

HTC 4111

Chapter 4111

“As you wish!”

The two women, Amelia Su, wanted to get close to George Han, but they were directly shaken several meters away by this black air.

When he looked back, the black energy had already swallowed George Han, and a huge energy shield was formed around him. No matter how hard others tried, they couldn't get close to him at all.

And in the black air, just like in the hurricane, the wind was like a blade, madly cutting George Han's body.

George Han closed his eyes slightly, no nonsense, almost the same as before, waiting quietly.

As before, the golden body slowly appeared on his back, and a golden light also covered George Han's body, resisting thousands of attacks for him.

In the dark air, George Han clearly heard the sound of doubt. Although it was very brief, it had already happened.

These are expected by George Han, but they are not the fundamental reason why George Han can protect himself.

Based on this alone, if you want to compete, such a big man in front of you is obviously not enough to watch.

George Han is still waiting, when his body is more dangerous, his greater potential will burst out.

He has confidence.

“Wow!”

Sure enough, the golden light burst, and countless black qi slashed towards George Han like sharp knives.

At that moment, George Han was like facing Ling Chi's punishment, his flesh and blood seemed to be cut open and dug out, causing him to doubt his life.

The internal organs have re-entered the state of being madly squeezed, and the entire human body defense Buddha will be pressed into meat patties.

While holding back, George Han completely let himself go, trying to achieve a state of unity.

George Han always felt that the words of the Seventh Spirit Monkey at the beginning were a metaphor. Now, it may be the best way for him to test.

He emptied his whole body to prevent Buddha from becoming one .

“Since it is heaven’s choice, there must be God’s blessing!” After saying this, George Han completely chose fusion, disregarding any impurities from the outside world, and was not affected by any outside world.

Bang bang bang!

George Han’s body seemed to be exploding, and the skin around him was crumbling.

However, George Han still ignored it, like a dead person.

“Hmph, stinky boy, is this the one hundred tricks you boasted to me? You can’t even eat one of my tricks, so how dare you talk about it?”

The man snorted coldly, and the next second, the wind became stronger and stronger. What swept George Han also came even more fiercely.

call!

Suddenly, a faint layer of jade light began to spread on George Han’s body, and quickly wrapped George Han’s body.

The wrapped body is also slowly recovering from the explosion at this time. Compared with the black energy that eats people outside, it seems to be fighting against each other.

“The Seventh Spirit Monkey has also awakened.”

“Magic Dragon, why don’t you and his uncle help me with the blood of the Devil Dragon?” The voice just fell, I don’t know if it was a coincidence, or maybe I felt what George Han said. As the blood in George Han’s body tumbled, a powerful black gas also began to pour out of George Han’s body in an instant.

Accompanying it, the totems of the quadrilateral beasts appeared.

The Inextinguishable Profound Armor also began to glow faintly, and even the Five Elements Divine Stone released light.

Everything was as George Han had expected. Out of their own consciousness of protecting the Lord, they started to work together at this time, even if they were incompatible with each other, to resist external forces for George Han. Crazy attack.

The man was also obviously taken aback by the changes in George Han’s body.

Although he said that George Han was a waste, it was impossible for him to have no precautions against George Han. After all, George Han was someone who could get the Chaos Clock.

How ?

However, no matter how well he thought about it, he would never think that George Han was strong enough for this kind of sake.

It does not counterattack at all, and only relies on its own defense to resist.

“Stinky boy, you do have some skills, but it’s a pity that your opponent is me, and you are still too big to play in front of me.”

Yes, these things may be enough to resist most of the world’s masters, but I think To resist him, it is still a little tender.

When the words fell, an extremely strong pressure suddenly attacked.

The situation that George Han had stabilized completely disintegrated in an instant, and several rays of light began to dim. It seemed that in just a moment, George Han would be completely engulfed by the black energy.

“Why, brat, it’s only the second move, can’t you resist it?” He sneered.

George Han smiled lightly: “Small problem...” After he finished speaking, a black light suddenly emerged from George Han...

Chapter 4112

Then, without waiting for any reaction from the person, the black light directly penetrated the layers of black qi and came directly.

“Bastard!”

How could he not feel it, when he roared angrily, he turned his hand and it was a burst of energy, and shot it towards the black light.

Anything that dares to attack him is the greatest provocation for him.

Of course he couldn’t tolerate such presumptuous behavior.

boom!

A black gas suddenly hit the black light and went away!

“What?” Of

course, the next second, he couldn’t help exclaiming in surprise.

