

HTC 4101

Chapter 4101

"I have seen the master!"

"I have seen the master!"

"I have seen the master!"

Qi Shushua knelt down beside George Han.

That scene was very grand, very shocking, and very hard to recall.

George Han froze in place, unable to recover until a moment later, he frowned: "Senior, you are..."

"We are in front of the master and dare not be called a senior."

"No Wrong, we are all under the master, please master, don't be polite again."

Looking at the figures with a pious attitude, George Han really didn't know what to do, he glanced at the Chaos Clock and couldn't help sighing, Before the bell, he was still a rubbish that everyone shouted and beat, but after the bell was ringing, he had already become a superior person, a god in a god.

"Whether I am the so-called master of you or not, it is an , please get up quickly." George Han said modestly.

This is not a compliment, but a fact.

Everyone heard the words, you look at me, I look at you, and in the end, all of them got up obediently.

"Seven bells ring, it's an act of death. I never thought that one day, the Lord will appear in front of us."

"Yes, such things are like miracles, and we are fortunate enough to see them. It's really difficult."

"Before, after all, it was me who was reckless, so that the dog looked down on people, but in fact I didn't want to. It was the real emperor who came into the world for thousands of years."

"It seems that there is hope for the world's revival, and the world's reorganization."

Hearing the praise of a group of people, George Han was very helpless, put down the hammer, and sighed helplessly: "Seniors, don't lift George Han. "

In fact, you have seen it, I'm just a piece of junk right now."

"I don't have any cultivation."

George Han gave a bitter smile.

Hearing this, a group of people suddenly remembered: "Yes, Sovereign, why don't you...have a little bit of cultivation all over your body?"

"It's not that I look down on it, but it's really unbelievable."

“That’s not it. In terms of your body, this cultivation level may not have reached the peak, but it must already be superior to others, why is this?”

George Han shook his head mockingly: “As you said With such a big task of saving the world, it is inevitable that there will be many difficulties, I am , and then save my life, it’s that simple.”

George Han wanted to make a joke, but the people around him didn’t seem to answer at all. Or rather, they took it.

Picked up in a very decent manner.

“That’s true.”

“The chosen person, with the blessing of the heaven, must have the evil and worship of the earth. It is normal to meet many trials.”

“Yes, I should have thought of this long ago.”

George Han was very speechless. It was obviously a joke, but he was called such a serious person by this group of people, and he was extremely helpless.

However, since the words have been said, George Han can only take the words and continue: “Don’t hide it from the seniors, in fact, George Han came here this time because he heard from the Pei family that there are some places where death is forbidden. Chances are that I can get back to where I was before, so I risked my death.”

The words fell, and before George Han could answer, the old man who had been guarding the clock had already walked in front of George Han in a few steps.

With a slight lift, the light directly lifted George Han’s hand, and then, his hand gently placed on George Han’s pulse.

After a while, Guangying raised his hand: “The meridian of the master is broken, it is indeed caused .”

“No wonder there is no cultivation.”

“It turns out that it is indeed not waste, but just Longyou shallow water.”

“Earlier, I was the one who was sloppy.” When the words fell, all the shadows bowed their heads slightly, as if they were quite guilty about the talent.

George Han smiled: “Seniors, you don’t have to.”

The shadows raised their heads and looked at each other.

Finally, the old man nodded: “What the Lord said is true.”

“This death zone is divided into two circles. We live in the outer circle, and there is an inner circle.”

“In the inner circle, there is one thing. It can help the master to return to the peak, but...” Having said that, the old man did not continue to speak, and there seemed to be something unspeakable.

On the other hand, George Han was not at all afraid: “Senior has everything to say. Since George Han came here, he never planned to retreat.”

Seeing George Han like this, the old man nodded..

Chapter 4102

“That is not something that is difficult to know.” He was a little melancholy, it seems that what he said made him extremely helpless and full of Worry in general.

George Han frowned slightly, waiting for his words.

“Where was this place, I think you already have the answer in your heart, so I don’t need to say more, and it’s not convenient for me to say more.”

George Han nodded slightly.

“Since this is the case, think about it, in the center of the battlefield, the most fierce battles often take place. Naturally, the characters fighting there are often very high-ranking people.”

“You should know what I mean. ?”

Hearing that, George Han nodded lightly.

The meaning of the old man is very obvious. The people in the inner circle are all super high-level experts in the competition. Naturally, after they die, their grievances will become extremely large.

The grievances of one’s own side are nothing but the grievances of the enemy.

It can be said that there is life and death.

“It has been many years of resentment, it is difficult to distinguish between enemy and me, friend is enemy, enemy is also enemy, the danger among them can be imagined.” The old man said helplessly.

