

HTC 4191

Chapter 4191

Boom! !

Outside the death zone, Pei Gu and others who had not gone far were also directly overturned to the ground by the huge waves generated by the super explosion.

The poor group of people have been stationed outside for an unknown number of days. After waiting for so long, there has been no movement, but now, it has come so fiercely that the group of people can't stand it.

A group of people with disgraced faces climbed up from the ground in confusion, each with a blank expression.

Pei Gu also got up slowly with the help of several people, and after brushing off the dirt on his body, he looked up at the forbidden area.

"Patriarch, what's the matter? Why is there such a big explosion in the forbidden area of death?"

"Yes, such a large explosion looks extremely terrifying. It is no exaggeration to say that just from the perspective of the explosion, I am afraid that The entire forbidden area of death will be completely wiped out here."

Patriarch, what should we do now? Look at the situation, not to mention the people inside, even half of the creatures inside. We will never see them. It should be more fortunate than fortune."

"Yes, Patriarch, although there are many miraculous things happening in your description of the distinguished guests of Han, the forbidden area of death is extraordinary after all. Entering it, and being able to persevere to this day, is already an experience in itself. Miracle."

"Yeah, Patriarch, why don't we withdraw."

Hearing the words of the subordinates around him, Pei Gu didn't know what to do for a while.

From an emotional point of view, George Han is someone who has invested so much human, financial and material resources by himself. It seems that he will not be willing to give up so rashly.

But from a practical point of view, what your subordinates said is not without reason.

Under such circumstances, An has an egg? !

Continuing to defend here is nothing more than defending in vain

Moreover, according to the records of the family, this place is now broken, so once the monsters hidden in it break out, it will be a very dangerous event for the Pei family.

Thinking of this, Pei Gu sighed and nodded abruptly: "I will send the order immediately, and we will evacuate immediately."

"Yes." The

subordinate obeyed the order and immediately began to arrange.

Moments later, the line was ready and waiting for its order. Finally, taking a deep look at the forbidden area of death, Pei Gu turned his heart and waved his hand: "Go home.

However, before taking a few steps, someone suddenly felt that something was flying above their head, and if they looked again, there was a black body in the sky quickly moving forward.

"What is that?"

"Yes, what is that?" The group of people were a little confused, timid and afraid, but still curious.

Pei Gu didn't care so much, he hurriedly led someone to chase after him.

However, when the group of people trekked through mountains and rivers and ran all the way for nearly half an hour, the shadow finally fell, but the result almost made everyone dumbfounded.

The black light withdrew, and what fell on the ground was neither a monster nor an enemy. It was the two women Amelia Su and Ziqing who followed George Han away.

"Miss Amelia Su, girl Ziqing?" Seeing that they were two people who were very familiar with each other, Pei Gu was quite surprised to lead the group and rushed over.

Seeing Pei Gu, or seeing a living person, and still a familiar living person, Amelia Su and Ziqing's emotions finally got a lot of relief.

"Patriarch Pei." Amelia Su replied softly with a strong fight.

"How come I only see the two of you and three thousand others? By the way, what happened inside? Why did such a huge explosion suddenly occur?" Pei Gu said inexplicably.

The sadness was brought up again, and Amelia Su didn't know how to answer for a while.

Zi Qing paused and stood up: "Not long after we entered, we lost contact with Brother George Han, and he went to the core of the death zone."

"However, we don't know exactly what happened inside. "

Looking at the two women's faces, Pei Gu already knew that something bad might have happened to George Han.

"Then what can we do? I mean... can we go in and help?" Pei Gu asked, unwilling to give up the last ray of hope.

Zi Qing shook her head and was about to speak when suddenly, Amelia Su's pupils suddenly enlarged infinitely. Everyone looked at her in surprise, and they couldn't help but be equally dumb...

Chapter 4192

"Then...what the hell is that?"

"This...this..."

Everyone opened their mouths and said completely Without speaking, they were all completely stunned by the sight in the distance in front of them.

Although, there is still quite a distance from them.

At the farthest end, the dust was attacking and rolling in, but these were not the most terrifying. The most terrifying was the bottom of it, where there were countless black qi rushing wildly.

They are different from the dust above, these black qi are obviously quite pure, and in the black qi, it is even more obvious that there are countless monsters hiding in it, and they come along with the situation.

Where is the rolling yellow sand, there are clearly thousands of demon monsters underneath.

As the head of the Pei family, it is difficult for Pei Gu to be indifferent at this time. Even he is rare to see such a ferocious monster.

"What the hell is going on here, why is there such a demon army in the forbidden area of the Pei clan, the number is so large and we don't know it?"

Although the forbidden area of death is a forbidden area, the Pei family does not know too much about the situation inside , but they can still know some basic information.

It is impossible for such a huge group of monsters to exist in the forbidden area.