That black light, or in other words, the black light that should only be extinguished in his eyes, was surprisingly not extinguished as he had expected.

“You have no cultivation base at all, how can you control a thing to attack me directly?”

“The most important thing is that its ability seems to be far stronger than I imagined, and he can actually break through my attack!”

George Han smiled softly and didn’t answer. He even believed that the fun was yet to come, and there were things that would drive him completely mad.

Now, it’s just an appetizer.

“Brush!”

With a hurried whistle, the black light had already passed by him. Although he had avoided it perfectly, he was still surprised.

“Damn, you actually know where I am? How is this possible?!”

He exclaimed in anger, and he couldn't understand for a while, he didn't know, with George Han's ability, how could he have found out where he was.

This should not be, nor is it common sense!

George Han still sneered.

The fact is that he couldn't find out where the man was at all, and that black light wasn't being operated by himself at all, it was attacking entirely by himself.

That's right, it's a little black stick!

“After eating a big stone like Lao Tzu, it's time to play a role.”

Looking at the little black stick that rushed out, George Han sneered.

“It's not in the Five Elements, not in the Three Realms, it's time for you to taste its power and difference.”

As George Han looked at the words, he saw that the little black light quickly failed after the attack failed. Withdraw, then slam the guy again.

That guy also has the ability, even if the small black stick is ferocious, but it is like a ghost, and it is easy to escape again and again.

This was actually what George Han had expected.

It is obviously impossible to defeat him by relying on a small black stick alone. The real purpose of the small black stick is mainly to use soldiers.

To engage in such a bizarre thing, to catch him by surprise, is still the most effective way for George Han at the moment, and it is not one of them.

Of course, George Han was not idle in such an idle time. While the black shadow was entangled by the little black stick, he was trying his best to break free from the shackles of black qi and fight.

With the little black stick to relieve the pressure, the various rays of light on George Han's body were stabilized again, and George Han was firmly protected.

A few minutes later, George Han finally got used to the attack of the black wind and began to try to get rid of it, and the little black stick gradually began to fall into the disadvantage.

However, George Han was not worried.

“fu, you slut, what exactly did you lose? You can't hit or touch, but it can hurt people invisible. It's really strange.” He scolded as he dealt with it.

For George Han, although he was scolding, he obviously already had the confidence, and he was so angry that he didn't want to entangle too much.

This also means that there is not much time left for Han 3000.

"Ah!"

Suddenly, George Han let out a sigh of relief. He knew very well that his own body had already subconsciously helped him get rid of the shackles and the current predicament.

"Fighting cattle across the mountain, your kid is really a chicken thief, but, so what?"

He suddenly drank, and a black gas instantly hit the little black stick that came to attack him. The little black stick was suddenly powerless and directly After extinguishing a large number of black lights on his body, he quickly fell in the direction of George Han in an extremely dim and bleak manner.

George Han just wanted to reach out to pick it up, but at this moment, he suddenly felt a qi sword standing on George Han's neck.

"Stinky boy, want to escape? You probably won't have this chance." He said coldly and gloomily.

George Han did not startle but smiled, and said indifferently: "I think there is a chance and I have seized it, senior, you lost."

Chapter 4113

"I lost?" Hei Ying was obviously stunned

, obviously did not expect George Han to say such a thing at this time, For this reason, he has both a tomb and some doubts.

"The sword is on your neck, young man, do you want to be tough?" he said in a cold voice.

"Three thousand never dared to praise any Haikou in front of seniors. If you lose, you will lose, and if you win, you will win." George Han said sincerely.

"Then you still can't see the situation clearly?" he shouted.

George Han smiled: "Judging from the situation, senior can cut off George Han's head with just one move."

He responded slightly, that's exactly what happened.

"But in terms of gambling, the senior lost." George Han smiled: "If the senior has counted it carefully, then the senior put the knife on the neck of the three thousand, it should be counted within one hundred strokes."

Hearing George Han's words, that person carefully reviewed the game again, and was instantly terrified.

In the fight with the little black stick, his previous dodging plus the subsequent attacks, plus the current sword Han 3,000 on the neck, carefully sampled, just one hundred strokes.

In other words, according to the agreement, within a hundred strokes, he did not take George Han's life.

"When I say killing you within a hundred strokes, I mean a battle with you within a hundred strokes. Just now, most of the techniques are used on your strange stuff, how can they count?"

George Han smiled when he heard the words: "Senior also He would say, it's my thing, and it's my thing, how can it not be a trick? If according to the logic of the predecessors, George Han can't even use weapons?"

