia Su and Ziqing also hurriedly grabbed George Han's hand from left to right, not because the two women were afraid, but mainly worried about what would happen to George Han in this situation.

"Do you know a word?" George Han whispered.

The two women responded in unison: "What?"

"You ca n't see the dog when you walk the dog, the dog's leash is in your hand, and when you see the leash, you can't see the dog's hand, and the only one who calls out is the dog!" George Han said speechlessly, "This foggy person can see everything. I don't know, do I look like a dog in your hands now?" The two women couldn't help but chuckle, Amelia Su complained, "What time is this, you are still in the mood to joke."

"You guys are quick to grab my hand . I'm not joking, how can I ease the tension?"

George Han said, the two women realized that they were indeed too nervous, holding George Han too hard. , both of them loosened a lot.

"Three thousand, where did this fog come from? Why did it completely drown us all at once." Amelia Su asked suspiciously.

Ziqing also followed: "It seems that these fogs are a little unusual."

George Han nodded: "Obviously, they want to stop us." After the words were finished, George Han loudly said to everyone: "Everyone, this fog may be very difficult. Everyone try to be careful. If something suddenly attacks you around you, don't panic."

"Yes!"

Everyone listened to the order and looked around vigilantly in the fog. .

"There seems to be something in the fog." Amelia Su frowned.

George Han smiled and said, "Don't worry, there must be something. Besides, it's very likely that we will make a fool of yourself." As soon as he finished speaking, suddenly, someone in the crowd shouted, and then I heard someone yelling: " I rely on me, who is by my side, be careful, what are you beating me for."

Then, in the fog, similar shouts could be heard everywhere: "I rely, who hit me."

"Who hit me on the head."

"Who is next to me. !"

Even if he couldn't see everyone's situation clearly in the fog, for George Han, he could have imagined that there must be around 40 people in chaos.

"Three thousand, what can you do?" Amelia Su asked.

Since George Han had already guessed this situation, he might be the one with the best solution.

"It can't be messed up." George Han said quietly: "If everyone is messed up, then no matter how powerful we are, we will always only hurt our own people." The words ended, George Han once again They shouted loudly: "Be careful and safe, and speed up the excavation."

"Yes!"

After the crowd responded, the sound of excavation was heard again.

At this time, George Han was not idle, and gently pulled Amelia Su's hand: "Help me."

Then, he gently said to Zi Qing, "Protect us both."

"Yes!" Zi Qing responded.

Su

Amelia Su was also close to George Han in the mist, facing her sideways.

George Han didn't talk nonsense, he directly took out the Five Elements Divine Stone and held it in his hand.

"Five Elements Divine Stone, whether you understand it or not, please give me some face, this is my wife, she has the capacity for you, please help." some energy into the stone."

"Ah?" Amelia Su was stunned: "You talk to the stone? Are you sure this is feasible?"

George Han shook his head: "I'm not sure."

"However, I have prepared in advance, it should be Maybe."

George Han looked at Amelia Su: "Start."

Prepare in advance?

Amelia Su was full of doubts, when did George Han prepare for the Five Elements Divine Stone?

But looking at George Han's appearance, Amelia Su still injected a piece of energy directly into the Five Elements Divine Stone...

Chapter 4086

Both husband and wife are silently watching the Five Elements God Stone.

It doesn't seem to reflect anything.

But after a while, the Five Elements Divine Stone suddenly and slowly flew out of George Han's hands, and then it shone faintly.

And along with this ray of light, all the fog around it clearly began to dissipate.

"I...I..." Amelia Su was so shocked that she was speechless, looking at the shining Five Elements Divine Stone, her whole person was completely incredulous.

The Five Elements Divine Stone has always been motivated by George Han. Amelia Su couldn't understand why she could do the same.

“Three thousand, what did you do to prepare?” Amelia Su asked.

“I’ll tell you when I go back.” George Han smiled.

“Why do you want to go back? Say it now.” Amelia Su shook her head.

“Are you sure?” George Han asked.

Of course .”

George Han nodded: “Because last night, we were all one.”

Hearing this, Amelia Su suddenly turned pale: “Are you going to die, are you here... say this... George Han looked innocent: “

That’s not what you asked me to say.”

In fact, George Han had already found out that he could promote Amelia Su at that time.

This also means that Amelia Su’s body has her own true power.