George Han sighed: “I understand, but it is more terrifying to want me to be a cripple than to die. I can’t protect my friends, I can’t protect my wife and children, and what is the meaning of a man born in heaven and earth? “

Okay, a good man was born in heaven and earth, no matter what, I support you.”

“You are so old, so unspoken, just with this spirit, I know why he chose you.”

“fu, If Lao Tzu is still alive, Lao Tzu will protect you with his blood Peace, it’s a pity, grass...”

Many people felt powerless, and the attitude of wanting to help but unable to help really made people grit their teeth.

“Let’s take you to the inner circle. The old man smiled: “As you said, people have their own missions and responsibilities in the world. Any individual, living in the world, is not only for himself, but more for what he loves.” man of. “

“Home is a small love, and the world is a big love.” When the words fell, the old man moved his hand, and a flash of light fell on the huge chaotic clock.

It is strange that the huge clock suddenly shrank rapidly, and finally it was no more than the size of a palm.

He took the clock and handed it to George Han . In front of him, he smiled lightly and said, “This is for you. “

“Send it to me?” “Han

George Han frowned.

“I have already said that the sound of six sounds has never been heard by many people, and the sound of seven sounds has never been seen before. You are the first. Naturally, it belongs to you.” . “

“Take it. Although Chaos Bell has no attack, it has a strong defense. Maybe you will use it after entering.” Or in other words, in your current state, if you don’t carry it, you will surely die. And with him, maybe... you can still have hope. “

Seeing the old man say this, George Han nodded and took the Chaos Clock from his palm, but he felt that it weighed tens of thousands of kilograms before, but now it is as light as a toy.

The old man smiled: “I forgot. You have no cultivation base now. When the words fell, he pointed out two fingers in his hand, and after gesturing a few times at the Chaos Clock, a stream of energy entered the clock. The clock flashed lightly, and then returned to normal.

“I gave you some secrets, You can operate its clock without him doing it. You need to memorize some spells. “

When the words fell, the old man attached to George Han’s ear and whispered a spell to George Han.

After listening to George Han, he remembered it in his heart, and couldn’t help but say gratefully, “Thank you for your help, senior.”

“You are polite.” The old man smiled, and then he looked at the shadows behind him and said, “Everyone, you and I are here, It is time for us to do something, whether it is for honor or the so-called responsibility of the master.” After the words were finished, all the shadows nodded in unison.

Immediately afterwards, a light spot suddenly appeared in the old man’s hand, and then, a strange and strange scene appeared...

Chapter 4103

At the same time that the little star is rising, those lights and shadows are like the old people, they stretch out their index fingers and move towards The light spot in the old man's hand released energy slightly.

Suddenly, ten thousand points gathered at one point and connected into a network of stars.

"The power of you and me can lightly open thousands of people."

Everyone said in unison, and all the energy of thousands of paths rushed to the starlight, and their figures disappeared together.

Together with their energies, they went directly into that starlight.

The old man smiled slightly: "Master, it's time for you to go on your way." As the words fell, even he himself turned into light in the end, and gathered energy into the starlight.

The starlight burst into flames, seemingly illuminating everything around.

In the end, it suddenly went out again, leaving only a coin-like thing in George Han's palm.

boom!

Boom!

Suddenly, the space shook, and the high platform under his feet was shaking wildly. George Han looked down, and the steps hanging in the air had begun to collapse. After that, they turned into powder and disappeared.

They are bursting apart, and the high platform where George Han is standing is also disintegrating.

Countless boulders shattered and fell continuously.

boom!

The high platform was completely shattered, turned into countless fragments, and fell with a bang, and George Han, who was on the high platform, also lost the center at this time, and fell all the way from an unknown height.

Below, there are countless darkness. Even if George Han struggles, what is the difference between ordinary people falling from the sky, but it is all in vain, but it only adds to the desolation.

"Ah!"

With the screams, George Han kept falling towards the bottom...

"Bang!"

Suddenly, there was a muffled sound, and George Han obviously felt that he had hit the ground, but it was not as expected. Instantly shattered, there was not even a trace of severe pain, only a little discomfort, that's all.

wind suddenly stopped.

When George Han raised his eyes, there was no dark space, some were just towering trees, and some were just two women, Amelia Su, who had set up a tent in the distance to temporarily stay and waited for George Han.

“You’re back again?”

George Han frowned, looking around, looking back on the past, as if Huang Liang had a dream.

However, looking at the coin in his hand and the clock in the other hand, George Han can be sure that it was not a dream, but a real occurrence.