"You..." Hearing George Han's words, He was visibly pissed.

"Otherwise, let's do it, this game is a tie, so what about senior?"

Hearing George Han's words, the man did not expect

George Han to say this.

What kind of pattern is this, it is simply full!

The victory in hand, he said that this game is not counted, this kid is really interesting.

In any case, at least his heart was not as repulsive to George Han as before.

Because one thing is certain, George Han is of course not a fool, but he is pouring water on himself and giving himself a step down.

"Tie?" he asked again confirming.

George Han nodded: "Yes, it's a tie."

"Yes!" The man said softly with satisfaction: "Then the next round will determine the winner."

"Okay, the next round will determine the winner."

"You kid, you are indeed a little lovable. However, you are lovable, and you should die as hell. Don't expect me to be merciful to you in the next game. For me, I didn't say that."

"Senior, you don't have to . Scare me, in the first round, you and I are tied, of course, you will not get any advantage in the second round." George Han smiled: "Also, in the second round, I won't let me down again because of respect. Game."

"Okay, if the second game is still a tie, I will also consider it as a loser." The man said coldly.

If George Han can still win physically, it is not unacceptable to him. After all, George Han has that person's golden body, and his physical strength is naturally extraordinary. In this game, It is not easy to accept this situation, but it is not unacceptable in general.

Of course, the benefits brought by that person's golden body have stopped there. When the next round, this battle of divine consciousness, what kind of power can he have in this rubbish divine consciousness that does not even have a cultivation base?

to him,

It was as simple as pinching an ant to death.

This is why he is willing to strive for a draw after his own mistakes.

This kid George Han is very good, and he can actually agree to his request for a draw. In this case, he will only make his current obedience and sensible become his despair later.

George Han nodded and said with a smile: "Then, I'm taking a lot of advantage?"

The man smiled lightly, and the next second, his hand suddenly moved, and the surrounding black air suddenly dissipated, and everything went back to normal. to the original appearance.

Seeing that the black qi had dissipated, the two women rushed up to see if George Han was safe.

George Han waved his hand slightly, indicating that he was fine, but his eyes kept looking at the black energy in front of him.

"Young man, we can start the second round."

George Han chuckled confidently: "We are waiting for you at any time!"

Chapter 4114

the words fell, George Han looked at Amelia Su and Ziqing: "Don't worry, I will be fine."

"Really Right?" Amelia Su looked at George Han worriedly and muttered.

George Han smiled lightly: "Of course."

In terms of body, in fact, for George Han, it was the most insecure game.

Although he does have various defenses in his body, to many people, that thing is simply an invincible defense castle, but against that person, George Han has nothing in his heart.

Moreover, without the urging of his own true abilities, George Han has no bottom on how much the various defenses can exert. With such a combination, even George Han himself has no idea whether he can win the first round. are completely pessimistic.

Fortunately, the performance of all parts of the body did not disappoint George Han too much. After the baptism of the stone, the little black stick seemed to have changed his previous weakness. The shock effect it brings.

The whole game came down, there was no danger.

"This second game, I have to rely on myself." George Han said indifferently, turning his head to look at the shadow.

Amelia Su and Ziqing also got up knowingly and left George Han, standing in the distance.

The second round was the one in which George Han considered himself to be the most advantageous. During this process, the consciousness could fully display his true strength, which belonged to George Han, so as not to be dragged down by the current state of physical embarrassment.

Although that person was bound to be more ferocious in the second round, George Han had confidence.

The dark shadow laughed, waved his hand, and paused for a moment.

, George Han's eyes flashed a glimmer of light.

Immediately afterwards, George Han closed his eyes and fell asleep completely.

Everything, Anti-Buddha entered an extremely dark space, and when George Han opened his eyes again, the darkness in front of him had long since disappeared.

Only left, eyes full of white light.

In the white light, there was a middle-aged man standing in the air at this time. He was dressed in white and had the appearance of a handsome young man. However, he had a long sword in his hand, and his eyebrows were knitted under his handsome face. He is like a god of war.

"Is this the image of the senior during his lifetime? It's very handsome." George Han smiled lightly and slowly got up.

During this process, George Han was not idle. With a slight movement of his hand, his body floated up slightly.

If you want to kill the consciousness, the most effective way is to set up a space illusion, and the consciousness of both sides is in it.

But this has an advantage. The power of divine consciousness is like being in a nightmare and fantasy, and it can freely exert its own abilities. Although it looks illusory, divine consciousness recognizes the fact that it is destroyed by illusion.