Therefore, George Han thought that Amelia Su might be able to activate the Five Elements Divine Stone instead of him when he was unable to activate the Five Elements Divine Stone.

Although it is indeed impossible for her to motivate her with all her strength, George Han believes that she can at least wake up the Five Elements Divine Stone, and help herself more or less at critical moments.

Obviously

, George Han guessed right.

As for insisting on explaining that last night, George Han did have the possibility of “killing”, but more to make sure, review...

With the light of the Five Elements Divine Stone to dispel the fog, although the range is not very large, at least It also gave everyone a safe and visible space.

George Han stopped talking, and let Amelia Su control the Five Elements Divine Stone to slowly hover over the heads of everyone.

At this point, the commotion finally subsided a lot, although occasionally someone could still feel that someone was attacking him in the fog.

“The Five Elements Divine Stone can’t guarantee how long we will last, everyone should work harder.” George Han urged and encouraged.

The crowd responded.

About half an hour later, accompanied by someone shouting

: “I seem to have found something here.”

Immediately after, before George Han could respond, more and more people began to shout them. There are also discoveries.

And when the Five Elements Divine Stone wandered around and took pictures of all the images of the four directions, a huge and historical picture was also reflected in the minds of everyone including George Han for the first time.

It was a complete ruin.

Although they have been hidden in the underground soil at some point, the stories that have happened here can still be vaguely seen.

Broken guns, broken halberds, lying all over the place.

Chess poles, chariots, occasionally visible.

“It seems that, as Three Thousand said, this place used to be a battlefield of ten thousand people.”

“Yeah, I didn’t expect that such a truth would be hidden .”

“Mr. Han, you are really extraordinary, you can see things hidden so deeply underground. It’s really admirable to come out.”

“Yes, I was a little dissatisfied with the fact that you were so young. But the work just now really convinced me.”

“You don’t have a cultivation base, but you see it. It’s more thorough than our group of cultivated people, and it’s really amazing.” The group of people all sighed very much, but for George Han, when he saw the scene in the field and confirmed his conjecture, he didn’t have the slightest bit in his heart. I am happy because of the praise, but on the contrary, it is more and more heavy.

Because, in other words, the so-called Land of the Dead is actually an ancient battlefield.

Moreover, there must be a shocking secret hidden in it...

Chapter 4087

Pei’s home!

battlefield!

Maybe it’s just like George Han’s original prediction.

This place is an ancient battlefield. Countless gods died here, including even ancient divine beasts like Yutu.

On the other hand, there can be a battle situation where the beasts such as Yasuto participate in the battle, so what kind of big scene should it be against the sky? !

Last time, on the battlefield of Xuanyuan World, an unparalleled master in Xuanyuan World could be produced, even though she was only a sword soul.

Then this time, what kind of terrifying existence will appear on the battlefield from the Bafang World?

George Han didn't know, but thinking about it carefully, he should also know its real horror.

Don't say that he looks like this now, even in his heyday, he may not be able to retire completely.

The Pei family is also considered to be everyone, so there is no need to say more about the abundance of talents. Even such a family has listed this place as a forbidden place, and are not allowed to set foot there.

Then, on the other hand, the danger of this place will be completely pulled to the ceiling.

However, George Han has never been a pessimistic person. The more dangerous the place, the easier it is to die here, but it also means that the greater opportunity awaits him.

Once he is lucky enough to survive and get such an opportunity, George Han believes that he can indeed be more than just returning to the peak.

Thinking of this, George Han smiled slightly: "Han is only a disabled person, and he still relies on everyone's help along the way, so don't praise him."

When the words fell, he walked in front of Pei Gu in a few steps: "This place is dangerous and yin qi is very heavy. Although you are all experts, I hope you will go back here." After carefully discerning the map, he shook his head: "

There are at least three hours away from the entrance to the inner circle, so you want us to retreat so early?"

"Patriarch Pei, since we have to enter the inner circle sooner or later in such a dangerous place Then, why should you be afraid of how far the outer circle is?" George Han said with a smile.

Anyway, sooner or later, you will enter a more dangerous place. Now this kind of danger seems to be nothing compared to it.

"Although the principle is such a principle, after all, I am the master, and you are the guest. How can you send the guest halfway and go home?" Pei Gu still disagreed.