Thinking of this, George Han stopped talking and got up from the ground.

Under the small tent on the opposite side, Amelia Su and Ziqing had already discovered the sudden appearance of George Han and the hurricane that had stopped and disappeared inexplicably. At this time, they quickly ran towards George Han.

“George Han, are you alright

“Brother George Han!” The

two women were very excited. Although George Han gave them a gesture before leaving to tell them not to worry about him, but he suddenly disappeared, how could the two women be at ease? Get down.

Gently holding Amelia Su in his arms, George Han patted her on the back and comforted: “It’s okay, don’t worry.”

“What happened? Where did the hurricane take you?” Amelia Su asked anxiously. At the same time, she kept looking at George Han’s body, for fear that he might be injured.

“Some seniors chat with me.” George Han smiled.

“Senior?” Amelia Su was puzzled, and suddenly thought of what a so-called senior is, and suddenly felt the gloomy wind around her.

George Han smiled and shook his head: “Don’t worry, they are helping me.”

“By the way, how long have I been there?”

the sky .

When I came here, I entered the forest in the morning. Considering the time spent all the way, it was not until noon when I faced the hurricane. Now, when I came back, it was already dark. George Han really smiled bitterly.

“It’s already dark, and this place is extremely sinister. At night, I’m afraid that the hostility will be too heavy and there will be more troubles. I’ll stay for one night, and tomorrow morning, we will enter the inner circle.” George Han said.

The two women nodded, supported George Han, and walked towards the tent.

This night, there were not too many words. The three of them went to sleep in two tents and turned off the lights early to go to bed. They all knew that entering the inner circle early in the morning was the real most dangerous time. Therefore, no one dared to be careless.

Raising enough spirit, perhaps, can give one more so-called chance of survival.

But for George Han, it’s not just that...

The sky is getting bright soon, and the three of them also wake up...

Chapter 4104

It seems that after yesterday’s events, the outer circle will no longer be dangerous.

Even a group of three is more like a tour to a certain extent.

The yin qi is not so heavy, the evil qi is no longer so violent, and everything in the blink of an eye is like an ordinary place.

George Han knows very well that this is due to the conversation after the hurricane swept him away yesterday.

“Relax, the next hour or so will be very pleasant.” George Han whispered towards the two girls.

Although the two women were puzzled, they also knew that George Han had a reason, nodded and let go of their vigilance.

As George Han said, the next hour or so was really smooth, and nothing happened.

“We seem to be here.”

Zi Qing, who was walking at the front, suddenly stopped and looked forward nervously.

The two couples also stopped at almost the same time, and looked up to the front, only to see that there was a peaceful forest, but the front was covered with dark clouds. Even if the early sun rose above their heads, they still could not light up the rich darkness in front of them.

“This yin qi is too heavy.”

“Look, there are a lot of skeletons over there!” In the center of the front, there are two trees that are relatively open, so that it looks like a small door to some extent.

In front of the door, there are two piles of white skulls, which are like the gatekeepers of two evil gates.

“It should be the dead Pei family.” George Han said, and when the words fell, he protected the two women behind him: “After entering, listen to my orders and don’t mess around, you know?”

“But now...” Amelia Su hesitated.

As a wife, naturally, she doesn’t mean to look down on George Han, but she is simply worried that George Han has no cultivation and is standing in the front. If any accident happens, how dangerous it would be.

George Han didn’t answer, he set an example and led the two girls towards the inside.

As soon as he arrived at the gate, a strong cold current rushed towards his face.

It was so cold that it almost penetrated into the bone marrow, so cold that people shivered.

Amelia Su hurriedly propped up an energy circle to protect the three of them, otherwise if it was so cold, within half an hour, the three of them would definitely be frozen into popsicles.

George Han glanced at the two women, nodded, and walked inside first.

Once inside, the entire jungle is almost as dark as nightfall, and it is almost difficult to see the situation in a slightly farther place.

At the same time, there seem to be bursts of very strange sounds resounding in the forest at any time.

But when I listened carefully, I found that these sounds seemed to be just like some kind of big tree swaying in the woods, so normal that it was outrageous.

“It’s so strange, this place

.” Zi Qing couldn’t help but wonder.

“Be careful, every step here is murderous.” George Han instructed.

The fact is obviously that none of the piles of skeletons outside are ordinary people. Their ultimate destination is to be piled up there, which is not only a warning, but more, it is a kind of provocation.

Although it is true that Amelia Su and Ziqing have grown a lot now, compared to the dead Pei family elites, they may not be as powerful as them.

So, even if they all died here, what reason do the three of them have to deal with these things freely? !