Naturally, they will die in it.

"Hmph, how can you be younger than me?" he said coldly.

"Looking at the appearance of the senior, it must be a god. George Han dared to ask the name of the senior."

"Name?" He smiled disdainfully: "What qualifications do you have to ask my name?" George Han felt that it was inappropriate, sighed, and his tone was slightly peaceful: "The name is just an illusion, it exists and disappears like your physical body."

"Now,

my physical body is no longer there. So, let's not mention it."

When he finished speaking, he looked at George Han, but he was very interested: "Your consciousness can fly, it seems that you are not a waste on the surface."

George Han smiled lightly, and did not hide it: "The younger generation has some cultivation, but something happened, and he almost died at once, and his meridians were completely cut off."

Hearing this, he suddenly smiled: "No wonder you risked your own death to enter this death. Forbidden land, no wonder your face and eyes are full of anticipation and excitement for the current game from beginning to end."

"Why, young man, do you think you can compete with me just by relying on this?"

George Han smiled and said, "Senior will definitely say that I'm not self-sufficient, but this junior doesn't like to lie, so I can only say one thing, that's right!"

Chapter 4115

"Haha, hahaha!"

He heard the sound of laughter, his eyes were full of disdain and arrogance, he suddenly looked at George Han : "Do you know? It's ridiculous for a person to be ignorant. But it's even more ridiculous to have extreme self-confidence in ignorance."

"And you are not only ignorant and confident, but also whimsical. "

Just because you want to fight me? You know, what are you?"

George Han was not angry either. He could fully understand the other party's mood. Perhaps, if he looked at himself from the other party's position , I'm afraid it will.

He's part of that terrifying battle full of bigwigs, which means he's high class in its own right.

Moreover, from the perspective of being in the inner circle, the people in the inner circle are the big figures among the big figures.

In the end, he is still the number one or two , so his identity is naturally an unimaginable horror.

With a person of this class, facing a nameless person like George Han, he naturally doesn't take it seriously, especially when such a person is still trying to challenge himself.

"Junior knows, but the situation is like this, you have to try to find out, right?" George Han laughed.

George Han is actually in a good mood. After all, from what he said just now, George Han should have come here right.

Regarding his current physical condition, if he has a chance to win, then maybe he can really be cured here.

"Okay, well said, come here, and really have to struggle, otherwise, how can you be considered a man."

"Actually, I really like you more and more as a young man. It's a pity that people in the forbidden land can only die and can't Otherwise, I would like to chat with you for more time."

George Han Mu Ran smiled bitterly: "Actually, this junior doesn't understand something."

"You tell me, it is a gift I gave you before you died, and I will answer everything."

"Senior, it's actually quite simple. In a big battle, the appearance of the predecessors is now good rather than evil, which means that you should be the righteous side. However, why do you have to kill all the people who come in?"

"What was the purpose of your fight here? In order to make this place a dead place?"

He heard a smile: "Boy, you are quite smart, do you want to use this question to awaken some aspect of my cognition? Hmph, you are right, I will come. Here, it is indeed for more people to live, but it does not prevent me from killing everyone who enters here

"Let me ask you, do you know about this war? You know how to die for this war. You don't know, and no one will know."

George Han shook his head: "The junior doesn't know, but the senior can tell the junior, the junior will tell the world about the achievements of the senior and others.

" Hahahaha, young man, do you really think that my apprentice is a name? If it is a name, why should I go into such a war? Why should I die in the middle?" He laughed loudly, as if he didn't care about the name.

This makes George Han even more strange. He is not famous, and he lives for more people, so why is he...

"Are you confused?" he asked.

George Han did not deny it, but nodded: "Junior really doesn't understand."

"Not understanding is common, I can only tell you one thing, that is something, you can't know it just by wanting to know it." He was cold. Laugh out loud.

"Maybe, when you really have the ability to go out from here, you will naturally understand slowly. I don't blame you for forgetting the battlefield here, but you can't blame us for turning this place into a forbidden place.

George Han had nothing to say and nodded: "Junior understands." "

Okay, I'll answer you if I should answer you, then next, it's time for you and me to start the second round."

George Han asked a loneliness, but he didn't get anything. At least, he knew that there were some shocking secrets hidden here, and it might even be extremely related to the ancient fault that he had always guessed.

Thinking of this, George Han looked at him, raised it in his hand, and held the jade sword: "Senior, please!" When the words fell, George Han's demonic energy and jade light spread at the same time, and the whole person had already opened his posture..