However, within the sphere of influence of the Pei family, it is so close to its core, how could there be other monsters invading, and the Pei family does not know? !

A group of people looked at each other, completely unable to understand what was going on.

Suddenly, Pei Gu's eyes widened, and he suddenly understood: "There is no such thing as so many monsters that appear out of thin air. They... they are all beasts around here."

"What? Beasts?"

“The forbidden area exploded, so that the evil energy inside the forbidden area was scattered wildly, and the surrounding things were affected by it. Therefore, they are huge in number, and they are like falling from the sky!” Pei Gu said coldly. And the road.

When everyone heard the words

, their expressions changed, but after thinking about it carefully, what Pei Gu said did make sense.

“Go back to the house.” Pei Gu shouted, pulling Amelia Su and Ziqing and running towards the main city.

The other elites did not dare to neglect and followed suit.

A group of people ran for an unknown time, until the main city appeared in front of them, and then they slowed down.

“Order all the soldiers in the city to prepare for the battle. At the same time, be sure to explain to them and try your best to prevent those black qi from entering the city, so as to prevent those black qi from infecting people in our city.” Pei Gu ordered.

“In addition, those monsters that are infected and enchanted should be handled carefully by the soldiers, and the city should be used as a defense.”

“Yes.”

After instructing his subordinates, Pei Gu took Amelia Su and others into the city.

The group did not stop, and quickly returned to the City Lord’s Mansion. Seeing the return of the Patriarch of the Pei family, almost all of the Pei family were there, and everyone was very excited.

When they came towards the main city, a group of people instantly shut up.

Although the Pei family has a huge power and many soldiers, most of the soldiers are mainly deployed on the edge of the sphere of influence. It is convenient to defend against foreign enemies on time, and it is also conducive to dispatch troops quickly when attacking.

But because of this, the main city sitting and lying in the center of the sphere of influence is relatively affected by the terrain security, and there are not many troops deployed, only a group of elite children of the Pei family.

It’s okay to deal with some ordinary people, but Pei Gu is tens of thousands of monsters, how can this make people feel at ease?

“Patriarch, what should we do?”

“Yes, there are tens of thousands of enemies, and it’s still your conservative estimate. How can we deploy so many troops in the main city for a while?”

The executives of the Pei family complained repeatedly. Already frightened by the outside situation.

“Father, don’t worry, the boy will immediately lead the troops to defend the city and keep my main city safe. If the boy is here, the city will be there.” Pei Hu stood up.

With Pei Hu personally sitting in the line to defend the city, Pei Gu was of course relieved and nodded: “Okay, in order to make it easier for you to defend the city, the soldiers in the city will be dispatched by you for the time being, take orders immediately, and set off immediately.”

Pei Hu nodded and went after orders. .

Seeing that Pei Hu went on the expedition in person, the group of Pei’s senior executives who were scared out of their courage were a little relieved.

After all, there are still many people in this family who still understand Pei’s son’s abilities.

“Young Master Pei Hu is still very powerful, he can withstand the critical moment.”

“Yeah, when the fate of the Pei family depends on him, it is not like some people who invited some gods of plague to come back. We almost ended our old nest.” The group of people finished their words, and collectively set their hatred on the two daughters of Amelia Su and the seventh princess...

Chapter 4193

Seven princesses look ugly, but there are many family executives here, and for a while, they can’t bear it.

“What? Has the seventh princess become taciturn now?”

“Hmph, of course she didn’t dare to say anything. The wolf was brought into the room, and the hype was so hype. What happened?”

” For the so-called Han 3,000, we kicked out the partners of the hundreds of thousands of troops. This is a great loss for us. Moreover, this is nothing. The key is that we have brought back such a person. , but it brought us no benefit, only endless disasters.”

“Hmph, so why, from ancient times to the present, whether a family or a country, most of the responsibilities of stewardship are held by men. This woman is , huh, sometimes there is a lack of rational thinking

“It is said that a woman’s lack of talent is a virtue, but some people, even if they have no talent, do not admit defeat, they want to fight to the death, but take the future and destiny of the whole family. Come and play with her.”

Right now, if something happened, whether it was after the cannon, or venting their anger, most of the people focused the cannon fire directly on Princess Qigong.

The Seventh Princess was very aggrieved, but her rebuttal at this time was very clear, it must be useless and futile.

But some people, or some things, are not destined to be yours to back down, and others too.

On the contrary, the more cowardly you tend to act, the more ferocious the other person’s bullying will be.

Seeing the Seventh Princess, there is nothing to say. Of course, those bastards will not just let her go and let such a good opportunity go.

Hearing this, Pei Gu was slightly startled. He raised his eyes look at the Seventh Princess, and his eyes were a little complicated for a while.

He hadn’t completely lost his expectations for George Han, so he was unlikely to blame the Seventh Princess, and, in the final analysis, she was not alone in this matter, and it was himself who finally decided to choose George Han.