“It doesn’t seem to be anything.” Amelia Su’s consciousness has already checked the surrounding area, but the surrounding area is relatively safe at this time.

“It can’t be nothing.” George Han shook his head.

“Can you find out?” Amelia Su asked strangely.

She really found nothing, but

George Han said that Amelia Su also believed that he must have his reasons.

“No, I can’t find it out. I don’t even have a cultivation base. How can I investigate the surroundings?” George Han shook his head helplessly.

“How do you know that 3,000 brothers, there can’t be nothing? Besides, looking at your attitude, you seem to be very determined.” Zi Qing also said strangely.

George Han’s eyes were still constantly scanning around: “Because of intuition.”

If the skulls of a large number of people who enter here can be piled up at the door, as if two door pieces are placed there, then, with their hearts, it must be It is a very heavy killing.

That being the case, how could they let go of such a power of dismounting?

They are provocative people!

Thinking of this, George Han’s eyes finally stopped at the jungle at 45 degrees in front of him, and smiled slightly: “Come out, we are ready.” The two women were nervous and looked back...

Chapter 4105

front of the 45-degree jungle, there seems to be nothing, normal people feel silenced.

However, just when the two women were extremely strange, suddenly, a trace of black smoke emerged from the jungle.

What followed was the rapid cooling and freezing of the air.

The green grass under the feet is rapidly solidifying at a speed visible to the naked eye, and the surrounding trees and other green plants are also rapidly crystallizing. Anti-Buddha has entered the world of ice and snow in an instant.

“Bobobo!” On the energy cover, the ice crystals are also rapidly condensing, and it seems that the energy cover will be completely solidified at any time.

Amelia Su didn’t dare to be careless at all, and hurriedly launched energy to support the barrier, but even so, he could still clearly see the continuous cracks on the energy circle.

Ziqing suddenly panicked: “This... how fierce is this? Even Sister Amelia Su can’t resist it?” When the words fell, Ziqing also hurriedly moved her energy and hit Amelia Su on the shoulder, trying to support her together. Energy hood.

Once the energy cover is broken here, the safety of the three will be greatly threatened.

But even if the two women work together, it may be difficult for the measuring circle to keep out the cold outside, and the rupture is still spreading.

“What should I do?” Both women panicked and looked at George Han.

George Han smiled lightly, not worried.

It's not that George Han can do anything, but he knows that worrying has no effect.

Can't beat it.

"In the forbidden area, there are only dead things, no living things."

A strange voice sounded, as if a hoarse person was talking while pinching his neck. It was a bit unpleasant, but after hearing it, it made people feel extremely depressed.

"Senior, I am going to George Han." George Han bowed politely.

"I don't care about your name. Did you see the pile of skeletons in front of the door? Do you think it matters whether they have names

?" The voice sneered.

"This place, in the end, there are three more skeletons." After the words were finished, a gust of cold wind hit, and the three of them immediately saw that the energy shield directly broke a large crack about one meter long, and the disintegration seemed to be only in an instant.

The two women panicked, George Han's eyes were fast, and he hurriedly moved his hands, and when he thought about it, the Chaos Clock, which was only the size of a palm, suddenly turned into its own size, and with its humming sound, the three of them were also completely covered by the Chaos Bell. in it.

The surroundings were dark, Amelia Su and Ziqing never expected such a scene, and they did not reflect it for a while.

However, when Ziqing ignited a ray of light with magic, the two women couldn't help but feel even more strange: "Where is this, what are we covered by?"

Unlike the two women's attention, George Han was looking at this In front of the three of them, the energy shield was about to burst

George Han smiled. Although the energy shield was still cracking, it was obvious that it did not continue to shatter, which also meant that the Chaos Clock could really resist those ice crystals.

"Don't be afraid, it's an artifact given by someone." George Han comforted softly.

Hearing the words, the two women nodded, and noticed that the energy shield was not completely broken, apparently knowing that the so-called divine weapon played a protective role.

"Bang!"

The giant bell did not ring, but it was obvious that its entire body moved.

"Chaos Clock?" Outside, a voice asked strangely.

"Senior has good eyesight." George Han responded every minute.

“You guy, how can you have it? How did you get it?”

“It was given by someone outside.” George Han chuckled softly: “Senior, you have also seen it, I’m just a mere waste, with a little cultivation. None of them, that’s why

, , these are all tasks that are unlikely to be accomplished.”

“Send it, they will send you something?” The voice was puzzled road.

“Senior thinks that they should kill us just like you or you, right?” George Han said with a smile, before waiting for him to reply, and said with a smile, “But I’m afraid the senior will be disappointed.”