Chapter 4116

He smiled coldly, he was not polite at all, and he held the sword in his hand, facing George Han, he directly slaughtered.

The sword seemed ordinary, but when it attacked, it was like a mad dragon going out to sea.

"What a strong breath!" George Han was like a great enemy.

He had seen the aura of true gods such as Lu Wushen, and had really fought with them. He thought he had already had contact with the real ceiling, but when he faced the person in front of him, he understood deeply.

Sometimes the ceiling you think, most likely, is just a joke.

The aura of the person in front of him was so strong that even George Han himself could only feel a chill down his spine, a crack in his liver and gallbladder, and the breath of anti-Buddha death right in front of his nose.

Not daring to be careless at all, George Han directly urged all the true energy in his body, holding the jade sword, the 72-way divine sword directly killed him.

At the same time, the left-handed emperor is ready.

George Han has two plans. If he can't fight his edge, he will avoid him with the Emperor You, and then quickly approach him with the 72-way Divine Sword to attack him unprepared.

He knew that in terms of his own strength, it was impossible for him to play against him for a long time, so he could only fight quickly.

It should be known that if a master makes a move, every move is fatal, and any flaw is also fatal.

For him, a mere flaw like this is enough to make George Han lie down forever.

"really!"

When George Han was about to come into contact with his sword energy, he felt that the danger was insanely aggravating. He knew that with his own strength, he could not fight against the opponent at all, so when his waist turned around, Emperor You directly resisted his attack for a short time, and turned over. In the meantime, the seventy-way divine swords and the Taixu

Divine Walk have already rushed towards the man.

"What?!"

In the face of George Han's second-level skill, the man obviously did not expect George Han to have such a magical operation, and in a hurry, he couldn't reflect it for a while.

But when he saw George Han Killer coming, he was shocked but not panic!

Between the backhands, he made a direct move in his hand and responded directly to the sword with his palm.

“Bang!”

A crisp sound suddenly sounded, and George Han was almost dumbfounded. Under the Seventy-two Divine Sword, it was the first time he saw someone touch his hand directly, and the most amazing thing was that he actually Really resist the success.

“This is also possible?” George Han asked in surprise.

He said in a cold voice, “Nothing is impossible.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he turned his palms, aimed at George Han’s shoulders, and slapped them directly.

boom!

The indestructible mysterious armor on George Han’s shoulder also flashed purple light, almost at the same time as the jade light on the body of the Seventh Spirit Monkey, to force George Han to be fine, but to retreat a few meters away from him.

“You can do this too?”

This palm, with his power, was naturally enough to turn anyone into a jerk, but what he couldn’t imagine was that not only did George Han not become a jerk, on the contrary, it was as if he was nothing. Just back off.

George Han glanced at his body and knew that the two great artifacts were protecting his body, so he couldn’t help but smile: “Senior, as you said, nothing is impossible.”

The man saw George Han learn to speak by himself, but at this time there was no anger at all. Instead, he just smiled slightly: “It’s interesting. You kid, you really look like someone who rings seven bells.”

“Senior, too . As expected of one of the best people here. The younger generation also admires it.”

“Okay, the rainbow farts don’t blow each other anymore, boy, see the real chapter under your hands!” As soon as he finished speaking, he was directly full of black energy, and his momentum was great. Open, and then attack Han 3,000.

George Han was also not reconciled, and with a direct movement of his hand, Fen Ji opened wide, gathering the strength of his whole body, his right fist suddenly formed, carrying the momentum of destruction, and suddenly attacked.

“Boy, you are really talented. You are the first person who dares to fight against me, but you can only be the last.” As the words fell, the man slapped his palm to destroy the land. rush towards it.

“Senior’s power, if George Han doesn’t confront him head-on, wouldn’t he look down on his senior?” George Han smiled grimly, and his right fist was as red as a giant iron, and it was incomparably huge.

“Okay, boy, have the backbone!” As the words fell, the two of them were already facing each other, and the distance between the fist and the palm was almost getting closer!

boom! ! !

With a loud bang, the two of them have officially rushed towards each other...

Chapter 4117

Light is like fire, fire is like light. Difficult to open.

One side is the power of black gas swallowing the sky, and the other side is the power of burning silence and fire.

“Get up!”

George Han shouted angrily, putting almost all of his strength in his right hand, and suddenly pushed forward.

The man was obviously disdainful, but his eyebrows were already full of vigilance and shock.