However, seeing the indignation of the crowd, he really couldn’t speak for the Seventh Princess.

With a sigh, he waved his hand, and he could only let his daughter bear the blame for him: “Okay, we are all in the same family, what do you want to explain?”

“Patriarch, you can’t say that. No. The reason is that the seventh princess has the beauty of the day, but it is Pei Gongzi who has to bear the responsibility when something really happens, right?”

“Yes, the seventh princess did not know where to find such a person, and usually acts as a blessing. , asking for too much, and making my son a shame in public, but in the end

? He was the one who brought disaster to our Pei family, but it was the son who really helped our Pei family to die. I think, let alone the son himself, it is our group When others saw it, they also felt worthless and angry for him.” A group of people roared, it seemed that they were really dissatisfied with the son of the Pei family, but in fact they took this opportunity to raise the position of the son of the Pei family. oppress others.

At this point, Pei Gu was also a little embarrassed for a while.

But what can he do now? !

The crowd has already risen, and his desire to force it will only weaken his prestige and exaggerate his **.

“Then everyone, how about Xiao Qi?” At this moment, the seventh princess stood up and looked at everyone coldly.

The group of people were first taken aback by her aura, but soon, they attacked in groups.

“Seventh princess, you are a child of the Pei family, what can we do with you?”

“That’s not it, you are a thousand-dollar body, let alone put the Pei family in danger now, even if you are willful enough to give the lives of all our Pei family in vain, we dare not say a word. Ah.” The group of people said it nicely, but their tone was full of all kinds of ridicule, and many people directly covered their mouths and snickered.

The Seventh Princess was in a hurry, but she really didn't know how to refute it for a while.

After thinking about it for a long time, she paused and said: "The accident in the forbidden land may not be the trouble caused by George Han. You can say it so badly now, and you are not afraid of what happens. We need George Han to come. Help us?"

"At that time, who said what you said today, will you still have the face to ask for his help?"

Everyone was stunned when these words came out, but in the next second, there was a commotion all around Laugh...

Chapter 4194

the Seventh Princess just say?

Yan, everyone laughed, and even Pei Gu turned his face away at this time.

He didn't expect George Han to be of any help. He only hoped that George Han would come back safely and not let his investment be completely messed up. He was already thankful.

At least, people are back, no matter whether he has become stronger or not, this is at least a hidden investment!

"Seventh princess, are you afraid that you are dreaming? Or is it that you often stay in the boudoir, seventh princess, and don't know much about common sense?"

"The Patriarch has already said that the explosion of the forbidden area of death is huge and powerful, not only Just razing the forbidden area of death directly to the ground, and even the wind generated by it has been blowing all the way to our main city, so powerful, the seventh princess actually thinks that someone can come out alive? This idea is naive even if it is I don't know what to say."

"Everyone, it doesn't matter, anyway, today, everyone is from their own family, and they won't be laughed at by others. Everyone, just have fun.

" When it fell, everyone laughed again, and the meaning of ridicule should not be too full.

"Okay, Seventh Princess, this is the end of these jokes. Although my Pei family is in a dangerous situation now, it is not without troops deployed around. As long as Young Master Pei can persist for three days, our reinforcements will be able to solve my main city. Therefore, we can solve this problem by ourselves without the help of outsiders."

"As for this

Second, it's also very simple. The Pei family has already faced such danger because of your last choice. It's fine that we don't hold you accountable, but you can't repent and harm us again and again, right?

Are you going to take our fate and bet on a Korean three thousand? What if he doesn't come back? what should we do? "

"Are we waiting to die?" " When the words fell, everyone nodded, and Pei Gu nodded slowly.

Although their tone was not good and had a strong sarcasm, the meaning of the words was full of truth. The Seventh Princess answered and said Said: "My father has asked Pei Gongzi to guard the city wall, and I have never said that you should wait to die. However, since I've already said this, I don't have anything to say. I just hope you don't ask George Han for the best in the future. When the words were over, she looked at Amelia Su and Ziqing, and was about to leave with the two daughters.

"Hold on. "One person stopped the three daughters who were leaving in time.

The seventh princess looked back, a little puzzled and a little dissatisfied.

The man asked coldly, "Seventh princess, where are you going?" "

"Go back to the palace to rest, what, can't you?" "The Seventh Princess replied.

"Of course the Seventh Princess can go to rest, but what my subordinates want to ask is, where are these two going to rest?" When the words fell, he cleared his throat: "Sifeng Pavilion was established at the beginning of the establishment of the East Palace, and apart from the Patriarch and Young Master, other people are probably not qualified to live in it. Seventh princess, do you understand? "

Hearing this, the Seventh Princess became very angry, doesn't this mean that Su

Amelia Su and Ziqing are to be driven out of the Qifeng Pavilion?