“You brat! I killed you!” the voice outside shouted angrily.

“Senior, it’s not a good thing to scare the younger generation. The people in front have already told me that the Chaos Clock is a thing that lives with the sky and the earth. Maybe I can’t attack you, but relying on it, I can completely resist your attack. Therefore, it is not right to scare children.” George Han laughed.

“Humph!” Hearing George Han’s little mockery, the voice was not as violent as he had imagined, but a very sly smile. After that, there was no movement outside.

The three of them couldn’t help looking at each other with collective doubts, what’s the situation?

Chapter 4106

“Be careful, will it be intentional.”

George Han smiled and nodded: “Whatever he does, we have Dry food, there is stock, except that Zhongli is a little bored, there is nothing bad.”

After speaking, George Han simply sat down on the ground.

In theory, Han 3,000 can’t consume the opposite. However, theory is a theory. In fact, Han 3,000 is quite confident.

Without him, their resentment is very heavy, and they will kill when they see life. How can they tolerate three living creatures swaying in front of them?

Besides, playing psychological warfare, George Han definitely had no fear at all.

“I always feel that he is hiding somewhere and waiting for us to go out.” Zi Qing said.

George Han smiled and shook his head: “It may be now, but if it’s not bad, it’s actually more likely that more people are gathering towards us.”

“Then what should we do? Then our situation Isn’t it more dangerous?” Ziqing panicked: “Originally, I thought that if sister Amelia Su and I were together, even if the enemy was fierce, we could work together to resist, but judging from the fight just now, it seems that we can’t even face each other. I can’t catch up.”

“It’s so difficult to deal with alone, if there are two more...”

Zi Qing did not continue, but it was obvious that she was worried about what to do next.

Amelia Su also nodded, what Zi Qing said was the truth after all.

George Han smiled: "Why worry about this? Wouldn't it be better to do it all at once? We will always face these when we come here.

Soldiers will come to block, water will come to cover, don't worry too much about things that you can't control. "

Some things, if you can't control them, no matter how worried you are, it will never help. On the contrary, it will only affect your emotions. When it really comes, you are not prepared for it.

So it is better not to think about it . Seeing what George Han said , the two women looked at each other, nodded and sat down with peace of mind.

After about tens of minutes, there were bursts of extremely sparse sounds from outside the tripod, like the wind blowing, and then again. It's like a tree shaking and a shadow falling.

But to George Han, these sounds indicate that the enemy has come.

"Seniors, since everyone has come, let's go together. "George Han lay lightly in the bell , looking at the sound.

When the voice fell and no one responded, he only heard the muffled sound of the entire bell, and then, the ground shook.

It seemed that there was a huge explosion. It's like it happened outside, but it felt like the explosion was a little far away from them.

That kind of feeling was very contradictory, but it made George Han very comfortable. At least, this is enough to show that the outside is really starting to mess with itself. Yes, but unfortunately, the guardian of the Chaos Clock is as invincible as the old man said.

"Seniors, at this moment, I really want to recite a poem. "

You guys insisted on killing me, but Nai Zhong Ding was too resistant to pressure, so he had to turn around outside the Ding, so he couldn't change his anger. " As soon as the words fell, the body of the tripod clearly began to shake violently. Talking about the rhetoric, George Han either doesn't want to fight with you. Once there is a fight, there are very few who can get a bargain under his lips.

"Three thousand, they are angry . Extremely heavy, isn't it too bad for you to irritate them like this?

"Amelia Su asked.

"Yeah, usually angering the enemy may make them lose their minds and reveal flaws, but these guys..."

George Han smiled: "I just want to annoy them." After the words were finished, George Han slowly stood up.

He looked at Amelia Su slightly, and then a strange smile appeared on his face.

Amelia Su looked back at George Han in confusion, and asked suspiciously, "What's wrong?"

"Do me a favor." George Han said.

"Help you? What do you want me to do?"

George Han smiled mysteriously: "You'll find out later..."

Chapter 4107

George Han directly pulls Amelia Su up.

Then, for the first time ever, the couple sang and danced again.

Just like a picture, happy life.

This makes the things outside annoyed, and co-authoring this attack burst into percussion? !

"Damn, are you a tortoise? If you have a species, come out and fight." "Running away from the forbidden area, but only dare to hide inside, stinky boy, are you a dog?"

Skill, even if there is a way to defeat the enemy, but facing George Han's chaotic clock, all things are like hitting a stone, without the slightest gain not to mention, but also to be insulted by this child, the degree of anger can be imagined .

But no matter how they screamed and cursed, the two of them in Ding were completely deaf, still dancing and singing.