According to his judgment, George Han dared to fight with him was his courage, but it was definitely not his strength. However, looking at it now, with George Han’s efforts, he clearly felt that the strength of the two seemed to overlap at a certain stage. In other words, George Han’s strength could withstand his attack!

how can that be?

The strength between the two should be the same as their class, the difference is thousands of miles!

How could he and Han

George Han do this? !

He doesn’t understand, he doesn’t understand!

“You boy!” he said coldly.

“Senior, can’t you think of it?” George Han laughed softly.

He has all kinds of blessings, and he has more chaotic power in his body. If he competes purely from his internal strength, George Han may be inferior to him, but to say how much inferior, George Han really doesn’t think it will be much worse.

“It’s really beyond my expectations.” He smiled savagely: “However, boy, this doesn’t mean anything.” As the words fell, he suddenly exerted force, and in an instant, a powerful black qi was released from his body. come.

George Han was still smiling for a second, but the next second he couldn't help frowning. He only felt that the other party's incomparably powerful force was pressing down on him like a mountain topping down for a while.

With such a force, he was almost breathless, and his entire right hand trembled wildly because of the excessive support.

Strong, simply too strong.

At this time, George Han may have felt for the first time in his life what kind of psychology that absolute advantage is against him.

"Boy, this is not enough?" He laughed coldly.

"Who said I can't do it? I can't stand it anymore. It's a big deal. I still have a body."

George Han didn't want to force it with his right hand at all!

"Giggle!"

Even if there is a real blessing, the strong force still causes the bones of the right hand to continue to break.

"You kid, you're really a stubborn donkey, but I like aggressive young people. You should be optimistic."
As

soon as he finished speaking, before George Han had any reaction, a more powerful force suddenly struck.

With a "pop", George Han's right hand bone was directly shattered, and the man's body suddenly attacked George Han.

"This time, it's your hand that broke, but next time, you won't have such good luck."

Obviously, he attacked with a big hand with a destructive force. The body, and then exerting force again, then George Han's body is probably really like his right hand. After barely supporting it, the exchange is broken.

However, George Han had no intention of being afraid at all. He didn't dodge or dodge at all. Instead, he used his body to directly hit his big hand.

"boom!"

With a muffled sound, the man's palm had already touched George Han's chest.

He smiled disdainfully: "Young man, you lost."

"Really?" George Han said.

"Isn't it?" He smiled: "I just need to exert one more force, and this palm will be enough to make you return to the west."

George Han shook his head: "Senior, George Han should actually listen carefully. , but it is a pity that George Han does not dare to agree with this sentence."

"Hmph, just relying on those messy defenses on your body?" He smiled contemptuously: "You are these things for ordinary people. , is indeed a metamorphosis within a metamorphosis, and I also believe that in the Bafang world, many people are quite helpless to fight against you, because they can't even break your defense, right?"

George Han replied with a smile.

"This is normal. However, if you live under this kind of aura for a long time, your mentality may not be a good thing. At least, it has made you overconfident now."

"Some powers are not as good as you think. Simple."

George Han smiled slightly: "Senior, no matter how much you talk, it's more important to practice, let's do it."

He smiled and nodded tightly: "Okay, since you are in a hurry to die, then I will send you back to the west. !"

Chapter 4118

the words fell, his hand suddenly moved, and the black gas attacked even more fiercely.

Faced with such a move, George Han knew that he could not resist at all.

Its power is huge, as he said, it is indeed unimaginable.

But does this mean that it is bound to fail?

For George Han, not necessarily.

Because, George Han must have his own plans and his own unique tricks.

It's just that this trick is extremely unlikely to be used. Therefore, what George Han has to do is to invite Jun into the urn.

Thinking of this, George Han didn't talk nonsense, urging the whole body to really be able to use the whole body, trying to fight against it directly from the surface.

However, just as the two sides faced off against each other and saw that George Han was about to be defeated, a sinister smile appeared on George Han's mouth.

"Stinky boy, what are you doing?" Seeing George Han's appearance, the man was obviously a little shocked.

Obviously, he could sense that George Han was planning to sacrifice himself.

What does this mean? !

George Han smiled softly: "I've already played with senior, how can I do it if I don't play bigger?"

“What do you mean?” He was puzzled.

George Han said: “I never thought that I could stand up to your attack on defense, so I didn’t plan to attack you like this from the beginning.”

“But you have always been with me. Play against attack.” He was even more puzzled by what George Han was talking about.

“If it’s not like this, how can I get close to you, senior with my ability? How can I break your defense with my attack?” George Han said with a smile.