"Don't be too deceiving! "The Seventh Princess drank in a cold voice.

It's a small matter to bring it out, but the loss of face and dignity is a big deal.

Amelia Su hurriedly stopped the Seventh Princess, smiled at the man, and said, "Okay, we can move out of Qifeng Pavilion."

Ziqing was a little anxious, and she didn't slap people in the face.

However, Amelia Su gently pressed the impulsive Ziqing in her hand and shook her head slightly at her.

Amelia Su agreed, but the man didn't have any good expression on his face. He snorted coldly and said with a smile: "This man, the most fearful thing is that he doesn't know what to do, but fortunately, some people have a good idea.

" People clapped and clapped, and a middle-aged man slowly walked up to him...

Chapter 4195

The man bowed his head slightly and did not speak.

“By the way, let me introduce, this is the etiquette officer of my Pei family.” The man finished speaking, looked at the etiquette officer, smiled coldly, and said, “These two ladies are the guests of my Pei family, you As the etiquette officer of the Pei family, should you arrange accommodation for the guests?”

“Naturally.” The etiquette officer bowed his head and said politely.

The man smiled lightly: “Then what are you still doing? Why don’t you take the two guests to the guest room to rest?” The etiquette officer nodded, walked a few steps to Amelia Su and Ziqing, and made a slight gesture of invitation.

Zi Qing was angry, and when he saw the man’s face, he knew that he was not at ease.

The Seventh Princess naturally knew this, and she hurriedly looked at Pei Gu.

But Pei Gu was really helpless at this time, and shook his head at her, motioning her to stop worrying.

it is really lord, but the matter of George Han has already caused the group to be angry. somethin.

So, instead of this, it’s better to ignore the last thing, at least get your own security.

Amelia Su smiled lightly, not taking this to heart at all: “Then there will be the Lao etiquette officer to lead the way.” The etiquette officer nodded, led the two girls, and slowly walked towards the guest room.

Seeing the two girls leave, Princess Qi finally couldn’t bear it any longer, and hurried to Pei Gu’s side: “Father, you...

” That’s it for now, don’t cause more trouble.”

“But...” The Seventh Princess wanted to say something.

However, Pei Gu had already waved his hand and sighed: “The most important thing at the moment is not discussing other things, but the safety of the main city.” When the words were finished, Pei Gu waved his hand and signaled everyone to go ahead.

The seventh princess was helpless and could only retreat from the court together with everyone, but although they were together, their expressions were different.

The group of people was obviously very proud, and the Seventh Princess was almost lost.

When they approached the entrance of the hall, the group of people looked at the Seventh Princess, and sneered obviously, and then they walked away.

The Seventh Princess frowned, wondering what the purpose of his sneer was. However, the other party had already left, and she didn't think too much about it. With a sigh, she walked towards her residence.

At this time, the two women Amelia Su were on the other end.

Following the etiquette officer, they passed through several halls all the way to the guest room of the City Lord's Mansion.

Although the size and luxury of the guest rooms here cannot be compared with the Xifeng Pavilion, they are still clean and elegant. It was somewhat uncomfortable to be kicked out of Xifeng Pavilion, but at least the guest room gave him some comfort.

It's not too bad to live here.

But what the two women really didn't expect was that the etiquette officer took them to the guest room and didn't stop at the guest room, but just passed by lightly and walked towards a deeper place.

Zi Qing couldn't help it, she couldn't help asking: "Official Ritual, wasn't that the guest room just now? Why didn't we stop and go inside?"

"Oh, two guests, this is the main guest room. , is not the place where the two live. The place where the two live is still inside."

Hearing the words of the official, Ziqing was a little puzzled.

Isn't the main room just for guests? What is not where they live? !

Could it be that there is a secondary room in there? !

Ziqing wanted to speak, but Amelia Su, who was on the side, shook her head, signaling her not to say more.

Amelia Su has seen the attitude of the Pei family. George Han's whereabouts are unknown now. Naturally, the Pei family's face is not good-looking. At this time, Amelia Su is really not in the mood to cause any trouble, and she does not want to talk to her. Others argue about this.

This will be a good thing for Pei Gu, and it will also be clean for himself.

In this way, the three continued to walk towards the courtyard.

The back of the host and the guest is obviously a bit off-angle, the house is low, and at first glance, the servants live.

"Do we live here?" Zi Qing asked, which was somewhat bullying.

"Oh, that's not it." The etiquette officer shook his head with a smile.

At least Ziqing has a lot of peace of mind, as long as it's not a place like this, it's fine. After all, this low-class room is really not a problem to live in, but it is too humiliating.

After walking in for a while, the three finally stopped...

Chapter 4196

This stop, not only Ziqing is completely dumbfounded, but Amelia Su is also full of suspicion.

After passing through the room that looked like a servant, the three of them entered an alley, and at the corner at the end of the alley, the three of them stopped, and there was only a bare short house in front of them.