"Why did the rubbish outside give this Chaos Clock to this kind of dog thief, are they stupid ?"

"When I kill these three people, I will find the rubbish outside to settle the account, this mother's sincere help The enemy is coming to attack us."

The gang was furious and had no other choice but to curse outside the bell.

However, there are also different people who take a different approach.

"Stinky boy, you come out, what kind of man are you hiding in this way, so, as long as you are willing to come out, I will let you make three moves."

"That's right."

"Or, I will let you make ten moves. As long as it is within ten moves, No matter what method you use to defeat me, I can promise you to leave here safely. No, let you move freely here."

“Ten moves, I’ll give you a hundred moves.” The conditions became more and more tempting. It even appeared that as long as George Han defeated him, no matter what method and how long it took, he could finally make George Han do whatever he wanted. what to do.

However, for Han

George Han , no matter how different conditions are offered outside, for him, there is only one choice.

Shrinking, completely shrinking, he is free in the tripod, not hearing anything.

The pot was completely fried outside, and I wish I could get into this bell now and completely pull out George Han’s muscles and cramps.

“Fu , this slut, it’s really maddening me if you don’t get oil and salt.”

“Ah, he only hides in the turtle shell.” “Damn

!”

Zhong Nai.

George Han was tired from jumping, so he rested and leaned on the ground.

Amelia Su and Ziqing looked at each other worriedly, paused, and said, “Three thousand, are we really like this all the time? Those people outside are so angry that they don’t talk about it, and staying here for a long time is not an option.”

“Yeah, Brother George Han, what should come will always come. I think we should follow what they said, or we will fight with them. At least

, we may still have a little chance.” Zi Qing Also Road.

When the opponent did not attack at all, Zi Qing believed that she and Amelia Su were not without strength. Although the hope is very slim, as long as there is a slight chance, it is also an opportunity.

George Han shook his head: “When you are surrounded by a pack of wolves, do you really believe what the wolves say and don’t eat us? They are all very hungry wolves.”

“Besides, even their words I can really believe it, then let me ask you, how did the three of us, who are unarmed, beat this wolf who was about to go crazy with hunger.”

“Sometimes, it seems that we have a glimmer of hope that is just what we look like. In fact, that glimmer of hope is likely to be deliberately shown to us by others. Once we climb up this glimmer of hope, it is just right I’ve caught someone else’s trap.”

Amelia Su probably knew what George Han meant: “George Han, you mean that no matter how good the outside conditions are, it always just looks good. If we really want to meet, we have no chance?”

"I It's not that I doubt the abilities of the two of you." George Han said worriedly: "It's actually that in this forbidden area of the inner circle, I'm afraid no one is a minor character."

"That's why, in this situation, you want to I don't think there is much chance of defeating them."

"But right now, this is not the way." Zi Qing said.

Even though George Han's analysis made sense, the problem was always in front of everyone's eyes, waiting to be solved.

"It's not that there is no way." George Han said.

"What way?" Amelia Su asked.

"Wait!" George Han said.

Ziqing was puzzled: "Wait for what?"

"Wait for a real wolf, or rather, the wolf king!" George Han said softly.

Wolf King?

Chapter 4108

"Yes, wolf king." George Han said.

The wolf king is the real overlord of this group of people. George Han believes that only by negotiating conditions with such people can we truly negotiate conditions.

Nothing to say with a bunch of hungry wolves drooling at their food.

"Firstly, he is our real target, and secondly, only when he speaks can truly count." George Han said.

"But what if he doesn't come?" Amelia Su asked.

"He will definitely come. It's impossible for them to allow living creatures to exist in their place. It's like we don't allow nails in our eyes." George Han smiled.

Relying on this Chaos Clock, George Han is confident that he can resist all attacks. Otherwise, there is no need for these guys to scold and coax outside.

If they had a way, they would have called in long ago, so why bother.

In the end, the boss always needs to come forward.

And George Han was waiting for him.

"Go to sleep." George Han said, closed his eyes as expected, and immediately started to fall asleep.

Seeing George Han fall asleep, the two women also looked at each other helplessly. The matter was already like this, and any more words would be in vain. It would be better to listen to George Han's words obediently. can play a more effective role.

This sleep, at the beginning, it was not good to sleep amid all kinds of noise, but after getting used to it, the two girls really fell asleep.

Afterwards, it seemed to be quiet outside.

Until, half an hour later, George Han suddenly woke up and sat up.

Seeing George Han get up, the two women also woke up instantly and hurriedly looked at him: "What's wrong?"

"The wolf king is here." George Han whispered, but his ears were pointed and he listened carefully to the outside.