“There is a thing called suicide attack. I have something similar in effect. Senior, it’s not that I lost, but... you lost.”

Before he could react, George Han had already Hold the left hand.

“Pangu Axe!” The

distance was close, and the action was sudden. When George Han clenched the Pangu Axe in his left hand and chopped it down, the man was shocked even though he had countless abilities, but at this moment, he wanted to dodge. Impossible.

Looking at the Pangu axe that was covered from the head, the man’s pupils were full of shock and fear, but apart from that, he had no other way to struggle.

“Om!”

However, just as the big axe slashed over his face, the sharp and deadly axe finally stopped.

Even if he was stronger than him, a drop of cold sweat could not help .

His divine soul was destroyed, and it was just that moment when he was born.

“You won’t kill me?” he said strangely.

George Han picked up his axe: “Senior is always a senior. Although George Han doesn’t know what the ancient battle was about, he carefully observed the scene after coming in and made a lot of guesses by himself. It should be clear that if there is no Senior waited here to kill the enemy, how can we have the present of our junior?”

“If I kill you, will I still be a human? Is it right to blame you?” When the words were finished, George Han moved his hand and took back the Pangu axe. .

Hearing George Han’s words, he seemed to fall into some contemplation for a while. After a while, he suddenly smiled: “George Han, young man, I remember your name.”

“In terms of hard power.

You are no match for me at all, but I never thought you would act so alert, and...you actually own a Pangu axe. George Han smiled lightly, not proud: “

Junior is just taking advantage of opportunities and playing some despicable tactics in front of seniors. If you want to fight hard, ten juniors are not the opponents of seniors. While George Han was modest , it gave him enough face.

He was in a good mood and nodded: "What matters on the battlefield is your life and death. The battle between the two sides, whether it is skill, art, or heart, is actually all about game. You can have such a plan, it is your wit and your talent. "

"Senior, to tell you the truth, I have a question to ask you. "George Han seized the opportunity and said. He wants to ask about the fault.

Chapter 4119

The man looked at George Han, stunned, then smiled: "I know what you want to ask, but I have already told After you, there are some things you shouldn't know."

"Or, you will know when the time comes. Why should you be so persistent."

George Han smiled lightly and said, "The younger generation naturally dare not bother, But this question is about you."

"My question?" he questioned.

George Han nodded: "The junior wants to ask you, is the senior's strength a true god?"

A question, which seems to be asking him, actually has a deeper meaning.

It's not that George Han has never fought against the true gods, whether it is Lu Wushen or the dead souls of the true gods in the Book of Eight Desolations, George Han has never experienced their divine power.

They are very strong, especially the dead souls of the true gods in the Book of Eight Desolations. Even if they don't have the flaw of their true body at all, they still show their incomparably powerful terrifying power.

But the strength of these people, compared to the one in front of you, is one in the sky and one in the ground.

If you have to make an analogy, if those true god dead souls have physical bodies, George Han can't be their opponent, about... It takes two George Han to wrestle with them.

But the person in front of him, George Han admits that he needs at least ten of himself to fight with him.

Hearing George Han's question, the man also smiled obviously: "You kid, you are very smart. It's interesting."

How could he not know what George Han meant. It was still what he wanted to know, but he asked in a different way.

However, based on certain rules, he believes that this answer will not destroy: "I am not a true god."

George Han smiled. With his answer, some of the doubts in his heart can basically be settled. .

The fact is that there are faults in this world for some reason.

In this world, the highest position is the true god, but he is not the true god, so there is only another explanation. In the ancient times, before the true god ruled the world, there must be another ancient world.

At that time, there were all kinds of great gods and all kinds of strange beasts, but for some reason, that world was destroyed.

The Bafang World has restarted a new era, and it has also begun to be ruled by the three true gods in a triangular manner.

“The junior understands, the junior has no other problems.” George Han said.

He smiled lightly: “George Han, you have one more question.”

George Han smiled bitterly: “It seems that this junior is clearly seen by the senior.”

“Since you won this Bureau, according to our betting agreement, you can come and go freely, then, according to the purpose of your coming, I can explain a few questions to you, you want your body to return to the original appearance, just like you are now It’s like this, right?”

George Han nodded irrefutably: “This junior is risking his own death this time, just what he wants to do. As a man, if you can’t protect your family when you are big, and you can’t protect your friends when you are young, how can you stand in Heaven and Earth.”

“The affairs of the world often have their own masters, no matter what, it’s okay to tell you. In this circle, there is one person who can help you restore your body to its original appearance in an instant, and there is even an unexpected joy. .”