It is said that it is a house because it has three walls and a roof, which barely has the foundation that a house should have.

But apart from this, there is only one more involved and related to it, the pigpen.

The fences, the dirty interior, and even the bad smell. The height of the house is less than one meter five and the width is less than two meters. If you call it a pigsty, there is really nothing wrong with it.

“You two, this is your next resting place.” The etiquette officer said softly.

“You let us live here?” Zi Qing frowned and said anxiously.

The etiquette officer smiled lightly: “The conditions are a bit crude, but don’t worry, you two, I will send someone a quilt and a mattress later. Although the place is small, it has all the internal organs.” After the words were finished, the etiquette officer bowed his body . about to leave.

No matter Ziqing or Amelia Su, the two women are actually good-natured, but in the face of all kinds of things, Ziqing couldn’t bear it any longer, grabbed the etiquette officer’s clothes and lifted him up in the air.

“You repeat what you just said, you let us live here?”

Although the etiquette officer of the Pei family is much taller than Ziqing, in front of his absolute strength, he is still like a chicken. Love single-handedly.

He broke free in a panic, but found that although Ziqing was a woman, he was holding his hand and did not move at all.

He was in a hurry now: “Girl, please let go, please let go.”

“Let go of what? I’m afraid even your own servants are you? Clearly It’s looking for a fault.” Zi Qing shouted.

“Girl, the little one is also doing things as instructed. This guest will live with the host and guest, and the next guest will live with the servant. This...this...”

“Why?” Zi Qing said.

“You are both guilty guests, so naturally you can only... live... in this pigsty.”

“Let your mother live there.” Ziqing couldn’t hold back her anger, even she really couldn’t stand it. Insulting, with a lift in his hand, he threw the etiquette officer directly into the pigsty.

With a bang, the man smashed the fence and rolled into the pigsty.

Ziqing didn't feel relieved, and when she was about to start, she was stopped by Amelia Su: "Someone arranged for us to live here, even if you kill him, it is useless, he is only a mere official, how can it be?"

"Someone specially warned, otherwise, who would have the courage to arrange here.

Of course Pei Gu is unlikely, but those gangsters are obviously the ones hiding behind.

"Yes, yes, or this girl is Bingxue smart, I... I just follow orders." The etiquette officer got up from the ground in fear, and then wanted to run out while the two girls were not paying attention.

Zi Qing didn't mean to beat him at all. Seeing that he was leaving, she just raised her legs on purpose to scare him.

But just like this, a few of them were still frightened and staggered, rolling and crawling before leaving.

"Sister Amelia Su, do we really want to live here?" Zi Qing raised her eyes and looked at the sky. She didn't know if it was God's intention, or because of the dark winds that were blowing. The sky was dark and it was about to rain. to.

If you can't find another place to shelter from the rain in time, then this place will really be the only habitat for the two of them.

Amelia Su thought for a while, then nodded: "Stay, why not? Since others have arranged for us to live here, if we don't stay here, wouldn't it be a loss to others?"

Amelia Su made a move to go inside. go.

Ziqing hurriedly held her back: "But Sister Amelia Su, it's smelly and dirty in here..."

Amelia Su smiled lightly: "It's hard to eat, Fang Wei is the best. To cause some trouble, if he comes back and we live in a place like this, will he also seek justice for us?"

"Didn't the Seventh Princess say that? They are like this now. When they need our family's three thousand, look at it. What should they do?"

Having said that, Amelia Su walked directly into the so-called "pig pen".

Ziqing also bent over and walked in, grinning her teeth, and asked carefully: "But, Sister Amelia Su, do you really believe that Brother George Han can come back?"

Chapter 4197

Amelia Su smiled bitterly, but in the end she gritted her teeth and nodded: "Why don't you believe it? "

Zi Qing hesitated for a moment, and then nodded: "Sister Amelia Su said yes, then it must be. My sister is right. Today, he let us sleep in the pigsty. When my three thousand brothers come back in the future, they will be eight." It is definitely a dream that the NPC sedan chair wants to carry us." The two women seemed to be unconvinced, but behind the dissatisfaction, there was also sadness and helplessness.

Perhaps, they also regard this as the only reason and excuse for their insistence.

Amelia Su simply cleaned up the pigsty. Although it was dirty and smelly, it was where they would live anyway.

Later, in the hands of the servants sent by the etiquette officer, the two women took over their own bedding.

Maybe it was because he was beaten up, and the etiquette officer felt very guilty. Maybe it was because he was also a little scared by the so-called "return of George Han". Although the bedding sent by someone was not new, it was at least clean. .

After throwing the mattress, the two women sat down lightly.

Unable to lie down, the angle in the room was not enough to spread the long legs of the two women, they could only sit curled up, showing loneliness and helplessness.