The two women didn't dare to echo, they kept quiet and followed George Han to hear the movement outside.

It was surprisingly quiet outside, and there didn't seem to be any signs of trouble.

But if you listen carefully, you can hear a faint gasp outside, as if someone is watching them quietly in front of the clock.

George Han suddenly smiled: "Here?"

There was no reply, but in the next second, the Chaos Clock covering the three people was suddenly lifted, and the light was scattered to the three of them again. .

The three of them were dazzling. About one meter in front of them, there was a black gas standing there.

The black air was human and inhuman, faceless and silent, but there seemed to be eyes staring at them in the air.

Before George Han got up one by one, Amelia Su and Zi Qing had already protected George Han behind them in advance, and the two women stared at the dark shadow extremely nervously.

George Han smiled slightly, stretched out his hand to block the two women, walked up to them, and faced the shadow directly: "You don't have to, you are not his opponent." After the words were finished, George Han looked at the shadow: "You can Move the Chaos Clock directly away. I think it is not an ordinary person. I guess it is good. At least you are here, and you should be one or two people who exist."

"You are a mere young boy, but you can take the Chaos Clock away. For your own use, where is the Chaos Bell, I don't need to say more, it seems that you are not simple." The black shadow said softly.

His voice, indescribable, gave a very depressing feeling.

If the previous voice was like holding your throat to speak, then this voice is like holding your throat and speaking to you.

George Han smiled lightly: "It's just that the seniors looked at it and gave it to me."

"Give it to you?" The man was a little puzzled.

"With my strength, is it possible that I can still grab it? Since, senior, you also know the origin of this chaotic clock, then senior should know why this bell was given to you in the end, right?" George Han said with a smile.

"Of course I know, but why send you?" he said.

"Because I can ring the bell." George Han said.

Obviously, although George Han only said that the bell was ringing, in fact it was not as simple as ringing. George Han knew this, even if he didn't explain it, the other party should understand.

"The number of people ringing the bell in the world is as high as a cow's hair. If it rings, it will be sent, then the bell has already changed tens of thousands of Taoist masters." The man said coldly.

"What if the number of times I ring has never been reached?" George Han said with a light smile.

Chapter 4109

Hearing this, the person was obviously stunned in place.

In fact, he had already vaguely guessed what the reason was for the people outside to give the Chaos Clock to George Han.

It's just that people can't be exempted from the custom after all, and like other people, he doesn't quite believe in this fact.

Of course, when George Han really said these words, even if he didn't want to believe it, he had to admit that what he didn't want to believe in his heart might... really happened.

"Throughout the ages, the Chaos Bell has rang seven, but no one has ever struck seven, at most six." The man said coldly, and the peak of his words suddenly changed: "I am the one who has struck six."

"Han believes that the ability of the predecessors, six sounds are absolutely irrelevant. However, if this is the case, you should know that I have knocked a few times!" George Han said.

"Seven sounds!" Although he had no face and no eyes, Han

George Han clearly felt that as soon as these two words appeared, there was a gleam of light staring at him.

George Han nodded slightly: "Exactly." It's reasonable, otherwise, he won't get the Chaos Bell even six times. He is a mere boy, how can he get it under any other circumstances?

Therefore, he really has only one possibility to get it, that is, as he said, he rang seven times.

“Why are you able to ring seven times?” He frowned slightly, puzzled: “I see you, you are always just an ordinary person, what qualifications do you have?”

Faced with such a scolding, George Han refused. He was angry and didn't want to refute: “Compared with senior and others, Han is really inferior.”

“Do you think that I will let you go if you show weakness?” He sneered.

“I never thought the weak could have the possibility of survival.” George Han said, “Besides, I may not be the weak.”

“Just relying on the protection of your Chaos Bell?” He said in a cold voice.

George Han smiled a little: “I never expect Chaos Clock to protect me, I'm just waiting for you to come.”

“Wait for me?”

“Catch the thief first, the king, what's the point of me fighting them?” George Han said: “Since I dare to enter this place, naturally, I will dare to face the strongest person here, because, sooner or later, isn't it?”

” That's right. But, it's up to you?”

George Han nodded: “Yes, it's up to me.”

“A boy who doesn't even have a cultivation base, I can crush you to death with one finger.” He He snorted disdainfully.

Seeing this, Amelia Su and Ziqing hurriedly tried to stop George Han, thinking that George Han was only angry for a while, and went up to say such words, but before the two women could speak, George Han had already used his hands to hold the two. The woman stood behind her, signaling that they didn't need to say more.

George Han smiled slightly: “If I'm not mistaken, senior wants to pinch me with a finger, but only if you have a finger first.”