George Han smiled helplessly: "These people are all the bases of the Pei family. If something happened while escorting me, wouldn't it be a bigger loss for the Pei family?"

"I mean, I'm anyway. It's life or death, and nothing will happen because you escort me one more trip or one less trip. If that's the case

, then it's better to put away these unnecessary gifts and reduce unnecessary losses."

"If I die, you If my master is still dead, wouldn't you lose even more heavily? If I live and the master dies, doesn't it mean that my strength is weakened in disguise?" George Han said.

After listening to these words, Pei Gu was silent for a long time, George Han said almost impeccably, and every sentence made sense, he was really indistinguishable.

“Okay, since George Han you have already said so.” Pei Gu finished, and took the old map on George Han’s hand: “Then Pei will lead people to retreat immediately, this is my Pei family map, Although it may not be too detailed, it is already the most complete map made based on the confessions of the two people who came back alive.”

“You keep it, maybe you will use it on the road.

” waved, and several masters immediately poured out of the space ring.

Numerous dry food and daily necessities.

“You also accept these things. The situation in the land of death is complicated, and I don’t know how many days I will be in it. I need to prepare more and worry less.”

George Han nodded and asked Ziqing to use the space ring to accept it. With a smile: “Thank you, Patriarch Pei, then.” The two held hands and bowed to each other. Pei Gu got up and said, “Send you a thousand miles away, but you will need to say goodbye. In this way, I will wait for you on the edge. When you triumph, I will The whole city welcomes and celebrates with the world.”

George Han smiled slightly: “Patriarch Pei, I am waiting for that day.”

“I also look forward to that day coming soon.” After the words were finished, Pei Gu waved his hand and led the group. Back away.

After they left, Amelia Su came up and looked at George Han with a puzzled look, frowning and said, “They are all masters, George Han, why did you suddenly let them retreat?”

Chapter 4088

“Yes, three thousand brothers, many people have more hands, like the Buddha statue just now, if they hadn’t covered our progress, we may still be trapped in the army of death over there.” Ziqing said inexplicably.

In any case, the number of people is powerful, and it is still the power of a master, why not use it?

George Han smiled bitterly: “I know why the two of you are like this.”

“But don’t worry, what I did must be beneficial to us.” When the words were finished, George Han looked around and sighed: “You guys Looking at the surroundings, the gloomy atmosphere always gives us a huge invisible pressure.”

“Just now, I asked them to dig the ground, do you really think it’s just digging the ground?”

George Han just wanted to prove that this place was once in Xuanyuan’s world. All the same, it’s a battlefield.

Since it is a battlefield, naturally, he also has some experience.

In the battlefield, yin and resentment are extremely heavy, and people are yang. Entering it is against the realm, and it is easy to cause yin and evil to deal with.

The auras of the two women are relatively weak, and they are also disabled. Therefore, if the three of them walk in the middle, the target of yang energy is relatively small, and the troubles caused may be correspondingly small.

On the contrary, there are more people and the breath is heavier. It is like a red-hot charcoal was thrown into the cold water, and its reflection naturally becomes great.

In fact, this in disguise is even more dangerous to them.

Therefore, George Han had this new plan.

“Listening to what you said, it seems to be the case.” Amelia Su nodded.

When the fog was full, everyone could clearly feel that something was attacking them in the fog, but when the fog was illuminated by the light of the Five Elements Divine Stone, everything seemed to be extremely quiet, as if nothing was happening. Happened normally.

What George Han said seems to be true.

George Han smiled slightly: “Okay, let’s continue to move forward. It will take three hours to reach the inner circle.” After the words were finished, George Han took the two girls and slowly moved towards the secret place of the jungle. go.

Along the way, the two women followed George Han closely, one in front and the other at the back. Although they did not make a sound, they protected George Han’s comprehensiveness to the death.

However, the two women seemed to be too worried, or it seemed to confirm George Han’s statement that the three of them had been walking all the way for more than an hour due to the small relationship between their goals, and they were completely at peace with each other.

Seeing that the inner circle marked on the map was getting closer and closer, Amelia Su panicked:

“Three thousand...”

Before she could finish her sentence, George Han interrupted her with a smile: “What? It’s too quiet. Makes you a little confused?”

Amelia Su nodded noncommittally: “Indeed. Since you also said that this is an ancient battlefield, then this is also an ancient cemetery. However, it seems to be too quiet, right?”