"Woo!!!"

Almost at the same time, the outer city walls rang loudly.

The yellow sand filled the sky, and the black air rushed in.

When the people of the Pei family reluctantly opened their eyes from the yellow sand, they took a closer look and saw that what was left in the wind was actually tens of thousands of black beasts.

Compared with their previous appearances, they were extremely ferocious at this time, with long fangs and bloody eyes. They saw the dog who had been hungry for many years and saw food. They frantically followed the city wall and tried to climb up, and those who couldn't climb up tried to hit the city wall frantically.

Even a few meters thick city wall, in front of this group of almost mad black beasts, is hard to show its hardness, and they tremble and drop bricks in the constant impact.

Pei Hu stood at the head of the city wall, overlooking the tens of thousands of beasts in the city indifferently, with a serious face, raised his hand, raised his hand slightly, and shouted coldly: "All soldiers."

"Drink!" Ten thousand people drank.

"Resist the enemy, defend the family and the country, kill me!" Pei Hu shouted angrily, and waved his raised hand suddenly.

"Boom!!!" Ten

thousand drums sounded in unison.

“Kill!”

Wan Jun shouted in unison!

In the next second, on the city wall, long arrows are fired, boulders are vented, and magic can be blasted!

Bang bang bang!

There were loud noises outside the city, and countless black beasts were quickly killed in the attack, but there were also many monsters who were completely angered by this. .

For a time, the war entered a hot state.

There is this war outside the city. For the people in the main city who have not seen war for a long time, this is indeed a little panic and depressing, but in fact, most of them can always maintain a certain sense of reason and calm.

Taking ten thousand steps back, this is the main city after all. Although there are not too many troops, the elites of the Pei family are all there, which is surprising and not dangerous.

Besides, they have also heard that it is the son of the Pei family who is supervising the battle this time, so there is absolutely no problem for them in this battle.

Night has come, and the war has not stopped, but everyone’s life is not affected at all, how to live is still how to live.

However, the mansion in the city is a little different today.

In the mansion

, there is no tension and depression like earlier today. There is no other reason. After several hours of resistance, although the elites of the Pei family suffered casualties, the general trend is still under control.

To put it simply, after this battle, the Pei family army led by Pei Hu had a slight victory.

After several hours of fierce fighting, the battle outside the city temporarily came to a standstill. Naturally, under the protection of his subordinates, Pei Hu, the “first merit”, returned to the city to rest temporarily.

The  people deliberately prepared a dinner party, euphemistically, it was to give Pei Hu something to eat and to supplement some physical strength, but in fact, they took this opportunity to show off in the mansion.

This is a rare opportunity to tell everyone in the Pei family who is the future of the Pei family.

After drinking and eating, Pei Hu and the others did not leave, but instead headed towards the “pig sty” where the two women were surrounded by others...

Chapter 4198

group of people is very loud and laughs constantly. In the pigsty, Amelia Su and Ziqing themselves are not well rested. Especially today Tiangong doesn't seem to be beautiful, and there is still a lot of rain at this time.

I don't know if it was a coincidence, or it was caused by the Kuangsha hurricane.

Hearing the sound, both women woke up.

Looking back at the house, he saw that Pei Hu and his party had slowly walked towards this side.

Ziqing got up subconsciously and wanted to stand in front of Amelia Su, but Amelia Su shook her head and stood up by herself, instead protecting Ziqing behind her.

The group stopped in front of the two women. Although they kept a distance, the smiles on their faces showed no sign of respect at all.

"Young Master Pei, it's getting late, is there something wrong?" Amelia Su asked coldly.

Pei Hu didn't answer directly, glanced at the pigsty behind the two women, and shook his head with tsk tsk: "Two beautiful women, just live in this kind of place?"

There was pity and helplessness on his face, But there are more sneers too.

One of the subordinates: "Hey, son, how much this person eats, how much he uses, how much he wears, that's all destiny. According to the rules of our Pei family, these two guests can only live in this kind of place. Now ."

"This place is pretty good, if you have nothing else to do, you can invite them back." Amelia Su was not in the mood to listen to their nonsense here, and coldly chased away guests.

"What are you talking about? My son Kong has a heart of fraternity, seeing this heavy rain coming, I'm worried that the two of you living in a place like this won't be able to cover the rain, so you brought me here to check it out. Is this your attitude? Another subordinate immediately came out and shouted coldly.

Amelia Su smiled coldly and chatted lazily. Weasel paid New Year's greetings to the chicken. It was a strange thing.

Pei Hu smiled and walked a few steps to the pigpen house. Then, with a move of his hand, a beam of energy gently lifted the roof tiles, shook his head, and glanced at the rain falling from the sky: "Can bricks and tiles of this quality withstand the toss of heavy rain?" When the words fell, he used a dark energy in his hand, and with a bang, the tiles suddenly shattered on the spot.