“You bastard, so rude!”

He shouted angrily. With a roar, the black energy suddenly dissipated, and a terrifying big mouth suddenly opened, full of fangs, hideous and terrifying.

Faced with such a scene, the two women were extremely nervous, but only George Han, who stood at the front, was very indifferent. Facing it, he still smiled, as if he had a plan.

“Senior, how about a bet?” George Han said with a smile.

“Bet?” He was obviously stunned for a moment, wondering why George Han was so confident when he was about to die, and even more why he still bet with him now.

What, are you afraid?” George Han smiled.

Although he was just laughing and his words were very plain, the ridicule contained in it was full of ridicule.

Anyone could hear the meaning of the words, and naturally, that person could also understand. Among them.

“Boy, are you provoking me? Well, for the sake of Chaos Clock, I can play with you, tell me what you want to bet, and how you want to bet!”

“How about a bet on a plan that is easy for both of us?” George Han smiled.

“You talk, I will listen.” The man said.

“If I win, it’s very simple, this place is free to come and go with me, and you must not disturb it.”

“What if you lose?”

“The three of us cut off the heads by ourselves. You don’t have to worry about it. Senior, what do you think?”

“Are you gambling your life with me?” He asked in a cold voice.

George Han smiled: “Exactly!”

Chapter 4110

“Boy, I really don’t know whether to praise you for being brave or brainless! However, as you said, it saves trouble, Well, I promise you, how to bet.”

“I bet you can’t kill me, senior.” George Han smiled.

“I can’t kill you?”

“Yes, and not only can’t kill me physically, but you can’t even kill me with my spiritual sense.”

The man was obviously taken aback when he heard this, and then he turned to haha Laughing, it seemed to him that he had heard some extremely funny joke.

“You dare to talk to me like this? Do you know how many people died at my hands? Do you know how many masters killed me?”

“Of course George Han knows that there are many people in this world. A master or a big man died in your hands, but George Han still believes that you can’t kill me completely.” George Han said.

“A person who doesn’t even have a bit of cultivation, dares to be so arrogant. Okay, just to kill someone like you with shameless and lifeless strength, it’s really dirty hands to kill people like you, I will agree to your request, you and I Take a gamble.” The man said.

Then, he continued with disdain: “Don’t say I bullied a junior like you, let’s do it, ten moves, if I can’t take your life within the ten moves, I will lose.”

George Han shook his head: "Senior, I originally wanted to say that this is not necessary, but I thought that if I rejected you directly, I would still give you some face as a senior."

"Well, let's not talk about ten tricks, add ten times, a hundred What do you think, Zhao Nei?" It seems polite on the surface, but it is full of deeper irony, and the popularity is about to explode.

"Okay, within 100 strokes, within 100 strokes, it's up to you, but, for me, within ten strokes, I will kill you physically. Hmph, and you remember it for me, I not only want you to die physically. , I want you to die." Han George Han smiled and nodded: "Okay, Han is willing to accompany him, but before we start, the junior has another request.

Needless to say, if my senior wants to kill my soul, I will open my own dream, you and I will share the knowledge, and fight him to death."

Hearing George Han's words, there were obviously bursts of laughter around . .

Because of his existence, the people around him have been afraid to say a word in the dark. Although he was quite angry because of Han

George Han, he never dared to say more.

But now, George Han's remarks can no longer make them laugh out loud.

Can you imagine that when a person wants to kill you, he suddenly asks you to help him move his muscles and bones, can he not move? !

George Han is now, isn't that the situation?

Seeing them speak out, the man was not angry, and a group of people opened their mouths.

"This idiot doesn't know where he got the confidence, just like a goddamn dog, he is embarrassed to lick his face and want to bet with him."

"The most outrageous thing is that he even boasted about Haikou, saying that it was within his mother's hundred tricks. If he can't kill him, I'm really dying of laughter, just like this, I can send him back to my grandma's house with just one move."

"Isn't it a good thing to say, some people say something hard, but in fact they lack the most. What is it? I think that this guy is a waste, and people look down on him everywhere, so he came here on purpose, and wanted to die under his hands. At least, in the future, he can boast that he fought with him. "

"It should be so, so he tried every means to provoke him."

“As a result of the historical records since ancient times, what he left behind was a battle against him, and no one would care how the process was. From this point of view, although he was useless, it was obvious that he was a little clever.”

Everyone talked eloquently . , full of disdain and contempt for what George Han did.

But only George Han knew that he was by no means a child’s game, and he couldn’t use his own life to make such a silly joke.

He can really win.

“Senior, you can start!”