George Han knew that Amelia Su was worried that this was the peace before the storm.

“It’s definitely not easy here, how can it be so easy and easy to pass.” George Han smiled: “However, you don’t have to be too anxious, what should come will always come, and you can’t escape.

” It’s not ours, and we can’t even hit it if we want to.”

“If that’s the case, why bother and ask for trouble.” George Han said with a smile.

Hearing George Han’s explanation, Amelia Su was relieved for a moment.

When the words fell, George Han stopped lightly and set his eyes on a towering tree in front of him.

“What’s wrong?” Amelia Su asked.

George Han didn’t say a word.

Under the puzzled eyes of the two women, he laughed softly and walked under the tree. He looked up and was very satisfied.

“Two beauties, please who of you can send me to the top of this tree?” George Han said.

“What are you doing on the tree?” Amelia Su asked inexplicably, but she still obediently walked in front of George Han.

George Han didn’t say anything, just stretched out his hands and waited for Amelia Su to take him up the tree.

Amelia Su knew that George Han must have his reasons, rolled his eyes at him, and took him directly to the top of the tree all the way.

However, Amelia Su thought it was a very easy thing, but she soon encountered new troubles.

She looked at George Han in astonishment, and she was completely dumbfounded: “George Han, how... how could this be?”

Not only her, but Ziqing, who was looking at the bottom, was also full of doubts. .

How... how is this?

Chapter 4089

No matter how hard Amelia Su is, no matter how Amelia Su is flying upwards, but she and George Han are always on the rise. It is difficult to reach the top of the tree that is not far away at all.

As for Ziqing, what she saw was Amelia Su flying up hard, but it seemed to be completely stopped in place in the blink of an eye.

“Sure enough.”

George Han smiled and shook his head.

“Stop, don’t waste your energy.”

Hearing George Han’s words, although Amelia Su was very unwilling and puzzled, she still took a look in the air and landed again with George Han.

“Sister Amelia Su, brother George Han, are you all right?” Ziqing said anxiously.

George Han and Amelia Su both shook their heads. Seeing that Amelia Su kept looking at him, George Han shook his head bitterly: “Actually, I had already guessed that this might happen before I climbed the tree.”

“Then why do you want me to bring it with you?” You climbed the tree? Besides, why did you guess this situation?”

“I want to see how heavy the yin is here.” George Han said.

Last time, in the ghost rainforest of Bafang World, there were so many ghosts of true gods, George Han, who could directly climb the tree to observe the whole picture, but this time, the yin qi was so strong that it was also self-contained, but it was never allowed to be destroyed by others.

Comparing the two, it turns out that it is far more terrifying, or in other words, more vicious than the Tomb of the True God in the Bafang World.

“This tree is the largest we have ever seen along the way. At the same time, it also shows that in this outer circle, this place should have the heaviest yin, so it is the most suitable place to test the power of the outer circle.”

“I already have the answer in my heart. It seems that the inner circle is really dangerous

. Otherwise, you should send me to the outer circle and stop.”

Hearing George Han’s words, the two women were startled and stunned. angry.

“George Han, what are you talking about?”

“Yeah, brother George Han, in your current situation, if you don’t let us accompany you, what’s the difference between courting death?”

George Han shook his head: “With me Judging from the current situation of the two investigations, do you think that if the three of us go in, it is not a death sentence?”

“When I was in Xuanyuan World, I entered such an ancient battlefield, and it can be said that it is extremely dangerous, and it is almost a chance to die. In the current situation, it will only be stronger or weaker than before.” When the words fell, George Han sighed: “No matter how many people go in, they will die.”

“Even if it is to die, then since everyone came together. , then let’s go together.”

“Yeah, let’s either go in together

, or go back together now, and we’ll protect you for the rest of your life in the future.” The two women were firm and didn’t make any concessions.

George Han was very distressed.

He really didn't want any extra sacrifices to go in. He was very aware of how dangerous the inner circle was, not to mention Amelia Su and Ziqing, even the two heydays of themselves would never be able to get out of it.

On the contrary, they also brought their own oil bottle. George Han can be sure that if they enter, they will surely die.

One is the woman he loves the most, and the other is the younger sister in his eyes. George Han is not willing to let anyone die.

"Then go back." George Han raised his head and looked at the two women.