Zi Qing was in a hurry, this place was already simple enough, and if the tiles were to be destroyed at this time, So tonight there is no shelter from the rain, so how can you live here?!

However, just when Zi Qing was about to break out, Amelia Su hurriedly pulled her back, and Pei Hu also groaned, as if surprised: "Look, This... is this also called Wah? How can you just touch it and disappear?"

Looking at Pei Hu's realistic acting skills, and the two women were obviously a little angry but didn't dare to say anything, everyone laughed.

Amelia Su frowned and suppressed her anger: "It's getting late, Mr. Pei, please come back." , we're going to rest. Pei Hu nodded: "

I want to go too, but as you can see, the bricks and tiles are like tofu, and they break when touched. It's easy to say that it's not raining now. If the rain is heavy, I will I'm afraid that at that time, not only the tile will be broken, but also the house will collapse. "

It's not a small thing in this house, but if you want to hurt the two girls, it's a big thing." Pei Hu finished his words with a look of heartache.

At this time, someone finally took the opportunity to speak: "This man is afraid of being on the wrong team, and the woman is afraid of following the wrong man. Some people seem to be quite good, but in fact they are just bragging and showing off. They may be very beautiful before they are exposed, but once the lies are shattered, the end will be miserable, such as..."

The voice was referring to George Han, who was followed by the two women, and his current fate.

Amelia Su smiled coldly, looked at the man, and said, "Then what do you mean?"

Seeing Amelia Su said, the man smiled, took a few steps in front of Amelia Su, and opened his mouth.

Chapter 4199

He pointed to Pei Hu not far away and said with a smile: "My son Pei."

"He is not ordinary, other people's mouths No matter how powerful you are, it may be hard to tell whether it is true or false, or it may be all bragging, but my son is different, he is really awesome."

"There are also quite a few children in the Pei family, and among them, they can be regarded as one of the crown princes. If you are a human being, you must be the dragon and the phoenix among the people. If my son can get this position, the two girls should also know that the son is different."

"Actually, I don't hide the two girls. Brighten your eyes a little bit, how can you live in such a place? It must be the supreme phoenix in Qifeng Pavilion, the most beautiful in the world, and the mother's beauty is innumerable."

Amelia Su couldn't help but smile: "I understand. Now, what do you mean, let's give up George Han and follow the son of the Pei family?"

This voice is not loud, but it is definitely not small, many people can hear it clearly, and some things are said, In fact, it seems a little inappropriate.

However, this inappropriateness was only for a moment, and soon, everyone was laughing again.

The man even said: "Miss Bingxue is smart."

Amelia Su smiled coldly: "Actually, this kind of transaction is not a bad thing."

When this remark came out, many people were slightly surprised, but also full of satisfaction, but Amelia Su spoke the truth. After turning around, he suddenly said, "It's just that many times people have to pee and take care of themselves to see if they are worthy or not." People, even if they eat the delicacies of the mountains and the sea, there is always a feeling of nausea in the throat, let alone eating, it is too late to vomit."

As soon as the words fell, Pei Hu's face changed obviously, and the smiles of his surrounding subordinates froze for a while, turning their laughter into anger, pointing at Amelia Su, and shouting angrily

: "What the hell did you just say?"

" Say what you just said again."

Pointing in anger, Fang Buddha wanted to swallow the two girls on the spot.

Amelia Su was not polite at all, she moved her hand and drew her sword on the spot!

Both sides *, it seems that conflict will break out at any time.

"Enough." Pei Hu raised his hand and stopped drinking in time.

No matter how they play, everything has to have a degree. Even if Amelia Su and Ziqing cannot have the previous treatment because of George Han's current situation, no matter what they say, they are still the nominal guests of Pei's house.

If this is a knife and gun, if it spreads out, it will be his Pei family who is embarrassed, and his Pei family who is rude.

Therefore, when necessary, Pei Hu must prevent the situation from spreading.

However, big moves are impossible, but small moves are not impossible.

He walked in front of Amelia Su with a few steps, and pushed his subordinates away with a palm: "A mere waste servant, do you have the right to speak here?"

"Whether it's a pig dog shed or a pig sty, that's the Pei family. My guest, understand?" The subordinate lowered his head, nodded, and took a step back: "The subordinate understands. The subordinate is just feeling worthless for the son."

"What's not worth it? Now, if everyone's brains are smart enough, people in this world will not be divided into three, six, nine, etc. You need to understand this truth and relax your mentality."

These remarks seem to be educating subordinates . , but anyone with a little brains knows that this is actually insinuating that Amelia Su and the others are not enough.

Amelia Su is also lazy to argue these words, as long as she doesn't cross the line, she doesn't want to cause more trouble, so she said: "Mr. Pei, everyone has their own fate, and it rains in the middle of the night. We are really not interested in listening to your lessons. Are you? Go by yourself, or I'll let Ziqing send you off."