“Senior, what are you talking about?”

“There are some things that you can experience by yourself is far more exciting than what others tell you.” He smiled: “However, that person in that place is not within the scope of your commitment. That is to say, according to your bet About, I can keep you free and safe in the circle, but if you go to that place to find that person, your life and death are not in the gambling agreement.”

Hearing this, George Han frowned: “That person “...”

“If I am a Buddha, then he is a demon.” He said softly: “Also, his cultivation is not lower than mine, so...”

Hearing this, George Han couldn’t help but collapse. Take a breath.

If it is the same as the person in front of him, it is almost fatal to George Han.

You can't ask that person to take a gamble with you, can you?

Moreover, different people have different human natures, different methods, and even different exercises. It is almost difficult to add to the current situation.

Looking at George Han's embarrassed appearance, he suddenly smiled softly: "It doesn't have to be like this, isn't it me?"

George Han suddenly raised his head and looked at him in surprise...

Chapter 4120

"Senior..."

He slowly patted George Han on the shoulder: "Everything is determined by itself. Three thousand, this You accept it." As he finished speaking, a small order suddenly appeared in his hand and handed it to George Han.

"When you go to see him, if you are really invincible, you can use your blood to drip into the order. Naturally, God will help. However, this is a top secret between you and me. You need to remember that you must not share with others. Bring it up," he ordered.

George Han nodded: "Junior understands."

"This thing can only be used when you meet with that person." When the words were finished, seeing George Han nod, he didn't say more, and patted Han again. Three thousand, with a move of his hand, the next second, the white light disappeared, and darkness came.

When he opened his eyes again, George Han suddenly realized that this blackness was just the blackness of his own eyes.

All the scenes in the forbidden area reappeared in front of him. Seeing that he had woken up, Amelia Su and Ziqing also quickly surrounded him.

"In the forbidden area, you are free. If you want to move forward, go southeast."

When the three of them raised their eyes again, there was no black air in front of them, and when they looked back, they were surprised to find that those who had been hiding in the dark before were stunned. All things disappeared.

"Three thousand...they...they're gone, you...you won?" Amelia Su was both a little confused and a little overjoyed, and was at a loss for a while.

Zi Qing also felt that all the pressure around her had disappeared, which also meant that George Han really seemed to have completed the victory of the bet.

It's just that it's hard to believe.

George Han smiled slightly, looked at Amelia Su and said: "Fortunately, I didn't lose my life. I managed to win by stealing and cheating."

Hearing George Han's affirmative answer, Amelia Su and Ziqing were immediately excited and excited, Amelia Su even more He threw himself directly into George Han's arms.

Yes, George Han is only a mere "mortal", and the opponent he faces is simply an incomprehensible existence for the two women.

But it was such a close battle, and in the end George Han could rely on himself to win. How could this not be an extremely exciting operation, and how could this not be an amazing skill?

"Three thousand, although I know you are very good, but I didn't expect you to do this, you can win? Can you tell us how you did it?" Amelia Su still couldn't calm down her excited heart, looking at Han eagerly Three thousand.

George Han glanced at Ziqing, who, like Amelia Su, was looking at George Han.

"Don't mention the past." George Han smiled and shook his head at the two women, signaling them not to ask questions.

This is his territory. Since he helped himself and is still a senior, there is no need to repeat the battle.

Although the two women were a little disappointed, they finally nodded and said nothing more.

"By the way, we are going to the southeast." George Han said.

"Why?" Amelia Su asked.

"The good news, the bad news, the good news is that we can go in and out of the forbidden area freely without any danger, and I can be sure that there is someone here who can restore me to my original state. However, The bad news is that if we want to recover, we have to go to the southeast."

"There, there is a person who is as powerful as the man just now. He is different from the man just now. He only kills and has nothing else to talk about."

Amelia Su

understood .

George Han didn't reflect much on this point, because when he came in, George Han had already thought that if there is a square boss in the inner circle, there must be an evil demon king.

Because this is a battlefield!

If there is that person, there must be an opposite person.

This is why, from the very beginning, George Han did not think that he could attract the absolute master here with the Chaos Clock, but only kept talking about one or two people.

"We came here originally to help you heal. Is it dangerous?" Amelia Su smiled reluctantly: "Even if the southeast is the Longtan Tiger Den, we will still go."

Ziqing nodded desperately . .

Seeing that the two women agreed, George Han looked towards the southeast: "Let's go then!"