The two women were obviously shocked, especially Amelia Su. She knew George Han's personality too well, and knew that he would never retreat in spite of difficulties.

Go two words popped out of his mouth. "Are you crazy? Go back?"

"Yeah, Brother George Han, there may be something here to help you recover. We made a special trip to Pei's house for this purpose. Now, we suddenly want to give up?"

Shocked.

George Han gave a wry smile: "When we enter the inner circle, don't say whether there are any enemies, the power of grievances in the ancient cemetery alone is enough to overwhelm any of the three of us.

"Here, just a little bit of resentment in the outer circle is enough to keep us from flying here, and entering it..." George Han smiled and didn't speak any more.

When the words fell, he shook his hand and motioned for the two women to return together on the same path.

"Enough." Amelia Su glanced at George Han, and suddenly smiled coldly: "George Han, I have a question for you."

Chapter 4090

"Husbands and wives are birds of the same forest.

Without waiting for George Han to answer, Amelia Su continued to snort bitterly: "You want to go in too, don't you?" The former is a mockery of George Han, while the latter is a mockery of George Han. an understanding of.

George Han shook his head: "I just don't want you to die in vain."

"As for whether I want to go in, I know I can't hide it from you. I really want to go in.

"It's on my head." Amelia Su said bitterly, "I don't know if it's my honor, or is it a misfortune as a wife?"

George Han was very embarrassed, and Amelia Su was obviously mocking herself.

George Han was covered in waterfall sweat, and he really didn't know what to say for a while.

"Well, Ziqing stays in the outer circle, and I'll go in with you. If there is any mishap, at least I can take care of you."

Hearing Amelia Su's words, George Han knew very well that if he didn't agree again, don't wait to enter. In the inner circle, George Han is about to "hang" here.

"But Ziqing also wants to go in." Ziqing shook her head, her face full of grievances.

George Han smiled lightly and patted Ziqing's shoulder: "If you go in, what will happen to Han Nian if there is something wrong between our husband and wife?"

"I know, I feel a little wronged by leaving you outside. However, if Han Nian had an aunt like you, Amelia Su and I would be much more at ease."

Amelia Su also nodded: "Yes, Ziqing, and you are mysterious now.

The person with the highest cultivation level in the human alliance, we must always leave a root in the alliance, otherwise, there is really nothing. "

Hearing George Han and Amelia Su's words, although Ziqing's face was unusually unwilling, at least she didn't show too much resistance and struggle.

Seeing that one is going to die and one is very unwilling to go, George Han can't. It is also full of distress. In the inner circle, they may really not know how dangerous it will be.

"Hurry up. George Han finished his words, led the two women, and continued to go deeper into the inner circle.

The distance to the inner circle was just over an hour away.

There is something on my mind, and it seems that the road for more than an hour is like a year.

George Han sighed

, and really didn't know what to say.

However, at this moment, a strange sound suddenly sounded in front of the three people. Immediately stop and listen carefully.

"It seems that it is the wind. "Zi Qing said.

George Han nodded: "But this wind does not seem to be simple. "

Amelia Su stared at the ground. At this time, even the fallen leaves on the ground were shaking slightly.

"It seems that the wind is strong. "Amelia Su raised her head and said, but unfortunately, the trees in front of her were blocking it, so she couldn't see what was going on in front of her.

“You guys stay here, I’ll take a look. Zi Qing left a sentence, and before waiting for George Hanliang and his wife to react, she rushed out.

The two couples were dumbfounded.

“She may be trying to express herself too much .” “Amelia Su shook her head helplessly .

Without taking her into the inner circle, in terms of Ziqing’s character, she might not refute too much, but in her heart, she wanted to prove herself more than anyone else.

Of course George Han knew this and sighed, “I’m also doing it for...hey.”

“Actually, it’s very dangerous to leave her alone in the outer circle. Since we came together, we should go in together. Sometimes, alone The dignity of a person is far more important than a person’s life.” Amelia Su finished her words, looking in the direction of Ziqing’s departure: “At least, Ziqing is such a person.”

George Han nodded and was about to speak, but she was almost there. At this moment, the big tree in front of me was suddenly pulled up from the ground, and it was pulled and shattered before it could fly. A gigantic hurricane came out of its cage like a beast, and suddenly attacked the two of them crazily...