Pei Hu sneered and ordered to evict guests again!

"Okay, since Miss Su has driven us twice, if we don't leave, I'm afraid we will have more discomfort. However, you are always the guests of the Pei family." After the words were finished, Pei Hu looked at his subordinates: "Just now, I accidentally shattered the tiles on the roof of the two guests. The rain will only get heavier this evening. To prevent the guests from getting sick from the rain, listen carefully. After we leave, put the two The roof of the guests is well repaired, if there is a slight error, I will ask you about your heads." After the words were finished, Pei Hu sneered and bowed to the two women Amelia Su, then turned around and left.

Although Amelia Su couldn't see it, he could guess that when Pei Hu turned back, his face would be completely different.

Sure enough, the seven or eight subordinates who were left to repair the roof had a different cold light in their eyes

Chapter 4200

Although Ziqing is relatively simple, it is not that you cannot understand the problem at this time, and you have to say something to stop it in a hurry: "We do not What kind of roof do you need to repair, you can go back."

These people are not at all uneasy and kind, and if they say it nicely, it means repairing, but if they say it badly, it is simply sabotage.

However, Amelia Su knew very well that they couldn't stop them.

Sure enough, after hearing Ziqing's words, those subordinates seemed to be respectful in their actions, but their faces were full of smiles: "Girl, this matter was ordered by Young Master Pei, we must do it."

"Yeah, there's an order from the house. If I wait for my head to fall to the ground, I have to pick it up and continue working." Ziqing wanted to say something, but Amelia Su stopped her: "Let them fix it, it doesn't matter."

, Amelia Su pulled Ziqing out of the way.

Several of the subordinates didn't dare to be slighted at all, and rushed towards the house in the rain.

“These people don’t seem to be repairing the roof, they are simply here to destroy it. You can see whoever repairs the roof will do it without even bringing some tiles.” Ziqing said to Amelia Su aggrievedly.

“What’s the point, silly girl, we don’t let them do it in the open, they will always do it in the dark, instead of that, it’s better to let them have a good time, and when they’re done, at least we can rest well, right?” Amelia Su said.

It’s easy to hide with open guns, and hard to defend against dark arrows, so they have done damage, at least no one will come to play yin in the future.

Zi Qing is very helpless. After this tossing is over, it can no longer sleep.

Sure enough, as these people repaired more and more frequently, the sound of broken tiles began to become more and more frequent, and the broken house that was only slightly leaking because of the broken tiles had completely lost its rain protection at this time. Function.

There is almost no difference between with and without tiles.

And the group of people are still continuing to repair in an orderly manner at this time, it seems that they will not stop until this place is collapsed.

Ziqing couldn’t stand it anymore, so she rushed up and said, “Stop.”

Amelia Su didn’t dissuade Ziqing this time, because she knew very well that this group of people was just waiting for someone to stop them, otherwise, they would keep going This conscientious appearance will make the house worse.

Several subordinates were still pretending, and one of them said with a look of grievance: “What’s the matter, girl?”

“Are you building houses?”

“Yeah!” He said with a puzzled look, then looked back. After reviewing his masterpiece, he smiled and said, “I’m sorry, girl, it’s raining too much, blurry vision , and some can’t see clearly. So, some tiles are not very good.”

“But don’t worry, girl . , we are much more proficient now, and we are also used to the light in this rain, so there will be absolutely no problem.”

Although the words sounded nice, but seeing their hypocritical faces, Ziqing is very clear, and the more repairs go on, the house will only be will get worse.

“Okay, you don’t need to cultivate here, you can leave.” Amelia Su got up and stepped forward, said coldly.

When the man heard it, he was stunned: “Girl, you won’t let us repair it?”

“Isn’t that what you want?” Amelia Su snorted coldly.

The man clearly showed a wicked smile on the corner of his mouth, but he quickly returned to his innocent look: "I don't quite understand what the girl said. If repaired, then

This night..."

"It doesn't matter if the rain is heavy or the house collapses, since I told you not to rest, as for the consequences, I will naturally bear it all, is that enough?" Amelia Su said in a cold voice.

Hearing this, the man nodded with satisfaction, and then added: "It rained heavily this night, I'm afraid the two girls will catch a cold, right?" If the Patriarch asks this tomorrow, it will be difficult to explain. I think we should continue to cultivate. "

Amelia Su smiled coldly, and she knew that would be the case. If she didn't say it herself, this group of people would definitely go to repair when the rain stopped. At that time, not only would they have to get wet in the rain, but they also had to listen to these people's wordy words. Looking at these people's eyes is annoying.

Thinking of this, Amelia Su said coldly: "I didn't cover the quilt myself, is this okay? "

Several people heard the words, hehe smiled, and then obediently retreated, and at this time the two women looked at the house, and the house was already...
